THIS WEEK'S MASS & LITURGY SCHEDULE...

9/11 Mass Helps Us Remember

“We must never forget what happened on that fateful day,” — Julie and Tom Hartsell Family

The 9/11 Mass of Remembrance sponsored by the Knights of Columbus marking the 10th anniversary of the attack on America last Sunday was an overwhelming success with an estimated 1,200 or more in attendance.

The procession down the aisle began with the Harp and Thistle Bagpipe Band, the Knights of Columbus Color Corps, the United States Marine Corps Color Guard, carrying the colors. Following the Marines were New York City Firemen and Police Officers, Police Officers from the Port Authority of NY & NJ, as well as members of the Gulf Coast Retired Firefighters Association, the North Naples Fire Department and Collier County Sheriff’s Deputies, who joined their brethren from New York to honor the fallen.

Tom Oram, Ellie Vandermeuse and the St. John Choir provided the music and were given a standing ovation by the congregation. Fr. Len, who celebrated the 9:00 a.m. Mass, followed Jesus’s words in his homily, asking forgiveness. “We must forgive, in order to be forgiven,” he said.

A piece of steel recovered from the rubble of the World Trade Center was on display outside the church and gave special meaning to what had happened on that day, along with a fire truck from the North Naples Fire Department.

Julie and Tom Hartsell, as well as their son and daughter in-law, said, “It was an incredible experience for all of us present,” and added, “We must never forget what happened on that fateful day and today’s Mass brought it all back to us.”

Peter Tunucci said, “The Mass was wonderful.” “It gave a special meaning to all of us, but especially to those New York City firemen and police officers who sacrificed their lives in the service of their fellow man.”

Nancy Palmer, visiting from Michigan, said, “The Mass let us relive the 9/11 attacks on our country and was a tribute that lifted our minds, consoled our hearts and ensured that the St. John community would never let that day pass into the history books.”

One woman who chose not to be identified said, “When the Marines fired their rifles and taps were played, I cried my eyes out.”

Stewardship Council Encourages All Parishioners at St. John to Give of Their Time and Talent

Do you know what Stewardship means? Do you know the purpose of the Stewardship Council? Stewardship encourages the use and promotion of God's gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure. Many think of only Treasure when it comes to Stewardship.

The goal of the Stewardship Council is to encourage all parishioners of St. John the Evangelist to give of their time and talent by participating in one of our many ministries.

With the formation of the Stewardship Council by Father John in 2009 came many new and exciting activities:

- The Parish Survey
- The Children's Envelope Program
- The Ministry Parade
- The Ministry Fair
- The Parish Resource Directory

- The Burgundy Books
- The Ministry Information Wagon
- New Parishioner Welcome Program

The Stewardship Council meets monthly in the PLC Library for one to two hours. We are seeking new members. If you are interested, please call or email the Council President, Bob Claussen: rclaussen@aol.com or cell 239-571-5502.

Pray With Sidewalk Witnesses for Life in Front of Planned Parenthood

Planned Parenthood will be completing its second year of surgical abortions in Naples on Monday, September 12. Over 800 babies have been destroyed by surgical abortion and who knows how many more by use of the abortion pill (RU-486).

Please join the Sidewalk Witnesses for Life on Monday, September 12, in front of Planned Parenthood on the corners of Goodlette and Creech Roads. The Sidewalk Witnesses pray in front of Planned Parenthood every Monday from 8:30 a.m. until about 3:00 p.m. We invite as many as possible to join us on Monday, September 12, between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. to be a visible witness for the sacredness of LIFE and to end the killing of life at Planned Parenthood.

Parking and shuttle service will be available from the parking lots located at the west end of Creech Road just prior US41. There will be signage pointing to these parking areas. There are no sign ups or special programs slated, just your presence needed. However, if you want to wear a white shirt and bring black balloons, that would help demonstrate our grief over the evil that prevails there.

We continue to present ourselves in a quiet, prayerful manner, praying for the exploited women, the babies being aborted and all those involved in the abortion industry.

JOP November 9 -14 Mission to Provide Optical Services

The next JOP mission is an optical mission to provide eye exams and eyeglasses at St. Pius X, Kingston, Jamaica, sister parish of St. John the Evangelist, from November 9 - 14.

Interested missionaries do not need to be qualified in the field of optics. A desire to help the needy is the only requirement. Generally, the mission needs eight to twenty-two volunteers for the trip.

Some of the things the missionaries will be doing include fitting eye wear, assisting in eye exams, record keeping, assisting with school physical exams, school fix up and much more.

“You will find this to be the experience of a lifetime as you become a real missionary,” said Dr. Richard Van Buskirk, of Van Buskirk Opticians.

Dr. Van Buskirk has been participating in the optical missions for fourteen years with generally three missions each year.

If you would like to volunteer, please contact, Dr. Van Buskirk for details at rvanbuskirk@comcast.net or 225.1212.

If you were unable to attend the 9/11 remembrance Mass this past Sunday at 9:00 a.m., there is an outstanding recap with numerous pictures on the Naples Daily News website. Here is the link.

