Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

EVANGELIST
SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

One Sunday For The Whole World

Next Sunday, Pope Benedict XVI calls every Catholic in the world to celebrate our vocation to be missionary. It's World Mission Sunday!

As Catholics around the world — here at home and in the Missions — gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work. We pray for those awaiting the "Good News" of our Lord's great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. And we are to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Making A World Of Difference

Just as our young church here in the United States received support in the 19th century from the Catholics of Europe through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, so too the growing churches in the Developing World today also require financial help. Your generosity will help make a faith-filled difference around the world! Next Sunday there will be a second collection for World Mission Sunday.

- A gift of $15 is a week's support of a young man in a mission seminary.
- A gift of $20 helps to purchase a desk and books for a student in a catechetical class in a parish in the mountainous region of northern Vietnam.
- A gift of $75 provides support for religious Sisters in Zambia serving at a mission hospital there.
- A gift of $125 will help toward food, shelter, clothing, medical care and an education for one of the 45 young girls in the care of the Good Shepherd Sisters in Thailand.

Televised Mass for World Mission Sunday

The Mass for World Mission Sunday will be televised October 23 at 10:00 a.m. on FOX 4 in Naples. It is viewable all week via the Diocese of Venice website: www. http://dioceseofvenice.com. The Mass was taped while Fr. John was at the missions in St. Lucia in August.

40 Days For Life: YOU can help save lives!

40 Days for Life is a focused pro-life effort that consists of: 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach.

We are praying that, with God's help, this groundbreaking effort will mark the beginning of the end of abortion in our city -- and throughout America.

While all aspects of 40 Days for Life are crucial in our effort to end abortion, the most visible component is the peaceful prayer vigil outside the local abortion (or Planned Parenthood) facility.

Reports show 4,313 babies have been spared from abortion through 40 Days for Life. At least 2 babies were saved outside Planned Parenthood in Naples during the spring 2010 campaign. Their moms saw people praying, spoke to a sidewalk counselor and decided not to go through with a scheduled abortion. Will you be there for the others?

You can help make a life-saving impact by joining the local vigil in front of Planned Parenthood, 1425 Creech Rd, Naples, FL. (When going North on Goodlette, Creech is on your left.

You will have to make a U-Turn. From US-41, take a right onto Creech. Parking is directly on the left or right in back of the buildings (near the entrance of lot). Walk or shuttle down if you have a group shuttler. Drop offs at Apartment entrance, NOT Planned Parenthood's, because of closeness to Goodlette.)

"St. John's days" during 40 days for life are Oct 18 and Oct 24. Sign up to participate in our local 40 Days for Life vigil by clicking the "Vigil Schedule" link at <http://www.40daysforlife.com/naples-fl/>

Weekday Mass Times Revert to Winter Schedule October 31

Weekday Mass times will revert to the winter schedule Monday, October 31. We will return to the 8:00 and 9:00 Mass times Monday through Friday. Saturday Mass will remain at 8:00 a.m. with confessions immediately after.

Sunday Mass Times Revert to Winter Schedule November 6

The winter Sunday Mass schedule will go into effect Sunday, November 6. We will return to 11:15 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Mass. The 7:00 and 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Masses will stay the same, as will the 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. vigil Masses.

We will follow the winter Mass schedule until May, 2012.

Blessing of the Animals October 8 with Deacon Rob Chalhoub

At Mass this past week, there was a second collection for St. Vincent De Paul. This second collection was actually supposed to have been a “special collection” and not a “second collection.” There are generally only six second collections taken annually. These second collections consist of “four” for the Jamaica Outreach Program (November, February, March and May), one for World Mission Sunday (October) and one for the Seminarians/Vocations (January.) A special collection is one that is included in the regular collection. These special collections are for Catholic University, Black and Indian Missions, Peter’s Pence and many others. The envelopes for these special collections are included in your packet which is mailed to your home bi-monthly. The special collections are generally preceded by a letter in the bulletin from the Bishop asking that you generously support the particular cause. Rather than take a second collection for St. Vincent De Paul, we allocate the entire collection on Thanksgiving and St. Patrick’s Day to this great organization. Although this second collection last weekend was taken in error, the proceeds will be used to assist needy families in our community. As a reminder, there will be a second collection on October 22 and 23 for World Mission Sunday. We apologize for the error and thank you for your continued generosity.

