#ToKnow – The Holy Spirit Keeps the Church Moving Forward

Pope Francis again illustrates to all of us this week that the openness to change is a core tenant of our faith. He expressed this truth during a Mass dedicated to the early church's acceptance of pagans into Christianity:

“That was unthinkable. If – for example - tomorrow an expedition of Martians came, and some of them came to us, here... Martians, right? Green, with that long nose and big ears, just like children paint them... And one says, ‘But I want to be baptized!’ What would happen?”

Peter understands his error when a vision enlightens him to a fundamental truth:

that which has been purified by God cannot be called “profane” by anyone. And in narrating these facts to the crowd that criticized him, the Apostle calms them all with this statement: “If then God gave them the same gift He gave to us when we came to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to be able to hinder God?”

“When the Lord shows us the way, who are we to say, ‘No, Lord, it is not prudent! No, let’s do it this way’... and Peter in that first diocese - the first diocese was Antioch - makes this decision: ‘Who am I to admit impediments?’ A nice word for bishops, for priests and for Christians. Who are we to close doors? In the early Church, even today, there is the ministry of the ostiary [usher]. And what did the ostiary do? He opened the door, received the people, allowed them to pass. But it was never the ministry of the closed door, never.” – Pope Francis 2014-05-12 (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-at-mass-the-holy-spirit-makes-the-unthinkable>)

#ToLove – Why so Serious? Being Open to Joy and Newness Is the Holy Spirit at Work in You

Never let it be said that we do not listen to our Holy Father, with a double-dose of his insight this week on the Holy Spirit

by Jean-Paul Boucher
Director, Family Mission
& Communications

jp@saintjohntheevangelist.com

and how we should be filled with joy and not with a “hardened heart”:

“Two groups of people”, those who are “gentle, sweet people, humble, open to the Holy Spirit”, and the others “proud, self-sufficient, detached from the people, intellectual aristocrats, who closed their doors and resist the Holy Spirit”. “This is not just stubbornness”, he said, “it is much more: it is having a hard heart! And this is more dangerous”. “Let us ask the Lord for the grace of docility to the Holy Spirit to move forward in life, to be creative, to be joyful, because the other people were not joyful”. When “there is a lot of seriousness - he said - the Spirit of God is lacking”. We ask, therefore, “for the grace of obedience and that the Holy Spirit will help us to defend ourselves from this other evil spirit of self-sufficiency, pride, arrogance, closure of the heart to the Holy Spirit”. – Pope Francis 2014-05-13 (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-at-mass-the-danger-of-a-hardened-heart>)

Bible Story Time Celebrates Mary and All Moms

“Mothers hold their children’s hands for a while, but their hearts forever.”

— Author Unknown

Moms in the Bible Story Time group were treated to a special gift made by the “little hands” they love so much. Each child’s handprint was used to create flower stems and their thumbprints were used to complete the flowers. Happy Mother’s Day to all moms!

While we recognized our earthly mothers, we learned about a special woman named, Mary, who is the mother of Jesus. We found out that Mary was with her son, Jesus, his whole life - from his birth to his death on the cross. We made Mary shrines which included a picture of Mary and her special prayer, “The Hail Mary”. We counted beads on a special circle we learned was a rosary and we honored her with a crown and necklace at The Holy Family statue in the Memorial Garden. Thank you, Mary, for being our mother, too!

MAY 18, 2014 ~ FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

I just sent 25 priests from around the Diocese of Venice off on a day of fun and sun for Priest's Day Out. These hard working "men of the cloth" had the option of offshore fishing, golf, cruising on a yacht to Marco Island and back or simply relaxing at the La Playa Beach Club. After a day of fun-filled activities, we will meet for dinner at Baleen at La Playa to finish off an amazing day. I would like to thank La Playa for their participation with the golf and beach club and their willingness to underwrite most of their costs. I would also like to thank MarineMax of Naples for graciously donating an amazing yacht and captain for the trip to Marco Island and back.

Thank you also to Mark Rogers (parishioner) who took five priests fishing on his marvelous vessel. And finally, thank you to Messner Publications for their participation in underwriting this spectacular event.

Did you know that 40 cabins have been sold for the parish cruise to set sail on January 28, 2015? These 40 cabins will accommodate 77 parishioners who will cruise the Caribbean for eleven days. Fr. John will celebrate Mass on Sunday and every day "at sea" while on board. This is a great opportunity to develop lasting relationships with many of your fellow parishioners. Reservations will be capped at 150 guests so if you are hesitating, please sign up at your earliest convenience. This cruise is very well priced and the parish will also receive Tour Credits from the cruise line which will be used to offset our Catholic Faith Appeal assessment. See the full page flyer on page 22 in this bulletin for more details.

