

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST
CATHOLIC CHURCH

July 3, 2011

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. John Welcomes Its Newest Associate, Fr. Tom

St. John the Evangelist extends a very warm welcome to Reverend Thomas N. Kelly, our newest Parochial Vicar, as of July 1.

Originally from Jackson, Mississippi, he has lived in many different places throughout the United States and around the world, including Italy, Ireland and India.

He has completed several degrees: a BS in Aerospace Engineering at the University of Notre Dame, an MS in Aerospace Engineering from the University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign), an STB in Philosophy (Rome), a JD from the University of Texas School of Law (Austin), an MA in Theology from Ave Maria University (Florida), and both an STB and an STL from Holy Cross (Rome).

He also has worked as a software consultant in the telecommunications field.

Fr. Kelly attended seminary at the North American College in Rome. His first summer assignment was at the Church of the Incarnation in Sarasota and his second was at St. Andrews in Cape Coral. He was ordained as a priest for the Diocese of Venice by Bishop Frank J. Dewane on May 29, 2010. He comes to us from his first priestly assignment at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Bradenton, where he has served the past year.

Fr. Kelly enjoys bike riding, weight lifting, reading, movies and is interested in taking up gardening as a new hobby. Once in a while he enjoys doing something "different" and has ridden a bicycle from Virginia to California, and last year he climbed to the summit of Mt. Kilimanjaro.

Welcome, Fr. Tom!

SCOTT'S CORNER

It looks as though the rainy season has indeed begun! This past week we received some much needed rainfall here on campus, replenishing our lake from which we irrigate. You will notice that even with this recent precipitation, the grass parking areas are beginning to regenerate. Now all we have to do is pray for continued rainfall and no tropical systems for the next five months.

Work began this past week on the parking lot. Although we would love to re-pave the entire lot, the cost to do so is outrageous and definitely not in our meager budget. We did repair all of the damaged asphalt areas several weeks ago. Bonness, Inc. (our vendor) provides a high quality sealing product that will protect and keep our parking lot looking great for years to come. You will see in the attached picture the stark difference in the treated area versus the area that has yet to be treated. We have not re-sealed our lot since 1998 so this is a long overdue fix. As previously mentioned, we have also redesigned the traffic flow which will be a more user friendly pattern. Inclement weather has caused several delays this past week and we are hopeful to have the work completed by this weekend.

Ground breaking has officially taken place in the prayer garden. Work on the brick pavers began this past week and we have made several enhancements with the design to create as serene a space as possible. This involved extending the width of the garden by several feet to the east. The outline of the garden has been cut out and the pathways are being created. This coming week, we will run conduit for electrical and begin laying out the irrigation.

Kitchen

Triplets

The new kitchen floor in the Parish life Center has been installed and equipment is now being moved back into place. This new floor is absolutely amazing and will provide an unbelievably non slip surface for all who utilize the kitchen. All of the old drywall adjacent to any wet areas has been removed and replaced with new gypsum board and reinforced with a synthetic covering. The walls and ceiling have been painted and it truly looks like a brand new kitchen.

Triplet update: Nathaniel, Ella and Mia are all now home and the Schlossberg household is total chaos. Ironically, Mia and Ella were very easy to deal with and Shelley and I foolishly thought that this triplet thing wouldn't be that difficult at all. And then there were three! Nathaniel (Nate) has totally changed this thought process. He is VERY high maintenance and lets us know immediately when things are not to his liking. He also is gifted with great lungs and likes to use them at all hours of the night. He especially likes to wake up his sisters so that they may join in on the screaming. Due to a couple of apnea issues, Nate came home with a heart monitor. This monitor has a very loud beacon and conveniently likes to sound in the middle of the night for seemingly no reason at all. If the babies were sleeping, this alarm would surely wake them in quick time. Please see the attached picture of the three of them sleeping soundly, which happens very rarely. The great news is that all of these beautiful babies are very healthy and growing daily. Nate is now 5 pounds 6 ounces and the other girls are both over 5 pounds. Believe it or not, their actual due date was July 8th, so they are still one week away from what would have been full term for a singlet. Regardless of the sleep deprivation we are experiencing, I am well aware that we are triply blessed. My wife and I are ready for the ride of our lives with these three little miracles. Thanks yet again for your continued prayers.

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Rev. Msgr. Louis R. Piermarini on Sunday, June 26, 2011. Many of you are familiar with Monsignor Lou as he filled in at St. John the Evangelist on numerous occasions over the past year. He was the pastor of St. Roch's Parish in Oxford, Massachusetts and set to retire at the end of June. Following his retirement, Monsignor Lou was to move to Naples and join us as a retired associate. Msgr. Piermarini was born on October 5, 1942, in Leominster, son of the late Desiderio and Lucy (Fattori) Piermarini. He graduated from Notre Dame High School in Fitchburg and in 1964 from the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, IN. He taught for a year in the South Bend school system, and then entered Saint Bernard Seminary in Rochester, NY, to study for the priesthood. He was ordained a priest on May 15, 1969, by Bishop Timothy Harrington in the Cathedral of Saint Paul. Monsignor Piermarini was elevated to Prelate of Honor on November 23, 1991, by then Pope John Paul II.

