Spotlight on Stewardship:

Ministry Work

Pat Bernetich Pays It Forward

For over six and a half years Pat Bernetich has been a volunteer at Saint John the Evangelist.

"I wanted to be part of the Hospital Ministry so I became a Eucharistic Minister in October, 2005," Pat said.

Three years later Pat became the Hospital Ministry Coordinator. In this capacity she and other hospital ministers take Holy Communion to all the Catholics who have been hospitalized at NCH. They also provide rosaries for the ill. These are generally the rosaries that many of the parishioners donate.

Prior to retiring to Southwest Florida and after raising five children, Pat went to work in Haddonfield, NJ, where she eventually rose through the ranks to become an assistant administrator. She retired after 25 years at the age of 70. While up north, Pat was an Eucharistic Minister and was on the Parish Council at St. Peter Celestine Catholic Church in Cherry Hill, NJ.

Because she was so blessed in her life both professionally and personally, Pat wanted to make a commitment to volunteer after she retired.

"I have been blessed with a good and devoted husband, five wonderful children and their spouses and 12 beautiful grandchildren," Pat said. "Because of these great blessings, I decided that after I retired I would dedicate my life to volunteering."

Pat's husband, Joe, passed away in July, 2005. She and her husband enjoyed 51 years of marriage. Her family still live in the New Jersey area, but she has chosen to make Bonita Springs her full time home.

"When you are given much, it is important to give back. If we follow Jesus' ministry on earth, maybe we can't heal the sick or raise the dead, we certainly can try and bring some hope and kindness to those in need of that hope and kindness," Pat said.

She also volunteers in other areas at Saint John including the Baptism Hospitality Ministry and the front office.

"In the Baptism/Hospital Ministry we help the Celebrant and parents in any way they would like. This is a beautiful ministry witnessing the birth of new Christians. We also try and keep in contact by sending birthday cards and anniversary cards of their baptisms," Pat said. "Special in the Baptism Ministry, naturally the beautiful dependent babies. So many hugs and kisses to go around."

She also volunteers one day a week in the Saint John parish office helping the staff in the day-to-day business of answering phones, selling tickets, selling and typing up Mass intentions and generally providing help and information to parishioners.

Pat finds her work as a volunteer very meaningful, but she also enjoys golf and Mah Jongg, which she learned at Saint John from Joan Scariotti.

"Many, many incidents have made volunteering special. Visiting the hospital, meeting patients who are very sick, just getting over a big sickness, about to have an operation, giving birth, some not knowing when and/or if they will leave the hospital. The one downside of our visitations, because of the many patients we have to see, is the time element. A lot of times we could spend hours with a patient because of their needs. Some are lonely, some just want to talk. We are restricted because of the many patients we have to see," Pat said. "And last but not least, is my time at the front office. Meeting many of our parishioners has been very special to me. Some faces I know, some I don't, but now I can put a name to the face. Working with Melanie (Harrison), the staff and other volunteers has also been a highlight of my day."

In March Pat celebrated her 80th birthday. In appreciation for all her work and dedication to volunteerism, the staff surprised her with a special lunch.

Thank you, Pat. Your service to the various ministries is invaluable. We hope you stick around for a long time.

Bible Story Time Children Portray the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven

Bible Story Time celebrated Jesus' ascension into heaven at its Monday, May 14 activity. Children made an Ascension Craft where Jesus, suspended from a string, was pulled up into the clouds (cottonballs) on a paper cup.

During circle time, the children read stories about things that go up — balloons, bubbles, birds, etc. Afterwards they witnessed Jesus' ascension by releasing a balloon up into the sky with a picture of Jesus on it.

The children then travelled outside to blow bubbles for Jesus and write messages to Him using sidewalk chalk that He could read from heaven.

PROTECTING CONSCIENCES

USCCB Nationwide Bulletin Insert

June 2012

WHY CONSCIENCE IS IMPORTANT

During the civil rights movement of the 1950s and 1960s, Americans shone the light of the Gospel on a dark history of slavery, segregation, and racial bigotry. The civil rights movement was an essentially religious movement, a call to awaken consciences.

In his famous “Letter from Birmingham Jail” in 1963, Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. boldly said, “The goal of America is freedom.” As a Christian pastor, he argued that to call America to the full measure of that freedom was the specific contribution Christians are obliged to make. He rooted his legal and constitutional arguments about justice in the long Christian tradition: “I would agree with Saint Augustine that ‘An unjust law is no law at all.’... A just law is a man-made code that squares with the moral law or the law of God. An unjust law is a code that is out of harmony with the moral law.”

