With a theme of “Everything is possible with God,” 210 kids attended Sky VBS June 11-15 with over 100 volunteers. Great energy abounded throughout the week with plenty of singing and dancing with the overall message to “Trust God.” A special thanks to Tom Oram, Jasmine, Anthony and Jonathan Dina, Carley Gray, Karen and Rick Beebe, Trish Gasiorowski, Melissa O’Brien, Anna Braun, Linette Rubino, John and Michelle Mattia, Madison Campbell and Francesca Goduti and, last but not least, Brian Youngs. The success of the week was due to their extreme help and ALL of the awesome volunteers. The Saturday evening Mass attendance was amazing, and more than 400 people attended the dinner Saturday night. It was a great way to close out the week. Remember, No matter what happens... Trust God.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

June 15, 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Threats to religious liberty in our country are mounting and continue to be a challenge. For the first time in our nation's history, in what is known as the Health and Human Services (HHS) Mandate, the federal government will force religious institutions to facilitate or subsidize drugs and procedures contrary to their moral convictions and religious teaching.

When called upon, the faithful of the Diocese of Venice have shown up in great numbers to express support for our God-given right to religious freedom. Literally thousands attended rallies in March and June—for that I am grateful.

While action during this perilous time is certainly called for, as a people of faith it is important that prayer remain at the forefront of these religious freedom efforts. It must never be forgotten that the life and sustaining power of the Church comes from Our Lord, Jesus Christ—not our own efforts. After all, without the Lord, we can do nothing. The time for prayer, which will complement our efforts, is paramount.

Therefore, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty has called for a nationwide "Fortnight for Freedom" from June 21 to July 4, Independence Day. The Committee has asked for "all the energies the Catholic community can muster."

In parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice, many activities are planned to mark this Fortnight for Freedom. Each parish has been asked to hold a Eucharistic Holy Hour each day during those fourteen days. The exact time for these Holy Hours will be decided at the parish-level. Within the Fortnight – Tuesday, June 26th and Tuesday, July 3rd – some parishes will have 24-hour Adoration, which will certainly intensify prayer before the Lord. As a united community of the faithful, please join this nationwide effort with your prayers and participation throughout these fourteen days.

To inaugurate the Fortnight, I will be celebrating Mass on June 21st and will conclude it with a Mass on July 4th. Both Masses are for the intention of continued religious freedom and will be at 11:00 am at Epiphany Cathedral. All are invited to attend. Visit www.fortnight4freedom.org and www.dioceseofvenice.org/conscience for more information and resources regarding the Fortnight.

May God bless our prayerful efforts to affirm the God-given right to religious freedom.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM

FORTNIGHT4FREEDOM.ORG

This is a time for: prayer, fasting and penance for the intention of Religious Freedom. It is also a time to become educated and informed. See page 7 for activities and services at St. John and check out the website: fortnight4freedom.org.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops offers six facts regarding the Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations on mandatory coverage of contraceptives, sterilization and abortion-inducing drugs.

Beware of claims, especially by partisans, that the Catholic bishops are partisan. The bishops warned Congress about the need for clear conscience protection in the face of new health coverage mandates throughout the debate on health care reform; they were arguing against the proposed contraceptive mandate and other new threats to religious freedom in 2010. Since then they have simply continued advocating the same moral principles. The bishops did not pick this fight, or decide that it would continue into an election year — others did. The Church forms its positions based on principles — here, religious liberty for all, and the life and dignity of every human person — not polls, personalities, or political parties. (See additional facts in upcoming bulletins.)

Prayer For the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator, through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome — for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us — this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FORTNIGHT FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

THURSDAY, JUNE 21 THROUGH WEDNESDAY, JULY 4

What is it? A two-week period of fasting, prayer, and action to reverse the growing discrimination against people of faith in this country, especially Catholics, exemplified by the notorious mandate of the Department of Health and Human Services that Catholic institutions must effectively pay for abortion-inducing drugs, contraception, and sterilization — all of which have always been contrary to the teaching of the Church.

What is meant by religious liberty? Religious liberty is the first liberty granted to us by God and protected in the First Amendment to our Constitution. It includes more than our ability to go to Mass on Sunday or pray the Rosary at home. It encompasses our ability to refrain from activity that we disagree with, and to refuse to pay for such activity for others, as is the case here. Forced cooperation with immorality violates our ability to live our faith.

