THIS WEEK'S MASS & LITURGY SCHEDULE...SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH • WWW.SAINTJOHNTHEEVANGELIST.COM

Join the children and families of St. John the Evangelist and the Mission Office of the Diocese of Venice as we seek to share our blessings with those less fortunate on the Island of St. Lucia...

UPDATE

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Mission Clothe Me project this year. We collected several items of clothing as well as over $10,177 from St. John the Evangelist parishioners and ministries. Thank you for your generosity! Volunteers are busy sorting clothes and preparing to box them up for the islands. We will continue to accept clothing donations through May 22. If you are planning to shop for the children, one of our greatest needs right now is shoes.

Thanks again and God bless you !

The clothing that has been donated has been sorted by gender and size. One of the greatest needs right now is shoes.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:15 p.m. Mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Next J.O.Y. Club Event Will be May 17; Bring New Clothing for Mission Clothe Me

The next monthly J.O.Y. Club gathering for senior citizens is Thursday, May 17 at 11:30 a.m. in the ballroom. This month is special as J.O.Y. Club members will honor all women during this month dedicated to Our Blessed Mother.

“We will serve a delightful springtime luncheon. So, instead of bringing a sack lunch, we are asking each person to bring one article of new clothing (with tags attached) for the Mission Clothe Me project,” said Mary Lou Leibig, J.O.Y. Club president.

Everyone planning to attend the May 17 event must call the office at 566.8740 and give their name by Tuesday, May 15 to insure an accurate account for the luncheon. There will also be a short business meeting.

“Sign up early and we will see you May 17,” Mary Lou said.

Safe Environment Training Offered at St. John May 24 and May 26

As part of the Safe Environment Program, the Diocese of Venice requires that all employees — clergy, religious, laity — and those volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults be fingerprinted and trained in safe environment awareness issues. This also includes volunteers for the Vacation Bible School program. No one should attend Safe Environment Training until their fingerprints have cleared.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org. Abuses against minors should be reported to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800.962.2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, call the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Barbara DiCocco at 941.416.6114.

Classes will be offered at two different times at St. John: Thursday, May 24 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, May 26 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Please contact the parish office at 566.8740 with your name and telephone number at least one week prior to the training. You may also register online at www.dovsafe.org for other locations.

We are now in the final phase of “season” here in Southwest Florida. April 30th marked what I commonly refer to as the second exodus. The final exodus will take place on May 31. Many of our seasonal residents and visitors have three month contracts on their rentals and stay only the months of January, February and March. Others extend their stay to the end of April while some stay all the way through the end of May and beyond. Last week I took an unexpected trip to Gainesville and can assure you that as a licensed Florida driver heading Northbound, I was in the minority. I-75 North was loaded with plates from every other state as well as a plethora of campers and car carriers. To those who have returned to their summer homes or who will be leaving at the end of the month, we wish you safe travels and hope to see you again in the fall.

Fr. John will celebrate a major milestone in the middle of the month. May 16 will mark the 15th anniversary of Fr. John’s ordination to the priesthood. Fr. John will celebrate a special Mass on May 16 at 10:00 a.m. to mark this occasion. Following Mass there will be refreshments offered in front of the church. If you are able, we would love to have you join us as we celebrate with Fr. John.

Speaking of anniversaries, did you know that May 12 will mark the 15th anniversary of my tenure at St. John the Evangelist? As it happens, I ended up at St. John’s completely by accident. For those who don’t know the story, here is a brief summary: I was managing a Golf Club in Tallahassee following my graduation from Florida State University. After meeting with my General Manager at the time, we decided it would be best for me to continue my career in an area more suitable for my development. He suggested that I consider Naples where he had numerous contacts in the golf business. He would set up informal interviews with several Golf Clubs (13 to be exact), and I would come down to see what Naples had to offer. One of these clubs was Quail Creek. The Quail Creek club manager at the time told my GM that he had nothing available that would fit my qualifications but that he knew of an “athletic facility” that was looking for a manager if I was willing to interview. I figured that this would be a great way to get my “foot in the door” in Naples, even if it was not initially in the golf business. I drove to Naples and interviewed at several other clubs before heading to Quail Creek. After meeting the club manager, we loaded up in his vehicle and headed down Immokalee Road. Imagine my surprise when we took a right hand turn into a church. I was confused, but after seeing the baseball field and the new building (PLC) I figured that the two must be affiliated with this athletic facility. I then sat through a two hour interview with a committee that certainly was not affiliated with an athletic facility. As it turns out, my GM misunderstood what the Quail Creek club manager was referring to and the athletic facility was actually St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church. After being called back for a second interview, I gladly accepted the position. And now you know the rest of the story!