Have you registered your children for Vacation Bible School? If not, I strongly suggest you do so in the next week. Our VBS is widely known as the best in the area and fills quickly. As a matter of fact, in my 17 years at SJE, I cannot remember a year when we did not fill to capacity. Don't procrastinate if you want your children to have an awesome experience in our Wilderness Escape themed VBS. Registration forms are available in the parish bulletin and on our website.

Did you know that this past Friday was the 17th anniversary of Fr. John's ordination to the priesthood? If you happen to speak with Fr. John this weekend, please congratulate him on this milestone.

While writing about the memorial garden a few weeks ago I neglected to reiterate the fact that the sale of space in our memorial garden may cease in the very near future. Due to the lack of standardized policies and procedures throughout the Diocese of Venice and all the Dioceses of Florida, The Bishops are contemplating discontinuing sales in all parish memorial gardens until such standardized policies and procedures may be adopted. If you have already purchased space in our garden, your remains may be interred at any time, however, if you have yet to purchase a space, you will be unable to do so once this decision is made. Space still remains in the memorial garden if you are interested in making Saint John the Evangelist your final resting place. The cost to purchase a plot in the garden is $1,500.00. This is an all-inclusive price which includes the opening, closing, urn, and engraved marker. If you care to check pricing locally, you will find that our pricing is nearly 33% of what you would pay elsewhere. Yes, you may pay for your memorial garden plot with a credit card. I know this is a difficult decision for many as final planning is not something that you may be comfortable with. I can assure you that planning in advance is one of the greatest gifts you can give to your family of loved ones as they will not have to deal with this added stress after your death. Please contact me if you are interested in purchasing space in our beautiful memorial garden. In order to purchase a plot in our garden, you must be a parishioner at Saint John the Evangelist or the immediate family of a parishioner.

We added another 5% to our Catholic Faith Appeal goal this week. We are now at 58.76% of our goal - $285,039.37 for the 2014 Catholic Faith Appeal. You have several options for helping us reach our goal. You may make a pledge by completing a pledge card located in the narthex. You may also drop a check payable to the Catholic Faith Appeal in the collection basket. You may also visit the Diocese of Venice website www.dioceseofvenice.org and contribute via credit card. Thank you so much for your generous contributions and remember... If you are a seasonal resident or visitor, please make your check payable to the CFA with Saint John the Evangelist in the memo line.

Thank you once again for your continued support.

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Catholic Communication Campaign Collection Will Be May 31-June 1

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) supports projects throughout the world that encourage evangelization through the use of media. With the growth of new media, more people have greater opportunities to connect in the digital environment. The CCC funds grants that support local and international communications projects that strengthen Catholic faith, worship, and witness.

Text messaging, online social media funded by CCC and other new tools help to enable communication among the faithful. Messages sent through radio, television, and online media, touch the lives of those in need. The effort remains crucial to the Catholic Church; it gets the Word out to all.

The Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign allows us to tell the world about our experience of faith, worship, and witness. Please support this important work in the upcoming Collection, which will be May 31-June 1, 2014 in the Diocese of Venice. Remember, half of the proceeds from this Collection stay here in our Diocese to support our local communication efforts, which include our weekly Diocesan televised Mass.

