SCOTT'S CORNER

This past week's "PandaMania" themed Vacation Bible School was the enormous "success" that everyone expected. The organization was flawless and the stage props once again looked like something out of a Broadway show. Although there were over 100 volunteers involved in this year's event, a special thank you is in order for Charlene and Brian Youngs, Tricia and Scott Schwarz, Jasmine Dina, Natalie and Brad Campbell, Karen and Rick Beebe, Michelle and John Mattia, Christina Raab, Trish Gasiorowski and Brendan Budlong. As Director of Family Ministry, Charlene was tasked with coordinating Vacation Bible School for the first time. She did a magnificent job! Brian (Charlene's husband) constructed the stage props from scratch at no cost to the parish. These individuals spent an incredible amount of time and effort preparing for what has been the best Vacation Bible School yet. I say this every year and these incredible volunteers keep outdoing themselves. The aforementioned statistic is not a typo! There were actually over 100 volunteers involved in this year's event. That equates to more than one volunteer for every two children. Over 200 children participated in this year's VBS and Tom Oram stepped in to lead the signing (and dancing) portion of the festivities. Although this was Tom's first time leading the song and dance, without him, we would not have been able to generate the enthusiasm that we did. If you missed the festivities, you will have a chance for an encore performance this Saturday at the 5:00 p.m. Mass. Tom Oram will lead a large cast of the children in song and dance so that our parishioners may see first hand the Holy Spirit at work. Thank you again to all the volunteers for providing our children an invaluable experience. This is by far my favorite week of the year with regards to programs held within our parish. There is nothing that pleases me more than seeing all of the families come together and share in this ministry.

Since we closed the brokerage account held individually by St. John the Evangelist several years ago, stock contributions have been few and far between. Remember that by donating "appreciated stock," you will be able to avoid the capital gains tax and recognize the gift as a charitable donation at fair market value. This is what I would call a true win-win situation. You get to avoid a big tax hit, "write off" the gift and help your parish, while St. John the Evangelist receives funds desperately needed to survive into the future. Although some of you may be chuckling at the idea of appreciated stock in this down market (which has been abysmal as of late), the appreciated price is based on the true cost basis or what you initially paid for the stock. If you have held the stock for many years, this could be a substantial difference. The capital gains tax rate will remain at 15% through 2012. For those of you that contribute quarterly, semi-annually or annually, this is an ideal opportunity for you to support St. John the Evangelist. You may allocate your gift to the CFA or regular offertory. Stock gifts may now be made through the Diocese of Venice for the benefit of St. John the Evangelist Church by contacting the development office at 941-484-9543.

Re-sealing and re-striping of the parking lot will begin on Monday, the 27th of June. This project will require closing designated sections of the parking lot during the week. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, however, the end result will be a beautiful new parking lot with an enhanced traffic flow. Thanks again to John Dina for his efforts in coordinating the work in our parking lot.

After my recent comments regarding the Memorial Garden at St. John the Evangelist, I have had several questions arise that I will do my best to address. First and foremost, The Catholic Church states that cremation is perfectly appropriate with the stipulation that the ashes or cremains are placed in an urn and buried in consecrated ground, which is the case in our Memorial Garden. The Catholic Church does not allow ashes to be stored on a shelf or scattered in the ocean, etc. You must be a parishioner of St. John the Evangelist or a family member of a parishioner in order to purchase space in our garden.

If you are Catholic and your spouse is not, you may both be interred in our memorial garden. Finally, you must be willing to be cremated as we may only bury cremains in our Memorial Garden. Hopefully, this clears up some of the questions those of you on the fence have been contemplating. If you would like to purchase space in our Memorial Garden, please contact me at 566-1678.

Triplet update: Mia, Ella and Nathaniel (Nate) continue to gain weight daily. Mia and Nate are now well over four pounds and are out of their isolettes. Ella is the smallest of the three but is nearing the four pound threshold. There is a strong possibility that Mia may be the first to come home, possibly as early as this past week. There is also talk of Nate coming home on Father's Day which would be the best gift I could imagine. Attached is a picture of Ella contemplating her homecoming.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

4th Monday Commitment Day

June 27th is St. John's commitment Monday, the day we have promised to supplement the regular prayer folks and sidewalk counselors on the 4th Monday of each month. We are also responsible for providing the shuttle for cars to and from the parking lot on Creech Rd.