He served as associate pastor at St. Bernard Parish, Fitchburg, and St. Roch Parish in Oxford. He was named South County regional coordinator of religious education efforts in 1974. On September 1, 1979, he was appointed diocesan director of religious education, which he continued until 2006. Msgr. Piermarini also served at St. Anthony of Padua Parish in Dudley, St. Richard of Chichester Parish in Sterling and was currently the pastor of St. Roch's Parish in Oxford. The Funeral Mass was held Thursday, June 30 at 11:00 a.m. in Saint Roch Church 332 Main Street, Oxford. Bishop Robert J. McManus was the principal celebrant. Burial was in Saint Leo Cemetery, Leominster. Memorial contributions may be made to the St. Roch Building Community – Living Community Parish Fund 334 Main Street Oxford, MA 01540.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

Welcoming the ROMAN MISSAL THIRD EDITION

Deepen, Nurture, Celebrate

Pope John Paul II announced a revised version of the Missale Romanum during the Jubilee Year 2000. Among other things, the revised edition of the Missale Romanum contains prayers for the observances of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Votive Masses and Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions, and some updated and revised rubrics (instructions) for the celebration of the Mass. The English translation of the Roman Missal will also include updated translations of existing prayers, including some of the well-known responses and acclamations of the people.

The entire Church in the United States has been blessed with this opportunity to deepen its understanding of the Sacred Liturgy and to appreciate its meaning and importance in our lives.

Now is the time to seize the opportunity given to us for all Catholics in the United States to deepen, nurture, and celebrate our faith through the renewal of our worship and the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy.

The Roman Missal will be implemented in the United States of America on the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011.

(excerpted from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website, www.usccb.org)

Over the next several weeks, the bulletin will feature several articles that we hope will provide a greater understanding of the upcoming changes in the liturgy.

The first part of the 9-part series begins on page 10.

New Roman Missal, Third Edition, will be implemented
November 27, 2011.

High Tea - Irish Style with Fr. John

Tea, English and Irish scones with jam and cream, tiny sandwiches, sweets and strawberry champagne, and, of course, hats and china were all in evidence at the second Irish High Tea with Fr. John Wednesday, June 22 in the seminar room. Fr. John answered questions for about two hours regarding church policy, the Catholic faith, the Bible, the liturgy and anything the attendees asked when they submitted their questions at the time they purchased their tickets.

Peter Heaney, Director of Community Life, coordinated the tea, thanks all of the volunteers who helped with the tea.

Details for the next tea will be published in future bulletins.

Ten Questions on the Roman Missal, Third Edition

1. Why is there a need for a new translation?

Pope John Paul II issued the third edition of the Missale Romanum (the Latin text of the Roman Missal) during the Jubilee Year in 2000. This new edition included many new texts requiring translation. In addition, the experience of the years after the Second Vatican Council gave rise to a desire for more formal and literal translations of the original Latin texts. This new translation will employ the best of what we have learned about translation and liturgical language in two generations of celebrating the Liturgy in the vernacular. It will provide an opportunity to reflect ever more deeply on the eucharistic celebration that lies at the heart of the Church's life.

2. Who is doing the work of translation?

The process of translating liturgical texts from the original Latin is a highly consultative work done by several groups. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) prepares English translations of liturgical texts on behalf of the conferences of bishops of English-speaking countries. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and the other member conferences receive draft translations of each text and have the opportunity to offer comments and suggestions to ICEL. Then ICEL proposes a second draft, which each conference approves and submits to the Vatican for final approval. Each conference reserves the right to amend or modify a particular text.

At the Vatican, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments examines the translated texts, offers authoritative approval (recognitio) of the texts, and grants permission for their use. Currently the Congregation is aided by the recommendations of Vox Clara, a special committee of bishops and consultants from English-speaking countries. The translation and review process is guided by the guidelines in Liturgiam Authenticam, issued in 2001, an instruction from the Congregation that outlines the principles and rules for liturgical translation. In 2007, the Congregation also issued a ratio outlining the specific rules for translation in English.

3. What's new or different about the revised translation?

The style of the translation of the third edition is different. In accord with the rules for translation established by the Holy See, the revised translation follows the style of the original Latin texts more closely, including concrete images, repetition, parallelisms, and rhythm. The English used in the Mass texts is more formal and dignified in style. Where possible, the texts follow the language of Scripture and include many poetic images.

In addition, the third edition contains prayers for the celebration of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Masses and prayers for various needs and intentions, and some updated and revised rubrics (or instructions) for the celebration of the Mass.

