Fortnight for Freedom Continues Until July 4

What is the Fortnight for Freedom? A two-week period for all American Catholics to pray, fast, and work to reverse growing discrimination against the practice of faith in the public square, as particularly evidenced by the odious HHS mandate, which, by forcing Catholic institutions to pay for sterilizations, contraception, and abortion-inducing drugs (!), strikes at our institutions' ability to simply be Catholic!

What is St. John's doing for the Fortnight? Before each Mass, we are praying the Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty (picture of prayer card at right; please take one!). Each day, after daily Mass, and after the 5:00 p.m. on Sundays, we are having a Holy Hour with Eucharistic Adoration and the Rosary. Please join us!

Fr. McPherson Ordained a Bishop of Montego Bay in Jamaica

During the last few years of the history of St. John the Evangelist parish we have witnessed the work for God's poor through Jamaica Outreach Program. This program began with the parishioners of St. John in collaboration with Fr. Burchell McPherson at St. Pius X which became our Sister Parish. On June 9 2013, Fr. McPherson was ordained a bishop of Montego Bay in Jamaica. Let us pray for Bishop McPherson's work as a shepherd of the Church and pastor of the poor! ~ Fr. John (photo by Kevin Williams)

Ladies of Charity Present $4,000 Check to St. Matthew's House Soup Kitchen

The Ladies of Charity presented St. Matthew's House Soup Kitchen with a check to help "subsidize" the summer food pantry. This donation was from St. John the Evangelist parishioners from a special collection in December to assist St. Matthew's House (Naples) as well as Casa Maria (Immokalee). Funds were distributed evenly donating $4000 to each group.

The Ladies of Charity serve the clients/residents every month. (photo from Ladies of Charity)

Spiritual Adoption Program Continues With Month Three

The Spiritual Adoption Program is heading into the third month. Your commitment is to pray a short prayer daily through Christmas.

MONTH 3 - Developing Baby – I can suck my thumb!”

Your spiritually adopted baby is quite active in the womb now – although his mother won't feel him for another couple of months. If his mother's womb had a window, you could watch your spiritually adopted baby squint, swallow and move his tongue. He can make a tight fist if you touch his palm. He is breathing amniotic fluid which continues until birth, although he obtains the oxygen his body needs through the umbilical cord. The baby you are praying for weighs one ounce. Early this month – at just 9 weeks – he began to suck his thumb.

The next Novena of Masses for Life at St. John will be Saturday, July 27 at 8:00 a.m. This Mass will be celebrated in special observance of the life of Jesus in the womb of our Blessed Mother. For a complete schedule of the Novena of Masses for Life, check the diocesan website at: www.dioceseofvenice.org/respectlife.

Life Matters

Summer is here and we certainly know it! Those of us who haven't yet headed off the cooler climes are facing the heat with our Floridian flair.

We are kicking off the official days of summer with our Parish commitment Monday at Planned Parenthood. All are welcome to join us on the sidewalk at any time from 8:30 a.m. until about 3:00 p.m. to be a prayerful witness to the abortions taking place inside. Our prayers do matter. Planned Parenthood's total number of abortions has fallen since they began in the fall of 2008. As we have seen from the news all over the country, the abortion industry is like the illegitimate child of the medical field. It continues to lack oversight, state certification and even the barest minimums of safe medical practices that safeguard women in sites all over the country. I have no direct knowledge of the conditions here in Naples, but, like many other cities, I do know that they employ a "circuit riding" doctor whose only practice is abortions and who has no hospital admitting privileges anywhere in the state.

