Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Youth Celebrate Independence by Celebrating Life

A few of the youth from Saint John the Evangelist thought it would be a good idea to be a part of something important on the Fourth of July... they chose to support life by helping the Naples Pro-Life Council with their float for the City of Naples Parade. See full story on page 14

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the sick/funeral arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide a emergency extension for you to reach a priest.

Mass Cards

Selections of cards are available in the parish office.

Mass Intentions

We are currently accepting intentions for 2012.

Altar Flowers and/or Host & Wine

We have 2011 & 2012 availability. Call or visit the office to offer the wine and host and/or the altar flowers in memory or in honor of your loved ones.

Sacraments of the Church

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:00 p.m. mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

Welcome to all of our new parish families.

Home Bound

Eucharistic Ministers are available at any time to bring Holy Communion to the home bound.

For Happily Married Couples

Life has a way of overwhelming a marriage: jobs, kids, activities. Before you know it, checking your e-mail is more important than carving out a date night. When you arrive for the weekend, you'll step away from daily life. To-do lists are forgotten and you'll find it's a warm, engaging environment that's all about bringing more excitement into your marriage.

The next weekends in this diocese are July 22-24 in Fort Myers and November 4-6 in Sarasota.

SCOTT'S CORNER

As of this past Wednesday, the parking lot resealing project was still not complete. We did receive a brief respite from the rainy weather this past weekend while crews were not working. Unfortunately, mother nature picked up right where she left off at the beginning of the week. Only the parking area immediately in front of the church remains to be completed. I am extremely confident that we will have the job completed in time for the 3:00 p.m. vigil Mass this Saturday. Thank you for your patience while we dodge thunderstorms to create a more functional and aesthetically pleasing parking lot.

June 30th marked the end of our fiscal year (2010/2011) and I must say that in the face of extremely difficult economic times, we weathered the storm fairly well. I am still waiting on several documents in order to completely close the books for the fiscal year, however, as it stands now we performed slightly better this fiscal year than last. I will publish financial statements in an upcoming bulletin so that you may see the strides we have made over the past twelve months.

The Paniccia Prayer Garden is really beginning to come to life. Installation of landscaping began this past week with the largest trees and shrubs being planted first. Rather than planting smaller trees, we opted for more mature varieties, and I am confident that this was a great decision. I can assure you that this Prayer Garden is going to be a showpiece for the parish and an example for the entire Diocese of Venice. You may glance through the construction fence at the massive plantings of Ligustrum, Italian Cypress, Pink Tabebuia, Oak and many more. The centerpiece of the garden will be a statue of St. Francis of Assisi, which will be elevated on a water feature. Following on the theme of Assisi, we will install a massive nine foot panoramic mosaic of the commune which will be located on the northern end of the garden. The inclusion of Italian Cypress Trees really gives the feel of actually being in the Umbria region of Italy. The Men's Club purchased a beautiful wall fountain which has been relocated to the interior of the gazebo at the main entrance to the garden. The fountain will have a backdrop of lattice and confederate jasmine creating a magnificent visual. Installation of irrigation and electrical conduit took place this past Monday. Installation of ancillary landscaping also began this past week and will continue through this coming week. There will be a total of 33 different varieties of plantings in the garden creating a lush and serene environment. I am extremely proud of this project and excited to see it come to fruition. I would like to thank everyone who came forward to purchase a Station of the Cross or a bench so that we could make this garden a reality.

As a reminder, there are still two benches remaining for purchase.

These benches will be located immediately in front of the church and may be engraved, honoring or memorializing a loved one. The cost to purchase a bench is $3,000.00. The benches are solid granite and are very attractive. If you are interested in purchasing either of these two remaining benches, please contact me at 566.1678.

Believe it or not, this weekend marks the 7th anniversary of “Scott’s Corner.” That means that this is approximately my 350th edition, give or take a few. What began as a recommendation to me by one of our volunteers has turned out to be quite a functional way to convey pertinent information to our parish family. As you may attest, communication is the single most important component of any successful operation. Whether it is a business or a church, lack of communication is a recipe for failure. I do my very best to keep everyone up to date on the happenings within the parish. I truly enjoy writing my weekly column and I am hopeful that you enjoy reading what I write.

I feel it safe to say that we have now settled into the summer doldrums even though summer just began a few weeks ago. Attendance has substantially tapered off and contributions to the CFA have also decreased dramatically. We are still in decent shape due to the early outpouring of generosity through the first six months of the campaign. As I stated last week, let us strive to not just meet our goal this year, but rather substantially exceed our goal. Thank you in advance for your continued support of the Catholic Faith Appeal.

