PARISH INFORMATION...

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH • WWW.SAINTJOHNTHEEVANGELIST.COM

— DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA —

September 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. will be taken up here in our Diocese of Venice the weekend of September 1 and 2, 2012.

Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, located in Washington, D.C. It provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to nearly 7,000 students every year. More than 4,000 students directly receive scholarship aid from this Collection, including students from our Diocese.

The financial sacrifices required of Catholic parents to provide a Catholic college education are enormous. All of the funds received through this collection underwrite the financial aid program at the University. Simply put, your contributions directly benefit students at Catholic University from all over the United States, by funding scholarships for those who would not otherwise be able to attend.

Students at The Catholic University of America receive personalized attention in a wide range of programs, combining an excellent liberal arts curriculum with courses in their major fields of study. Grounded in the philosophy of the Catholic tradition, these students are well prepared for success in life and ready to make a difference in today's world.

I appeal to you to give to the National Collection for the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. May God Bless you for your support of Catholic Higher Education.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of

St. John Youth Ministry

Parent, Adult and Young Adult Leader Meeting

Recently, I was re-reading some of the notes and messages young people have given me over the years. One note, in particular, struck me as relevant as we prepare to kick off the new year of Youth Ministry here at St. John the Evangelist. In part, this young man wrote: “I always looked forward to

Bill Maguire
Director of Youth Ministry

Youth Ministry because it was my favorite night of the week.”

In a sense, this young man summed up the main goal of parish youth ministry programs: Youth Ministry had become an integral part of his life. There was no question of arm-twisting. Each week, he actually looked forward to attending youth group and didn't want to miss out!

I believe it's important to see that this young man's experience is not isolated or odd. He was a “normal” high school guy who played varsity football, had a lot of friends and was active at his high school. Yet, he — like countless young people I've worked with over the years — had a desire for something more. And, as it would happen, that something more has a name and a face: Jesus Christ.

Of course, it can take a lot of time and effort to uncover a young person's desire for Christ. And, this is precisely what a Youth Ministry program tries to do. How do we do this? It is important to have attractive and fun events, retreats, games, lock-ins, trips like the March for Life and service projects.

But, most important by far, is to have leaders who are willing to invest their time in a young person's life. There is nothing more important to a young person than to have people in their lives who truly love and know them by name. Jesus didn't start a program; rather, he entered into personal relationships with his disciples and spent a lot of time with them.

So, as we get ready to kick off the new year of Youth

Ministry here at St. John the Evangelist, I invite you to prayerfully consider joining our Middle School or High School Youth Ministry team. We're looking for parents, adult and young adult leaders to help us lead young people to Christ!

LET US PRAY...

AUGUST 26, 2012 TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As of this past Wednesday, we were watching the tropics very closely as Tropical Storm Isaac gained strength and continued his westward track towards the Caribbean. If the current track holds,

Isaac will affect the southern peninsula of Florida by late Sunday evening. The National Weather Service suggests that Isaac will be a strong category one hurricane with winds of 90 mph as it enters the Florida Straits. As we all know, these forecasts will vary greatly especially when we are four days out. Depending on the track, the storm could be torn apart over the mountainous terrain of Hispaniola and weaken further as it travels over Cuba. An ideal scenario would be a weakening storm passing to the east of Southwest Florida leaving us with a bounty of rainfall. Please watch the updated forecasts and be prepared for whatever Isaac may have in store for Naples and vicinity. Prayers for only a glancing blow would also certainly be in order.

Did you know that there is an amazing team of women in our parish who compose the bereavement luncheon ministry? Under the direction of Rita Spagnola, parish families of the deceased are given the option of hosting a luncheon following the funeral or memorial Mass. Rita began as a volunteer following the death of her husband in 1997. Since that time, this group has hosted hundreds of luncheons for the families and loved ones of our parishioners. Currently, the team consists of 20 volunteers during season and 10 remarkable women during the summer months. This year, they have hosted 26 receptions and counting. Thank you to Rita and her team for providing comfort to our parish families during these very difficult times.

In addition to the bereavement luncheon ministry, there is another group that assists with funerals. Arimatheans attend funeral Masses and memorial services to provide support and compassion from the parish community. Many times when a parishioner passes away, there may be very little family locally to provide support. The Arimatheans step in and provide much needed support by attending the funeral and simply being there with compassion.