In contrast to our country's practice of throwing children away, I recently had a reason to research how cats give birth, in anticipation for our own queen who was ready to give birth at any time. One of the sites I found online showed a series of cats and dogs in various stages of gestation. These animals were brought to the vet to be "fixed" but were found to be already pregnant. The piece went on to say how many vets often refuse to do this procedure because it is so hard on the staff to have to kill so many animals which are otherwise able to survive. But that is exactly what we do in the abortion business. By the way, we have five all black kittens available for adoption by this time next week. In another ironic piece I recently read of a dog, I believe in Thailand, which brought a plastic bag home from a nearby dump, which she had never done before. The daughter noticed the bag moving and immediately opened it to show her parents. They were all amazed to find a live baby! The called an ambulance which transported the baby to the hospital where the baby is doing fine, despite being premature and a little dehydrated. Even the dog knew there was something special in that bag!

Please pray tomorrow for the fourth victim in five weeks on Florida's death row. Marshall Gore will be executed Monday June 24t at 7:00 p.m. in Starke. William Van Poyck was executed June 12.

LET US PRAY...

JUNE 23, 2013 ~ TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Welcome to summer in Southwest Florida. The longest day of the year — the summer solstice — took place this past Friday. On June 21 2013, at exactly 1:04 a.m. EDT (5:04 UTC), the Northern Hemisphere of the Earth reached its point of greatest inclination to the Sun. With the arrival of summer, it looks as though we are already well entrenched in the rainy season. Depending on your location, we have received measurable rainfall every day for the past eight days. One look at the lake at the front of our campus will definitely prove an indicator of how much rainfall we have recognized at St. John the Evangelist. This is great news as we have plenty of water stored in order to irrigate our campus.

Our “Kingdom Rock” themed Vacation Bible School was the enormous “success” that everyone expected. The organization was flawless and the stage props once again looked like something out of a Broadway show. Although there were over 100 volunteers involved in this year’s event, a special thank you is in order for Charlene and Brian Youngs, Karen and Rick Beebe, Jasmine Dina and family, Natalie Campbell, Michelle and John Mattia, Trish Gasiorowski and Jennifer Grenardo. As Director of Family Ministry, Charlene was tasked with coordinating Vacation Bible participated in this year’s VBS and Tom Oram stepped in again to lead the signing (and dancing) portion of the festivities. Without Tom, we would not be able to generate the enthusiasm that we did. Thank you again to all the volunteers for providing our children an invaluable experience. This is by far my favorite week of the year with regards to programs held within our parish. There is nothing that pleases me more than seeing all of the families come together and share in this ministry.

By now, most of you have met our new Associate Pastor, Fr. Jim Simko. Over the past four months, we have been working with a local real estate agent (and parishioner) to find a residence for Fr. Jim. We received permission from the Diocese of Venice to purchase a condo to house Fr. Jim. Rather than continue to rent, the decision was made to purchase a unit and build equity. After visiting over 20 condos in the area, we found a perfect fit at a price that was too good to pass up. The condo will be financed through the Diocese (10 years) and after all is said and done, our monthly expenses (principal, interest, utilities, maintenance fees) will be far less than what we were recognizing on our former rental unit. What we found during this process is that the real estate market locally has definitely rebounded. We made offers on several units only to find that they were already under contract. Considering that the real estate market was the primary driver in crushing our local economy several years ago, this looks to be good news moving forward.

School for the third consecutive year. She did a magnificent job yet again! Brian (Charlene’s husband) and Karen and Rick Beebe constructed the stage props from scratch at no cost to the parish. They spent countless hours creating a very innovative set. How good were the decorations and stage props? So good that representatives from other churches locally came to take pictures of what we created here. In addition, two parishes have rented our set to use for their own VBS. These volunteers spent an incredible amount of time and effort preparing for what has been the best Vacation Bible School yet. I say this every year and these incredible volunteers keep outdoing themselves. The aforementioned statistic is not a typo! There were actually over 100 volunteers involved in this year’s event. That equates to more than one volunteer for every two children. Over 200 children

Our maintenance staff has been hard at work recently installing the final touches on the “Lest we Forget” Veteran’s Memorial. All of the benches are being clad in travertine stone similar to what was installed at the base of the statue (see photo on page 9). This enhancement will be very aesthetically pleasing and a fitting addition to what is already an amazing memorial. We have sold over 80 pavers thus far and there is room for at least another 80. If you are interested in honoring or memorializing a loved one, please contact me to purchase yours. The cost is only $150.00. Many have asked if the pavers must recognize someone who has served in the military. Absolutely not! Parishioners may purchase a paver to recognize anyone they wish.