On Wednesday, I sent out an email to the entire parish directory regarding the upcoming change in Mass times. Our email list is now completely updated, therefore, if you did not receive this email then we do not have your email address or you chose not to receive email from St. John the Evangelist. If you would like to be added to our distribution list, please email me at scotts@saintjohntheevangelist.com to be included.

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist sponsors a Boy Scout troop? I am sure that many of you have taken part in a pancake breakfast over the years but did not know that the hosting troop is our very own. Troop 168 has been the chartered troop of St. John’s since before my arrival in 1997 yet there has been very little involvement with the parish in the past 15 years. We would like for this to change. I was very involved in scouting from age eight to fourteen starting as a cub scout and graduating to a boy scout. I learned many positive lessons through my experience in scouting. There has never been a better time for each of us to be a positive influence in helping shape someone’s life. For over 150 years, the Boy Scouts of America has provided a positive learning environment for young men to grow emotionally, physically and spiritually into responsible citizens of the community. Troop 168 is seeking new recruits and is asking your assistance to identify young men who would benefit from all of the things that scouting has to offer. If you know of someone who you believe would benefit from being a boy scout, please contact Cheryl Brock at 353.1430 for more information. Troop 168 meets on Mondays at 6:30 p.m. in rooms 9 and 10 in the Parish Life Center.

JOP St. Pius X May 23-27 Mission Trip Needs Volunteers

It is time for school physicals for incoming students at Dupont School and a team of volunteers will be traveling to St. Pius X, in Kingston, Jamaica, from May 23 to May 27 to aid in that endeavor.

There is a definite need for two more volunteers to bring the number of team members up to 14. If you have never been on a mission trip and would like to see our sister parish up close and personal, this is the opportunity to do so. As is normal for most mission lay volunteers everywhere, the cost of the trip is born by the volunteers. Air transportation, lodging, food and miscellaneous expenses, usually average in the $800.00 range.

The team will be led by Dr. Al and Ann Kerns. Interested parishioners may call them at 514.1553 or 290.3176 for more detailed information.

Diocese Will Hold Several Marriage Prep Programs

The Diocese of Venice will hold several one day marriage preparation programs which are recommended for all couples contemplating the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony in the Catholic Church. The programs are each $75 per couple, which includes a continental breakfast, lunch and materials. Each meeting is 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

They are on the following dates and locations: Saturday, May 5, at St. Vincent de Paul Parish in Fort Myers; Saturday, May 19, at St. Catherine Parish in Sebring; and Saturday, June 9, at St. Raphael Parish in Englewood. For reservations please call Betty Karsokas at 941.484.9543.

New Centering Prayer Group Forming May 8

In addition to the two existing Centering Prayer groups, a new group is being formed. Beginning May 8, the new group will meet on Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. in the Parish Life Center in room 7. This group is being formed to accommodate those who are unable to attend the earlier meetings. Come join us.

For more information, please call Ann White at 23.514.0655.

JOP Second Collection

Seasons come and go, but the poverty in Jamaica knows no season nor enjoys any recess.

Please help us in this weekend's second collection as we continue to send support to St Pius X in His name and yours.

— JOP

Congratulations!

Jesus Lozada, sophomore, received the Sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop Frank Dewane Tuesday, May 1 at St. Agnes.

Verse

My Jesus, my Savior, Lord, there is none like you!
All of my days I want to praise
the wonders of your mighty love.
My comfort, my Shelter,
tower of refuge and strength,
Let every breath, all that I am,
Never cease to worship you!

Chorus

Shout to the Lord, all the earth, let us sing
Power and majesty, praise to the King!
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar
At the sound of your name!
I sing for joy at the work of your hands,
Forever I'll love you, forever I'll stand;
Nothing compares to the promise I have in you!

