Growing Up Catholic

70 Children Receive First Holy Communion

Your mom and dad made promises to Jesus at your Baptism. In the Mass Enrollment Service for First Holy Communion, your parents again proclaimed the promises that they had made to Jesus. On the eve of your First Reconciliation, in a candlelight service at Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church, your mom and dad repeated the promises that they had made to Jesus once again. On May 4, 2013, God smiled when you, His children, received the Body and Blood of Jesus, His Son, for the very first time.

The children wait patiently in the ballroom before it is time to process to the church.

Always remember how Jesus on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and after He had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my Body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." Always remember how Jesus took the cup and said: "This cup is the new covenant in My Blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes." (1Corinthians 11: 25-26)
 Remember that Jesus' giving of Himself on the cross is the greatest act of love. Never separate yourself from Him. Always keep His commandments and always keep Him present in your hearts as you did on this your special day. We are honored to have taken this part of your journey with you.

Jesus' 12 Helpers

Bible Story Time children learned about Jesus' 12 helpers last month. During one class the children made fishing poles and went fishing for men, just as Jesus called us to be Fisher's of Men. The following week, the children made "bust-out" butterflies as symbols of spring and to signify how Paul and Silas busted out of their chains. Participants sang "Paul and Silas Went to Jail" to the tune of London Bridges as they marched through a mini-jail house. To end the lesson, children made their own jail houses out of marshmallows and toothpicks. It was a delightful and delicious way to learn about God's plan and power.

Faith and Wine

Fr. John Answers Questions About the Sacraments

Approximately 150 women attended Faith and Wine for an in-depth question and answer discussion about The Sacraments: Signs of the Sacred in Our Lives with our very own Fr. John on April 11. There was so much interest about the Sacraments that we received in advance of the program over 50 questions. Fr. John answered almost all of them and provided so much useful information that the program, for the first time since we've been hosting Faith and Wine events, went over schedule and ended at 9:15 p.m. Most of the ladies stayed to the bitter end! Father John's detailed and yet practical responses to our questions truly demonstrated why he is such a wonderful pastor! His visit to Faith and Wine got rave reviews and we anticipate longer lines at the confessionals in the near future as a result of his presentation.

The ladies of Faith and Wine gather monthly from September through May in a relaxing and casual environment where women can cultivate new friendships, while enjoying a glass of wine and a light meal and hearing an interesting and thought-provoking presentation from a key-note speaker on a topic consistent with our mission. If you have never been to a Faith and Wine event, please join us as we begin our 2013-14 season on September 12.

LET US PRAY...

MAY 12, 2013 ~ THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

We received a bit of a reprieve this past week with much cooler than normal weather as we head into the doldrums of summer. A late season cool front passed through Southwest Florida on Monday resulting in high temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s with overnight lows in the lower 60s. Take advantage of this spectacular weather as we all know what is waiting for us the next five months.

As I walk prospective clients through the Memorial Garden, the strangely placed fire hydrant in section 22 is always the subject of numerous jokes. The fact that dogs might visit this location and relieve themselves is the butt of many of these jokes. I am very pleased to announce that in the next few weeks this hydrant will be moved to the exterior of the Memorial Garden. I met with the Chief of the North Naples Fire Department last month to discuss moving the hydrant. His initial response was “why did they put it here in the first place? It would make a lot more sense to place it outside of the garden.” After receiving his approval, we contracted with a civil engineer who amended our Site Development Plan which was surprisingly passed through Collier County in only three weeks. We have now contracted with an underground utility company to move the hydrant. Thankfully, this underground work will not disturb any cremains which are currently interred in the Memorial Garden. If you are interested in purchasing a plot in this section, it is now available and is in a highly desirable location.

We have added a link to our website which will allow you to contribute via credit card directly to the Catholic Faith Appeal. On the home page of our website, simply click the “ways to give” tab. On the next page, scroll to the bottom where you will see a link to contribute to the CFA. By clicking the link, you will be directed to the secure site for the Diocese of Venice. Remember that by contributing to the CFA via credit card, you can take advantage of whatever rewards program you are a member of and help us reach our goal all in one simple transaction.

Did you know that I participate in a monthly forum of parish managers in our area? This is a great opportunity for us to discuss and employ “best practices” and to find out what is going on in the other parishes in our vicinity. Participating parishes are St. Ann, St. Peter, St. William, St. Finbarr, San Marco and St. Agnes. It is always nice to know that many of the challenges we face here at St. John the Evangelist are being experienced at other parishes in the Southern Deanery. In addition, I have been privy to some great suggestions which we have incorporated successfully here at St. John the Evangelist.