Saturday, July 16th marks the 23rd anniversary of ordination to priesthood of Bishop Frank Dewane. Please join us in wishing the Bishop many more happy and fruitful years of priesthood, and pray that Almighty God will abundantly bless his spiritual leadership of the Diocese of Venice in Florida.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Prayer for Protection from Hurricanes

God, our Father, Creator of the Universe, You have set the earth on its foundation and all the elements of nature obey Your command.

We humbly beseech You to keep us safe from all dangers and calm the storms which may threaten us. May we be secure in Your loving protection and serve You always with grateful hearts.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Words in the Roman Missal, Third Edition

Some of the words used in the new translation of the Mass may be unfamiliar to some Catholics. The following list of definitions may help to increase your understanding of the rich theology that underlies these texts.

Abasement: The lowering of one of higher rank. Jesus abased himself in that, though he was God, he lowered himself and became a human being so that he might save us from our sins (see Phil 2:6-11).

Adoption: In Baptism, the Holy Spirit transforms us into children of the Father, thereby making us his adopted sons and daughters in the likeness of his eternal Son (see Eph 1:3-6). In this way, the faithful are made “partakers in the divine nature (cf. 2 Pt 1:4) by uniting them in a living union with the only Son, the Savior” (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], no. 1129). In the sacraments, we become the sons and daughters of God by adoption through Christ Jesus.

Angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, thrones and dominions: Spiritual, personal, and immortal creatures, with intelligence and free will, who glorify God and serve him as messengers of his saving plan. Traditionally, the choirs of angels have been divided into various ranks, including archangels, cherubim, seraphim, thrones, dominions, principalities, and powers (see Col 1:16).

Chalice: From the Latin word “calix” meaning “cup” (see Ps 116:13; Mt 20:22; 1 Cor 10:16). The use of this term in the Liturgy points to the chalice’s function as a particular kind of cup and indicates the uniqueness of what it contains, the very Blood of Christ.

Clemency: The loving kindness, compassion, or mercy that God shows to sinners.

Communion: Our fellowship and union with Jesus and other baptized Christians in the Church, which has its source and summit in the celebration of the Eucharist. By receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, we are united to him and one another as members of his Body.

Consecration: The dedication of a thing or person to divine service by a prayer or blessing. In the Mass, “consecration” also refers to the words spoken by the priest whereby the bread and wine are transformed into the risen Body and Blood of Jesus.

Consubstantial: The belief, articulated in the Nicene Creed, about the relationship of the Father and the Son: that “in the Father and with the Father, the Son is one and the same God” (CCC, no. 262).

Contrite: To be repentant within one’s heart and mind for sins committed and to resolve not to sin again.

Covenant: A solemn agreement between human beings, between God and a human being, or between God and a people involving mutual commitments or promises. In the Old Testament, God made a covenant with the Jewish people. Jesus, through his death and Resurrection, made a new covenant with the whole of humanity. One enters into this new covenant through faith and Baptism.

Damnation: Eternal separation from God’s love caused by dying in mortal sin without repentance.

Godhead: The mystery of one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Homage: The honor, respect, and reverence due to another. Homage is especially due to God, for he is eternal, all good, all holy, and all loving.

Implore: To plead, beseech, or ask with humility. This is an example of the self-deprecatory language in the Roman Missal that helps to express our dependence on God. We humbly beg the Father to hear and answer our prayers, for we ask them in the power of the Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus.

Incarnation: The Son of God assumed human nature and became man by being conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mary. Jesus is true God and true man. As man, the Son of God obtained our salvation. The use of this term in the Nicene Creed indicates that Jesus’ birth has a significance beyond that of any other human birth.

Ineffable: That which cannot be conceived or expressed fully (see 1 Cor 2:6-9). One cannot, for example, adequately describe in concepts and words the mystery of the Trinity or the mystery of the Incarnation.

Infusion: The Holy Spirit is poured into the hearts and souls of believers, and so they are filled, or infused, with grace.

Intercessor: One who makes a petition on behalf of others. Our unique intercessor is Jesus Christ, who intercedes on our behalf with the Father (see Rom 8:34). The priest at Mass acting in the person of Christ intercedes on behalf of the whole Church.

Justification: The gracious action by which God frees us from sin and makes us holy and righteous before him.

Lord, God of Hosts: From the word “sabaoth,” hosts are the invisible powers that work at God’s command over heaven and earth.

Mediator: One who unites or reconciles separate or opposing parties. Thus, Jesus Christ is the “one mediator between God and the human race” (1 Tm 2:5). Through his sacrificial offering he has become high priest and unique mediator who has gained for us access to the Father through the Holy Spirit.

