Fr. John Reflects on the Eucharist at Last Summer Coffee for EMEs

Approximately thirty of our Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist (EME) attended the final Summer Coffee with Fr. John last week, Monday, August 11. The topic was "Reflections on the Eucharist...How we are empowered by God through the Blessed Sacrament". Fr. John explained that the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life. Christ nourishes the life of the Holy Spirit within us through the reception of His Body and Blood.

As Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, we play a powerful role in handing God unto others. We are called to be agents of transformation, forgiveness and healing. Those in attendance certainly felt a greater appreciation for the meaning of the Eucharist and the importance it plays in our lives and in the unity of the Church and its members.

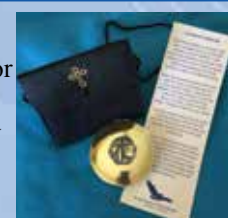

Thank you, Fr. John, for sharing your time and knowledge with us during these enlightening and inspirational discussions.

#ToKnow – “Faith, Hope, and Love” Virtues to Live By

Cardinal Donald Wuerl, the Archbishop of Washington DC, illustrates the core virtues of the Catholic Christians:

Paul writes of “faith, hope, and love” (1 Corinthians 13:13). These are the theological virtues, which have God himself as their origin, motive and direct object (CCC 1812-13).

First, there is recognition that it is God who calls us, and acknowledgment that he is trustworthy and his word is true and good. This is faith.

Second, there is lively confidence that in responding to him we approach the One whose will it is to fulfill our needs and longings more fully than we could otherwise have imagined. This is hope.

Finally, there is the fullest response, the gift to the Lord of one’s whole self, of mind and heart and strength, accepting his call to membership in God’s family, to friendship in the Trinity and with all created persons. This is charity, or love.

– Cardinal Wuerl (<http://cardinalsblog.adw.org/2014/08/life-faith/>)

#ToKnow – Faith Formation Program for Middle School

As school begins here in Collier County this week, I wanted to showcase one of the changes we have made based on the Family Mission Feedback, specifically invigoration of the support for Middle School youth. I have a 7th grader myself and the feedback from our parish illustrated that the Middle School Youth Group was not reaching our children effectively in educating and enlivening their faith. In conjunction with the Faith Formation program, we have created a new and exciting format for Middle Schoolers. In an effort to reinforce the knowledge building for this age group and also provide discussion and fun activities, the program will be broken into time for learning and time for theme-based discussion topics. This will enable Middle Schoolers to take the basics of our faith and ask their questions of “how” and “why” we believe what we believe as Catholics. You can now sign up your Middle Schoolers up for the Faith Formation Middle School classes, either Wednesday evening or Sunday morning, online at: <http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/education/faith-formation/grade-prek-10>.

#ToServe – Thanks to Jen for Leading our Young Adult Programs

Jen Cox has graciously volunteered to lead the St. John Young Adult Programs, a new focus to ensure we have engaging and interesting events across our parishioner community, serving ages 18-95. I will let her introduce herself here in the bulletin on page 7. This exciting new focus for our parish will enable continued growth both for these individuals spiritually as well as provide an avenue for these individuals to learn more about our ministries and programs so they can become more involved.

#ToServe – Knights of Columbus Focus on Poor and Families

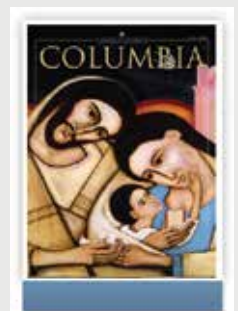

Grand Knight Scott Schwarz and Trustee Bill Warvel sent a message to the Knights of Columbus from this past week’s KofC Convention, where the focus of the Knights this next year is on Our Holy Father’s efforts for the poor and for families:

As an international fraternal organization, the Knights of Columbus is well-positioned to follow Pope Francis’ witness of “love for the sick, the suffering and the poor,” said Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson.

That “extraordinary witness” and the pope’s admonition to all to cast aside indifference have “captured the imagination of the world,” he said Aug. 5 at the opening business session of the Knights’ 132nd Supreme Convention in Orlando.

“As Knights of Columbus, we are well-positioned to respond,” said Anderson.

We are very blessed to have a vibrant and engaged Knights Council here at St. John and I highly encourage you to take a look at this month’s Knights of Columbus magazine, called the Columbia, which is free online: <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/columbia/index.html> This month is focused on Family, and in particular preparations for the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia next year.

Introducing the Young Adult Programs

Hello there! My name is Jen and I am the new Coordinator of the Young Adult Programs here at St. John. You may know me from serving as a Eucharistic Minister and supporting the Youth Group. Having been part of St. John for almost two years. I feel God has put it on my heart to take a more active role in our community. I am really looking forward to meeting new people and getting to know the St. John community and God through our various new and exciting programs and ministries!

Several new events have been planned for us young adults (ages 18-95). Theology on Tap is a weekly evening hosted by different parishes where we get together to talk about different aspects of the faith, drink some beer and enjoy some heavy hors d'oeuvres. Food & Fellowship is a monthly get-together at a local, casual restaurant where we can enjoy dinner and get to know one another better! Please visit our website for more details (<http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/tag/yap>).

