#ToKnow – Summer of Service Action

Did you get a chance to hear one of Fr. John's homilies last weekend? He described our trip to Immokalee in detail, including the horrific living conditions that the men, women, and children undergo every single day. You can find the pictures from this trip at: <http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/featured/immokalee-needs-our-support-and-our-action>

Pope Francis has asked us all to shed the light of our love and joy on these situations, and focus our church and our actions on them in his "Mission Statement" for the church, the EVANGELII GAUDIUM, Chapter 1, Section 48:

Let us go forth, then, let us go forth to offer everyone the life of Jesus Christ. Here I repeat for the entire Church what I have often said to the priests and laity of Buenos Aires: I prefer a Church which is bruised, hurting and dirty because it has been out on the streets, rather than a Church which is unhealthy from being confined and from clinging to its own security. I do not want a Church concerned with being at the centre and which then ends by being caught up in a web of obsessions and procedures. If something should rightly disturb us and trouble our consciences, it is the fact that so many of our brothers and sisters are living without the strength, light and consolation born of friendship with Jesus Christ, without a community of faith to support them, without meaning and a goal in life. More than by fear of going astray, my hope is that we will be moved by the fear of remaining shut up within structures which give us a false sense of security, within rules which make us harsh judges, within habits which make us feel safe, while at our door people are starving and Jesus does not tire of saying to us: "Give them something to eat" (Mk 6:37). – Pope Francis (http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_exhortations/documents/papa-francesco_esortazione-ap_20131124_evangelii-gaudium.html)

St. John is blessed to have over 60 different Ministries, all focused on the Mission, To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community. This summer, we want to invigorate our service commitment on several priorities: Immokalee and the Homeless in Collier County and Lee County. These close-to-home issues require immediate action, and Fr. John has authorized two "Tiger Teams", experts and dedicated individuals tasked to assess the situations and begin programs to support the dignity and humanity of all those in need. Together, in collaboration, we can make a significant impact.

#ToServe – Immokalee Mission Team

Fr. John's homily focused on a specific issue of housing and living conditions in Immokalee. There are many Ministries, like the Ladies of Charity, and individual parishioners that already focus their efforts on Immokalee, through Habitat for Humanity and the Catholic Charities, especially from Our Lady of Guadalupe. We are developing the St. John Immokalee Mission Team in order to provide additional and complementary support to this area, in particular with urgent needs like food and housing services. We will also collaborate with these other Ministries to lend support to their current programs. If you would like to join in our Immokalee Mission Team, please contact me

#ToServe – Serving the Homeless

There are also several organizations in the area that assist homeless individuals and families, including St. Vincent DePaul and St. Matthews House. Unfortunately, there are hundreds of people living homeless who are not able to use these programs, due to substance abuse or other factors. "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40). What can we do? We can feed them. We can show them humanity and respect. We can love them. If you are interested in joining our Homeless Services Team, where we will be reaching out to these individuals and providing them direct support, please contact me.

#ToServe – Thanks to All VBS Volunteers!

I cannot thank enough all the volunteers who have worked tirelessly for weeks and months now on the 2014 Vacation Bible School for St. John. We have over 200 pre-school and elementary school children who will get to journey with Moses through our Wilderness Escape. We have five jam-packed days of fun, games, prayer, and engagement planned in a beautiful, desert-themed environment. There are over 100 volunteers (including our middle and high school students) who will ensure these "Tribes" have a wonderful time, from parting the Red Sea to building their own Ten Commandments. From the décor to registration, from the crafts to the games, none of this week would be possible without the time and talent of volunteers. A special thanks to all of you who provided sheets, carpets, baskets and all the items that will make this theme come alive. It is heartening to see so many people dedicate themselves to our parish and our children. We are looking forward to an amazing week!

VBS Participants Will Escape into the Wilderness

Volunteers and helpers, both adults and youth, are in the final stages of preparation for Vacation Bible School. These past couple weekends were filled with staging, preparing and costuming the St. John buildings to represent the Hebrew camps as they leave Egypt on the way to the Promised Land. With the theme, Wilderness Escape, participants will take a fun trek through the desert with Moses and his friends. Vacation Bible School starts Monday and runs all through next week.

