MISSION BACKPACK

1072 Backpacks Filled and Ready for Shipping to St. Lucia

All 1072 backpacks are lined up against the stage Monday, June 6, in the ballroom in preparation for loading into the truck that will transport them to Fort Lauderdale.

Dear Parishioners of St. John the Evangelist,

It is with great enthusiasm and appreciation that I wish to thank each and every one of you who gave of your time, talent and treasure to make our Lenten "Mission Backpack" program such a huge success! Through the generosity and tireless efforts of so many in our parish, we exceeded our goal and collected and packed 1072 backpacks for children in the Caribbean who are so desperately in need. I am happy to report that on Monday, June 6th, all of the backpacks were picked up from St. John's and transported to Ft. Lauderdale where they will be loaded on a container and shipped to St. Lucia this week.

On July 31st, I will leave with a group of our youth from the Diocese of Venice to travel to St. Lucia and work among the poor and needy. I look forward to seeing the joy on the children's faces as they receive their backpacks filled with supplies for the new school year. It will be truly amazing! Please keep me in your prayers, as well as our entire "Mission Possible" team. Once again, I thank you for your commitment and support of this project.

May God bless you always!

Sincerely in Christ,

Very Rev. John J. Ludden

For Happily Married Couples

Successful marriages don't work on automatic pilot – at least very well. Like a garden, they require constant attention: fertilizing, watering, and weeding. Healthy marriages, like gardens, don't die suddenly. More often they fade away from a gradual lack of attentiveness, letting things slide, taking each other for granted. Join us for a Worldwide Marriage Encounter and discover God's plan for joy and romance in your marriage.

The next weekends in this diocese are July 22-24 in Fort Myers and November 4-6 in Sarasota.

SCOTT'S CORNER

My wife and I would like to once again thank everyone for your prayers during the birth of our triplets. This has truly been a magical time for us and I am confident that your prayers played a very large part in a successful delivery. The babies are still in the NICU and will remain there for another couple of weeks optimistically. After losing approximately four ounces each after birth, they are back to their original birth weight and gaining daily. We are told that they may be able to remove their feeding tubes this week. Mia is the largest of the three and should have been taken out of her isolette this past week. Our babies were privy to a very special visitor immediately following their birth as Fr. John dropped in to bless each one of them. Shelley and I go over each afternoon and bottle feed the babies their lunch. Considering that the hospital is only two miles from St. John's, it is extremely convenient for me to stop by at anytime to see my crew. My daughter Sydney is the self-proclaimed "proudest big sister in Naples." Unfortunately, she is unable to enter the NICU (due to age restrictions) and has only been able to see her little brother and sisters through the glass. The nurses have been very accommodating, holding the babies up and having them wave to Sydney. This period of time while our little ones are in the NICU is what I like to refer to as "the calm before the storm" as Shelley and I both know what is waiting for us when the triplets come home. We are doing our best to catch up on our sleep and get everything in order for their homecoming.

I would like to recognize everyone at "The Birth Place" at Naples Community Hospital (NCH) for their incredible professionalism and support during this amazing process. From the surgeons to the technicians, the staff has been very accommodating ensuring that Shelley had the very best care during her four day stay. As Shelley's roommate, I hardly felt that I was sharing a hospital room but rather that I was a guest in a five star hotel. The Neonatal Intensive Care staff has taken incredible care of our little ones ensuring that they are watched over 24 hours a day and have everything that they could possibly need. One of the nurses even suggested that we bring in three disposable cameras to place on top of the isolettes to capture pictures of their development while we are not there. Thank you to NCH for putting my mind at ease during this stressful process.

