We Remember in a Special Mass Those Who Sacrificed Their Lives on the Battlefield for Their Country

A visit to a National Cemetery is always a moving experience, especially on Memorial Day, when we remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

One cannot help feeling both saddened and uplifted by walking through the immaculate grounds and sparkling white tombstones, reading the names of fallen heroes who served this country so honorably when called.

Officially proclaimed on May 5, 1868, by General John Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, Memorial Day was first observed on May 30, 1868, honoring the dead of both Union and Confederate Armies who died fighting the Civil War.

Memorial Day is now observed on the last Monday in May after Congress passed the National Holiday Act of 1971 to ensure a three-day weekend.

Wherever you are this Memorial Day, observed this year on Monday, May 28, pause for a moment at 3:00 p.m. for the National Moment of Remembrance for our beloved veterans.

Live every day honoring America's fallen.

Memorial Day Mass

Memorial Day, once known as Decoration Day, is a day to remember those who sacrificed their lives on the field of battle for their country. Has someone you love from your family paid the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty?

We are collecting names to be read every year at our Memorial Day Mass. The Mass this year will be held Monday, May 28 at 8:30 a.m. Please email names and any information you have about their service — branch, war, etc. — to pastoral musician and liturgist Tom Oram at tom@saintjohntheevangelist.com.

Thank you for keeping their memory alive!

Bivouac of the Dead

By Theodore O'Hara

(Written in memory of the Kentucky troops killed in the Mexican War - 1847)

Portions of the poem are inscribed on placards throughout Arlington National Cemetery.

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on Life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents to spread,
And glory guards, with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead.

May Crowning

*Matthew Campbell
and
Erin Gray*

Twenty-two children participated in the traditional May Crowning on Sunday, May 13, which was also Mother's Day. Matthew Campbell was chosen to crown Baby Jesus and Erin Gray was chosen to crown the Blessed Mother. Fr. John was the celebrant of the Mass.

Those participating processed in wearing blue sashes giving honor to Mary. After the Profession of Faith, the children were handed a white rose as they were lead to the Blessed Mother by the Cross Bearer, Maggie Gahan, and Kay Sanfilepo, Arts and Liturgical Environment.

According to the Rite of the Crowning of the Blessed Mother, if Mary is portraying baby

Jesus in her arms, baby Jesus must be crowned first.

I love this traditional we have at St. John. Mary is such an important part of my life as I call upon her often for grace and patience. Mary's love for us is so great, it is most fitting to be crowning our Blessed Mother on the same day in which we celebrate all mothers.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:15 p.m. Mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

PARISH INFORMATION...

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH • WWW.SAINTJOHNTHEEVANGELIST.COM

Join the children and families of St. John the Evangelist and the Mission Office of the Diocese of Venice as we seek to share our blessings with those less fortunate on the Island of St. Lucia...

Thank You for Your Generosity!

Our total for Mission Clothe Me so far is at $15,219, as well as an estimated $3,000 worth of clothes. The first container serving 9 schools and 425 children left last Friday and is on its way to St. Lucia. The truck that traveled to the port in Pompano was completely packed.

Each child on the list will receive a specially packaged bag with their name and school listed on the outside of the bag. Included in each bag is a new outfit, shoes, socks and underwear.

Currently, we are preparing bags for children at two more schools in St. Lucia. These bags will travel with the Youth who are going on the Mission trip in June.

Thanks for supporting this wonderful project!

"No Catholic ministry – and yes, Mr. President, for Catholics our schools and hospitals are ministries – can remain faithful to the Lordship of the Risen Christ and to his glorious Gospel of Life if they are forced to pay for abortions."

SARASOTA

Opposition among the American people to the HHS Mandate's assault on religious freedom is intense—and getting stronger! The American people are sending a message that we will not stand idly by while the federal government forces all employer health plans to provide free contraceptives, sterilizations, and abortion-inducing drugs, regardless of any moral or religious objections.