Following the death of a family member, the loved ones of the deceased have the option of attending six weeks of grief support sessions offered in the Parish Life Center. These sessions have proven very effective in assisting our parishioners with the grieving and recovery process. Please see the bulletin for upcoming grief support sessions.

Next week you will most likely see a substantial jump in the Catholic Faith Appeal statistics. Our data entry employee was out of town for an extended period and three weeks worth of CFA contributions were not recorded. We should be back on track now moving forward for the remaining four months of the appeal. It is imperative that we reach our goal and with your help, I am confident that we can do so. If you are able, please consider making a pledge or contribution to the Catholic Faith Appeal. Please make your check payable to the CFA with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line.

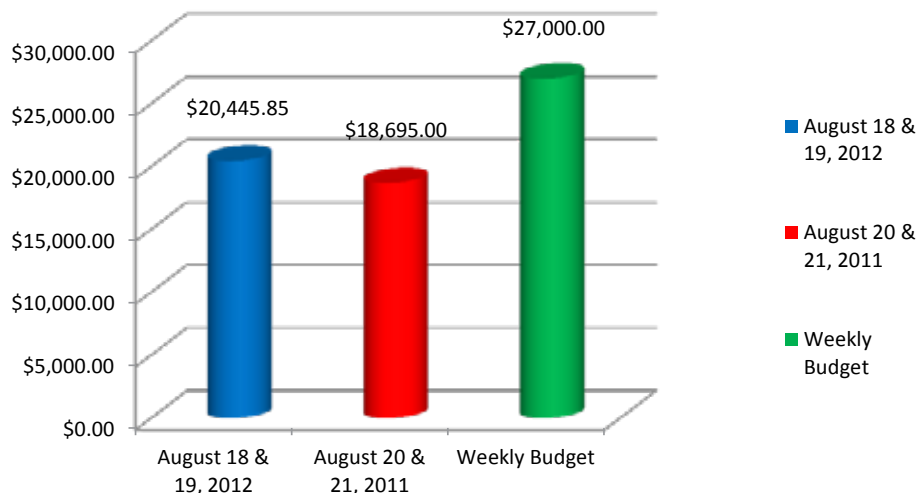

If you have yet to purchase space in our beautiful Memorial Garden, now is the time to do so. The landscaping renovations are complete and the grounds are magnificent. My Achilles heel that has been detracting from the beauty of the garden for years has finally been resolved. The first order of new granite markers has been placed and will be installed shortly. Once installed, the true beauty of the garden will be revealed. In addition, those of you with loved ones who passed away quite some time ago will again be able to read the inscription on the granite. For a cost of only $1,200.00, this is a deal that should be taken advantage of sooner than later. Ironically, most of the plots that I have sold since 2009 have been to parishioners who own plots up north but feel that no one will ever visit them. In many cases, the cemeteries will allow you to sell back your plots at a discounted price.

As much as I find my affiliation with the memorial garden slightly morbid, I have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to sit down with our parishioners and get to know them better. It has also allowed me to ask them candidly "how are we doing?" I have been pleasantly surprised at the answers to this question as many of you are quite pleased with our progress. So I will hope that my feeble attempt at a sales pitch in the prior paragraph will entice more of our parishioners to come on down and see me.

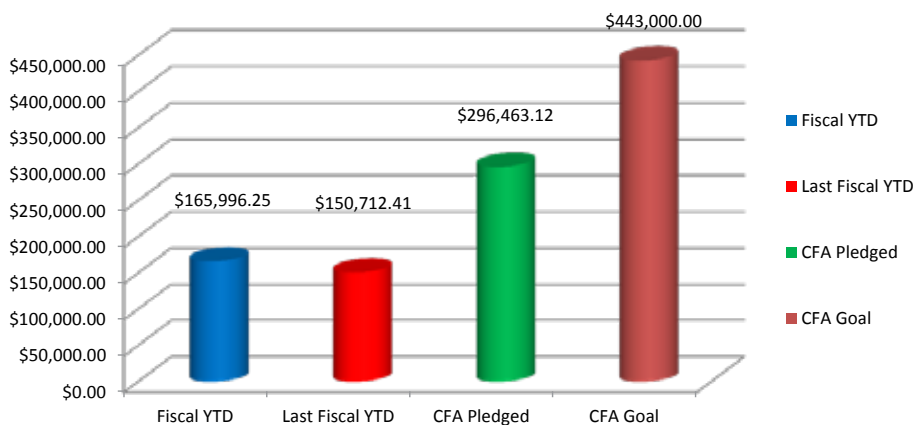

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world,
hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control:
the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area
and animated with a true spirit of gratitude,
we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son
to reach the heavenly Jerusalem,
where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome — for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us — this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Word & Life