I was trying to find a good way to Segway into my next paragraph for the Memorial Garden, however, there is no easy way to Segway from birth to death. With that said, there has been a tremendous response to my recent suggestion that our parishioners consider addressing their final planning by meeting with me to discuss purchasing space in our beautiful Memorial Garden. Space still remains and I am readily available for the next few weeks to sit down with you and discuss this important step in your lives. The all inclusive cost to purchase a space is $1,200.00 and includes the opening, closing, urn, headstone and plaque. As previously mentioned, this price is roughly 33% of what you would pay elsewhere. The beauty of our Memorial Garden continues to be enhanced with additional landscaping and the addition of a fantastic new fountain. If you are ready to make St. John the Evangelist your final resting place, please contact me at 566.1678.

The construction fence has been erected and we will have broken ground on the Paniccia Prayer Garden by this weekend. Work will take place in stages beginning with the concrete pavers this week. While we are excavating the site, we will also address the drainage issue in the atrium of the PLC which has been an issue for several years. After the pavers are removed, organic topsoil will be rototilled into the existing ground cover to provide a healthy environment for the new plantings. In an effort to create a serene, quiet and spiritual space, the entire garden will be shrouded with mature Podocarpus shrubs, which will ultimately create a great hedge to buffer any outside noise. The entry into the garden will be accessed through the gazebo currently in place. The sides of the gazebo will be enclosed with lattice and confederate jasmine will grow through the lattice openings. There will be a total of 600 shrubs planted in the garden creating an amazing atmosphere as our parishioners meander from Station to

Station. Other plantings in the garden include Bougainvillea, Croton, Green Island Ficus, Indian Hawthorne, Italian Cypress, Ligustrum, Cocoplum, Arboricola and many more. I would like to recognize Mark Stahlman for his hard work and dedication to this project. Due to his extensive experience with irrigation and landscape design, Mark has stepped in to serve as the project manager for the Prayer Garden. Although he is extremely busy with his own business, Mark is volunteering his time and talent in order to create a truly amazing Prayer Garden. I would also like to recognize Marty Gauthier for his work on the Prayer Garden. Marty is overseeing the design and fabrication of the Stations of the Cross as well as the St. Francis Statue. As you may remember, Marty was an integral component of the church renovation last summer. He has now moved on to participate in this project. Thanks Mark and Marty for your incredible gifts of time and talent.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

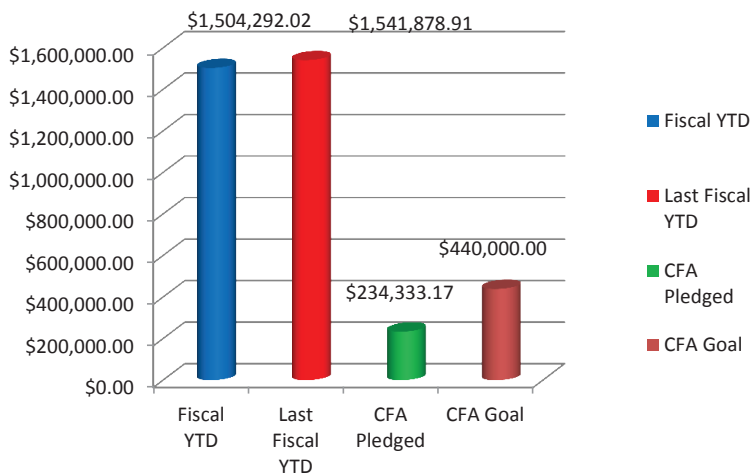

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Collection Summary

YTD/CFA Summary

Support the Special Disaster Recovery Collection This Weekend

This appeal is to aid our brothers and sisters who recently have suffered large-scale devastation due to tornados and floods. The funds will be handled through Catholic Charities USA as they respond to the immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter and medical care as well as to the long term need to rebuild.

As a diocesan family familiar with the havoc of natural disasters, please join in this special bond of solidarity with the people of those states who are enduring suffering and even loss of life. The collection is scheduled for June 11-12. Please be generous in your giving. It will truly make a difference.