<http://www.naplesnews.com/news/2011/sep/11/naples-pays-tribute-911-fallen-worship-services/>

The Mass was completely full with over 1,200 in attendance to recognize the ten-year anniversary of this very sad moment in history.

Ask and you shall receive! My request last week for a gently used refrigerator resulted in the donation of a very nice six-year old unit. Conveniently, the donor was upgrading to a stainless steel model and was more than happy to donate the old one. Thanks James and Loretta Slattery for your very generous donation.

Work began this past week to install a new audio visual system in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center. This new system will feature four ceiling-mounted LCD projectors and four 12 foot screens located throughout the ballroom with a touch screen operations panel. Regardless of your seat, a good view will be had by all. With this new system, we will be able to host seminars with Power Point presentations, live streaming and just about anything else you can imagine.

The installation is being performed by Pro Audio Services, and I can assure you that their work is impeccable. As I mentioned several weeks ago, this new AV system is being installed at no cost to the parish. It is being donated by a local anonymous organization. The cost for the new system is $55,000.00.

What would Scott's Corner be without a plug for the Catholic Faith Appeal. As you can see from our CFA analysis, we are well below our goal for the 2011 appeal and sadly, time is running out, and I am now more than a bit nervous. We need another $154,000.00 in pledges and/or contributions by the end of the year in order to reach our goal. Obviously, the ultimate objective is to exceed our goal, however, at this point in time I would be ecstatic simply to meet our goal. Remember that you have numerous options in order to help us reach our goal. You may drop a check in the collection made payable to the Catholic Faith Appeal, fill out a pledge card and send directly to the Diocese of Venice, or you may go to the Diocesan website and make a credit card contribution. If we fail to reach our goal, the end result will be extremely detrimental to the 2011/2012 operating budget. If you are able, please help us reach our goal for the 2011 Catholic Faith Appeal.

We have opened a new section in the memorial garden for Knights of Columbus. The current section is virtually at capacity and only a few random single spots remain. The new section is located adjacent to one of the new granite benches which was donated by our very own Knights of Columbus Council 11281. If you are a Brother Knight (or spouse) and would like to take advantage of your "pick of the litter" with regards to this new section, please contact me to make arrangements. The all inclusive price is $1,200.00 and includes the opening, closing urn, headstone and plaque. If you are not a Knight and would like to purchase a similar space in another area of the memorial garden, please contact me to make arrangements.

Have you noticed anything missing outside of the church for the past several months? It is not a tangible item that has been missing but rather the beautiful sound of the carillon. The bell tower received a direct lightning strike several months ago. A representative from Schulmerich Bells came out and replaced the destroyed circuit board, however, the wiring from the carillon to the bell tower was also damaged and had to be replaced. The conduit which houses the wire was also destroyed making it impossible to "fish" a new feed between the two locations. After much research, Jim Follse (parishioner and licensed electrician) has found a solution and assures me that we will once again hear the beautiful sounds of the carillon as early as this weekend. Thanks, Jim, for your diligence in ensuring that the carillon is operational.

Verse 1)

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord almighty,
For my soul longs and even faints for you.
For here my heart is satisfied within your Presence
I sing beneath the shadow of your wings (chorus, below)

Verse 2)

One thing I ask and I would seek: to see your beauty,
To find you in the place your glory dwells (repeat, then chorus)
Bridge) My heart and flesh cry out for you, the living God
Your spirit's water to my soul.
I've tasted and I've seen—come once again to me—
I will draw near to you, I will draw near to you, to you...

Better is one day in your courts, bet-ter is one day in your house, bet-ter is one day in your courts than thou-sands else-where; — Bet-ter is one day in your courts, bet-ter is

Communion Song

The Heart of Worship

Matt Redman

Verse 1

When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart

Pre-chorus

I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...

Chorus

I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

Verse 2

King of endless worth, no one could express
How much you deserve;
Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours,
ev'ry single breath.

Verse 3

And as I receive your Body and your Blood,
given up for me;
Take me as I am, call me to the Feast,
say the word, I'm healed—

The Word & Life

Seeking A Generous God

Everyone wants to be treated fairly and with justice. In our dealings with those in our family, with our friends, and with people in church or society, we expect that they will grant us the dignity of being fair. Today's gospel contradicts the world's sense of fairness. It seems extremely unfair that those who worked long hours should receive the same pay as the ones who came at the last hour. How many of us would put up with this scenario? What we have to remember is that through this parable, Jesus is teaching us to go deeper into the reality of God. The parable demonstrates how God summons people into His kingdom at various times and in various places. God calls people in every season. He is always at work, ready to seek out what is lost and to offer salvation. God offers the gift of eternal life and it is never too late to accept His invitation. Such is God's generosity, that He is ready to love and forgive even in the eleventh hour.