The generous owners of Agostino's Furniture are providing all of us a place to park. Stop in to shop and to say thank you for supporting our fight against abortion in Naples.

In July our day is the 25th. Our ranks are extremely thin in July, so if you are in town that day, please join the gang at the corner of Creech and Goodlette Rds. in praying to end abortion. This is a great activity to do with your kids while they are out of school.

Many have prayed for a sign from God that they should cancel the abortion. You can be that sign.

In a recent development, a child born in Orlando at the end of May, who had been scheduled to be aborted, is being adopted instead. His mom, facing a sixth child, felt overwhelmed. The sidewalk counselors and prayer warriors outside the abortion clinic during last fall's 40 Days for Life were able to turn the mother around and bring life to her baby. The baby boy is the subject of a private adoption.

If I receive more information, I will pass it along.

For more information or to volunteer, please call Loretta Judy at 293.5897.

— DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Peter's Pence Collection June 25-26.
Envelope is in your Church Envelopes Packet.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In many places around the globe, the Church struggles to be a visible sign of Christ's peace: in poor dioceses where many depend on the Church for social and pastoral support, and in regions where Catholics are persecuted and must be helped discreetly.

The Peter's Pence Collection allows the Holy Father to support victims of disaster, war and oppression throughout the world. The Pope, being pastor of the whole Church, is attentive to the material needs of poor dioceses, religious institutes, and the faithful in grave difficulties. The proceeds of this Collection provide emergency assistance and aid to those most disadvantaged.

This Collection gives U.S. parishioners, including those in the Diocese of Venice in Florida, an opportunity to unite in solidarity with the Holy Father, the faithful worldwide and those most in need of assistance.

Please be generous in the upcoming Peter's Pence Collection in your parish. Together, let us help cast the peace of Christ upon all those who are suffering throughout the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

from the Department of Next Week in Liturgy

Honey, Whatever Happened To Corpus Christi? Latin for “the Body of Christ”, Corpus Christi is of course more than just the name of a pleasant city in Texas, or a beautiful medieval English carol. Nevertheless, the name of the feast has been changed—not just so that its name is in the vernacular, but so that its meaning can also be expanded. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ tells us almost all we need to know in its name alone: 1) a solemnity is the highest rank of our celebrations; 2) most holy tells us that the Eucharist is foremost in importance; and 3) Body and Blood reminds us that Christ is present under both species (of bread and wine). And what a Gift that is!

Perhaps you're someone who would like to sing, but can't join us for regular rehearsals because babysitting would be required, or it's poker night, or some other (understandable) reason. Then SUMMER CHOIR is your chance to get your choral fix! All are welcome, as often as you care to make it—no hassle, no pressure, just good music with good people. We meet 45 minutes before Mass to practice in the Choir Room in the Claussen Center, according to the following schedule:

To all of our dear friends at St. John the Evangelist:

We are so very pleased and honored to be celebrating this beautiful, crucial Sacrament in the midst of our parish, a parish we have come to know and love dearly.

We would be most honored if you would join us for the Mass at which we will be married— here at Saint John the Evangelist, on Saturday, July 2, at 6:30 P.M.

The next day, we will be having a reception for the entire parish, Sunday, July 3, from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., at which a light brunch will be served.

Please join us for the Mass, and the reception the next day, if you are able; your presence would mean a great deal to us, as would your prayers. Thank you all very much for your love & support thus far—

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Seeking New Able Bodied Members

The Knights Of Columbus Council 11281 is seeking some new members who have high standards of their faith and are willing to help others who are less fortunate.

This is a challenge that is being put before all able bodied men of our church.

The Knights Of Columbus Council 11281 works within the Church of St. John The Evangelist.

The Founder of The Knights, Father Michael J. McGivney, obviously had a vision when he called a meeting in October, 1881.

The purpose of the group was to help Catholic men remain strong in their faith, promote fraternity among these men and to establish a program to provide for widows and children if the bread winner passed away.

The Knights of Columbus has over 1.5 million members in 12,000 Councils all over the world.

What a proud Catholic man you will become upon joining our fraternity.

Are you up to helping in your spare time, helping others?

If you are, please contact Jim Folllese at 495.9741 or jdfollese@comcast.net