Isn't this a violation of "the separation of church and state"? No. More technically — yes — but it is the state that is violating the separation by demanding the Church to do things contrary to our beliefs. To say that "the separation of church and state" (which does not even appear in our Constitution) allows the state to strike the Church with impunity — as it has & is doing — and that we, in turn, can do nothing about it, is obviously ludicrous.

What are we doing here at St. John to observe the Fortnight? We will be marking the opening and closing of the Fortnight with the tolling of our bells at noon. Then, over the two weeks:

- There will be a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration each day from June 21 through July 4, in the Church, after each daily Mass (Monday through Saturday) and on Sunday following the 5 p.m. Mass. There will be Exposition & Benediction, as well as the Rosary.
- The Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty, found at the bottom of the page, will be prayed before each Mass. Prayer cards will also be provided with the same prayer text (prayer card photo is on page 6).
- Friday, June 22 & Friday, June 29 are days of penance, where we make some form of reparation, such as fasting (1 regular and 2 smaller meals), or abstinence from meat.
- We are asked to join fellow Catholic Americans in making a Novena (a nine-day personal prayer) for religious freedom from Tuesday, June 26 through Wednesday, July 4.

How do I make a Novena? A good way to approach it is each morning — before you get too busy with your day — make time to pray each day for nine days.

- In these, or the words of your own heart, pray:
- Oh great cloud of witnesses! Oh host of Angels and Saints worshipping God for all eternity! Oh holy ones in heaven above, Pray for us! You who were once part of the Church on earth, you who were faithful servants of the Church Militant, you who suffered for the love of God, Pray for us! In all ages, the Church is persecuted and hated. We pray, oh Lord, through your holy Saints, that we may be blessed with the freedom to worship and adore you at all times! We pray that you may bless your Church throughout the world and me personally with your grace to persevere with love in the face of persecution just as You did on the Cross.
- Mention your personal intentions. Then in a litany, call upon the saints & martyrs by name, asking, "Pray for us!" (example: St. Joan of Arc, pray for us! Holy Innocents, pray for us! St. Thomas More, pray for us! Etc.)
- Pray an Our Father, a Hail Mary and a Glory Be.
- Conclude with the Prayer For the Protection of Religious Liberty (see page 6)

JUNE 24, 2012 THE SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

Summer arrived this past Wednesday at 7:09 p.m. in conjunction with the Summer Solstice. Each year, the timing of the solstice depends on when the Sun reaches its farthest point north of the equator. This occurs annually on June 20 or June 21 in North America, depending on your time zone. You may or may not have noticed due to excessive cloud cover that June 20 was the longest day of the year or the day with the most daylight. The days will now become incrementally shorter culminating in the shortest day of the year on December 21 with the arrival of the Winter Solstice. The arrival of Summer means very little in Southwest Florida as we have been experiencing hot and humid temperatures for the past several months. It does signify the fact that all of our seasonal residents have now departed and we have our roads and restaurants back for the next few months. Arriving at the 9:00 a.m. Mass five minutes before the processional and finding a great seat is also a bonus.

Are you interested in becoming an altar server? This is a great opportunity for your child to become involved in the "life of the parish." We will host the June Altar Server training this Sunday directly following the 1:00 p.m. Mass from 2:15p.m.-3:30 p.m. This is open to anyone who is currently serving or new servers. In the future, we plan on having an extended altar server training for any child who just received First Holy Communion and is interested in serving. We are looking to host this first special training in July and more details will be forthcoming. If you would like to participate this Sunday, we warmly welcome you to show up. For attendance in the July session, please contact Neal Borter at altarserver@saintjohntheevangelist.com.

Charlene Youngs (Director of Family Ministry) is looking for lectors for the 11 a.m. children's Mass. This also is a great opportunity to become involved in the life of the parish. If your child is interested, please contact Charlene at 566.8740 ext. 123.

For those parents who have applied for a tuition subsidy to St. John Neumann, St. Ann or St. Elizabeth Seton, you are well aware of the criteria involved in securing a subsidy. In addition to regular Mass attendance and giving, we also require that your child participate in the life of the parish. The two aforementioned opportunities are great ways to ensure that your child receives a subsidy. Participating in youth group is another avenue, if your child is not comfortable with serving or lecturing.