After a somewhat lengthy delay, the Hearing Loop system has been installed. Beginning this weekend you will be able to take advantage of this amazing new technology. Please carefully read my comments below so that you are able to connect your hearing device. St. John the Evangelist has installed a Hearing Loop to assist those with hearing loss hear more clearly during

Mass. A Hearing Loop is an assistive listening system that transmits sound directly into ones hearing aids or cochlear implants rather than depending on sound coming from the loudspeakers. To receive the Loop signal, manually activate your T-coil or telephone setting on your hearing aid or cochlear implant. If you don't know if you have a T-coil or if yours is properly programmed, consult with your audiologist or hearing aid professional. If you don't wear hearing aids, ask to use a Loop receiver to receive the sound. A receiver may be checked out from the Sacristy. If you have further questions about Looping, please contact the installation company, Complete Hearing Solutions at www.CompleteHearingSolutions.org or call 727.260.3488.

In next week's bulletin, we will publish an entire list of Q & A regarding the Loop System.

This great Sacrament we hail.
Over ancient forms departing,
Newer rites of grace prevail.
Faith for all defects supplying,
Where the feeble senses fail.

And the Son who reigns on high,
With the Spirit blest proceeding
Forth from each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might, and endless majesty

Lord of heav'n and earth, Father's love for all
I bow to You! (repeat)

The Word & Life

The Face of Christ

W

hen we take a good look at the gospels we cannot help but see the amazing things that took place during the ministry of Jesus of Nazareth. Today's gospel account of Peter's profession of faith falls within a context. Jesus had just fed the five thousand with five loaves and two fish. The people had witnessed great things accomplished through Jesus' hands. They had seen the raising of a child from death, women being made whole and clean, possessed people being returned to normality once again, and many other might acts performed by Jesus. There must have been so much talk around during that time. Many thought Jesus was one of the great prophets who had returned;

some thought that he was nothing more than a mere magician. However, for those who had journeyed with Jesus there was much more of a greater insight given into who he was. Peter, through faith and trust, proclaims Jesus to be the Christ of God. Jesus was being named the Anointed One who would bring freedom to those dwelling in captivity. He was the dream of Israel and an answer to prayers of ancient times – he was the Messiah who brought blessing to the world. After the revelation of Peter, Jesus points out that he would suffer because of who he was. Furthermore, the disciples in following Jesus would also have to carry his cross daily to bear witness to him.

Here we are further along in the passing of time still trying to figure out the significance of the gospel in our daily lives. There is still much to say about Jesus as there was 2000 years ago, but people are still trying to find him. Who do you say that I am? Jesus can most certainly be found in our cathedral churches, local parishes, and the gathering of two or more gathered in His name. However, there is another reality at work here. Jesus can also be discovered amongst the clutter of our lives. Countless people call upon the Lord's name and encounter the Christ of faith daily.

Yes, Jesus can be found in our Eucharist – it is the ultimate source and summit of any Catholic Christian. But we cannot neglect the reality of Jesus in the midst of poverty, conflict, and division. Wherever there is need, Jesus is present also. Jesus reminded us always that he is to be found in all our brothers and sisters, offering the ongoing compassion of God through us. All peoples belong to the Body of Christ. Whenever people hurt it means that the Body of Christ is hurting.

Reflection Questions

1. What is important about Peter's confession of faith?
2. Where do you find Christ present in your life?
3. What are the qualities you need in following Christ?
4. Why did Jesus have to suffer when proclaiming the good news?
5. How are you challenged in living your faith?
6. Name the things in your life that prevent you from recognizing Christ.
7. What does the cost of discipleship mean to you?