Merit: The reward that God promises and gives to those who love him and who by his grace perform good works. One cannot earn justification or eternal life; they are the free gifts of God. Rather our merit is from God through Christ in the Holy Spirit. The Father freely justifies us in Christ through the indwelling of the Spirit; and Christians, by the same Holy Spirit, are empowered to do good works of love and justice. In cooperating with the Holy Spirit, the faithful receive further grace and thus, in Christ, cooperate in the work of their salvation.

Oblation: A gift or sacrifice offered to God.

Only-Begotten Son: This title “signifies the unique and eternal relationship of Jesus Christ to God his Father: he is the only Son of the Father (cf. Jn 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18); he is God himself (cf. Jn 1:1)” (CCC, no. 454). Jesus is the Son of God not by adoption but by nature.

Paschal: Referring to Christ’s work of redemption accomplished through his Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. Through the Paschal Mystery, Jesus destroyed our death and restored us to life. The Paschal Mystery is celebrated and made present in the Liturgy so that we can obtain the fruit of Jesus’ death and Resurrection, that is, the forgiveness of our sins and the new life of the Holy Spirit.

Patriarchs: Title given to the venerable ancestors or “fathers” of the Semitic peoples, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who received God’s promise of election.

Precursor: One who comes before as a herald. John the Baptist is the precursor of Jesus.

Provident grace: The free and undeserved gift that God gives us as he protects and governs all creation.

Redemption: Jesus Christ is our Savior and Redeemer because he frees us from our sin through his sacrificial death on the Cross.

Temporal: What pertains to this world of time and history, as opposed to what pertains to God, such as our new life in Christ through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Venerate: To show devotion and respect to holy things and people. Catholics venerate relics and saints. Veneration must be clearly distinguished from adoration and worship, both of which pertain solely to the Trinity and Jesus as the Son of God.

Youth Ministry Surveys

Our Youth Celebrate Independence by Celebrating Life

For the Fourth of July this year, a few of the youth from Saint John the Evangelist Parish thought it would be a good idea to be a part of something important. Instead of just sleeping in and going to the beach, these youth, along with a few other parishioners, decided to participate in the City of Naples Fourth of July Parade. They did not march with just any float; they chose to support life by helping the Naples Pro-Life Council with their float.

Youth giving up their Fourth of July morning to do something that promotes life and the human dignity of unborn children is quite impressive. The fact that one of our own high school youth, Tiana Ferrante, took the initiative to invite other youth and parishioners to participate shows just how important today's social justice issues are to young people. Tiana, who is the 2011-2012 Justice and Service Coordinator for our parish youth ministry, will work with other volunteers throughout this youth ministry calendar year to provide education and opportunities for our young people and their families to be involved with various issues of justice and service.

“As the Youth Ministry Justice and Service Coordinator, I am ecstatic about serving our society with my peers and engaging in the advancement of justice regarding social issues from a Catholic understanding,” Tiana said.

Tiana's example of leadership is a reminder to all of us to answer God's call and a reminder of the joy of being filled with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit gives us the gifts needed to fulfill God's will, but we must be attentive and ask ourselves, “Is God calling me to something more?” As a parish, we can continue to show our support for youth by encouraging them to become involved in various leadership roles, not just within youth ministry, but in all of the activities of the parish and wider community.

Volunteers Needed

Please contact Brendan Budlong, Director of Youth Ministry, at 239.566.8740 ext. 177, or email brendan@saintjohntheevangelist.com. We need people who are interested in helping with Advocacy, Catechesis, Community Life, Evangelization, Hospitality, Justice and Service, Leadership Development, Pastoral Care, and Prayer and Worship. If you are not sure how to help, but would really like to get involved with our Youth Ministry, please call and talk to Brendan. We can find the area where your gifts and talents can be put to good use.

Youth Ministry Registration

The 2011-2012 Youth Ministry Registration Packets are available in the Parish Office, in the Office of Youth Ministry, on the youth ministry page of our parish website, and can be emailed to you by request. For parents and youth entering Grades 6-12 interested in learning more about the actual programs and events that are happening this coming year in our parish, we are having a Parent/Youth Orientation on Sunday, August 14 from 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. in the Claussen Center Seminar Room. Please plan to attend this meeting if joining our youth group here at St. John the Evangelist.

Seminarian Matt Gets Behind-the-Scenes View

He has only been here for a few days, but Seminarian Matthew Grady, 25, has already gotten a taste of what it will be like to be part of a parish ministry.

A seminarian studying for the Diocese of Venice, Matthew will be spending the next few weeks at St. John where he will get a behind-the-scenes look at parish life.

