“The People Were Joyful Even Though They Had So Little”

June 22 marked the beginning of a remarkable expedition. My brother (Anthony) and I, Fr. John, Bill Maguire (Director of Youth Ministry), and members from four other parishes in our diocese embarked on a life-changing journey. This was my first mission trip, and my experience was far beyond what words can describe. We spent our time working at a variety of places: teaching and playing with St. Lucian children at the Missionaries of Charity; painting at the Marian Home for the elderly; taking care of the mentally and physically handicapped at St. Lucy’s home; and handing out to the children clothes collected during the “Mission Clothe Me” event. We went expecting only to give to the poor, without receiving anything in return. But they gave us an even greater gift: they taught us how to be truly happy.

I learned that no matter how little we think we have, there are people who have far less than we do. The poverty in St. Lucia is beyond belief, yet they still have more faith than most of us. Mary, an elderly lady we visited, lived in a very small shack about the size of my bathroom. When we asked her if she lived alone, she said no. We looked around trying to figure how anyone else could fit in her tiny space. We asked who else lived with her, and she responded with a smile on her face: “The Holy Spirit and God, of course.”

At the Missionaries of Charity, the children who came on Saturdays and Sundays for lunch, possibly their only meal that day, were still jumping around, playing with each other and excited to learn about God. It amazed me! Being around them brought joy to me, because the children and the Sisters were always looking at the bright side of things. I loved helping with the cooking for the kids, painting figurines that were going to be used to teach them about God, and even assisting the Sisters in teaching them. I enjoyed working at the Missionaries of Charity, and what we did there will always be in my heart. That’s not the only thing that is going to stay with me, though. Whenever it rains, I’ll think about the overhang we built to shelter the little preschool children at the Marian Home. The Holy Family Children’s Home, an orphanage with youth ranging from ages 3 to 17, has a special place in my memory as well. When we handed them the donated clothing and asked them to “model” their new outfits for us, the look on their faces was pure delight! They loved the attention we gave them, and it brought joy to my fellow missionaries and me.

Helping out at these different missions made a difference in my life. I enjoyed this trip, and I recommend it to anyone who has a desire to serve God and others. It will open your eyes to the beauty of this world and bring you closer to God!

JULY 29, 2012 SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Collier County Elections Board will be sending a Voter Outreach Team to St. John the Evangelist this weekend to facilitate voter registration. The team will be onsite in the narthex on Saturday from 2:15 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. and on Sunday from 7:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. They will bring a laptop with the current registered voter database so that parishioners can verify their status. If you are not registered, a team member will assist you in completing your application. The deadline to register to vote in the general election in November is not until October 9. If you are not registered to vote or are unsure, this will be a great opportunity to make sure that you are ready to cast your ballot in November.

Bathroom renovations in the Parish Life Center began this past week. As was the case when we renovated the bathrooms in the church two years ago, there are always surprises when the demolition begins. Much of the drywall in the bathrooms must be replaced as what was initially installed is not appropriate for a commercial bathroom application. We will install “Durock” cement board, which is water and mold resistant. In addition, the new flooring in the PLC bathrooms will be travertine versus traditional ceramic tile. The finished product will be absolutely beautiful, and there will be no grout lines, which is always a constant maintenance issue in commercial bathrooms. The installation process for travertine is more time consuming as each piece must be “floated.” We were able to find a beautiful travertine stone at a price lower than ceramic tile. Granite countertops and stainless steel sinks will also be included in the bathroom renovation. While we complete the men’s room, guests in the PLC ballroom may use the bathroom in the classroom hallway. Thanks for your understanding and patience while we complete this much needed renovation.

We are also in the final stages of the bid process to refinish the stage and dance floor in the Parish Life Center. We have not refinished these surfaces in over eight years and it is well overdue. Once we select the final bid, the process will take approximately one week.