JUNE 8, 2014 ~ PENTECOST SUNDAY

I received the most beautiful note via U.S. mail last week. The note was from a parishioner who had recently returned to her Northern residence in New York. “Thank you for sharing the love of Jesus in such a beautiful way. The liturgy and messages are gifts to a faith filled community. It is my blessing to be with you.” It is notes such as this which make all we do for Saint John the Evangelist very worthwhile.

I would like to personally apologize to our parish congregation for all of the issues we have had recently with regards to the sound system, lighting system and air conditioning in the church. As you know, we have installed new lighting controls, sound controls and AC controls and it seems that the learning curve was much greater than anticipated. Ultimately, all of these systems will be controlled by one operating system, however, currently they are all being operated independently which has been problematic at best. Once we are able to tie all of the systems together, we will recognize a great cost savings and have a very efficient operating system. Please understand that we are working diligently to resolve these issues.

Vacation Bible School is now filled to capacity. If your child is enrolled to participate, I ensure you that this year’s VBS will be the best ever. If your child was unable to attend, I urge you to register early next year as our program is arguably the best locally.

We have broken the $300,000.00 threshold with regards to the 2014 Catholic Faith Appeal. We still have a lot of work to do but with nearly seven full months remaining in the appeal, I am confident that our parishioners will come through strong. Remember that a great way to help us and help yourselves is by donating appreciated stock to the CFA. Considering that the stock market (DJIA) has been hovering near record highs for the past several weeks, many of you are in receipt of appreciated stock. Remember that by donating “appreciated stock,” you will be able to avoid the capital gains tax and recognize the gift as a charitable donation at fair market value. This is what I would call a true win-win situation. You get to avoid a big tax hit, “write off” the gift and help us reach our CFA goal. You may call the Development Office at the Diocese of Venice at 941.484.9543

We will begin installation of six new air conditioning units in the PLC the week of June 16. Believe it or not, the rooftop units being replaced are the original units and have given us 17 solid years of service. Considering our proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, that is a great life span. The new units will come complete with “controls” so that they may be operated via our Metasys system. There will be a crane onsite and most likely a bit of mess while the installation takes place. We apologize for any inconvenience you may experience as a result.

Believe it or not, our triplets celebrated their 3rd birthday this past week. To the left is a picture of Mia, Nate and Ella preparing to devour their cake. Nate is a big fan of Monster trucks and garbage trucks, while Ella and Mia love to wear dresses, dance and sing, especially to the soundtrack from the movie “Frozen.” Thank you again to everyone for your thoughts and prayers over the past four years.

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

Men's Club Donation

The Men's Club presented Scott Schlossberg, general manager, with a check in the amount of $11,100 which covered the remaining cost of the hearing loop and their $3,000 scholarship donation. Pictured (left to right): Bob Lomicka, Men's Club treasurer; Richard Bergeron, Men's Club vice president; Scott Schlossberg; and Joe Lichwall, Men's Club president.

"Theology on Tap" for Young Adults Returns July 17; Bishop Dewane Is Speaker

Theology on Tap will return to the Diocese of Venice this summer with new locations, format and frequency. "Theology on Tap" begins July 17 at 7:00 p.m. at San Pedro Catholic Church in North Port for six consecutive weeks.

Bishop Frank J. Dewane will be the first presenter in the series entitled, "Why be Catholic?" All young adults 18-39 years old are invited to attend. Babysitting will be available for young couples.

Please contact George Smith gsmith@dioceseofvenice.org for further information or to RSVP.