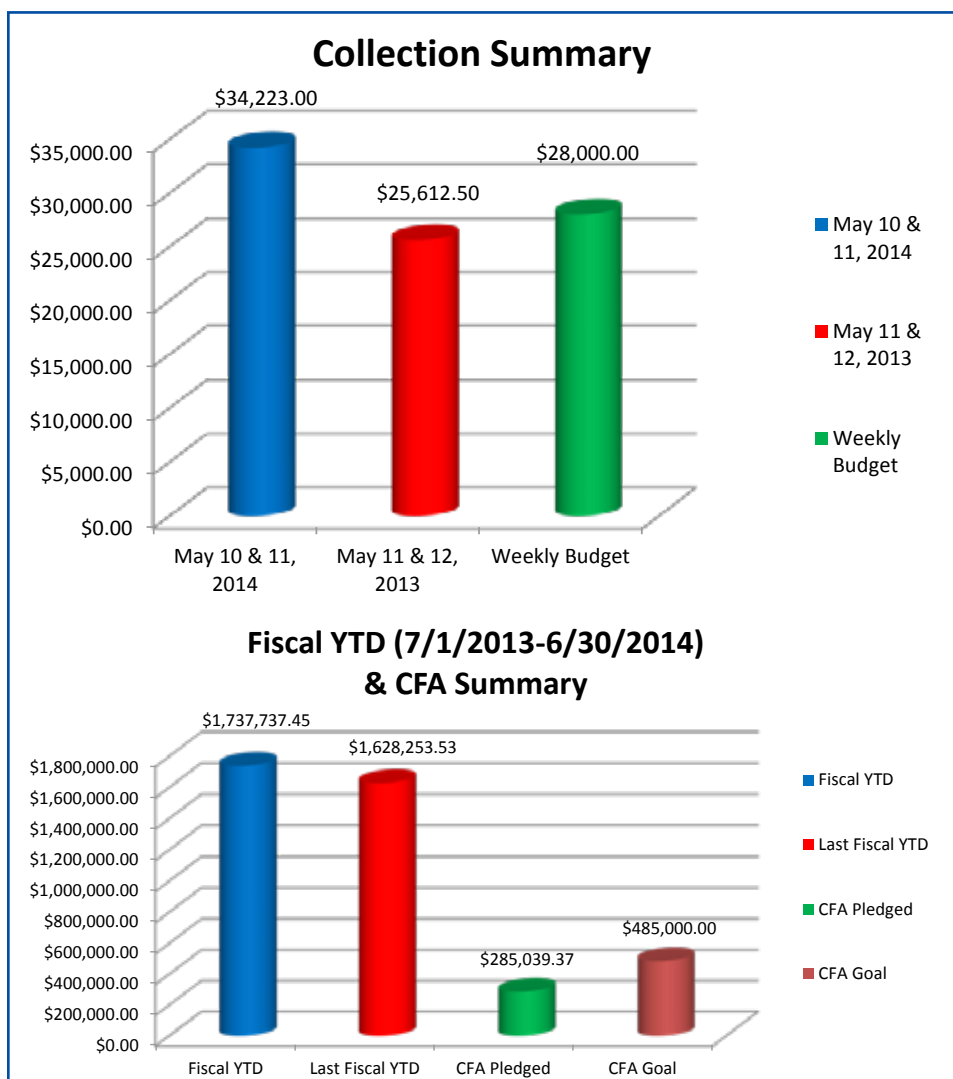

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Verse 1) Did you feel the mountains tremble?
 Did you hear the oceans roar
 when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2) Did you feel the people tremble?
 Did you hear the singers roar
 when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-chorus) And we can see that,
 God, you're moving,
 a mighty river through the nations;
 and young and old will turn to Jesus.
 Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
 prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

CHORUS) Open up the doors and let the music play
 Let the streets resound with singing!
 Songs that bring your hope,
 songs that bring your peace,
 Dancers who dance upon injustice!

Verse 3) Do you feel the darkness tremble
 when all the saints join in one song,
 and all the streams flow as one river
 to wash away our brokenness?

Pre-chorus 2) And here we see that,
 God, you're moving;
 a time of jubilee is coming,
 when young and old return to Jesus.
 Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
 prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

The Word & Life

A Heart With No Worries and a House of Promise

*A*s we continue our Easter journey and look forward to the event of Pentecost, we find the scholars of the Church redirecting us to the words of Jesus at the Last Supper. The words of comfort that Jesus of Nazareth gave to his disciples and the destiny that he promised have profound significance to post-resurrection believers. Jesus confronts his disciples with the reality of his departure — that is death. The heaviness in the air must have been incredible — fear takes over, dreams begin to fade, and promises take flight. The disciples left everything to follow Jesus and now he was going to leave them? Christ's news must have been devastating, leaving the disciples broken hearted.

However, Jesus reads his disciples' minds like a book. His response is not one of judgment or criticism, but one of consolation and stability: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places." Even though Jesus stood on the edge of his own suffering and death, he offers God's consolation and a way forward to the people around him. Jesus wanted to reassure his disciples by telling them to rely on their faith. He reminded them that faith and trust in God would help them through the event of the cross. The experience of his resurrection a few days later proves this very point. Jesus shows that we can overcome death itself and the sting of death which is sin. By his rising from the dead and ascending to the Father, he shows us that there is a place for each one of us in the Father's house.