We are currently seeking individuals interested in working in the nursery which is located in the Parish Life Center. This is a paid part time position. Candidates must be at least 18 years of age, willing to be fingerprinted, participate in a Safe Environment Training seminar and be able to handle multiple children at one time. If you are interested, please pick up an application in the parish office.

Have you visited our memorial garden recently? Surrounded by a beautiful and very thick Ficus hedge on the Southwest side of the church, many would not even know this garden exists. Our landscapers have done a magnificent job of creating a delightful environment as the final resting place for our parishioners and their immediate family. Just this past week, four different parish couples chose to purchase space in our memorial garden. One of these four couples was hesitant about purchasing space in our Catholic Memorial Garden and suggested they might like to look elsewhere. After comparing prices at other cemeteries, they quickly returned to St. John the Evangelist and took advantage of a truly great deal. It costs only $1,200.00 to purchase a space in our memorial garden. This is an all-inclusive price meaning it includes the opening, closing, urn and granite headstone. I can assure you that this is an incredibly competitive price. As a reminder, space is very limited and sale of space in the garden may be terminated without notice. I took over the management of the memorial garden several years ago and have learned plenty since that time. The most important thing I have learned is that pre-planning is essential. Those couples that plan ahead and purchase space in our memorial garden have one less thing to worry about when a loved one passes away. Conversely, when you pass away, you will leave your family one less thing to worry about.

Although at a slower summertime pace, we continue to make strides towards our goal for the 2012 Catholic Faith Appeal. We are still well ahead of our level at this same time last year with respect to our goal. In addition, our goal is only $3,000.00 greater this year than last. If you have not yet made a pledge for the 2012 appeal, there is plenty of time to do so. As a continual reminder, if you are a seasonal resident or visitor, please make you check payable to the Catholic Faith Appeal with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line.

General Manager

Prayer For the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome—for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us—this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Leftover Gifts from a Bountiful God

Today's readings speak to us about the great generosity of God. The Prophet Elisha took the twenty barley loaves and managed to feed a hundred people and there was still some left over. A miracle? Some critics may well argue that twenty large barley loaves would manage to feed such a number. In today's gospel, Jesus feeds the five thousand with merely five barley loaves and two fish. A miracle? One may wonder what the critics would have to say about this action performed at the hands of Jesus of Nazareth? No science could explain how a great multitude could be fed with five barley loaves and two fish. Moreover, the disciples filled twelve wicker baskets with the leftover fragments. At times we have to rely on faith to understand God's generosity in our lives and the scriptures that are explained to us. Jesus is teaching us that the Father is willing to give himself completely through the hands of his Son who comes to feed us, nourish us, strengthen us, and gift us. This is

Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes (Catholic News Service)

Prayer

We pray: Lord, may I always recognize your presence in those people who challenge me, especially in those that the world deems to be different or sometimes worthless. May I learn to embrace all people, languages, and ways of life as a sure sign of your generosity working in the world today. Amen.

the essence of grace.

There was a need present in the multitude that gathered around Jesus. Many of them were reaching out for healing. Others were searching the wisdom that Jesus had to offer. In the midst of the search and the need for healing, the people become physically hungry. Jesus recognizes their human need. In performing the sign of feeding the five thousand, Jesus not only satisfies the hunger of the body, but also the hunger of the soul. The action of Christ that day pointed beyond itself – it pointed to the divine nature of his mission. When the people are fed, there is still more left over and Jesus requests that the gift that he gives should not go to waste.

Jesus also tells us to make sure that we do not waste the gifts that have been given into our hands. Does Jesus feed us with the same bread? Yes, but Jesus gives us more than that – His body and blood. Does he gift us with his Word spoken 2000 years to the early disciples? Yes, but now he commissions us to take that Word, share that Word, incarnate that Word by the very nature of our own lives, our own decisions, and our very actions. He is telling us today – “I have given you God’s dream in my gospel proclaimed and in my real presence on your very altar – now go and realize that dream for me.” The reality is that Jesus is still present to his Church and is constantly feeding us with Word and Sacrament. This is what strengthens us in holiness. In return, he asks that we do not waste the gifts that are freely given to us. We are asked to follow his example of giving and use the gifts that are particular to us.