Have you registered your children for Vacation Bible School? If not, I strongly suggest you do so in the next week. Our VBS is widely known as the best in the area and fills quickly. As a matter of fact, in my 16 years at SJE, I cannot remember a year when we did not fill to capacity. Don’t procrastinate if you want your children to have an awesome experience in our Kingdom Rock themed VBS. Registration forms are available in the parish bulletin and on our website.

Did you know that 67 cabins have been sold for the parish cruise to set sail on January 18, 2014? These 67 cabins will accommodate 130 parishioners who will cruise the Eastern Caribbean for eight days. Fr. John will celebrate Mass on Sunday and every day “at sea” while on board. This is a great opportunity to develop lasting relationships with many of your fellow parishioners. Reservations will be capped at 150 guests so if you are hesitating, please sign up at your earliest convenience. This cruise is very well priced and the parish will also receive Tour Credits from the cruise line which will be used to offset our Catholic Faith Appeal assessment. See the full page flyer in this bulletin for more details.

We have received the plans and artist’s rendering for the new entry doors of the church. These plans will be reviewed at the Buildings and Grounds meeting on May 15. Assuming the committee is in agreement with the proposed plans, the doors will be fabricated and installed at some point during the summer. For those who are not aware, the front doors of the church have been a chronic problem from day one. Some may remember that upon completion of the church in 1992, someone drove a car through the set of doors on the west side and they have never been the same. A parishioner has come forward and agreed to fully fund the cost of the new doors.

We have exceeded 60% of our goal for the 2013 Catholic Faith Appeal three months into the annual appeal. Although donations will most certainly decrease as we head into the summer months, this is a great head start. Thank you for your extreme generosity! Seasonal residents and visitors, please remember to make your check payable to the CFA with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line.

Verse 1) Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful.

Chorus) Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.

Verse 2) See his Body, his Blood:
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful

Rising you restored our life,

The Word & Life

Ascending Hope

few years ago the conference of Catholic Bishops decided to transfer the feast of the Ascension to the following Sunday so that all Catholics would appreciate the importance of this event. The Ascension is very important in the history of salvation because hidden within its reality is the very gift of our destiny and salvation. Once Jesus had accomplished his ministry and won victory over death, then he returns to heaven to take his place with the Father. Such a sight must have been so life-changing. Although the first disciples saw Jesus vanish from their sight, they also saw the glory and divinity that truly belonged to him. Jesus was not simply a holy man with a divine message. Jesus was also divine with a human message that continues to transform the world.

Before Jesus ascends to heaven the disciples asked, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom of Israel?" Jesus tells the group of believers that it is not for them to know the time or season but to discern how restoration will take place through the gift of the Holy Spirit. To put it in a very human way, the disciples are asked with God's help of the Spirit to figure it out for themselves.

Years later, even though we have not experienced Jesus in his public ministry, we have a mystical experience of Jesus Christ. The Church constantly challenges us to recognize Jesus in the guise of the poor, the broken and the

Reflection Questions

1. What did Jesus' ascension represent for the disciples?
2. Consider the emotions the disciples experienced.
3. Why did they pay homage to Christ?
4. What does the ascension mean to you?
5. How does this event offer you hope for your future?
6. Are there times when Christ seems to be far from your experience?
7. When do you feel close to Christ?
8. How can you challenge yourself to experience Christ in a more profound way?
9. How do the sacraments help solidify Christ's ongoing mission in your life and the life of the Church today?
10. Name the concrete ways in which Christ may be experienced for yourself and others.

disadvantaged. Every time we gather for the Holy Eucharist we are reminded that Jesus is present in the people gathered in prayer, in the Sacred Word and in the real presence of the breaking of the bread. The priest is called to act in persona Christi – his transparency should ultimately allow Christ to speak and act through him. At the end of the mass we are called to take Christ to the world and to proclaim the same Jesus who vanished from the disciples' sight on the day of the ascension. We are invited to figure out what it means to experience the kingdom already, but not yet. The fullness of God will be revealed to us at the end of time. However, we have to discern the will of God in our everyday activities. We only have to look at the way we relate to ourselves, others, and God to see how we integrate such wisdom. God continually calls people of every time, language, and way of life to share in the reality of his love.

