Early Learning Center Students at St. John Learn How to Care for All of God's Creation

*A*s Catholics, we are especially called to care for creation, and we have our own St. Francis of Assisi as a Catholic environmental role model.

Each and every day our students here at St. John's Early Learning Center pray, thank God and learn to care for His creation, including the poor, the vulnerable and one another. During Earth Week we incorporated all subject areas as we took it one step further. To begin with we learned about the shape of the Earth and that it consists of more water than land by painting and creating Earth Day hats that proclaimed "I love the Earth that God made!" We listened to many stories about the Earth and its creatures, molded Rice Krispie Earth treats for cooking and snack time and recycled glass jars by turning them into beautiful tissue collage vases for our Moms for Mother's Day.

Later in the day the students gathered outside Mrs. Dantonio's classroom to plant a tree and take a "litter pick-up" walk. Of course, we had to sing our new song while we picked up trash.... "Litter is garbage that wasn't thrown away in the garbage can. I'm not going to be a litter bug!" Last, but not least, we counted how many items we collected for the garbage can. Luckily, there were not too many on our beautiful campus!

Science, Social Studies, Art, Cooking, Physical Activity, Music and Movement, Math, Language Arts – Earth Day is just one example of how we integrate all subject areas into theme-related teaching that is developmentally appropriate and interesting to our young learners.

I see trees of green, red roses too...and I think to myself what a wonderful world!

Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:00 p.m. mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. ## Joseph Cardinal Bernaden and Centering Prayer

Joseph Cardinal Bernaden served the people of Chicago, IL, from 1982 to 1996. In his autobiography he wrote: "About seven years ago I came to understand that the pace of my life and the direction of my activity were unfocused in a significant way. This created a certain unrest in me. I came to realize that I needed to make some changes in my life, and chief among these was a renewal of personal prayer.

Mention of prayer may evoke an image of 'saying prayers' or reciting formulas.

I mean something quite different. When we speak of the renewal of prayer in our lives, we are speaking of reconnecting ourselves with the larger mystery of life and of our common existence. This implies becoming disciplined in the use of our time, in the use of Centering Prayer and in the development of a contemplative stance toward life.

When this happens, we begin to experience healing, integration, wholeness, peacefulness.

We begin to hear more clearly the echoes of the Word in our lives, in our own hearts. As that Word takes root in the depths of our being, it begins to grow and transform the way we live. It affects our relationships with people around us and above all our relationship with the Lord. From this rootedness flow our energies, our ministry, our ways of loving. From this core we can proclaim the Lord Jesus and his Gospel not only with faith and conviction, but also with love and compassion."

SCOTT'S CORNER

Wow, what a weekend! If you were fortunate enough to attend Mass this past Saturday evening for the Vigil and Sunday for the Easter celebration, you were most likely as amazed as me at the massive crowds that turned out to recognize the Resurrection of our Lord. Beginning at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday and not ending until approximately 6:15 on Easter Sunday, St. John the Evangelist was the place to be. At the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. Masses, both the church and PLC overflow Masses were standing room only. Fr. Len commented that we could have used an overflow Mass for the overflow Mass. Even though numerous seasonal residents and visitors have departed, the crowds were some of the largest I have seen in my fourteen years at St. John's. I would estimate that as many as 10,000 attended Mass over the weekend. Hopefully, we will see many of the aforementioned attendees again before Christmas. It was truly wonderful having you all here with us to celebrate Easter Mass.

Once again I must hand it to the Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee for their work in making the Church and PLC absolutely beautiful for Easter Masses. We truly have some incredibly talented and creative parishioners that give selflessly of their time and talent in order to make St. John the Evangelist the best that it can be.

The Men's Club did an amazing job hosting the annual Easter Egg hunt on Holy Saturday. Over 300 children, parents and grandparents attended what was an organizational masterpiece. The children made quick work of collecting the 2,000 eggs hidden very conspicuously. They then convened in the ballroom to sort through their loot and have a pizza party. Thank you to the Men's Club and all of the volunteers that contributed to make this event a tremendous success.

What do you think of the beautiful new Pascal Candle stand and accompanying smaller stands on either side of the Tabernacle? The Pascal Candle stand was purchased by a parishioner in loving memory of her husband. The smaller candle stands were purchased by a parishioner and the other by the Men's Club. There are two candlesticks remaining if anyone wishes to follow suit. The price for a smaller candle stand is $1,900.00. There is one bench remaining in the Memorial Garden and four remaining in front of the church.

