THIS WEEK'S MASS & LITURGY SCHEDULE...SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH • WWW.SAINTJOHNTHEEVANGELIST.COM

GABRIEL PROJECT Needs Volunteers

"I was at such a low place, so discouraged, when I learned about the GABRIEL PROJECT", said one of our clients. Seven years later, she has a good job, has graduated from college and is planning further education. Her child is an intelligent, delightful, out-going 6 year old.

Another young woman was being pressured by her doctor to abort because of her health. She insisted on waiting until her child was viable. Finally, a tiny 2-1/2 pound girl was delivered early. Seeing this chubby, curly haired toddler, it seems hard to believe.

A GABRIEL volunteer does three things for the young lady she mentors; she prays for her, she listens to and encourages her, and she helps her access necessary items and services for herself and her baby.

Since 1999, the GABRIEL PROJECT of St. Ann Parish has mentored numerous pregnant women, many of whom felt desperate enough to consider, or even schedule, to abort their children.

With more volunteers, more women and babies could be helped. To volunteer, or to learn more, please call Carol at 601.7330. There is a special need for bi-lingual volunteers.

Famous Women in the Catholic Church

A conference highlighting famous women in the Church will take place on Saturday, September 29 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Retreat Center in Venice. The day will focus on the life of St. Clare of Assisi, and be presented by Sister Ramona Miller O.S.F.

The conference is sponsored by the Blessed Edmund Rice School and includes a continental breakfast, lunch, four break out session presentations, and liturgy in St. Joseph Chapel.

The conference begins at 8:30 a.m. The cost is $35 per person and pre-registration is required. To register, please contact the Blessed Edmund Rice School at 941.766.7334 or email andreamolinari@aol.com.

Mass at Juniper Village in Naples

Reed Meyerson Inaugural Winner of the John Joseph Ludden Award

A new award that honors St. John the Evangelist's outstanding high school graduate was unveiled and awarded at the end of the 5:00 p.m. Mass Sunday, August 12. The John Joseph Ludden Award, named for the late father of our pastor, will now be awarded each year to the graduating senior who has made the most outstanding contribution to the parish and to youth ministry.

"Though very few parishioners knew Fr. John's father personally, nevertheless, we do know him — through the lasting influence he left on each of his seven children — and especially for our parish, his youngest son, our pastor!" Pastoral Musician and Liturgist Tom Oram explained. "He was both a man of faith and a man of action, and so it is most appropriate that the youth who leave their mark on the parish, through both their words and deeds, be honored with an award bearing his name."

Bill Maguire, Director of Youth Ministry, presented the plaque, which will bear the names of each year's winner, to Fr. John.

Martha Oram, former Interim Director of Youth Ministry, presented a plaque to Reed Meyerson, the inaugural winner of the Ludden Award. Reed, the second of three sons to Jeff and Kathleen Meyerson, is a recent graduate of Barron Collier High School. He heads to New College of Florida (in Sarasota), the nation's preeminent public liberal arts college, this weekend.

"As a parish, we should be most proud of, and feel most blessed by, a young man of Reed's caliber," Tom said.

Some of Reed's many contributions, include:

- playing bass and piano at the Sunday 5:00 p.m. Mass for two and a half years, even leading the ensemble several times in Tom's absence;
- repainting the youth room in the Claussen Center with his family. As his Eagle Scout project, he planned and built a loft for that room which provides "hangout space" above and a chapel below;
- participating in numerous parish service projects, including rummage sales, parish beautification days, Relay For Life and beach cleanup; and

- serving two years on the parish Pastoral Council.

"Reed has been a dependable presence at youth ministry events," Tom concluded. "His intellectual spirit and keen wit are a gift to the Church, and we are confident he will continue to share his God-given talents with his community wherever he goes — but he will be missed!"

St. John Youth Ministry

The Beach Proves God's Existence

It is easy to be an atheist in the city, when surrounded on all sides by things manmade. It is more difficult to be an atheist at the beach, when surrounded on all sides by the splendor of God's creation.

Bill Maguire
Director of Youth Ministry

Bible on the Beach was an absolute blast — something we'll definitely do again, and again, and . . . About 20 teens came to have some fun in the last days of summer, before the first day of school. We swam, ate 200 nuggets from Chick-Fil-A, threw the football and made a lot of noise. We even got to watch the local news film a segment on cross-fit — and, of course, mimicked their exercises trying to make them crack-up on live TV.

The beauty of the beach has a way of pointing us toward the mystery, toward the God who created the cosmos as gift, simply to share His goodness with us. It began to pour down rain before the end of our trip, but we wanted to honor God anyway. So, we prayed a Rosary . . . in the Vanderbilt Beach parking garage.

Yeah, we did get a few funny looks as beach-goers raced out of the rain and to their cars. We couldn't help but wonder, though, whether we — like the beach — provided some proof for the existence of God.