I included the following narrative regarding the lighting in the church two weeks ago. There has been $6,000.00 donated to the lighting fund thus far so I am running it once again. Could it be that the proposed price tag scared off many of my readers? If we pool our resources, I am confident that we can bring this project to fruition. I am aware that this lighting project is not as glamorous as purchasing a bench or a Station of the Cross, but the need is great and the end result will benefit everyone. Please consider making a donation so that we can solve our lighting problems once and for all.

We have made great strides during the past several years to enhance the buildings and grounds here at St. John the Evangelist. As I mentioned several weeks ago, the last remaining major project is the lighting in the church. I will begin with a little history: The church is now nearly 19 years old with the first Mass being celebrated on Christmas Eve in 1992. The original lighting is still in place and the problems are now mounting at an exponential rate. First and foremost, the original lighting was designed and installed for more of a residential application and certainly not a commercial application. In order to change any of the bulbs in the ceiling or on the clerestory windows, a lift must be rented and the front doors removed. This isn’t your basic scissor lift but instead a 45’ boom lift which will allow the operator to reach the 55’ ceiling. The lift must be carefully navigated down the center aisle as to not damage the pews. There is a clearance of a half inch on either side. There is obviously very little room for error. Just to change the bulbs in the sanctuary, we spend several thousand dollars in lift rental, bulbs and labor. The bulbs in the sanctuary ceiling are a combination of metal halide and par lamp spotlights. The fixtures are controlled by an archaic Lutron dimmer pack system. Even after replacing all of the bulbs in the ceiling, many burn out in as little as six months after replacement. The lighting over the altar is mounted on a track system and consists of the same par lamp spotlights. We replaced every single light and a few of the fixtures following the renovation last September. As you can see, nearly half of these bulbs have burned out in less than a year. Many burned out after only six months. The lighting over the altar is also controlled by the dimmer packs. The dimmer packs have reached the end of their useful life. We have replaced a few and the problems still persist. Due to the malfunction of the dimmer packs, much of the lighting has been rerouted, bypassing the dimmer packs. As for the rest of the church, the lighting is very poor at best. The Narthex is very gloomy and dark. The back wings are also very dark even after removing the old wood ceiling two years ago. The lectors and the celebrant often have a very difficult time reading the word of God from the Ambo. We have made numerous patches over the years, but the problem seems to worsen as time goes by.

We have met with a commercial lighting professional to address our problems. They have come up with a solution which will illuminate the church while solving the problems of maintenance. With this new proposal, we will be able to lower the lights over the altar for easy access. We will replace the fixtures in the sanctuary ceiling to new energy efficient fixtures and bulbs with a life over ten times what is currently in place. We will also illuminate the narthex and back wings by installing very tasteful chandeliers and adding ancillary fixtures. The entire system may be controlled by an Ipad from anywhere inside the church. There are 999 different scenes which may be programmed and accessed simply by the push of a button. The stage lighting proposed above the altar may be manipulated in a plethora of different variations, even including the addition of color. Imagine being able to flood the back walls of the Altar with green or purple to coincide with the particular color of the liturgical season. The technological advances made over the past 19 years with regards to lighting have been numerous. We would like to take advantage of these advances and install a new lighting system which will bring our church into the 21st century. I am aware that many of you have a difficult time reading your missal due to the abysmal lighting in the sanctuary. I apologize for the delay in addressing the lighting, however, we made a decision that temporary patches would no longer be acceptable. The church lighting needs a total overhaul.

Our parishioners have shown their extreme generosity on numerous occasions in the past. From the church renovation to the Prayer Garden, your outpouring of support has been key in allowing us to complete projects which would have otherwise not been possible. Such is the case with our lighting project. This lighting renovation obviously comes at a price and we knew that it would not be cheap. The proposal to complete the job is approximately $70,000.00. There is an error of +/- $5,000.00 based on the fixtures chosen for the chandeliers and ancillary fixtures. We are looking for a donor or several donors that see the extreme benefit of this much needed project to step forward and help bring us from darkness into light. By making a gift or donation to this project, you are benefitting every single parishioner that walks into the church. If you are interested in creating a beautiful, well lit environment in the church, please contact me at 566.1678 to discuss.