A Disappointed Christ

Sometimes people engaged in preaching the gospel can feel disillusioned when their message of the kingdom falls on deaf ears. There is usually a reason why people reject people for the message they preach. Maybe it is because people do not like the message – it makes them feel too uncomfortable. It could be that they just do not like the messenger. Personalities sometimes get in the way of the gospel message. Knowledge of personal histories can sometimes block the wisdom that has been gifted to people. Jesus was not alien to this kind of rejection and arrogance.

Today we hear that many of his disciples could not accept his message and decided to walk away. Jesus had fed the five thousand people who were hungering for meaning and in need of his healing, teaching and his very presence. The message that he taught was that he was the bread that had come down from heaven. He foretold the great sacrifice that he would make of offering his own flesh and blood for the salvation of the world. These very people had seen great things accomplished at the hands of Jesus and heard the wisdom that came from his mouth. However, they still managed to succumb to the narrow mindedness which rejected God's wisdom and understanding. One can almost hear their sentiments, "Who does this man think he is? Isn't he just the offspring of a simple carpenter – how on earth can he say that he is of God?" This translated – "I have my own concept of God – I think that it is right and I am not going to allow anyone to change that." Jesus witnesses the rejection and is disappointed by the response. The gospel tells us that many left his company when he offered himself as the Bread of Life. The people who left Jesus' company were not able to surrender their hunger and accept Jesus as food for their journey. Jesus challenges his disciples in making a choice. He asks, "Do you also want to leave?" Peter's response in

Reflection Questions

1. What do I find difficult with Jesus' message?
2. Where do I allow narrow mindedness to get in the way of the gospel?
3. How far am I willing to God to follow Christ?
4. What areas of my life need to be transformed?
5. Am I satisfied by the wisdom that Jesus gives to me?
6. What are my spiritual hungers?
7. Where do I encounter the presence of Jesus?
8. Do I take adequate time nourishing myself with the Living Bread that Jesus offers?

faith centers Christ ministry once again, “Master to whom shall we go? You have the words of everlasting life.” The words of the fisherman anchor the believer in the person of Christ.

We are given the ultimatum to accept or reject the whole of Jesus’ life project. We are challenged to understand and internalize the message of the gospel; to understand the stories of the healing done in his time and become healing in our time. If we decided to follow Jesus we must accept the challenge of the gospel and realize that Jesus is the one who offers salvation. Jesus’ message of love, forgiveness, compassion, acceptance, healing and tolerance are the attributes that lead us into paradise. In following the example of Christ and accepting Jesus as Bread of Life, we participate in a life that brings with it the promise to live with Christ in eternity.

Voices of Faith

Bread for the Journey

This saying is hard
The people did say
Who can accept it?
Our stomachs are full from the loaves and fish
But our hearts are closed to the Living Bread
His flesh? Bitter the taste of such a Sacred Passion!
Mind boggling is such wisdom given by God in humble abode!

This saying is hard
The people did say
Who can accept it?
Words from the Nazarene
We know of his human estate
Our minds are closed to the God whose dwelling is too close
God Incarnate, touchable, lovable, approachable...we were taught not

With stomachs full but hearts empty
Many leave his company only to find themselves hungry again
A disappointed Christ with a heart swollen with mercy and love looks on Longing for the seekers that want to be satisfied
And nourished by this Food of heavenly estate
To whom shall we go? The seeker says
Music to the ears of Love itself

And so we find ourselves at the edge of eternity
Seekers for this Living Bread ourselves
Such is the source of life eternal that infuses us
To continue our Pilgrim Way
Delightful is the taste of this heavenly Food
The taste of love, mercy, compassion, and truth
Bitter is the taste of Sacred Passion, Sweeter the taste of Resurrected Joy!

Enough is this wisdom... It remains Bread for the Journey
— “Peaceful Moments”

Prayer

Lord, help us to be all that you want us to be. You are the bread that comes down from heaven. The food that you offer lasts for all eternity. Help us to become a song of your spirit of love – willing to walk with you all the way, sharing your message of hope, your message of love. Give us courage to face the hardships of discipleship and help us to carry the crosses that come our way. Amen.