Some unjust laws impose such injustices on individuals and organizations that disobeying the laws may be justified. Every effort must be made to repeal them. When fundamental human goods, such as the right of conscience, are at stake, we may need to witness to the truth by resisting the law and incurring its penalties.

The church does not ask for special treatment, simply the rights of religious freedom for all citizens. Rev. King also explained that the church is neither the master nor the servant of the state, but its conscience, guide, and critic.

Catholics and many other Americans have strongly criticized the recent Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) mandate requiring almost all private health plans to cover contraception, sterilization and abortion-inducing drugs. For the first time in our history, the federal government will force religious institutions to fund and facilitate coverage of a drug or procedure contrary to their moral teaching, and purport to define which religious institutions are “religious enough” to merit an exemption. This is a matter of whether religious people and institutions may be forced by the government to provide such coverage even when it violates our consciences.

What we ask is nothing more than the right to follow our consciences as we live out our teaching. This right is not only about our ability to go to Mass on Sunday or pray the Rosary at home. It is about whether we can make our contribution to the common good of all Americans. Can we do the good works our faith calls us to do, without having to compromise that very same faith? Without religious liberty properly understood, all Americans suffer, deprived of the essential contribution in education, health care, feeding the hungry, civil rights, and social services that religious Americans make every day.

What is at stake is whether America will continue to have a free, creative, and robust civil society—or whether the state alone will determine who gets to contribute to the common good, and how they get to do it.

What can you do to ensure the protection of conscience rights?

- The U.S. Bishops have called us to get informed, pray and advocate. To send your message to HHS and Congress telling them to uphold religious liberty and conscience rights, go to www.usccb.org/conscience today! Thank you for joining the effort to end this unprecedented government coercion.
- The Bishops have called for a Fortnight for Freedom - June 21-July 4. Please go to www.fortnight4freedom.org for more information on this important time of prayer and action!

DEFEND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM!!!

To be Catholic and American should mean not having to choose one over the other. Our Constitution, guarantees citizens of all religious faiths the right to contribute to our common life together. We need to be aware and on guard of the religious home and abroad.

SOME CONCRETE EXAMPLES:

- By the Federal government:
  - The HHS mandate for contraception, sterilization, and abortion-inducing drugs. Archbishop William Lori testified before Congress: "... it is a matter of whether religious people and institutions may be forced by government to provide coverage for contraception or sterilization, even if that violates their religious beliefs."
  - Discrimination against Catholic humanitarian services: Federal government changed contracts to require the Church to provide or refer for contraception and abortion services to victims of human trafficking in violation of Catholic teaching.
- By State & City governments:
  - Immigration Laws: Several states have passed immigration laws that prohibit what the Church deems Christian charity and pastoral care to undocumented immigrants. Laws that include the prohibition of a Catholic priest to baptize, hear confession, or celebrate the anointing of the sick. We are not allowed to encourage attendance at Mass nor provide transportation.
  - Altering Church Structure: The Connecticut Legislature proposed a bill that would have forced Catholic parishes to be reconstructed according to the congregational model, redefining for the Church "religious minister" and "religious employer."
  - Catholic foster care and adoption services: Cities and States have driven local Catholic Charities out of the business of providing adoption and foster care services – by revoking licenses and/or ending government contracts – because they refused to place children with same-sex couples or unmarried opposite sex couples who co-habit.
  - Discrimination against small church congregations: New York City has barred the renting of public schools on weekends for worship services even though non-religious groups could rent for scores of other reasons.
- By others:
  - Christian students on campus: Denial of student organization status to only one group, the Christian Legal Society, because it required its leaders to be Christian.

OUR FIRST MOST CHERISHED LIBERTY can be read in its entirety by going to:

It is also timely to read as we prepare for, A FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM, fourteen days of prayer for our country from June 21st through July 4th. More information will be coming from our diocese in the near future.

"This will be the best security for maintaining our liberties. A nation of well-informed men who have been taught to know and prize the rights which God has given them cannot be enslaved. It is in the religion of ignorance that tyranny begins." Benjamin Franklin (DOB 1/17/1706)

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops offers six facts regarding the Health and Human Services regulations on mandatory coverage of contraceptives, sterilization and abortion-inducing drugs.