St. Paul urges today to live out the calling of our baptism with all humility and gentleness, with patience, striving to preserve the unity of the Church. We simply do this in recognizing that each person inside and outside of our churches have a place in God’s heart – all have been gifted with His generosity. Jesus warns us to make sure the gift in us and others will never go to waste.

Voices of Faith

A Sacred Feeding

“Over seas, mountains, and grassy plains
They sought Him out
People like you and I
With a hunger not only of body,
But of soul.

Hungered souls behold their God
Who is ready to feed,
Willing to heal,
And prepared to satisfy
An insatiable appetite for Love and Truth

Five barley loaves and two fish
Are man’s humble gifts
Placed into Sacred Hands
They are Blessed, Broken, and Shared,
In thanksgiving they are offered to hungry souls

Reclining on still meadows
Thousands receive the gift
Hungers are taken away
And the sign of God revealed
No longer will they hunger, no longer they need healed

For in that very moment
Is the very presence of God made known
A Sacred Feeding takes place
That satisfies both heart and soul
And so God whispers, “I love you. I nourish you, for you are mine.”

Thousands rise up from grassy plains
Changed by their encounter, nothing goes to waste
They are given food for their journey
Bread for their soul
And make a return home, touched by the gift

And so God returns to mountain’s grandeur
Where eagles soar
And angels fly
He waits in Sacred Silence
To provide once again for broken spirits and hungry souls”

Verse 1) Did you feel the mountains tremble? Did you hear the oceans roar when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2) Did you feel the people tremble? Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-chorus) And we can see that, God, you're moving, a mighty river through the nations;
 and young and old will turn to Jesus. Fling wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord!

O - pen up the doors and let the mu - sic play! Let the streets re - sound with sing-ing!
 Songs that bring your hope, songs that bring your joy, dan-cers who dance up-on in - jus-tice!

Verse 3) Do you feel the darkness tremble when all the saints join in one song, and all the streams flow as one river to wash away our brokenness?

Pre-chorus 2) And here we see that, God, you're moving; a time of jubilee is coming, when young and old return to Jesus. Fling wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord!

Jamaica Outreach Program

School's Out, But September Is Just Around the Corner!

In past years, we have asked for your help in donating to our school lunch and school uniform programs for the needy children of St. Pius X Primary School, located in inner city Kingston. You have always answered our requests and our prayers in providing a nutritional meal, often the only meal of the day, for these helpless children. Fortunately, the government of Jamaica has recognized the plight of these children and has initiated a food subsidy program for them. This program does not, however, include the Nursery Schools we sponsor, and so, we are still trying to address the needs of these 3, 4 and 5 year olds who have different dietary needs than their older schoolmates.

Therefore, we are asking for a contribution of $150.00 to sponsor one Nursery school child with lunch for the 2012-2013 school year. This amounts to less than one dollar a day for the entire school year.

We also need to supplement our scholarship fund for students who need books and tuition for high school (grade 7 and higher), Teacher Training Colleges, or four year baccalaureate degree colleges. As a result of academic successes in the elementary schools we support, more and more of our students are continuing their studies by applying to tuition based high schools and four year colleges. The Jamaican government provides only limited support after grade 6. We need your help in encouraging these students to follow their dreams and aspirations for a better life, and break the cycle of poverty that has plagued these people for generations. Your contribution of $200.00 will go a long way in paying for books and tuition at these institutions of higher learning.

If you prefer, your donation in any amount can be made to our General Education Fund, which gives us the flexibility to use your gift where it is most needed.

All donors of $150 or more will receive one or more photos of our eligible students.

We thank you for your past and future financial support, and know God will always remember your kindness and generosity shown to these needy students. God Bless You All.