The Heart of Worship Matt Redman

Preparation Song The Heart of Worship Matt Redman

Verse 1) When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart
Pre-chorus) I'll bring you more than a song,
 for a song in itself is not what you have required.
 You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...
Chorus) I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
 And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
 I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
 When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

Verse 2)

King of endless worth, no one could express
 How much you deserve; Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Verse 3)

And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me; Take me as I am, call me to the Feast—say the word, I'm healed—

The Word & Life

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

Today we focus on the Third Person of the Trinity — the Holy Spirit. In the Book of Genesis, we hear that the Spirit hovered over the waters of the deep at the beginning of creation, ushering in order and displacing chaos. This same Spirit descended upon the disciples bringing courage in the midst of fear. The chaos that surrounded the arrest and crucifixion of Jesus was pushed into the recesses of the Apostles' memory as they received new confidence and strength from the Advocate. The Holy Spirit gives birth to the Church and ignites the early Christians with an energy that becomes explosive in giving witness to Jesus' message. The Spirit's presence so transformed the band of followers huddled in fear in the upper room, that they were confident enough to go out and boldly proclaim the risen Christ!

As we celebrate Pentecost Sunday we affirm our belief in the transforming power of the Holy Spirit who is with us today. Through the experiences of adversity and conflict we are called to invite the peace and calm of the Holy Spirit to take root in our lives. Many would suggest that we live in a world of chaos. Optimists would propose that the world is full of positive opportunities ready to be embraced. No matter how we view the world, the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and in the Church offers us a new way of looking at reality. The Spirit creates order in the midst of chaos and brings the seven gifts of

Reflection Questions

1. Why were the apostles afraid and locked away?
2. What gift does Jesus specifically offer to his disciples in this gospel account?
3. How does the coming of the Holy Spirit transform the lives of the disciples? (Acts 2:1-11).
4. Name each of the seven gifts of the Spirit and reflect on how each gift offers you transformation.
5. What does the Holy Spirit represent for you?
6. How do you listen to the Holy Spirit on a daily basis?
7. Where do you find evidence of the Holy Spirit in the Church and in the world?

wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

When conflict arises in our relationships we seek the wisdom of God and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with wisdom. In the midst of war and the news of young people losing their lives protecting our freedoms, we seek an understanding that will lead us to the goal of peace, and we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with understanding. When society lures us into the world of pluralism we seek the counsel of God and the truth that will set us free, and we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with counsel. When we incur insults by making a stand for what is right and give witness to the gospel, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with fortitude. When our lives are not black and white, and we face difficult decisions, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with your knowledge. In encountering your presence in worship and in the presence of others may we reverence You, and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with piety. Finally, as we contemplate the many wonders and gifts the world has to offer, may we reverence the Giver of the gifts, and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with the fear of the Lord. Amen!

Prayer

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Voices of Faith

The Gift of Pentecost

In the upper room of fears
The disciples await the promised gift
The Advocate, God's holy gift
Thus God moves and breathes into them
And a new song is now heard
As the apostles go out proclaiming the Living Word

The Church is born on that day
As the visitors to Jerusalem are shown the Way
The Spirit moves men to speak
Others to stand, to listen and to seek
Faith is captured as disciples preach
Hearts are opened to blessed speech

The Holy Spirit breathes upon the Church
As She continues through time and space
Countless members embrace the Faith
For God breathes purpose in ever man
So he may grow in the saving plan
People are changed knowing the great I Am