4. What is the timeline for the approval and implementation of the Missal?

After the Latin Missale Romanum was published in 2002, ICEL began its work of preparing a draft English translation of the text. ICEL presented the first section—the Order of Mass, which contains the fixed prayers of the Mass, including the people's parts—to the English-speaking conferences of bishops in 2004. The USCCB approved the final version in 2006, and the Holy See confirmed this section in June 2008. The remaining sections were approved between 2007 and 2009. The USCCB completed its approval of the Missal in November 2009. The Holy See granted the final approval of the text in the spring of 2010. Cardinal Francis George, OMI, president of the USCCB, announced that parishes may begin using the revised translation on November 27, 2011.

5. Can we start using the texts approved by the bishops immediately?

The translation of the Missale Romanum could not be used in the celebration of the Mass until the complete text was confirmed by the Holy See. Now that the translation has received the recognitio, the USCCB has established the first day on which the new translation may be used. Use of the revised text requires preparation and catechesis for both priests and the faithful. When the time comes to use the texts in the celebration of the Mass, priests will be properly trained, the faithful will have an understanding and appreciation of what is being prayed, and musical settings for the liturgical texts will be readily available.

6. What will the process of implementation look like?

Now that the recognitio has been granted, final preparation and publication of the Missal will commence. Catechesis on the new translation and on the Liturgy itself will become even more important. Training for priests, music ministers, and other liturgical leaders (liturgy committees and liturgical commissions), as well as formation for all Catholics, will help to ensure the successful implementation of the new text.

7. What will the new Missal mean in my parish?

In the months before the revised translation is implemented, parishes will have to do many things. The parish will have to replace liturgical books and participation aids. Priests will practice proclaiming the new texts and will prepare homilies helping the faithful to understand the new translation and to deepen their appreciation for the Liturgy. The music ministers and the people will learn new musical settings for the parts of the Mass (such as the Gloria and the Sanctus). Catechists and teachers will help parishioners learn the new prayers. Parishes may also use this opportunity to undertake a thorough reexamination of their liturgical practices.

8. If my parish likes the old translation better, can we continue using that one?

Now that the Holy See has granted the recognitio to the revised translation, the USCCB has established a date for first use and a date for mandatory use. No parish may continue to use the current translation after the mandatory use date. Parishes will need to use the period before the mandatory use date to help parishioners renew their love for the Sacred Liturgy, to understand the changes, and to develop an appreciation for the revised translation.

9. Do these changes mean that the old translation was not valid and orthodox?

The current translation was approved by the conferences of bishops and confirmed by the Holy See. Until the new text becomes effective, the current translation remains the valid ordinary form of the Liturgy in the Roman Rite. The revised translation attempts to address some inadequacies in the present translation by introducing a more elevated style of language and by retaining many poetic texts and scriptural allusions. The current translation fostered the faith of two generations of Catholics and retains a valid place in church history.

10. What opportunities does the new Missal offer the Church?

Implementing the new Missal will give the Church an opportunity to take a fresh look at its liturgical practice and to renew its celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, which is the “source and summit” of Christian life (Second Vatican Council, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church [Lumen Gentium], no. 11). The faithful, encountering the Liturgy anew in the new text, can deepen their sharing in Christ’s sacrifice, offering their lives to the Father as they worship “in Spirit and truth” (Jn 4:23).

New Mass Parts for Ordinary Time

A smorgasbord of old favorites... As we discussed last week, the new Missal will have new translations of the congregational responses. This will necessitate our learning new music for the Mass. As uncomfortable as this proposition may seem, it is nevertheless important to remember that we were not exactly born knowing all the parts we know so well today. As a “farewell” to these mass settings, we have selected the next five months’ worth of Mass parts from a variety of different Masses that almost everyone knows and loves. We hope this “trip down memory lane” leads us all to worship with full heart and voice!

Knights of Columbus

Charity Driven Knights of Columbus Looking for New Members

The Knights of Columbus around the world are remembering the anniversary death of their Founder, Father McGivney, Aug. 14, 1890.

Father Michael J. McGivney thought that Charity and Unity would be a nice start and what a nice start it turned out to be. Fraternity and Patriotism were added at later dates.

Challenge to men of our parish is still open!!!! Charity ~ it is in giving that we receive. How true that is to me and my brothers. Our Very Reverend Father John fully supports our K of C council.

Here are a few of the charitable services all the Knights are very proud to have been a participant of:

Recently, through its 1.3 million Heroes Fund, the K of C granted $3000.00 to the families of each of the fire fighters, law enforcement officers and emergency service personnel who lost their lives in the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Faith or denomination did not make a difference. The aid was given immediately.

New Orleans, Haiti, The Tsunami, Joplin, Missouri, we are everywhere, to give a helping hand and funding for these emergencies. We are also giving to local charities, vocations and our church. I am proud to be among these men of high Catholic standards and big hearts, working tirelessly to achieve what standards were put before us and making the K of C a big part of their lives. Young men are encouraged to join and bring forth the needed energy.

Are you up to helping in your spare time, helping others?

If you are, please contact Jim Folllese at 495.9741 or jdfollese@comcast.net