Speaking of reading minds, you are probably thinking, "If only faith were that easy!" If we are truthful with ourselves, we acknowledge that fear can be a dominant force in our lives. Human experience sometimes challenges our thought process or even the way in which we believe. The reality is that life is not always easy. Even our faith can be challenged by the pluralism that pervades our society and relativism that gnaws away at the Truth, all under the guise of reason. Human suffering can also erode the hope and strength that have been our rock. As we encounter these challenges to our lives and to our faith experience, the gospel reminds us of the importance of seeking the way, the truth, and the life, as Jesus taught us. Even in the turmoil of suffering when a spouse asks the difficult question of why their spouse should suffer, or when a child contemplates the loss of their mother, or a friend

Reflection Questions

1. Why does Jesus' imminent departure trouble his disciples?
2. What does Jesus mean by "many dwelling places"?
3. In what way does this wisdom impact your life?
4. What troubles you?
5. Does this particular part of John's gospel help in your grief?
6. What does the "Way" mean to you?
7. What is the "Truth" Jesus is referring to?
8. How does Jesus demonstrate the "Life" for you and the Church?
9. How do you think Jesus will return to take you "to himself"?
10. In what ways does this gospel help you in paving the way to your destiny?

tearfully watches another friend grow weak in illness, Christ continues to breathe his peace into their very hearts through the ministry and discipleship of the Church. He tells us not to have troubled hearts but to open ourselves to the promise of rising above suffering and death and finding our place in the Father's house.

Prayer

Bring your peace into our weary hearts, O Lord. Help us to embrace the way, the truth, and the life as you see fit, not as the world sees fit. Help us to live through the times of trial and suffering, reminding us of the beautiful resting place prepared by you, for us, in the Father's house. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

"The Gospel of the day recounts Jesus saying to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled."

"These words of Jesus are really beautiful words. In a moment of farewell, Jesus speaks to his disciples, really from the heart. He knows that his disciples are sad, because they realize that things are not going well. He says: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled.' And he starts to talk like that, just like a friend, even with the attitude of a pastor. I say, the music in the words of Jesus is how the pastor should behave, like a shepherd with his sheep, right? '...Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God, in me.' And what does he start to talk about? About Heaven, about the definitive homeland. 'Have faith in me': I remain faithful, it is as if he said that, right? ... Like an engineer, like an architect He tells them what He will do: 'I am going to prepare a place, in my Father's house is my dwelling.' And Jesus goes to prepare a place for us."

"What is that place like? What does 'prepare a place' mean? Does it mean renting a room up there? 'Prepare a place' means preparing our ability to enjoy the chance — our chance — to see, to feel, to understand the beauty of what lies ahead, of that homeland towards which we walk."

"And all of Christian life is the work of Jesus, the Holy Spirit to prepare a place, prepare our eyes to be able to see... 'But, Father, I see fine! I don't need glasses!' But that's another type of vision... Think of those who are suffering from cataracts and have to undergo an operation to remove them: they can still see, but after surgery what do they all say? 'I never thought you could see so well without glasses!' Our eyes, the eyes of our soul they need, they have to be prepared to contemplate the beautiful face of Jesus. Our hearing must be prepared in order to hear the beautiful things, the beautiful words. Above all our hearts must be prepared: prepared for love, to love more...

In our life's journey the Lord prepares our hearts "with trials, with consolations, with tribulations, with good things... The whole journey of life is a journey of preparation. Sometimes the Lord has to do it quickly, as he did with the good thief: he only had a few minutes to prepare him and he did it. But the normal run of things goes this way, no?: in preparing our heart, eyes, hearing to arrive in this homeland. Because that is our homeland. 'But, Father, I went to a philosopher and he told me that all these thoughts are an alienation, that we are alienated, that life is this, the concrete, and no one knows what's beyond...' Some think this is so ...but Jesus tells us that it is not so and says, 'Have faith in me'. This I tell you is the truth: I do not cheat, I do not deceive.

Preparing for heaven means beginning to greet him from afar. This is not alienation: this is the truth, this is allowing Jesus to prepare our hearts, our eyes for the beauty that is so great. It is the path of beauty and the path to the homeland."

St. John Needs YOU...As a Catechist!

Have you ever wanted to enliven the spirit of our youth with your knowledge and joy of our faith?

Have you aspired to strengthen the faith of others around you (and in doing so, may strengthen your own)?

Have you felt the Holy Spirit inside you, and wanted to share that joy and happiness?

If you have felt any yearning to engage your faith in a deeply engrossing and tangible way, becoming a Catechist may be just what you are looking for. The role of a Catechist is to teach the faith of the Catholic Church both by word and by example. At Saint John the Evangelist that translates to our Faith Formation program, where youth from pre-kindergarten through tenth grade are instructed and inspired to learn, love, and live our faith.

We are looking for joyous and engaging men and women who would love to teach the future of our Church what we believe and why we believe it.