The Stand Up Rally builds on the tremendous momentum created by the first "Stand Up Rally" on March 23. On that day, over 63,000 Americans came out in 145 cities coast to coast and pushed back against the new mandate from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Now the fight continues with the next Stand Up Rally

Come out on June 8th, the 223rd anniversary of the day our Founding Father James Madison introduced the Bill of Rights, with its guarantee of religious freedom, to the First Congress —

Cenacle of Life Prayer Group Meets Weekly on Tuesday Evenings in Adoration Chapel

Been thinking about what more you can do to prayerfully change the Culture of Death? Unable to pray for an end to abortion on Mondays outside the Naples Planned Parenthood facility? Consider joining the Cenacle of Life prayer group in the St. John the Evangelist Adoration Chapel on Tuesday evenings, 6:00 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

“A great prayer for life is urgently needed!” exhorted Blessed Pope John Paul II in Evangelium Vitae. The national Cenacle of Life movement arose in response. Cenacle members gather weekly for 45 minutes to pray 10 mysteries of the Rosary in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and fast one day a week on their own, either on bread and water or by means of some other small sacrifice.

“This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting.” - Mk 9:29.

“Could you not keep watch with me one hour?”

Please join Fr. John, Fr. Len, Fr. Kelly, our deacons and your fellow parishioners in our prayer vigil at Planned Parenthood every fourth Monday of the month to pray for the unborn babies, mothers in crisis and all who work there. For more information call Rosemary at 597.3941.

You Can Help Our Youth for Free!!!

Donate Cell Phones and Printer Cartridges

Do you have any old cell phones at home? They are probably just sitting in your junk drawer taking up space, right? Well, they can now be donated to raise money for our youth program instead! Please drop them in the box on the front office counter — no cords or chargers please, just phones!

Also, we are still collecting used printer cartridges for the youth group and Coke Rewards points, as well, for prizes for our kids!

If you have any, please drop them by too, and thank you for helping out!

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops offers six facts regarding the Health and Human Services regulations on mandatory coverage of contraceptives, sterilization and abortion-inducing drugs.

Many other religious and secular people and groups have spoken out strongly against the HHS mandate. Many recognize this as an assault on the broader principle of religious liberty, even if they disagree with the Church on the underlying moral question. For example, Protestant Christian, Orthodox Christian, and Orthodox Jewish groups — none of which oppose contraception — have issued statements against the HHS’s decision. The Washington Post, USA Today, N.Y. Daily News, Detroit News, and other secular outlets, columnists, and bloggers have editorialized against it.

See additional facts in upcoming bulletins.

It is no secret that the current economic state of affairs in Collier County and abroad is bad at best. It seems that the effects of the recession have trickled down into almost every segment of the economy. As most of you can attest, many people locally are finding it difficult to meet their monthly obligations due to the downturn. This is where the St.

Vincent De Paul Society will step in and assist families who are experiencing difficulties. Whether it is assistance in the form of a rent payment, a gift card from Publix in order to provide food or a gas card, St. Vincent De Paul provides an incredibly valuable service to those in our community. As I have stated before, the only source of income for our St. Vincent de Paul Society comes in the form of donations made through two annual collections, the poor box and random mail-in contributions. If you would like to donate, here are your options. You may donate furniture, appliances, house wares, vehicles and even boats. Simply call the main office at 775.1667 and they will arrange to have your donation picked up free of charge. Donations of food or clothing may be taken directly to the main office at Airport Road and Davis Blvd. And last, but not least, cash donations may be made through the poor boxes conveniently located at nearly every church exit. The current donations received through the poor boxes will satisfy less than one case per week. St. Vincent De Paul is one of my favorite ministries as I have seen first hand the amazing work they perform and the end result. Under the direction of Bill Smart, the St. John chapter of the St. Vincent De Paul Society is assisting several families per week. This number is expected to increase exponentially as the summer progresses. If you would like to volunteer your talent and time, St. Vincent De Paul is actively looking for new members to serve needy individuals in our own backyard (literally.) If you would like to join a ministry that will provide you with a true sense of worth and accomplishment, here is your chance. Please call Bill Smart at 495.8295 if you would like to become part of this organization that can change a life.