The cross of discipleship is placed upon each of our shoulders in order to bring Christ to others. The yoke of unconditional challenges each one of us to clothe ourselves in Christ, as St. Paul reminds us in today's second reading. This means in every socio-economic environment we seek an economy of salvation and redemption. In concrete we are challenged to see the face of Christ in everyone. Again, St. Paul tells us that there are no distinctions made in trying to discern what it means to belong to go. Obviously this makes an impact on the many problematic situations we have to deal with locally, nationally, and globally. We are called to examine what Christ is asking of us in the world in which we live. Any consideration given to matters pertaining to the global economies, increasing threats to national security, immigration, the working poor, the unemployed, the forgotten elderly, and the mentally insane, should always be shaped by our understanding of how Christ is calling us to these challenging times.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Lord, may we always be reminded of your everlasting presence in our Church. Teach us to cherish you in Word and Sacrament. Enable us to go beyond to see you present in a world that is contrary to your own. Help us to recognize your presence in every human being. May we always clothe ourselves in your compassion, mercy and love. Amen.

Voices of Faith

What Do You Say That I Am?

Who do you say that I am?
You are the Christ
The dream of dreams
The Lord of lords
The Deliverer of Israel and the world!

Who do you say that I am?
You are The rabbi of God
The Word Incarnate
Radiance of the Father
The desire of the Spirit

Who do you say that I am?
You are the itinerant preacher
The disturber of the comfortable
The comforter of the disturbed
The healing Lord

Who do you say that I am?
You are the miracle of God
The Savior who walks on waters
The One who calms the stormy seas
The Leader of fishermen who you call to cast out into the deep

Who do you say that I am?
You are the Son of Man who touches the lepers clean
The gentleness of God who dispossess the possessed
The forgiveness of the Father for those caught in their sin
The divine giver who bestows life in the midst of death

Who do you say that I am?
You are the bread that came down from heaven
Who feeds hungry hearts and souls
With five loaves and two fish
And water turned into wine

Who do you say that I am?
You are the servant Lord
Who stoops in humility to wash the feet of the fickle
Who offers his body and blood
As food for the journey.....food that will last

Who do you say that I am?
You are the one despised and rejected for the sake of our sins
The suffering servant who hangs upon the tree
You are the one whose wounds heal our souls
The Son of God who dies to rise again

Who do you say that I am?
You are the risen Lord who forsakes death
For death has no power over you
You are the Good Shepherd who leads us safely home
To your Father's house with many dwelling places

Who do you say that I am?
You are the presence of God in every woman and man
You are to be found in the guise of the poor, the broken...the lost
You are waiting to be discovered in the ones who struggle with life and love
You are in your people seeking the life above

Who do you say that I am?
You are the Christ
The dream of dreams
The Lord of lords
The Deliverer of Israel and the world

VBS Rocks the Kingdom at St. John

It was such an amazing week (June 10-14) at Kingdom Rock Vacation Bible School here at St. John where 212 kids “stood strong” for God. The talented Tom Oram, pastoral musician and liturgist, had the kids singing and dancing every day. On Wednesday volunteers re-enacted the story of Christ on the cross at Calvary. Throughout the week the children helped groom God’s Kingdom by bringing in toiletries that were donated to St. Matthew’s House.

The stage set and life-like decorations throughout the campus were done by Karen and Rick Beebe. Karen put in countless hours of her time, talent and treasure to transform the ballroom into a kingdom. Thank you to all those who helped transform the kingdom. Thank you Jasmine Dina for everything you did. She too, put in countless hours behind the scene. Thank you Bill Fuller for our awesome VBS T-shirts — the kids loved them. Thank you Natalie and Michelle for handling the registration table, you both Rocked the Kingdom. THANK YOU to over 100 volunteers who helped to make this the best VBS yet! I couldn’t have done this without you! And last, thank you to my husband Brian. It was because of him that I was able to do what I did. I can’t wait to see what next year brings!!! Stand Strong!!!