The Word & Life

Growing In Christ (John 15:1-8)

Many of the images that Jesus uses in the Sacred Scriptures can be lost for the listeners of modern day. Many cannot relate the rural background that provides the setting for Jesus' teachings. The image of Jesus as the true vine is indeed a powerful one. A vine takes a lot of care and attention in order to reach its fullest potential. If a vine owner does not take care of the vine it will do one of two things, i.e. it will die or grow out of control, bearing no fruit at all. A good vine needs much attention. The vine grower has to be committed to enabling the vine to bear fruit. It is vital that parts of the vine be taken away so that it can reach its full potential of bearing fruit. A successful vine can be determined by the care and pruning that takes place each year.

Jesus tells us that he is the true vine. If we remain in his love and keep his commandments, we will produce the fruits of his love. We are part of the story that leads others to God. Jesus invites us to be part of his message by being part of his Church here on earth. Sometimes it is necessary to prune away the things that prevent us from reaching our full potential in our faith life. Once we commit ourselves to remaining close to Christ and his message, it is then we become his disciples and bear fruit. In order to become a disciple we must take as a model the person of Christ and fashion our lives around his message. The example of the gospel is the ultimate guide for the discerning Christian. Our sentiments can only be good if we consult the wisdom of Christ in our everyday concerns. Such wisdom helps us to peel around the layers of contradiction that obscure God's vision for us and the world. We do this by simply turning away from the contradictions and constantly being open to conversion every day. If we place

Reflection Questions

1. How is Jesus as source of life for you?
2. In what ways do you consult with the wisdom of Christ when faced with dilemmas in your life?
3. What needs to be pruned out of your life in order that you reach your full potential?
4. What does it mean to "remain in Jesus'" love?
5. How do you bear the fruit of the gospel in your life?
6. What do you think the important characteristics are of discipleship?
7. What ultimately will bring you joy?

Christ as the source of our lives, we will grow in his wisdom and truth and reflect that to those around us.

Our Church, in her wisdom, fashions herself after Jesus Christ. Every time we gather to worship, we gather in the name of Christ himself and listen to his Word as if for the first time. The will of the Father and the healing of Christ can be discovered through the proclamation of the Word. As we gather around the altar, the priest reflects the action of the High Priest, that is, Christ himself, as he relives the last supper, Calvary and the resurrection. It is here that Christ nourishes us with his body and blood. The cup that we take comes forth from the vine itself that is ready to give us life, for the vine is Christ. We are a Eucharistic people. Even though there are many branches to the vine, there is only one vine and one grower. There are many people who make up the Church; each of us has a distinct part to play in the history of salvation. Even though there are many members, we pray that we become “One Body, one Spirit in Christ”. Together we bear the fruit that will last.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

We pray: Lord, you are the true vine, and we are the branches. As we journey through life, give us the power that comes forth from you, to transform and change us. Help us to be true disciples. Mold and fashion us with the message that you proclaimed two thousand years ago. May we prune the things that hinder us from your love and the right relationship with one another. Increase our faith and give us the resolve to be solely connected to you. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“From Christ and in Christ, we have been reborn through the Spirit in order to bear the fruit of life; not the fruit of our old, sinful life, but the fruit of a new life founded upon our faith in him and our love for him. Like branches growing from a vine, we now draw our life from Christ, and we cling to his holy commandment in order to preserve this life. Eager to safeguard the blessing of our noble birth, we are careful not to grieve the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, and who makes us aware of God’s presence in us.

Let the wisdom of John teach us how we live in Christ and Christ lives in us: The proof that we are living in him and he is living in us is that he has given us a share in his Spirit. Just as the trunk of the vine gives its own natural properties to each of its branches, so, by bestowing on them the Holy Spirit, the Word of God, the only-begotten Son of the Father, gives Christians a certain kinship with himself and with God the Father because they have been united to him by faith and determination to do his will in all things. He helps them to grow in love and reverence for God and teaches them to discern right from wrong and to act with integrity.”

Faith Formation News

Faith Formation Classes...have ended for the year. Congratulations to all our students and faithful Catholic parents. A special “thank you” goes to all our catechists for making this possible and giving us a great year! Registrations for the 2012-2013 faith year are currently being accepted.