The price for a bench is $3,000.00. If you are interested in a candle stick or bench, please contact me at 566.1678.

Nothing ever goes completely as planned. As I alluded to last week, the new fountain in the memorial garden was indeed installed prior to Easter. Unfortunately, there was a leak in the holding tank and it was not operational for all to see the fountain in its true beauty. We are working with Mark Stahlman to repair the leak and have our fountain completely functional for this weekend.

After a somewhat lengthy delay, our new online donations capability is back up and running and much better than ever before. We have contracted with Pledge Connect as our vendor to manage your credit card and automatic bank drafts. This is the same vendor used by the Diocese of Venice for your CFA credit card donations. The process is incredibly user-friendly and there is no need to create an account. You will need your envelope number. Go to our website at www.saintjohntheevangelist.com and choose the "welcome" tab and then scroll down to "ways to give." At the bottom of this page, click "here" to make your donation. Hopefully, by this weekend we will have a donations tab on the home page. You may now donate at a desired frequency or make a one time gift. Thank you for your patience and enjoy this new online giving system. Rest assured that the site is encrypted and very secure.

As promised, please see the attached aerial view of the parking lot with the new traffic pattern. This new "flow" should alleviate many of the inconveniences you have experienced in the past. We have contracted with Bonness, Inc. to re-stripe and repair the parking lot. Many of the asphalt areas that have deteriorated over the years will be reinforced and paved. We are optimistic that work on the parking lot will begin in late May.

We are thrilled to announce the ordination of our very own Michal Szyska on May 21 at Epiphany Cathedral in Venice. We are contemplating bussing parishioners up to the ceremony on Saturday. Once we have pricing available, a bulletin insert will appear with a sign up sheet. Michal will celebrate his first Mass on Sunday, May 22 at 11:15 a.m. Following Mass, there will be a reception to honor Michal in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center. The reception is open to everyone that wishes to attend at no cost. Hors d'oeuvres (some with a Polish flare) will be served as well as a full bar. Please come out to support Michal as he enters the priesthood.

If you have requested tuition assistance for St. Ann, St. Elizabeth Seton or St. John Neumann and claim St. John (See Scott's Corner, page 7)

Collection Summary

the Evangelist as your parish of residence, please pay close attention to the following information. All families are required to first complete the FACTS financial survey online. In order to receive financial assistance from the parish of residence, families must be registered in that parish, attend Mass on a regular basis, financially support the parish using church envelopes and participate in the life of the parish. In some cases, the subsidy requested is substantial. The finance council will review the aforementioned criteria to ensure that the family requesting assistance is in compliance.

Do you enjoy the new statues of Mary and St. John the Evangelist? Are you mesmerized looking at the beautiful crucifix while sitting in Mass? You can now have all three of these beautiful pieces in miniature form (11" x 5" x 5") for your home or office. Our sculptor, Timothy Schmalz, is creating miniature replicas of all three pieces which we will offer for sale at $35 each. There are very limited quantities (200) of each piece. If you would like to pre-order yours, please make your check payable to St. John the Evangelist with your sculpture(s) of choice in the memo line. You may drop your check in the collection basket or bring it to the front office. If the memo line isn't sufficient space, attach detailed information and place in an envelope. We expect delivery in mid to late September. We will notify you when the sculptures arrive.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

Celebration of Mass and Sacrament of the Anointing
Sunday, May 15 • 3:00 p.m.

What are the reasons for the communal anointing of the sick?

1. Christ, His Apostles and the Church used sacred anointing as a healing sign for body-soul and mental-physical ailments.
2. This sacred anointing is a sacrament which was instituted by Christ to strengthen sick people to live good lives and to bear patiently the cross of pain.
3. The Sacrament of Anointing should be given in time of need and not only at the time of imminent death.

Who may be anointed?

Anyone who has a serious health condition is eligible to receive the sacrament.

What must one do to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing?

Fill out the registration below and return it to the parish office or drop in the collection basket before Thursday, May 12. Kindly encourage those who are eligible to receive the Sacrament to join us in the Spirit of prayer and hope in God's healing power.

Adult Faith Enrichment Sack Lunch Series Presents:

Who is the Holy Spirit?

Matt Loboda returns to the Sack Lunch Series with the Holy Spirit! It is a great time to deepen our understanding and increase our devotion to the Holy Spirit. It is a great opportunity during this lenten season to prepare our hearts for the one promised by Jesus.