*T*he Spirit of God who hovered over the waters at the dawn of creation — the Holy Spirit who descended upon the disciples at Pentecost in ever-changing forms in the sound of a mighty wind or tongues of flame — hovers also over our celebration of the liturgy, giving it life, making it real. It is the Spirit of God who draws us, gathering us together, Sunday after Sunday. It is the Spirit of God who called loudly to the inspired writers of the scriptures and who continues to whisper to us, revealing ever-new facets of God's word, granting insight just when we need it. It is by the Spirit's power that, when Christ's words are uttered by the priest, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. And it is surely the Spirit who inspires us — that is, breathes in us — when, sent forth from the assembly, we seek ways to serve our brothers and sisters, to allow the gospel to come to life in the world. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Verse 1) Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful.

Chorus) Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation,
We remember you.

Verse 2) See his Body, his Blood
Know that he has overcome ev'ry trial we will face.
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your table
By your grace you are making us faithful

Bridge)
Dying you destroyed our death,
Rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus come in glory (repeat three more times)

Let the poor man say, "I am rich in him."
 Let the lost man say, "I am found in him."
 Oh, let the river flow!
 Let the blind man say, "I can see again."
 Let the dead man say, "I am born again."
 Oh, let the river flow! Oh, let the river flow—

Chorus

Let the river flow, let the river flow
 Holy Spirit, come, move in power
 Let the river flow (let the river flow)
 Let the river flow (let the river flow)
 Let the river flow (let the river flow) Let the river flow!

from the Department of Next Week in Liturgy

Let's Keep That Easter Feeling Goin' Strong, or Why Are We Still Wearing White? I Thought We Were In Ordinary Time Starting Monday (the 13th), we will be once again in Ordinary Time (a good thing for redheads, because we're told we look better in green than in red). But when you come back next week—and the week thereafter—you'll see your priest, deacon, sanctuary, etc. all adorned in white, not green. What gives? This is because the first two Sundays, when Ordinary Time returns, are reserved for the Solemnities of the Most Holy Trinity (June 18/19) and the Body & Blood of Christ (formerly known as Corpus Christi; June 25/26). "Well," you say, "isn't every Mass about the Trinity? Don't they ALL have the Body and Blood?" You're exactly right. The Church gives these special solemnities (redundant), then, as a gift to ourselves, to focus our attention just briefly on a crucially important aspect of our faith—just like Easter does with the Resurrection, & Christmas with the Incarnation.

So, speaking of Easter, those two Sundays we'll use the same Mass parts (Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus etc.) that we've been using throughout the Easter season, to go along with the same festive atmosphere we've had. (Plus, even with these Solemnities coming as late as they are, we'll still have FIVE MONTHS to sing the Ordinary Time Mass parts, so the least we can do is enjoy the Mass of Light a little longer ;).

Perhaps you're someone who would like to sing, but can't join us for regular rehearsals because babysitting would be required, or it's poker night, or some other understandable reason, etc. etc. Then SUMMER CHOIR is your chance to get your choral fix! All are welcome, as often as you care to make it—no hassle, no pressure, just good music with good people. We meet 45 minutes before Mass to practice in the Choir Room in the Claussen Center, according to the following schedule:

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Seeking New Able Bodied Members

The Knights Of Columbus Council 11281 is seeking some new members who have high standards of their faith and are willing to help others who are less fortunate.

This is a challenge that is being put before all able bodied men of our church.

The Knights Of Columbus Council 11281 works within the Church of St. John The Evangelist.

The Founder of The Knights, Father Michael J. McGivney, obviously had a vision when he called a meeting in October, 1881.

The purpose of the group was to help Catholic men remain strong in their faith, promote fraternity among these men and to establish a program to provide for widows and children if the bread winner passed away.

The Knights of Columbus has over 1.5 million members in 12,000 Councils all over the world.

What a proud Catholic man you will become upon joining our fraternity.

Are you up to helping in your spare time, helping others?

If you are, please contact Jim Folllese at 495.9741 or jdfollese@comcast.net