The proposed HHS mandate “accommodation” is not a current rule, but a promise that comes due beyond the point of public accountability. On February 15, 2012, besides finalizing its mandate without change, HHS also announced it will develop more regulations to apply that mandate differently to “non-exempt, non-profit religious organizations” — the charities, schools and hospitals that were left out of the “religious employer” exemption.

The Word & Life

Exodus 24:3-8

Priceless Treasure

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

*T*he Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ which we celebrate today, teaches all Catholics throughout the world about the centrality of the Eucharist. Through the gift of the Eucharist we are brought to the edge of eternity where the risen Christ is present to His Church. As we invoke the Holy Spirit to come down upon the gifts of bread and wine, we become aware of a love beyond all telling. We recall the words of the Last Supper and the Sacrifice that took place on Calvary as we offer the unbloodied sacrifice at the altar of God. There are some Christian communities who simply have communion services, emphasizing their communion with one another rather than divine interaction. Others say the bread and wine are merely symbols, not the body and blood of Christ. Catholicism teaches the doctrine of transubstantiation – that is, the bread and wine actually become the body and blood of Jesus.

In Lumen Gentium (Dogmatic Constitution of the Church) paragraph 11, we are told, “Taking part in the Eucharistic sacrifice, the source and summit of the Christian life, they offer the divine victim to God and themselves along with it.” In the breaking of the bread, Christ becomes available to each one

Reflection Questions

1. In what ways is the Catholic tradition different to Protestantism in regard to the teaching on the Eucharist?
2. How does your faith in the real presence comfort you?
3. Do you allow Jesus to feed your soul or do you allow other things to satisfy you?
4. In return for Jesus offering himself to you, how do you offer yourself to God?
5. Name the practical ways in which you can enter into communion with God.
6. In regard to consuming the body of Christ, how in turn will you become Christ to others?

of us in a very tangible way. Jesus' life is broken for us, so that in the midst of our fragile lives we can appreciate that God understands. Each one of us through weakness admits that we are not worthy. On the other hand the words of the gospel give each of us the dignity of being called a son or daughter of God, making us completely worthy!

Through the gift of the real presence we are given a priceless treasure that is heaven's treasure. To the nonbeliever, the simple gifts presented to the altar remain just as bread and wine. However, people who have faith realize that the food and cup offered at the altar enable them to be fed and nourished, not only in the present moment, but for all eternity. At the moment of Holy Communion, Jesus Christ offers his body and blood as the life force for the Christian community. The Mass is the Sacred Meal in which we are fed by the Word and nourished by the Sacrament. It is also a moment that becomes timeless in which we relive the

on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

events that give us salvation in Christ. The once and for all sacrifice of Calvary is relived again and again, reminding us of the great sacrifice that will lead us to eternal life. As we come to the conclusion of the Mass the minister sends us forth to encounter the Christ in the gift of another.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“The Church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the Church. In a variety of ways she joyfully experiences the constant fulfillment of the promise: “Lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age” (Mt 28:20), but in the Holy Eucharist, through the changing of bread and wine into the body and blood of the Lord, she rejoices in this presence with unique intensity. Ever since Pentecost, when the Church, the People of the New Covenant, began her pilgrim journey towards her heavenly homeland, the Divine Sacrament has continued to mark the passing of her days, filling them with confident hope.

The Second Vatican Council rightly proclaimed that the Eucharistic sacrifice is “the source and summit of the Christian life”. “For the most holy Eucharist contains the Church’s entire spiritual wealth: Christ himself, our Passover and Living Bread. Through his own flesh, now made living and life-giving by the Holy Spirit, he offers life to men”. Consequently, the gaze of the Church is constantly turned to her Lord, present in the Sacrament of the Altar, in which she discovers the full manifestation of his boundless love.”

—ECCLESIA DE EUCHARISTIA:
Blessed John Paul II (2003)

Prayer

We pray: Jesus, may we hunger for you as the Bread of Life. Help us to drink from the Cup of Life, knowing that you are constantly present to us. Whenever we gather to celebrate the Mass, we hope that we become aware of the holy ground on which we stand. Let us always uphold the dignity of all those who gather to celebrate the Eucharist no matter how perfect or imperfect they may be. May the wisdom of your love make us increasingly aware of the priceless treasure that is given in the Mass. Amen.