For a long time the Holy Spirit, has been given a meager amount of attention and devotion. Who is this third person of the Trinity? Some have even proposed the Holy Spirit as the unknown or forgotten God. However, the Second Vatican Council has focused the attention of the Church on the Advocate and as a result of this focus there has been an increased greater understanding of the Third Person of the Trinity.

Ultimately, our goal is to have a personal encounter with the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God, the Living God. Please join us for these spirit filled presentations.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed at 7:15 a.m. Monday - Friday before the 8 a.m. Mass at our church.

This chaplet was given by Jesus to St. Faustina (1905-38) particularly for the dying, but He also told her to pray it continually. He also asked her to make an image of Him, with the signature, "Jesus I trust in you" at the bottom, which you may have seen.

Belief in all these things, although not required, is approved by the Church. But many Catholics do pray the chaplet, often daily, particularly in the 3 o'clock hour, for which Jesus gave special requests and promises.

Pope John Paul II had a special connection to the Divine Mercy and St. Faustina, and he declared Divine Mercy Sunday (also asked of Faustina by Jesus) when he canonized her in 2000. In 2005, John Paul II died on the vigil of Divine Mercy (the Sunday after Easter) and will be declared Blessed on Divine Mercy Sunday this year (May 1).

Verse 1

When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart

Pre-chorus

I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...

Chorus

I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about you, all about you Jesus.

Verse 2

King of endless worth, no one could express How much you deserve; Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Verse 3

And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me; Take me as I am,
call me to the Feast, say the word, I'm healed—

Verse 1

When he rolls up his sleeves, he ain't just puttin' on the ritz
Our God is an awesome God!
There is thunder in his footsteps and lightning in his fists
Our God is an awesome God!
And the Lord wasn't joking when he kicked 'em out of Eden
It wasn't for no reason that he shed his blood
His return is very close and so you'd better be believin'
That our God is an awesome God!

Verse 2

When the sky was starless in the void of the night
Our God is an awesome God!
He spoke into the darkness and created the light
Our God is an awesome God!
Judgment and wrath he poured out on Sodom;
Mercy and grace he gave us at the Cross
I hope that we have not too quickly forgotten
That our God is an awesome God!

THE MUSIC PAGE

Hymns for Divine Mercy Sunday, the 2 nd Sunday of Easter, April 30 & May 1, 2011
Entrance Hymn:	268	Christ, the Lord, Is Risen Today
Preparation Hymn:	267	O Sons & Daughters ( beginning with Verse 4 )
Communion Hymn:	511	Eat This Bread
	482	In This Place
Closing Hymn:	273	Alleluia! Alleluia! Let the Holy Anthem Rise

How was your Holy Week? As the dust continues to settle, and we conclude the beautiful Octave of Easter, I thought I'd give you a look back at the music of Holy Week—from Palm Sunday through Easter—by the numbers. (And if we didn't feel tired before, we certainly do after looking at these...)

Over the course of approximately 195 hours, the Music Department supplied the music for 24 liturgies during Holy Week—masses, stations, prayer, etc. (not counting funerals or daily Mass). To do that required no fewer than 291 instances where music was required—comprised of 79 different pieces of music. Of these 79:

- 16 (!) were choral pieces
- 27 were hymns
- 18 were Mass parts
- 8 were solos
- 9 were psalms. Of the psalms, 3 were original and 2 were premieres.

The most common piece—the Lenten Gospel Acclamation, “Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet”—was sung eleven times. Thirty-six pieces were sung but once and put away.

22 of the pieces (or 28%) were performed a cappella, which is to say without accompaniment, including almost the entire Good Friday Liturgy. This term means “from the Chapel” in Italian, as in the Sistine Chapel, in which instruments were forbidden for hundreds of years. It is, as you can imagine, quite a bit more difficult (think “working without a net”).

These liturgies required three keyboard players, four cantors, five other soloists, four more instrumentalists, 60 adult choir members (!), and 14 children's choir members! (Not to mention all of you singing along!) The Children's Choir deserves special mention because of the triumphant return they made to St. John after a year's absence. While we won't be meeting again until the fall, it won't be such a long hiatus any more.

Most impressively to the practiced musician, the St. John the Evangelist Adult Choir pulled off the highly dramatic, technically demanding Seven Words of Christ From the Cross, as set by Richard Wienhorst (1920-2010). Dr. Wienhorst and I became good friends years ago, and I know he would have been pleased and honored by the choir's work.

As was I. A profound thank you to Ellie, Eleanor, Grace, Jean, Kathie, the Contemporary Ensemble, soloists, choirs, and each and every person who sings and plays for the Lord. Soli Deo Gloria!