If you were questioning whether or not season is officially over, one quick glance at our collection summary will certainly reveal the answer. Our regular offertory collection has dropped to 60% of its average during the winter months of December through April. As a reminder, we operate "in the red" seven out of twelve months. If last summer was any indication of what we will experience this summer, we are in for a "rocky road" with respect to covering our operating expenses until the seasonal residents return in the fall. On a brighter note, regular offertory collections are up nearly 5% (fiscal year to date) versus the same period last year. In addition, the finance council has made numerous efforts to reduce operating expenses so that we may survive the lean summer months in the face of a very unfriendly economy.

Thank you for your continued support of the Catholic Faith Appeal. Contributions have dwindled but remain steady as we head into the summer months. I have had several recent requests from the Diocese of Venice asking that our parishioners please make their checks payable to the Catholic Faith Appeal or CFA with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line. They have returned checks in the past for this very reason and are threatening to do so again. Even if you use the yellow CFA envelope, you must make your check payable to the CFA and not to St. John the Evangelist. As you can understand, it is not an ideal situation with the Diocese of Venice depositing a check made payable to St. John the Evangelist into their bank account. In addition, the argument could be made that if a check were made payable to St. John the Evangelist with nothing in the memo line, we could enter CFA on the blank line and send the check to the Diocese to be credited to our CFA goal, even if that wasn't the donor's intention.

While we are on the subject of the CFA, I have mentioned the fact that you may make contributions via credit card through our website several times in the past. The Diocese of Venice website is www.dioceseofvenice.org. Simply choose the donations tab and then choose Catholic Faith Appeal. With that being said, please notice that we are now at 55% of our goal with less than $200,000 remaining to pledge in order to reach our goal. Thank you to everyone who is continuing to support our appeal as we head into the summer months.

At this time last year, I was at The Birth Place at NCH waiting for the arrival of my triplets. When people said that the time will go by so fast, they really knew what they were talking about. Ella, Mia and Nate are now one year old and thriving. Although not yet walking on their own, they are very close. I have been warned about this. "Be careful what you wish for" is a common response when I explain to parishioners that they are on the brink of walking. My wife and I are truly blessed to have three beautiful children and even more blessed to have many of you continuing to pray for their well being. Attached is a picture of Ella and Mia with mom and another of Nate posing solo. I hope the second year doesn't go by as fast as the first.

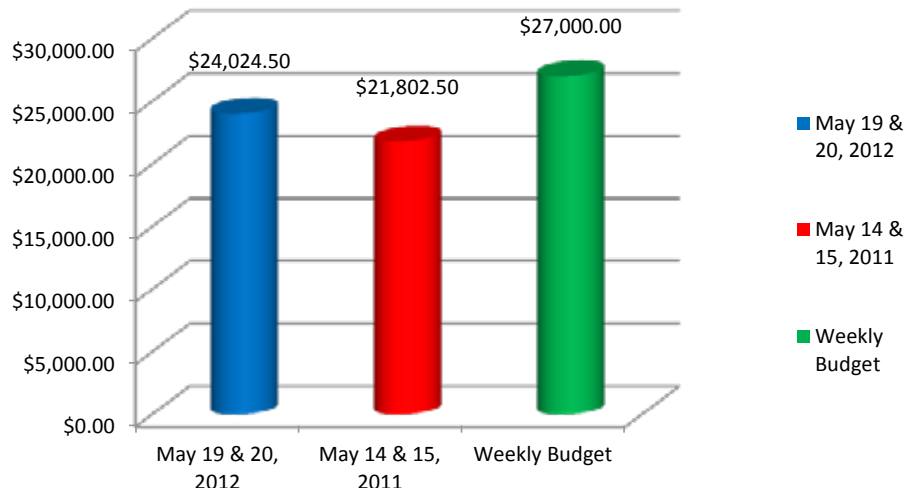

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

The Word & Life

One Body, One Spirit in Christ

As we celebrate the Birthday of the Church at Pentecost, we acknowledge unity in the midst of great diversity. When we examine the long-standing history of the Church we acknowledge a religious experience that has seen many deaths and resurrections. Our ancestors created the ongoing saga of salvation history as they strived to pass on the faith in their own particular way. The Christian story encompasses the diversity of the past and the present, celebrating unity in the Spirit. This same Spirit, bestowed upon the apostles at Pentecost, continues to move and breathe in the Church as she journeys through time.