“St. John is a large parish and could easily be remote, but I have been impressed with how well people know each other and with the warmth and friendliness of the parishioners,” Matt said.

Matt likes the idea of helping people. In fact, this attraction to helping others and his faith are what led to his calling to the priesthood.

“Faith has played a strong part in my life,” he said. “Every day is different and there are all kinds of people. Touching people beyond the spiritual, touching the whole person is what I see as central to my calling to the priesthood.”

Since he was a teenager, Matt has seen priests as life models.

“We were always active in our parish as a family. It was the center of our social life. We even had priests in our home for dinner,” Matt said.

Matt and his younger brother and sister grew up in Philadelphia. His father is a retired Catholic radio announcer (WTMR in Philadelphia), and his mother is a retired accountant.

Matt attended high school in La Crosse, WI, where he resided at Holy Cross Prep School. It was a boarding school for young men interested in becoming priests. The young men attended the local co-ed high school. Matt was a member of the track team, cross country team and Quiz Bowl.

Though Matt knew he wanted to become a priest while in high school, he entertained second thoughts when he had a girlfriend. At that point he realized he was not ready to commit to the life of a priest. As a result, he attended Ave Maria University in Florida, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Latin and Greek.

“I took time out to have a more normal experience,” Matt said, “but I felt the calling in my heart (to become a priest) my last year in college.”

Because he enjoyed Florida so much he chose Venice as the diocese where he wanted to be a priest.

“While at Ave Maria University I worked with the youth at St. Agnes and got a taste of parish life. I wanted to stay in the diocese of Venice because it is smaller and more intimate than my hometown diocese of Philadelphia. It is also a great location,” Matt said.

Bishop Frank J. Dewane assigned him to the seminary at The Pontifical North American College in Rome, where he has been studying for the past three years. He has earned a Sacred Theology Bachelor degree from the University of the Holy Cross in Rome. Matt is academically passionate about languages and Biblical studies.

“I love how languages open up so many doors. People are flattered when they discover that you know their language,” Matt said. He speaks Spanish and Italian and has a working knowledge of Russian and is fluent in Latin and Greek.

During his time here at St. John, Matt is learning firsthand about how parishes are run and what it means to be a parish priest. He will turn up at as many events and meetings as possible.

“From what I have seen, St. John is very well run, especially for such a large parish,” Matt said.

He will return to Rome the first of September to start his studies toward a Sacred Theology Licentiate. He will be ordained as a Traditional Deacon in October and Bishop Dewane will ordain Matt to the priesthood in May or June at the Epiphany Cathedral in Venice.

When he is not studying and learning, Matt enjoys running, fishing, hiking, nature, photography and exploring the Everglades. He has even found the time to start blogging, mostly about traveling.

Matt is looking forward to his role as a priest.

“I am most looking forward to preaching. I love the scriptures and how they reinforce my faith,” he said. He is also looking forward to family ministry and Bible study.

He sees the role of a priest as a professional — a bridge between the church and the common public life.

“I believe a priest ought to be an effective and respectable leader as well as someone who reaches out personally to the needs of every individual he encounters,” Matt said.

His parents have been happy with the decisions Matt has made enroute to the priesthood.

“They have been very supportive and excited for me. They have always encouraged me to follow my heart even in my moments of second thoughts and indecision. For that I am very grateful,” Matt said.

Thank you.

Charity Driven Knights of Columbus Looking for New Members

The Knights of Columbus around the world are remembering the anniversary death of their Founder, Father McGivney, Aug. 14, 1890.

Father Michael J. McGivney thought that Charity and Unity would be a nice start and what a nice start it turned out to be. Fraternity and Patriotism were added at later dates.

Challenge to men of our parish is still open!!!! Charity ~ it is in giving that we receive. How true that is to me and my brothers. Our Very Reverend Father John fully supports our K of C council.

Here are a few of the charitable services all the Knights are very proud to have been a participant of:

Recently, through its 1.3 million Heroes Fund, the K of C granted $3000.00 to the families of each of the fire fighters, law enforcement officers and emergency service personnel who lost their lives in the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Faith or denomination did not make a difference. The aid was given immediately.

New Orleans, Haiti, The Tsunami, Joplin, Missouri, we are everywhere, to give a helping hand and funding for these emergencies. We are also giving to local charities, vocations and our church. I am proud to be among these men of high Catholic standards and big hearts, working tirelessly to achieve what standards were put before us and making the K of C a big part of their lives. Young men are encouraged to join and bring forth the needed energy.

Are you up to helping in your spare time, helping others?

If you are, please contact Jim Folllese at 495.9741 or jdfollese@comcast.net
