EVANGELIST
SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

Veterans Remembrance Mass

One day prior to the official celebration of Veterans Day, Thursday, November 10, Fr. John will offer a Mass of Remembrance at 9 a.m. to honor our Veterans and those members of the military who continue to serve our great nation.

The Knights of Columbus, who are sponsoring this special Mass, are requesting that all veterans and their spouses, and widows of loved ones who have served, as well as the entire St. John Community, join them in paying tribute to our beloved veterans.

Special recognition will be given to our WW II warriors who are decreasing in numbers by 1,500 a day.

Joining the Knights will be The Harp and Thistle Bagpipe Band, along with members of Marine Corps League of Naples, who will present and post our colors and render a rifle salute to our fallen heroes.

November 10 is also the 236th birthday of the United States Marine Corps.

Members of the Gulf Coast Retired Firefighters Association will have a model of the "Freedom Memorial" on display. The memorial is currently being

North Naples resident Everett Short, 86, a WW II Marine joined the Marine Corps on his 17th birthday in 1942 and fought in the Pacific battles of Guadalcanal, Bougainville, Iwo Jima and Guam, names that every Marine will never forget built in Collier County at the intersection of Goodlette Frank Road and Golden Gate Parkway to honor all veterans and those who perished in the 9/11 terrorist attacks.

Complimentary refreshments will be served in the PLC immediately following Mass.

Bible Story Time: God Made Me

By Jennifer Grenardo, Ed.D.

“Who made the sun?”

“God!”

“Who made the moon?”

“God!”

“Who made the trees?”

“God!”

“Who made you?”

“God!” cheerfully shouted over 30 children at our first Bible Story Time.

On Monday, October 17, 2011 at 10:00 a.m., St. John the Evangelist held its first Bible Story Time for parents and children ages zero to five years old. Over 30 children and ten mothers came to hear stories about creation and all of the amazing things God made.

As the children entered, they sat down at little tables and chairs to create individualized name plates. We gathered together to the tune of “Jesus in the Morning,” learning fun motions to the song. We then recited a prayer, thanking God for the Bible. The children listened to stories about the beautiful world that God made.

The most exciting part of Bible Story Time (aside from snack time) occurred when the children realized that God made each and every one of them. The children received paper apples with their names that they stuck to an apple tree. Each child was asked, “Who made you?” Every child responded with a smile, “God.”

As we sang “He’s Got the Whole World in His Hands,” the children moved their arms in a circle to create the world and put their hands together to represent God’s hands. They learned that God made “the wind and the rain,” “the little bitty babies,” “you and me brother/sister,” and “everybody here.”

Each child created their own “God Made Me” booklet. The children colored each page, pasted it to construction paper, and tied their books together with colorful yarn.

We then prayed, “God is great, God is good, let us thank Him for this food, Amen.” Everyone enjoyed Apple Cinnamon Cheerios and Cinnamon Chex.

The day ended with children swinging on the swings, sliding down the slides, and digging in the dirt on the playground. We truly enjoyed all of the wonderful things God made.

Parents and children ages zero to five years old, please join us! Bible Story Time is held every Monday at 10 a.m. in the pre-school classroom in the St. John the Evangelist Office Building. No registration is required, just come!

Bible Story Time meets on Mondays from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. in PLC pre-school classroom. Parents and children ages 0-5 years old welcome. Contact Jennifer Grenardo at grenardo@comcast.net for more information.

Many of our year round residents have been privy to all of the improvements that have occurred around campus over the summer. Our seasonal residents and visitors (unless they have been reading the bulletin online) have been pleasantly surprised upon their return. This past week I received a very nice letter from a parish family addressed to the Buildings and Grounds Committee. I contacted the family and asked if I could share their comments and they humbly agreed. Below are some excerpts from their letter.

“We were pleasantly surprised as we drove into our church campus to attend the 11:00 am Mass last Sunday. So many new items and improvements; the lovely sign by the road, crisp landscaping, a fresh coat of sealer and signage on the paved areas, but most of all was the improved traffic flow within the parking areas and internal roadways. Your ministry members are to be commended for doing such an outstanding job this summer. All of this work was accomplished while we were up north in New Hampshire for the summer. We are not disappointed that we missed all of the construction work and the temporary traffic situation that must have had to be dealt with. It is heartwarming to return to St. John’s in the fall and find it even better than we left it. Thank you again for all that your ministry does to embellish the parish campus.”

Thank you to everyone who gave so generously this past weekend at Mass. This was the first time since May that we exceeded our weekly budget. This is a sure sign that many of our northern parishioners have come back to paradise. Thanks you again for your continued support.