We are reminded in our readings today that even though we are many members, we are baptized into one body. In Eucharistic Prayer III, we pray that we become "...one Body, one Spirit in Christ." Every individual in the Church has a particular role to play. There is vast experience present in the diversity of any congregation. As baptized Catholic Christians we share in the priestly and prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ. Each one of us is called to give witness to Christ in our own circumstance. The Spirit continues to inspire the Church to be the compassion of Christ in the world today. It is our duty to uphold the dignity and sanctity of life. We are obliged to respond to the world's need by sharing the little we have with those who have none. In the gospel of John, Jesus is seen offering a peace that the world cannot give and imparts the gift of the Spirit to the disciples, giving them authority to continue his redemptive work. Likewise, this same Spirit is bestowed upon us to continue this journey into transformation.

Reflection Questions

Reflecting on the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit, contemplate the following questions:

1. How do I use the wisdom of God when making choices?
2. Am I in touch with the voice of the Holy Spirit with me in order to understand God's will and my purpose?
3. Whose counsel do I consider: God's or the world's?
4. Do I accept the gift of fortitude in order to be courageous in giving witness to my faith's values?
5. How do I accept the knowledge gifted by the Holy Spirit to enable me to discover what God wants from me?
6. Do I cherish the gift of piety in which I show God love and reverence?
7. Have I an adequate fear of hurting the Lord by offending him through my actions?

On the day of Pentecost the disciples had locked themselves away in fear. The Spirit filled their hearts and enabled them to speak in ways that they never had before. Their fears were cast aside. The disciples began to form a new community of faith – using boldness in a way they had never used it before. Jesus had filled them with the Father. The imparting of the Holy Spirit solidified Jesus’ wisdom in their hearts. These followers began to understand, depending on the counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and the fear of the Lord that the Holy Spirit had given them on that first Pentecost. They went out in unity, making Jesus’ message known. Through their witness, they began to reshape the world around them creating a new civilization in which Christ would be the center.

The Holy Spirit freely offers this fruit of courage to boldly give witness to our faith. Even though we approach the work of the Church in various ways, we are called to unity in the message of the gospel of love. Some may be conservative in their expression of faith, others liberal, while still others are moderate in their religious experience. It is important to remember that no matter where we find ourselves on the scale of discernment, we are called to unity in Christ. Each one of us is asked to be faithful to the teachings that enable us to be called Catholic Christians. All members of the Body of Christ are equal but have a particular role and service to offer. Everyone in the Church contributes to building the kingdom of God. We are asked to seek together, the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. As we search for these gifts, the presence of God will be evident in what we do and say. It is then that we begin to reshape the world around us that often stands in opposition to the will of God and create, in the words of Paul VI, “a civilization of love and peace”.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Wisdom of the Fathers

“Although to some it may seem strange Pentecost is an event that also involves the secular world.

For it gave rise to a new sociology — one which penetrates the values of the spirit, which forms our hierarchy of values, and which confronts us with the truth, and with the ultimate destiny of humanity.

It is this which has given us our belief in the dignity of the human person, and our civil customs, and which above all leads us to resolutely rise above all divisions and conflicts between humans, and to form humanity into a single family of the children of God, free and fraternal.

We recall the symbolism at the beginning of this amazing story, of the miracle of many different languages being made comprehensible to everyone by the Spirit.

It is the civilization of love and of peace which Pentecost has inaugurated — and we are all aware how much today the world still needs love and peace!”

— Pope Paul VI’s Regina Coeli Address On Pentecost Sunday (May 17th, 1970)

Prayer

We pray: Holy Spirit of life, inspire and move us to create a kingdom of justice, love and peace. May we never allow ourselves to be an obstacle to your message of unfailing love. Enable us to appreciate the vast experience of the Mystical Body and embrace the gift of diversity. We also pray that we will use wisely these gifts so that others may be brought to knowledge and love of You, our God. Let the courage of the Holy Spirit lead and guide us until the end of time. Amen.

Verse 1) Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful.

Chorus) Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.

Verse 2) See his Body, his Blood
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your table
By your grace you are making us faithful

Bridge) Dying you destroyed our death,
Rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus come in glory (repeat line)