*To materialists this world is opaque like a curtain; nothing can be seen through it.
A mountain is just a mountain, a sunset just a sunset;
but to poets, artists, and saints, the world is transparent like a window pane — it tells of something beyond; for example, a mountain tells of the Power of God, the sunset of His Beauty, and the snowflake of His Purity.*

— Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

AUGUST 19, 2012 TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Members of the Arts & Liturgical Environment Committee have been selecting fixtures for the lighting project to take place in the church. Although the fixtures have already been chosen for the ceiling and above the altar, we are also installing tasteful chandeliers in the back wings of the church as well as the narthex. Once the final selections are made, I will publish pictures in the bulletin.

Work continues in the restrooms in the Parish Life Center ballroom. The stone work (floors, walls and decorative border) has been completed in the men's room and has begun in the ladies' room. The granite countertops have also been installed. Our extremely talented maintenance crew was able to recycle the partitions. They have sanded, primed and repainted to partitions with a shade of brown that matches the travertine perfectly. While we complete the men's room, guests in the PLC ballroom may use the bathroom in the classroom hallway. Thanks for your understanding and patience while we complete this much needed renovation.

The completed sample of our new granite headstones for the Memorial Garden has arrived and was installed this past week. We will now begin replacing all of the markers one section at a time and all future orders will be fabricated in this beautiful engraved granite. If you would like to see the new headstone installed, please visit the garden and look in the section immediately to the west of the fountain.

Thank you to all of our parishioners for your strong showing during the two weeks of "Undy Sunday." The bags were overflowing by the end of the weekend, and, as a result, many deserving children in Collier County will have appropriate undergarments as they head back to school this week. Donations at St. John the Evangelist are up over last year. Donations are still being accepted if you were unable to take part in the official "Undy Sundays."

The Visiting Nurses Association will once again offer Flu and Pneumonia shots right here at St. John the Evangelist on Thursday, October 4 and Thursday, November 8 beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center. The seasonal Flu shot is $25 and the Pneumonia shot is $65. Both shots are covered by Medicare Part B. In addition to the regular Flu Shot and Pneumonia, they will also be offering preservative free and high dose Flu Shots as well as Pneumonia, Tetanus Booster and Pertussis. Did you know that the proceeds from the Visiting Nurses Association will be used to provide Flu, Tetanus and Pneumonia shots to Immokalee Farmworkers free of charge?

Over the past nine years, I have explained in detail from the altar and in writing the importance of the Catholic Faith Appeal and the financial implications of reaching and exceeding our goal. However, I will once again lay it out in detail. As you know, the CFA is the single most important component of our annual budget. This year's assessment/goal is $443,000.00. How is this number derived? We are assessed at a rate of 26% on all receipts which the Diocese of Venice deems to be assessable income. This includes regular offertory, rental income and special gifts and donations. Jamaica Outreach, Habitat for Humanity and all Diocesan Collections (Catholic University, Peters Pence, etc...) are non-assessable. We then receive a credit (30%) for all donations made for tuition subsidies and gifts to other parishes. The net of the assessable receipts and credits results in our annual assessment, which is based on the prior fiscal year. Beginning in February with kickoff Sunday, we have approximately 11 months to raise the funds to meet our goal. Everyone receives a mailer from the Diocese and has the option of making an annual pledge. We strongly encourage all parishioners to make a pledge. Many choose to forego this option and make donations to the CFA through the offertory during the course of the year. These checks are then sent directly to the Diocese of Venice. The funds allocated for the CFA are non-assessable and every penny of every dollar donated will be used to offset our assessment. Your contributions to the CFA are not recognized by the parish, and, therefore, you will not see your gifts on the annual statement from St. John the Evangelist. You will receive an acknowledgement from the Diocese of Venice at year's end detailing your contributions to the CFA if you gave in excess of $250.00 during the calendar year. If not, you will need to retain your cancelled checks or copies for tax purposes. If we exceed our $443,000.00 goal by the first week of January 2013, the excess will be returned to the parish free of assessment to be used for whatever programs or ministries we choose. This could be a huge windfall for the parish as we could use these funds to create reserves to replace the aging Parish Life Center air conditioning units or to purchase materials for Faith Formation, Music, etc... Conversely, if we fall short of our goal, which we did last year, we must use funds out of our general operating income to pay the shortfall. Our budget for 2012/2013 is based on meeting our CFA goal, therefore, if we fall short, this could certainly be a "budget buster." I hope this lengthy explanation has cleared up any questions you may have about the mechanics of the Catholic Faith Appeal. It is imperative that we reach our goal and with your help, I am confident that we can do so. If you are able, please consider making a pledge or contribution to the Catholic Faith Appeal. Please make your check payable to the CFA with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line.

Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome — for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us — this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Word & Life

The Fusion of Word and Sacrament

The people in the gospels these past few Sundays have found themselves asking several questions. The depth of Jesus' teaching proves to be very difficult for them to fathom. We are told that the people started to quarrel – something about Jesus' message led them to a sense of instability and confusion. In today's gospel the people ask, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus' offering his flesh for the life of the world and as food to eat was a cannibalistic and scientific impossibility for the people of his day. Jesus obviously was talking about the ultimate sacrifice of his own life for the message he proclaimed. His message and the sacrifice of his own life go hand in hand. The Lamb of God hung upon the Tree of Calvary, not just to fulfill scripture, but because his radical message of God's kingdom nailed him to it. The Gospel of John coincides the time of the death of Jesus with the time that the Passover lamb was being sacrificed. Jesus offers the unleavened bread of the Passover and the cup of Elijah as his body and blood the night before he dies.

Every time we celebrate the Mass, we relive the moments of Christ's ministry, last supper, death and resurrection. When it comes to the Eucharist and our belief in the real presence of Christ, we are called to the radical fusion of Word and Sacrament. It is the Word proclaimed that feeds and sustains us. The Word of God is offered to shape our lives so that we may walk the path that leads to everlasting life. As we digest the body of Christ, we are also called to embody His message in our lives. When we approach the Mass we all must realize that, although we are willing to receive Christ's body and blood, we must go out and be Christ for others. Attending Mass ought not to be an ordinary gathering of a given community, but an extraordinary event where we feel sent out by God to spread the message of Christ's love to those around us – those in our neighborhoods, our work, our places of leisure, etc. "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" We already know the answer: by dying on the cross and becoming the new Passover lamb and new covenant. The Mass offers us Christ's body and blood as the Bread of Life and the Cup of eternal blessing. As we partake in Holy Communion, we taste the bitter sweet experiences that will ultimately lead each one of us to paradise.

Reflection Questions

1. If Jesus offers his own flesh and blood for us, then what am I willing to do for Him?
2. How can I give of myself to people in order to nourish them?
3. How do I allow God's constancy to bless my life?
4. Do I spend enough time in prayer before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament?
5. Does my belief in the Real Presence impact my life?
6. Do I allow myself the time to put my energies into my faith or do I allow other concerns to control my life?

The life of faith gives rise to many questions. The harsh realities of life often gnaw away at the faith that anchors us. Even though our faith may be rocked from time to time, the Eucharistic presence remains steadfast and constant. If we truly enter with full knowledge into what we are truly participating in at the Mass, our lives can change. If we allow ourselves to be challenged by the Word of God, our lives change for the better, especially our relationships. Christ continues to feed his people two thousand years after his death and resurrection as they approach the altar to receive his body and blood. As we gather for the Eucharist we may recall how people come in and out of our lives at any given time. There we may recall where people have let us down. However, we have to remember no matter what disappointments come our way, that Jesus remains forever in the everlasting covenant which we celebrate in the Mass. He is always there with us, to guide us, and to be our Living Bread.

Voices of Faith

The Mystery of the Seed

The mystery of the seed
Made possible by the Creator Is entrusted to sacred hands
To be planted
To journey from death to life

With care the seed is placed into fertile soil
There, alone in darkness, it waits Through weary death the seed groans
The warmth of the sun invites it to journey upward
And so it starts to come to life

Life giving water rains from the heavens
The seed begins to sprout its roots Burrowing through the soil it is heaven bound Reaching out for light and warmth
The miracle of life anew takes place

All of creation celebrates and works together
The mystery of day
The mystery of night
Unfolds as the sprout becomes a plant
The plant becomes the wheat

The faithful steward of the land Is aware of the Creator's gift
He silently and patiently awaits
The time of the harvest
The blessings of fruitfulness

Heat and glow of the spring and summer's sun Makes wheat ripe with golden beam Ready for the harvest
The wheat is removed from the chaff Crushed into flour it dies once again

And so the flour is entrusted to skillful hands Water poured forth, yeast instilled
The miracle of leaven awaits Kneaded into the dough is the care of its maker
The warmth and protection of the clay oven brings forth the bread.

Delightful to the taste is this bread
Its' fragrance a welcome guest To airy walls of humble abode
For death brings forth life
And life delivers its fruit to nourish

And so it is with the Living Bread
The seed that died upon the Tree of Life Placed into the darkness of hallowed tomb Awaiting the resurrection
He finally arises, the Fruit of Everlasting Life

He bids man eat this Living Bread Amidst the deaths and resurrections of life Take and eat the food that prophets longed for Eat your fill of the flesh and drink of the Blood Of the One who is love

The Creator lovingly entrusts man with this heavenly fare
To nourish and guide, to love and protect Food for the journey man becomes filled and satisfied
The Giver of the Gift bids nothing goes to waste
As man in turn takes this fragrant gift to others

Prayer

*God our ancestors in faith, you sent your only son to be offered as a sacrifice to nourish us with his flesh through the passages of time. Help us to recognize the healing of his presence in the breaking of the bread. As we approach the altar to receive Your Son Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament, may we always be aware of the message that brought him to the cross. May we embrace that message wholly and practically.
Amen.*