The message for us is that God's ways are clearly not our ways, neither are his thoughts our thoughts. We are always invited to turn to God who is gracious and forgiving. It takes longer for some people to recognize the Giver in the midst of the gifts of life. Most of us can easily give witness to the ways in which God has manifested Himself to us and how we have responded to Him. Even though some of us may have been totally dismissive of God's will in our lives, certain events take place or certain people enter our lives to remind us that God's redemption is forever at work and that He is calling us to right relationship with Him. It may well take us or others until the eleventh hour to respond to the grace and love of

Reflection Questions

1. What is challenging about today's parable?
2. What does today's parable tell us about God's initiative?
3. How does God's mercy and justice differ from that of the world?
4. Name the times in which you have responded to the Lord and have neglected the Lord?
5. In what way do you think God will repay you for your discipleship and Christian witness?

God's invitation, but God offers us the gift of forgiveness and transformation nonetheless.

Let us consider for a moment how the countries of our world have tried to settle international disputes. International affairs can be far removed from God's plan for unity and peace. Deadlines are necessary at times to affect change in hostile environments. But is it necessary to go to war when countries run out of time? We must discern how to create environments in which lasting peace can be secured, patiently building up trust and offering adequate time for negotiations. The example set by God is one of patience, not hurriedness. The parable demonstrates this very point. International politics are indeed complex, but we should heed the lessons of history. Although not the true way, war sometimes is very necessary. No matter what our stand, we must always pray for those young men and women who give themselves in service to their country, praying that God will keep them safe.

Those of us who are thirty or older will remember that we were asked to pray for the conversion of Russia from communism to religious freedom. Today, if we adhere to the wisdom of the gospel, we know we must pray for the conversion of those who engage in violence and mass destruction. Prayer changes hearts, not violence. It is never too late for those who are violent to have a change of heart and to begin to love instead of hate. God waits for such individuals to enter the harvest of His love and kingdom. It is never too late for them. It takes our prayer and openness to God's generosity to allow this transformation to take place. God's ways are certainly not our ways for anything is possible for Him. In the words from Isaiah we can only pray that the scoundrel forsake his way and the wicked his thoughts.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

We pray: Heavenly Father, we thank you for your mercy and love. May all people come to know you, especially those who sin against your love. May we rejoice when the sinner returns to you and let us encourage one another to pray for those who persecute us. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“Peace is not merely the absence of war; nor can it be reduced solely to the maintenance of a balance of power between enemies; nor is it brought about by dictatorship. Instead, it is rightly and appropriately called an enterprise of justice. Peace results from that order structured into human society by its divine Founder and actualized by men as they thirst after ever greater justice. The common good of humanity finds its ultimate meaning in the eternal law. But since the concrete demands of this common good are constantly changing as time goes on, peace is never attained once and for all, but must be built up ceaselessly. Moreover, since the human will is unsteady and wounded by sin, the achievement of peace requires a constant mastering of passions and the vigilance of lawful authority...

...For this reason, all Christians are urgently summoned to do in love what the truth requires, and to join with all true peacemakers in pleading for peace and bringing it about.”

Faith Formation

School Starts

The 2011-2012 Faith Formation school year started on Sunday, September 11, 2011. Both children and catechists were excited to start the new year. It was an opportunity for children to renew their friendships and establish new ones.

We have another outstanding group of catechists this year, and we are proud to have them teaching our children. The future of our Church is with today's children. Their spirituality will grow through our Faith Formation Program. This year's catechists and aides include: Cheryl Janes, Christopher McGuire, Debbie Kopko, Ellen Higgins, Jan Vastola, Jennifer Joseph, Karen & Rick Szatkowski, Loren Hoffman, Loretta Judy, Mary Chalhoub, Mary Ellen Metro, Melissa O'Brien, Michelle Mattia, Molly Anton, Natalie Campbell, Jenny & Neal Borter, Pat Zewalk, Sylvia De Feo, Tara Lichtlin, Tess Schumacher, and Trish Schwarz.

Our catechists are being commissioned at the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, September 18. Afterwards, there will be a brunch for them in the ballroom.

Safe Environment Training

As part of the Diocese of Venice's commitment to keep children safe, Saint John the Evangelist's Faith Formation Program provides a one-hour Safe Environment Training Session. This training provides our children with the tools they need to overcome the advances of someone who intends to do them harm. Safe Environment Training is implemented through a "Touching Safety Program" that has been created for specific age groups:

- Grades 1 through 2
- Grades 3 through 5

Safe Environment Training for Sunday's Faith Formation students will be conducted on Sunday, October 9, at 9:15 a.m. Safe Environment Training for Wednesday's Faith Formation students will be conducted on Wednesday, October 12, at 5:30 p.m. The Diocese has changed the Safe Environment Training policy for the 2011-2012 school year. Unless we receive a signed opt-out form in advance from the child's parents or guardian, the child will automatically be opted-in for Safe Environment training. If the child is absent for Safe Environment Training without the Faith Formation Office having his/her signed opt-out form, it will count as an absence and the child will have to attend a make-up Safe Environment Training session. Parents cannot avoid this training for their children by simply not attending. An opt-out form is required for the child to miss the training!

Opt-out forms will be made available through the child's folder and the Faith Formation Office. If you prefer, you can call the Faith Formation Office on 239-514-2927 ext. 124 and one will be emailed to you.