First Holy Communion Rehearsal...will be on Friday, May 11, 2012, at 5:30 p.m. in the ballroom and the church. This will be the only rehearsal. Attendance is mandatory for all children receiving the sacrament.

First Holy Communion Ceremony...will be held on Saturday, May 12, 2012, at 11:00 a.m. in the church. All sacramental children should report to their teachers in the ballroom at 9:00 a.m. for pictures and final preparations. Cake and refreshments will be served outside the church after the ceremony.

Major Feasts/Saint Days in May

May 13...is the feast day for Our Lady of Fatima. Three Portuguese children received apparitions of Mary near Fatima between May 13 and October 13, 1917.

May 31...is the celebration of the Visitation when Mary visits Elizabeth and John leaps in her womb when hearing Mary’s greeting.

High School Youth Need Sponsors for June Steubenville Conference

St. John the Evangelist's own high school students have the chance to attend a youth conference with the Franciscan University of Steubenville this June! Focused on the Eucharist and the beauty of Catholicism, this conference will be life-changing for the teens who attend.

The conference will be held at the Palm Beach County Convention Center in West Palm Beach, FL June 22-24.

However, the cost for the weekend is $250 per student, and because of this high cost, many of our teens are concerned about their ability to attend. The last thing we want is for any young Catholic to be denied this wonderful experience of God solely because of their inability to pay!

If any parishioners are able to help in sponsoring our teens to attend, please contact Martha Oram at youthministry@saintjohntheevangelist.com or 566.8740 ext. 177.

Thank you so much for your generosity and support of the future of our Faith!

AGA (Alienated Grandparents Anonymous) Special Guest Speaker

J. Michael Bone, Ph.D.

Thursday, May 17 at 7:00 p.m. in the Saint John Ballroom

Dr. Bone, from Winter Haven, FL, is widely respected as an international expert on PAS-Parental Alienation Syndrome. He worked with Dr. Richard Gardner on PAS evaluations as an invited member of the Parental Alienation Research Foundation in Washington, D.C. He has authored numerous research articles for journals, the Florida Bar, and regularly serves as an expert witness and consultant for PAS. He presents at many international conferences, including the Canadian Symposium on PAS, and is an authors group member of the task force of the PAS committee on DSM-V and ICD.

“Dr. Bone is an experienced consultant for cases involving Parental Alienation and has spent over 25 years working with high conflict divorce as a therapist, expert witness, mediator, evaluator and consultant, both nationally and internationally.”

Dr. Bone states, “PA and PAS are two of the most destructive and devastating phenomenon that can affect parents, family, friends and especially children. Cases involving these issues are perhaps the most vexing and difficult that exist in Family Court. They require careful and painstaking preparation, analysis of voluminous documentation, preparation of experts and collateral witnesses. They can be difficult to demonstrate in court and include arduous steps that exceed the normal representation of a Family Law case without parental alienation. These cases exploit and wear down the system and do so in the service of the alienation.”

Diocese Mission Office Coordinator, Elma McCaughey, to speak on "Me...A Missionary? Seriously?"

Tuesday, May 22, 2012

Please join us for our last event of the season as we welcome Elma McCaughey on Tuesday, May 22, 2012, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at St. John the Evangelist PLC Ballroom (625 111th Avenue North, Naples). Mrs. McCaughey coordinates the activities of the Diocese in supporting many missionaries particularly those working in the Caribbean islands. Learn what is being done by the missionaries who travel the world doing God's work and how you can help those in need from the comfort of your own home by supporting this work. Everyone who brings with them children's new clothing or SHOES for (or makes a cash contribution to) St. John's "Project Clothe Me" gets an extra beverage ticket (including wine!). Additional information on this Project can be found at www.saintjohntheevangelist.com.

We encourage you to pre-pay for this event by going to www.faithandwine.com and click on "Registration for Events". Or you can simply sign up and drop off your check made payable to "Faith and Wine, Inc." at the St. John office. The cost is $10 if you prepay and $15 at the door.

Faith and Wine is a group of diverse women, all at different places along their faith journey, who seek fellowship with each other and a greater understanding of their Catholic faith in order to enrich their lives and help them cope with the ever-changing challenges presented by today's society. Join us and find out why more than 200 women have been attending Faith and Wine events!