Verse 1) You gave me a title, although I didn't know you. You called my name, and blessed me with life. Now I've squandered the fortunes of my childhood, given in to a world of lies... But I can't hide forever from what I know is true; Jesus, I surrender my life to you— (to chorus)

Verse 2) The mountains, they move at the sound of your holy name; the lame will walk and the blind will see. I know you want my heart, I know that I am nothing; you are the source of ev'rything... And I can't live forever, unless I live in you; Jesus I surrender my life to you— (to chorus)

The Word & Life

A Radical Knowledge

(Matthew 22:15-21)

The cunning of men can be too hard to bear at times. Jesus was no stranger to deception. In today's gospel, we encounter the deceit of the Pharisees as they seek to entrap Jesus. It is hard to imagine why the religious teachers had such a problem with Jesus' teachings. Stranger still is how people could undermine a man who brought so much healing to the world. Maybe the religious establishment feared Jesus because it eroded their sense of control. Perhaps they saw him as a magician who brought temporary relief to those who were hurting. These leaders were most certainly skeptical. Nothing could convince these men that Jesus' mission and ministry was the work of God.

When we look at the reality of Jesus, we see at work a radical theology that challenged the conventional religious thought of his time. Jesus taught that God was not only someone to be feared, but someone with whom one could have an intimate relationship. Jesus taught the people to refer to God as 'abba', 'father'. The literal translation is 'daddy'. Such an outlook fundamentally changed the way in which humanity approached God. Jesus' wisdom revealed how people were no longer passive spectators in the history of salvation, but involved in the divine drama that was unfolding. Jesus healed disease and the negative traits of the human condition. The healing that Jesus offered showed these leaders that sin and illness could be overcome by God's grace. Jesus also put humanity ahead of the Sabbath and tended to the needs of God's people who were crying out to him from the wildernesses of their lives. Within this context, the Pharisees failed to bring Jesus down. Instead, they endeavor to rend Jesus powerless by trying to make him an enemy of the Roman occupation by asking him was it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar. Jesus sees through this and exclaims: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Reflection Questions

1. How is Jesus' teaching radically different from the religious establishment?
2. Why do the Pharisees try to entrap Jesus?
3. What is Jesus teaching us about the obligations that citizens have to the State?
4. What are your obligations as an American citizen?
5. What are your responsibilities as a member of the Body of Christ?
6. How does your sense of religious responsibility dialogue with your duty as a member of society?
7. What do you offer to your country and to God?

The challenge that Jesus gave to the Pharisees two thousand years ago remains the challenge for the Church today, i.e. to give to God what belongs to God. We must discern what this means for us today. Obviously, we have to be faithful to the duties we have to society as citizens by paying taxes and abiding by the laws of the land. Each one of us has to be faithful citizens and work to protect the rights and dignity of the vulnerable. We have the responsibility in choosing governments that will strive to work for justice and peace. We have to be faithful citizens of the kingdom of God also. The Church's challenge is to constantly seek its Christological heart. Church laws are important because they bring us to the ideal and perfection that God intends. However, whenever people fall short of the ideal, the Church must seek to offer Christ's compassion, listening and love to those broken situations. Today, as the people of the Church, we are asked to offer ourselves to others as Christ did and be agents of such transformation. We, like all missionaries across the world, are being called to take this radical message to those who have yet to encounter Christ.

Volunteers serve breakfast to the needy at a shelter.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

We pray: Be with us Lord as we live. Let our lives be a radiance of your divine compassion. Help us to learn to give completely of ourselves offering the gift that is truly yours. May we always be faithful to our call as citizens and as people of your kingdom. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“Profound and rapid changes make it more necessary that no one ignoring the trend of events or drugged by laziness, content himself with a merely individualistic morality. It grows increasingly true that the obligations of justice and love are fulfilled only if each person, contributing to the common good, according to his own abilities and the needs of others, also promotes and assists the public and private institutions dedicated to bettering the conditions of human life. Yet there are those who, while possessing grand and rather noble sentiments, nevertheless in reality live always as if they cared nothing for the needs of society. Many in various places even make light of social laws and precepts, and do not hesitate to resort to various frauds and deceptions in avoiding just taxes or other debts due to society. Others think little of certain norms of social life, for example those designed for the protection of health, or laws establishing speed limits; they do not even avert to the fact that by such indifference they imperil their own life and that of others.

Let everyone consider it his sacred obligation to esteem and observe social necessities as belonging to the primary duties of modern man. For the more unified the world becomes, the more plainly do the offices of men extend beyond particular groups and spread by degrees to the whole world. But this development cannot occur unless individual men and their associations cultivate in themselves the moral and social virtues, and promote them in society; thus, with the needed help of divine grace men who are truly new and artisans of a new humanity can be forthcoming.”