As a thank you to our altar servers, Fr. John took a sizable group to Busch Gardens this past Wednesday to recognize their service to the parish. The park was celebrating extended hours and this enthusiastic group had twelve full hours to ride every roller coaster more than once.

I have been managing operations in our memorial garden for a little over three years now. When asked to take over this responsibility, I initially balked as I found this addition to my job description to be slightly morbid. As it turns out, I have had the opportunity to meet many wonderful parishioners on a one-to-one basis that I would not have otherwise. The majority of parishioners purchasing space in our memorial garden are doing so for a very unselfish reason. They do not want their family members or loved ones to have to deal with their final planning at a very difficult and trying time. By purchasing space in our memorial garden well in advance of their demise, these parishioners can find solace in knowing that their family members may concentrate on spending time with loved ones rather than shopping for a final resting place. If you would like to take advantage of this opportunity, please contact me at 566.1678 to schedule a meeting. The all inclusive purchase price of $1,200.00 is a great deal and includes the opening, closing, urn, headstone and plaque. In order to purchase space in our memorial garden, you must be a St. John the Evangelist parishioner or the immediate family of a parishioner.

I feel it safe to say that we have now settled into the summer doldrums even though summer just began this past week. Attendance has substantially tapered off and contributions to the CFA have also decreased dramatically. We are still in good shape due to the early outpouring of generosity through the first six months of the campaign. As I have stated on numerous occasions, let us strive to not just meet our goal this year, but rather substantially exceed our goal. Thank you in advance for your continued support of the Catholic Faith Appeal.

In His work together,
Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

The Last Prophet – Called to Redundancy

If someone were to ask you to take a job with the intention to eventually eliminate that particular position, you would probably laugh in that person's face. Moreover, if someone were asked to dedicate their whole life to such a venture, you would probably be insulted at the thought. This is what John the Baptist was called to do as he prepared the way for Christ. Today we celebrate the Nativity of John the Baptist as a Solemnity of the Church. His life is important in the plan of salvation. John is the last of the Hebrew prophets – his whole life ultimately becomes suspended between the prophecies of old and the culmination in the resurrection. John the Baptist gave witness to Christ by preparing the way for the proclamation of the kingdom. John's baptism was for the repentance of sin in preparation for the coming of the Messiah. When the Baptist sees the Spirit descend upon Jesus, he proclaims him as the "Lamb of God". John foretells the promised Messiah, and once Jesus is baptized, John's life-project is complete and his role is diminished. John's message of repentance continues to be important, but his role in foretelling the Messiah is made redundant because it is realized.

Reflection Questions

1. Why is the significance of Zechariah being struck dumb in the sanctuary?
2. How is Zachariah restored to speech?
3. Do you see striking similarities in your life?
4. How have you doubted God's plan?
5. In what ways have you been restored in your own faith?
6. Why is John the Baptist significant in the plan of salvation?
7. What impact does John the Baptist's message have on you?
8. What does salvation mean to you personally?
9. What does the coming of Christ mean to you?
10. Do you allow God's message and call to change your heart and your decision-making? Why or why not?
11. How far will you go in answering the call to conversion and discipleship?

The gospel of Luke sets the scene in the divine drama that surrounds the birth of John the Baptist. John's father, Zechariah, is a priest in the division of Abijah and part of the religious class. Both Zechariah and Elizabeth were both advanced in years and living without the blessing of children. While Zechariah is performing his religious duties, God breaks into his life by sending a messenger to tell him that his wife will give birth to a child destined to bring the children of Israel to God. Zechariah's doubt in the divine message strikes him dumb.

However, as soon as he takes a tablet to write, breaking from all familial and social tradition, he writes the name given by God's messenger to dedicate his child's life to God. Once Zechariah trusts in the Lord's message, he is restored to wholeness and regains his speech.