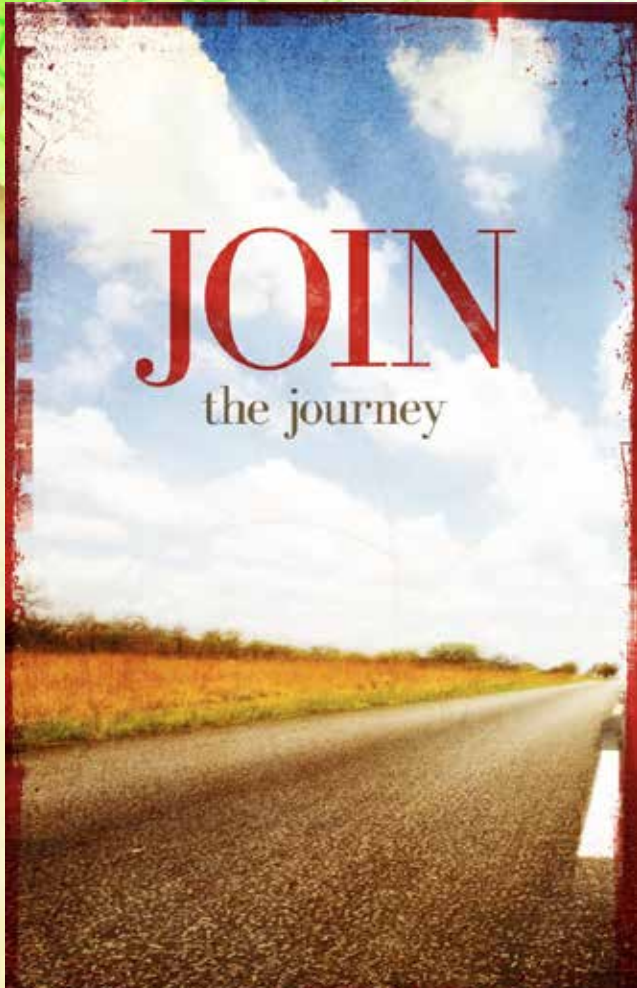

And so today man stands in faith and trust
To discern God's will amidst life's rush
God breathes upon men and women alike
When life is witness to worry and strife
Our goal is certain and hope secure
On the Father's House for those who follow His Law

For wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude,
Knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord
Are the Seven gifts offered in the service of the Lord
With hearts open countless embrace the Spirit's gifts
Their lives are changed, their burdens lift
To embrace love's yoke and sacred gift

St. John Needs YOU...As a Catechist!

Have you ever wanted to enliven the spirit of our youth with your knowledge and joy of our faith?

Have you aspired to strengthen the faith of others around you (and in doing so, may strengthen your own)?

Have you felt the Holy Spirit inside you, and wanted to share that joy and happiness?

If you have felt any yearning to engage your faith in a deeply engrossing and tangible way, becoming a Catechist may be just what you are looking for. The role of a Catechist is to teach the faith of the Catholic Church both by word and by example. At Saint John the Evangelist that translates to our Faith Formation program, where youth from pre-kindergarten through tenth grade are instructed and inspired to learn, love, and live our faith.

We are looking for joyous and engaging men and women who would love to teach the future of our Church what we believe and why we believe it.

Please contact Margie Lynch at:

if you are interested.

Life Matters

Did you know that our wonderful Liturgist, Tom Oram, has been a part of developing a pro-life music CD? Even better, that CD is available at a very reasonable price right here in our own Divine Boutique! The CD includes 5 tracks that celebrate life, including tracks from Gabriela Frei, Jennine Fuentes as well as Tom's own beautiful "Hail Mary". The CD was produced by R. Raymond and Mary Elizabeth Rich in memory of their granddaughter, Mallory. All proceeds from the sale of this CD go to Community Pregnancy Center.

Back in March, the Respect Life Committee launched our first ever prayer vigil for a death row inmate about to be executed. We joined our prayers with those throughout the state for the man who was killed and for his victims. Is the man on death row any less one of God's children than you or I? Is his life worth any less because of his sins?

The Respect Life Committee focuses on all aspects of protecting life, from conception to natural death. We want to ensure every moment of life is cherished and valued, even if that is difficult due to how that life is being led. St. John Paul II, in his encyclical, The Gospel of Life, stated that in the modern world, where dangerous felons can be safely imprisoned, there is no need to execute anyone. He also reminds us that all life is sanctified, even the life of a grave sinner. Responding to violence with violence only promotes more violence.

Prayerfully consider joining the Respect Life Committee for the next execution prayer vigil on June 18. Don't forget to notify Deacon Rob, Rosemary Erickson, or me if you want to be included in specific communications for these vigils. We will not always have this much lead-time to get the word out and we want to ensure any participation we can have.