The Paniccia Prayer Garden is nearing completion. The Stations of the Cross have been installed and create a dramatic scene in the beautifully landscaped garden. Please see the picture of one of the Stations. We are currently awaiting delivery of the plaques recognizing the donors, which will adorn the front of each Station. Please see upcoming bulletins for information on the dedication of the Prayer Garden. In addition, the granite benches in the memorial garden, prayer garden and in front of church have been repaired. You may now sit on these beautiful benches.

Lighting Update

One very generous parish family chose to make their IRA required minimum distribution as a tax deductible donation to assist with our lighting project. The IRS provision to allow for such a charitable donation from your IRA is still in effect through the end of 2011, however, it may expire in 2012. If you would like to take advantage of this option, please contact me or your financial advisor for further information. We now have received $17,000.00 and are nearly 25% of the way to a new lighting system. If you would like to contribute, please drop a check in the offertory or better yet, stop by and see me in the office. Together, we can meet with success. Thank you very much to those that have made a contribution.

What would Scott’s Corner be without a plug for the Catholic Faith Appeal. As you can see from our CFA analysis, we are well below our goal for the 2011 appeal and sadly, time is quickly running out, and I am now more than a bit nervous. We need another $120,000.00 in pledges and/or contributions by the end of the year in order to reach our goal. Obviously the ultimate objective is to exceed our goal, however, at this point in time I would be ecstatic simply to meet our goal. Remember that you have numerous options in order to help us reach our goal. You may drop a check in the collection made payable to the Catholic Faith Appeal, fill out a pledge card and send directly to the Diocese of Venice or you may go to the Diocesan website and make a credit card contribution. The option of making a tax deductible distribution from your IRA (as mentioned in the prior paragraph) also exists. If we fail to reach our goal, the end result will be extremely detrimental to the 2011/2012 operating budget. If you are able, please help us reach our goal for the 2011 Catholic Faith Appeal.

We are hosting an AARP Driver Safety Class on November 12 from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in the library of the Parish Life Center. The cost is $12 for AARP members and $14 for non-members. During the month of November, the class is free to Veterans and their spouse. This is a very informative and fun class. Upon completion of the program you will be eligible for a substantial discount on your automobile insurance by submitting documentation to your provider. If you are interested in participating, please contact Toni Valery at 593.9329.

The final round of flu shots will be administered on Tuesday, November 15 at 9:00 a.m. in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center. If you have yet to receive your shot this is an opportunity to do so in the friendly confines of St. John the Evangelist. The Flu Shots are being administered by the Visiting Nurses Association of Southwest Florida. Did you know that the proceeds from the Visiting Nurses Association will be used to provide Flu, Tetanus and Pneumonia shots to Immokalee Farmworkers free of charge?

A Teaching in Preparedness

During the summer months the people of Florida have heard much about Hurricane Preparedness. They pay special attention to the news as storms circulate in the tropics from June through November. Much attention and energy is placed on being ready for a possible storm. Many people are seen preparing the structures of their homes so that they will be kept safe in case a storm comes as they depart for the northern states. Florida stores witness countless numbers of people buying flashlights and other supplies in case a hurricane hits. Such supplies are vital in the event of such a hurricane. Here we are nearly at the end of the hurricane season and we are already witnessing our welcomed seasonal residents returning, removing the shutters from their homes and settling into normality in Florida living. However, as soon as we depart from thoughts of hurricanes, we are already beginning to prepare for the holiday season. It seems as if we are always preparing for something!

If Jesus were to come today, he would probably use such an image as demonstrated above to illustrate the importance of being prepared to enter the reign of God. In today's gospel we hear about the ten virgins preparing to meet the bridegroom. A wedding would be a week long affair in Jesus' time – there was no mention of a honeymoon in those days. To celebrate a whole week long meant that people would have to possess enough supplies to welcome the bridegroom and celebrate the wedding feast. We are told five virgins were prepared and, therefore, wise; the other five were not.

The parable today is a simple reminder to us that we have to be prepared to meet the Lord when he comes to take us from this life into the next. When someone is told that they have a terminal illness, most of the time, they will start to take care of unfinished business. Tenuous relationships are often confronted

Reflection Questions

1. What effort do you put into your faith?
2. How is God asking you to prepare for his presence in your family?
3. Are you prepared to meet God face to face? Why/why not?
4. If you were told that you had a short time to live, how would that change your life?
5. Would you consider changing those things now?
6. How do you use your resources to welcome God in the world today?
7. What is the gospel challenging you to do?

and reconciled and people have the opportunity to say goodbye. The terminally ill person often seeks to be reconciled to go and meet God when they die. In such cases the people have an idea that preparations need to be attended to. However, it is not like this for most. The reality is that most of us do not know the day or the hour when God will come to take us. This is why we always need to be prepared for such a journey.