Today's Solemnity and the Scriptures proclaimed, reveal to us the importance of John's life in the story of our salvation. As God broke through into the life of Zechariah and Elizabeth, we too, are reminded that God breaks into each one of our lives offering the treasure of everlasting life. There may be times when we doubt God's presence or wisdom in our lives. However, God will remind us just as he did with Zechariah that once we trust in His Word, we will be able to discern His presence through people and the events that unfold in our lives. John the Baptist was set apart to specifically make God's presence known in the world. John had to discern his purpose through prayer. The Baptist's response to his prayer and in answering the call was to put his faith into action. Likewise, we too, must discern through prayer what God is calling each one of us to do and put our faith into action. John the Baptist revealed God's plan through his witnessing to the obligation or repentance and leading a moral life. We are also called to that same position within our own faith life in response to live out our baptismal promises.

Prayer

We pray: Lord, instill within our souls the zeal that allowed John the Baptist to be bold in proclaiming the message of truth. May we trust that you are forever with us, leading and guiding the journey of our lives. John recognized Jesus in the midst of his life and understood his purpose. May we too, understand our purpose and the call given to us by You, our creator. Let each one of us recognize the presence of Jesus along life's way. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

"The Church observes the birth of John as in some way sacred; and you will not find any other of the great men of old whose birth we celebrate officially. We celebrate John's, as we celebrate Christ's. This point cannot be passed over in silence, and if I may not perhaps be able to explain it in the way that such an important matter deserves, it is still worth thinking about it a little more deeply and fruitfully than usual....

John is born of an old woman who is barren; Christ is born of a young woman who is a virgin. That John will be born is not believed, and his father is struck dumb; that Christ will be born is believed, and he is conceived by faith....

John, it seems, has been inserted as a kind of boundary between the two Testaments, the Old and the New. That he is somehow or other a boundary is something that the Lord himself indicates when he says, The Law and the prophets were until John. So he represents the old and heralds the new. Because he represents the old, he is born of an elderly couple; because he represents the new, he is revealed as a prophet in his mother's womb. You will remember that, before he was born, at Mary's arrival he leapt in his mother's womb. Already he had been marked out there, designated before he was born; it was already shown whose forerunner he would be, even before he saw him. These are divine matters and exceed the measure of human frailty. Finally, he is born, he receives a name, and his father's tongue is loosed....

Zachary is struck dumb and loses his voice, until John, the Lord's forerunner, is born and releases his voice for him. What does Zachary's silence mean, but that prophecy was obscure and, before the proclamation of Christ, somehow concealed and shut up? It is released and opened up by his arrival, it becomes clear when the one who was being prophesied is about to come. The releasing of Zachary's voice at the birth of John has the same significance as the tearing of the veil of the Temple at the crucifixion of Christ. If John were meant to proclaim himself, he would not be opening Zachary's mouth. The tongue is released because a voice is being born – for when John was already heralding the Lord, he was asked, "Who are you?" and he replied, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness...."

John is the voice, but the Lord in the beginning was the Word. John is a voice for a time, but Christ is the eternal Word from the beginning."

Jamaica Outreach Program

School's Out, But September Is Just Around the Corner!

In past years, we have asked for your help in donating to our school lunch and school uniform programs for the needy children of St. Pius X Primary School, located in inner city Kingston. You have always answered our requests and our prayers in providing a nutritional meal, often the only meal of the day, for these helpless children. Fortunately, the government of Jamaica has recognized the plight of these children and has initiated a food subsidy program for them. This program does not, however, include the Nursery Schools we sponsor, and so, we are still trying to address the needs of these 3, 4 and 5 year olds who have different dietary needs than their older schoolmates. Therefore, we are asking for a contribution of $150.00 to sponsor one Nursery school child with lunch for the 2012-2013 school year. This amounts to less than one dollar a day for the entire school year.

We also need to supplement our scholarship fund for students who need books and tuition for high school (grade 7 and higher), Teacher Training Colleges, or four year baccalaureate degree colleges. As a result of academic successes in the elementary schools we support, more and more of our students are continuing their studies by applying to tuition based high schools and four year colleges. The Jamaican government provides only limited support after grade 6. We need your help in encouraging these students to follow their dreams and aspirations for a better life, and break the cycle of poverty that has plagued these people for generations. Your contribution of $200.00 will go a long way in paying for books and tuition at these institutions of higher learning.

If you prefer, your donation in any amount can be made to our General Education Fund, which gives us the flexibility to use your gift where it is most needed.

All donors of $150 or more will receive one or more photos of our eligible students.

We thank you for your past and future financial support, and know God will always remember your kindness and generosity shown to these needy students. God Bless You All.