Meg Judge Driving Force Behind Statues of Blessed Mother, St. John the Evangelist and the Crucifix

Meg Judge

After eighteen years with no crucifix, statue of the Blessed Mother or a lifelike representation of St. John the Evangelist, we now have all three. These magnificent commissioned pieces are the work of world renowned sculptor Timothy P. Schmalz. Did you know that these beautiful sculptures might not have come to fruition had it not been for the generous donation of time, talent and treasure made by Margaret (Meg) Judge. Meg was a driving force in negotiating the pricing for all three pieces as well as being involved in the design of the sculptures. Furthermore, had it not been for Meg, we would not have had delivery of the corpus for the crucifix prior to the re-opening of the church following the renovation. Meg worked with Timothy Schmalz on prior occasions and knew the difficulty in fabricating the pieces in Thailand and then shipping to the United States via Canada. Once it was realized that we would not have the crucifix on time, Meg mandated that the Corpus be sent air mail from Timothy's studio in the far east. Needless to say, it arrived just in time for the unveiling in October of 2010.

THANK YOU, DONORS...

St. John the Evangelist Donors

Meg met with Fr. John, Tony Frey (representative from Schmalz Studio) and myself in January of 2009 to discuss the idea of having these life size pieces sculpted. Because of her business relationship with the sculptor as well as her extraordinary negotiation skills, we received preferential pricing and priority service. After our meeting she presented Fr. John with a check for $20,000.00 to help pay for the sculptures.

After seeing her vision come to life in the church, Meg wanted something more and came to me in April of this year to purchase a Station of the Cross and a bench in the Prayer Garden. While discussing the engraving for the bench and Station of the Cross, Meg explained to me that she was dying and had very little time left on earth. Meg passed away on July 3 of this year. Although she is not with us anymore, she certainly left her mark on St. John the Evangelist. She was a wonderful woman full of the Holy Spirit. She had a very strong devotion to the Blessed Mother and she adored Fr. John. We will miss Meg dearly but will be able to see her every time we look at any of the beautiful sculptures in the church.

“She (Meg Judge) had a very strong devotion to the Blessed Mother and she adored Fr. John.”

children, who will be celebrating the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist. The meeting will be held in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center on Wednesday, October 26, 2011 at 6:00 p.m. The focus of the meeting will be on the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation in which children will learn to know Jesus as their Friend, to love Him above all things, to love others, and to have contrition for their sins when they fail to love.

Mass Enrollment for Sacramental Candidates is scheduled on Sunday, October 30, 2011 at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. This Mass recognizes those children who will celebrate their First Eucharist in May 2012. Reserved seating will be made available for the Sacramental candidates and their parents. During the Mass, our penitential rite will include the sprinkling of water which reminds each one of us of our Baptism, when we first became members of Christ's Body, the Church. The names of the children to be enrolled will be called and each child will come forward to receive a cross pin. Please pray for these children when you see them wearing their cross pins during the year, greet them and let them know how happy you are for them at this special time in their lives.

WHY HOLD THIS EVENT?

The Knights of Columbus, an international Catholic men's organization, recognizes the need for young men to seek out the priesthood. We also recognize that the financial barriers that exist for many young people seeking higher education also exist for those desiring to become priests. The one difference is that those seeking priesthood do not get government assistance in the United States. They need the support of their families, and when lacking this, the support of their Catholic family. All Catholics are aware of the lack of vocations and the effect this is having on our parishes. We share a desire to not only ease the path for existing Seminararians, but to let young Catholic men know that they do not have to reject or defer a religious career for financial reasons. St. John's Knights of Columbus Council 11281 has raised over 50,000.00 for Seminararians and other religious order needs in the Diocese Of Venice. We depend upon the parish members of St. John to support our Annual Vocations event by buying tickets and donating items for the auctions.

Join us as we give thanks and say: Father Len, thank you for your Vocation!

Auction Items Needed

The St. John's Knights of Columbus is accepting appropriate donations for a silent auction at the Vocations Dinner. Gifts should be suitable for baskets (round of golf, restaurant, beauty salon). Gifts suitable for the oral auction are also much appreciated. Please call Tony Curatolo, 239-269-4131 or Jerry Detloff, 239-513-1545. All the money raised will be used to support the Seminararians, our future priests, in the Venice Diocese.

Parishioners have the option of taking one or both cruises. Those opting for both cruises will receive a special discount for the "continuation" package.

Special air is being arranged for all three travel itineraries. For those doing strictly the transatlantic crossing, one-way air returning from Rome to Ft. Myers on Air Berlin will be provided. For those doing both cruises, the same one-way air from Rome will be provided at the conclusion of the 2nd cruise. For those wishing to do the Greek Isles cruise only, Round trip air from Ft. Myers to Rome will be arranged on Air Berlin or similar.