The supply of oil in today's parable represents the resources that Jesus has given us in his proclamation of the kingdom of heaven. We are given a clear indication of how we can be prepared to meet God in the message that Jesus proclaims. At the beginning of Jesus' mission, he calls humanity to repent and believe in the good news for the kingdom of God is near at hand! He shows us how this is to be lived out by refusing to be mastered by sin and opening ourselves to the healing presence that He had intended to impart on a waiting world. Jesus opens us to right relationship with ourselves, God, and neighbor. We are challenged to live a life of justice in which every day matters in which we can make a difference. It is how we make choices individually and how we try and live the truth of the gospel that will ultimately prepare us to meet God face to face one day. We simply have to live each day as if it were our last day and take care of any unfinished business.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

We pray: O God of second chances, we praise You and thank you for the promise of Your kingdom. Help us to understand and live Your truth so that we will be prepared to meet You face to face. May we learn to let go of what is not essential and to embrace what is essential in order to be ready to meet You when You come. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“Men and women today are clearly aware that, more than ever before, they are called to fashion their own destiny in this world. The means to do so are increasingly available: a better understanding of the earth and its secrets; a better understanding of the movement of history and social organization; and the world of communications, which gives more and more people an opportunity to share in modern progress. A more humane world is struggling to be born.

And yet, at every turn the highest hopes are accompanied by disturbing contradictions. As regards respect for fundamental human rights, the last decades have witnessed much progress and a growing awareness of the rightness of this cause. We cannot, however, overlook the fact that our world still offers too many examples of radical injustice and oppression.”

New Adoration Chapel Makes Perpetual Adoration a Reality

During the renovation of the church last September, Fr. John met with me to discuss an important change he wished to implement. He explained that with the installation of our new Tabernacle behind the altar, we could create a true “Adoration Chapel” in the old “Reservation Chapel.” He further explained that the current configuration of the Reservation Chapel did not allow for perpetual adoration. After a lengthy tutorial on liturgical design, I knew that we had very little time to make this substantial transformation a reality by the first week of October.

Fr. John wanted the new Adoration Chapel dramatically transformed creating two separate spaces. The massive Tabernacle, which once housed the blessed sacrament, was moved to the other side of the etched glass window. In addition, the wall which houses the etched glass window was extended on both sides to create another room accessible only from inside the church. We then added an exterior door with a digitally coded lock so that those wishing to participate in adoration 24 hours a day would have the opportunity.

The entrance from the Narthex now houses the Tabernacle which displays the Monstrance. The etched glass window was “flipped” and lowered so that those participating in adoration would be able to clearly see the Monstrance. Three dedicated kneelers and additional seating for 15 was installed to accommodate as many as possible. With numerous vendors working on short notice and a little luck, we completed this transformation in time for the re-opening of the Church on October 8. I would like to recognize Peter Heaney for his work in assisting me with the final liturgical aspects of the Chapel to ensure that is indeed the Sacred Space that Fr. John intended.

On Friday, December 3 following the 9:00 a.m. Mass, Fr. John dedicated the new Adoration Chapel. This was a truly moving experience for the nearly 50 in attendance who remained to take part. There were tears in the eyes of more than a few who crammed into the sacred space to celebrate this momentous occasion.

Transatlantic-Mediterranean/Greek Island Cruise

April 2012

Join your fellow St. John's parishioners on a memorable transatlantic cruise to Rome, followed by a spectacular cruise of the Greek Islands. This once-in-a-lifetime cruise vacation will have it all. Cruise the Atlantic, cruise the islands, or cruise them both! Relax amid the sun and scenery of the Mediterranean and Aegean sea, and explore the sun-drenched beaches and historical significance of this ancient region

Both Cruises will be aboard the five-star Celebrity Equinox, with the first cruise being a 14-night transatlantic crossing from Ft. Lauderdale on April 16, 2012 (Itinerary is listed below).

The second cruise is a continuation aboard the Equinox and will depart Civitevecchia (Rome) on April 30th for a memorable 11 night cruise of the Greek Islands, Athens & Istanbul. Father John will be joining this 2nd cruise and will be offering private group masses as well as a unique religious perspective on this special region.

Parishioners have the option of taking one or both cruises. Those opting for both cruises will receive a special discount for the "continuation" package.

Special air is being arranged for all three travel itineraries. For those doing strictly the transatlantic crossing, one-way air returning from Rome to Ft. Myers on Air Berlin will be provided. For those doing both cruises, the same one-way air from Rome will be provided at the conclusion of the 2nd cruise. For those wishing to do the Greek Isles cruise only, Round trip air from Ft. Myers to Rome will be arranged on Air Berlin or similar.