It may well seem that we are the unfortunate ones who believe without seeing the events that gave us our salvation in Christ. However, we are reminded that we are blessed for having not seen but yet believing in his message. To trust and believe in God requires a huge leap of faith – it sometimes means that we step out into the unknown in order for Christ to make himself known to us. If we trust the Word to be the Truth, then we rise with Christ in the resurrection, our hope ascends as He ascended, and our joy will be complete!

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings
with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Dearest Lord, may we look for you in the gift of one another. We know that you journey with us even though we cannot see you. Help us to cherish your Word and Sacrament as we approach the altar to offer you fitting praise. Enable us to discern your presence so that we may follow the divine will. May our prayers ascend to heaven as your Son ascended in that glorious event. Amen.

Voices of Faith

The Ascension

Men of Galilee listen to heaven's Rabbi
Healed by His wounds
They are disciples of resurrection's truth
The reality of the Risen Lord
Bathes them in the light of a promise

Their Christ had to suffer
For bringing humanity back to God
Hearts are changed with his victory over death
Repentance offered once again
With forgiveness as His aim

Immersed into Jesus' life
These men of Galilee delve into His Truth
Baptized by John, they are cleansed
The Baptism of the Spirit will come
Consuming them by the power of love

On that day of days
Heaven's gate opens wide
As their Christ is taken from their sight
God's angels bid them on
As they announce the future return of the Risen One

To Jerusalem the disciples return
To await the gift of the Father
Which will set them ablaze
With the power of His life
And the Truth of His Love

Engraved upon their memory
Is a sacred story
Of One who healed the sick
Cleansed the leper, forgave the sinner
And raised the dead – to show His glory

And so the disciple journeys forth
Ready to serve and to wash the feet
Of hearts yearning for God
And souls bruised and torn
Waiting to be touched by love

Man must not look into the skies to find his Christ
For Christ walks with all on the journey of life
The sacred ground of his presence remains in the home
And on the streets of homeless abodes
Let man hold fast to this sacred threshold

Faith Formation News

First Holy Communion Ceremony...was held on Saturday, May 4, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. in the Church. Seventy children made their First Communion with the full support of their family, relatives and friends who were in attendance. Cake and refreshments were served afterwards outside the main entrance of the church by the Men's Club.

A special "thank you" to all the parents for their continued support and dedication to the Faith Formation Program.

PRAYER

Lord Jesus,

You sent your apostles as witnesses of your death and resurrection, and gave them the power of the Spirit to share the Good News with the world.

Give us that same Spirit as we continue to witness to the saving mysteries of our faith.

Amen.

Faith Formation continues on page 17

By Kathleen M. Carroll

When my father died, I worked through the grief that always accompanies the death of a loved one. But for months I couldn't shake a sense of lostness. Who would I call when I couldn't patch the rickety old fuse box? Who would tell me not to drive that old heap till I got the brakes looked at? Who would listen to my hare-brained efforts to stretch a budget and say, "How about I lend you a few bucks to tide you over?"

We get so used to relying on certain people for direction that we think we'll drift aimlessly without them. But my father wasn't just telling me what to do all those years, he was helping me learn to think, showing me how to act. It wasn't until he was gone that I realized he'd taught me everything I needed to know.

Jesus' disciples must have come to that same realization after watching their mentor—their Lord—disappear from view. "You are witnesses," Jesus reminds them. We have all seen what we needed to see, heard what we needed to hear, to spread the Good News in our own way. As long as we remember what we've been taught, we'll never be lost.

Bringing Home the Word, May 12, 2013, Franciscan Media

REFLECTION

Jesus returns to his Father in this Gospel. Jesus gathers his followers around him to say goodbye. Let's remember who some of his followers are. We know some of their names. The names we know are Jesus' mother Mary, Peter, James, John, Mary Magdalene, Andrew, Matthew, Philip, Martha, Mary, Lazarus, Thomas, Peter's mother-in-law.

Jesus gives his followers a job to do when he is gone. Jesus asks them to spread the good news of his death and resurrection to new life all over the whole world. Jesus reminds them that they are witnesses of all that happened to him and of all that he did and taught. What does a witness do? A witness tells what he or she has seen and heard. He blessed bread and wine and made it signs of his love. He died on the cross. He rose from the dead. He healed sick people and gave sight to the blind. He taught people to care for the poor. He forgave people their sins. He taught his followers to love one another.

How can we be witnesses? We have listened to the Gospel stories all year. We can be witnesses by loving one another. We can be witnesses in many ways.