Theology on Tap begins September 9 at St. Agnes and the first Food & Fellowship will be Thursday, September 25 at Boston Beer Garden. For more information, please contact me at: jen@sjecc.com. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you in our invigorated Young Adult Program

Life Matters

Reasons to Be Thankful

This summer has provided lots of reasons to be thankful; the Supreme Court has reaffirmed religious freedom in the Hobby Lobby decision, Hurricane Arthur was almost a non-event; the replacement of the headstones in the Memorial Garden is complete and LeBron James has returned home to Cleveland. Even more importantly, so far there is no execution scheduled for August in the Sunshine State. Hopefully, our governor is taking the lead of 35 other states in our country that no longer practice capital punishment. Judges in California have denounced lethal injection as cruel and unusual punishment. One judge even went so far as to recommend the guillotine as a more efficient, and therefore less painful, means of putting someone to death. There is nothing dignified about death we choose for our brothers and sisters, whether we are taking sacred life away from a prisoner, a baby, or a terminally ill patient.

AUGUST 17, 2014 ~ TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

Since I only have ten more editions of Scott's Corner to compose, I figured this would be a great opportunity to pitch a few of my favorite entities here at Saint John the Evangelist.

The Memorial Garden has been near and dear to my heart since taking over its management in 2009. Although I never wanted to be involved with the Memorial Garden, it has turned out to be a blessing. Sitting down with parish families to arrange the purchase of their final resting place has given me the opportunity to really learn in detail about our very diverse parish family. As a matter of fact, I have recruited a fair share of volunteers for numerous ministries through these meetings.

I have stressed the fact that waiting to purchase your plot in the garden may ultimately cost you in the long run. There are two reasons for that statement. The first is that the cost is most likely going to increase after the first of the year and the second is that the sale of space in our garden will most likely terminate in the near future. I know I have alluded to this before but it will happen and it will most likely be sooner than later. For $1,500.00 you are securing a space in a truly spiritual environment. In addition, the garden is in perpetuity and the ground is consecrated which is recommended by the Catholic Church. The price tag for our garden is literally a fraction of what you would pay at a cemetery. With the help of our buildings and grounds committee, I can now say that our garden rivals any that I have seen in Southwest Florida for its beauty. As a matter of fact, I have had two calls in the last month from parishes in North Carolina and Northern Florida inquiring about our garden. They have heard about how well maintained and managed our garden is here at Saint John the Evangelist. JP will be taking over management of the garden after my departure. If you are interested in taking advantage of a great opportunity, please contact me and JP and I will gladly meet with you to discuss.

The Veterans' Memorial is the focal point of our campus with the "Lest we Forget" statue located immediately in front of the church. Upon completion of the memorial, we had an influx of parishioners wishing to purchase oversized brick pavers to honor or memorialize their loved ones. Since that time, I have not really solicited the sale of pavers. There are still many prime spaces available in front of the statue and for those who have visited the memorial, the pavers are very attractive and are able to accommodate up to four lines of text with an emblem of the particular branch of military in which your loved one served. As you will see by reading the pavers, you need not be affiliated with an individual who served in the armed forces to purchase a brick paver. This is a great opportunity for you to leave your mark on Saint John the Evangelist for a rock bottom price. The cost to purchase a brick paver is only $150.00. The turn-around time for fabrication and installation is generally three weeks or less. JP will also be taking over the paver program for the Veterans' Memorial so if you are interested in purchasing one, please give me a call and we will arrange a time to meet.

St. Vincent de Paul is one of my favorite ministries here at Saint John the Evangelist. I think we are all aware of the great work done by this amazing organization. It is this time of year when many in our area find it difficult to meet their financial obligations. Why, you ask? Many of these people are employed in the service sector of our local economy. They may work at a restaurant or hotel and recognize a significant decrease in their income during the late summer months. Late August and September are especially difficult because school is back in session and the tourism industry locally is nearly at a standstill. Much of the reserves these employees may have stashed away have evaporated and this is where St. Vincent de Paul will step in and provide assistance in the form of rent, utilities, fuel, clothing and food. The funds used by St. Vincent de Paul to provide assistance are generously donated by you, our parishioners. I would ask that you think of my comments on your way into or out of Mass and consider dropping a donation in the poor box. Your donation may be cash or check. These funds are non-assessable and 100% of your donation will be used to assist those in our local community who may be struggling to make ends meet. As I have mentioned before, the individual you may be helping could be sitting right next to you at Mass. Thanks for your consideration.

Thank you to all of our parishioners for your strong showing the first Sunday of "Undy Sunday." The bags were overflowing by the end of the weekend and as a result, many deserving children in Collier County will have appropriate undergarments as they head back to school this week. There were also numerous donations brought directly to the parish office. Donations at Saint John the Evangelist are up over last year. Let's finish strong this final week of "Undy Sunday."

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

The Word & Life

The God of Faith

Today's gospel presents a theology of profound significance and consequence. On the surface it appears that Jesus is having a bad day! Here we find a Canaanite woman begging Jesus to bring peace and healing to her daughter's life. Who could refuse such a request? Jesus' response is both harsh and rude. He tells the woman that he was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel and virtually refers to her as subservient by using an image of a dog. Why would Jesus do such a thing? Jesus was responding as a Jew to this Canaanite woman. The Canaanites had been the public enemies of the Jews for 1000 years —there was a lot of animosity between them. However, this woman's persistence and faith triumphs over this tragic estrangement. Jesus' heart is moved with compassion at the sight of this woman's faith. The gift of faith transcends the exclusive nature of Jesus' mission.

Reflection Questions

1. How is Jesus shaped by the world in which he was raised?
2. What does the encounter with the Canaanite woman teach you about God's initiative of salvation?
3. How has institutionalized faith been abused in the past?
4. In what way does this gospel challenge people's approach of making absolute the truths about a particular faith?
5. How do you allow the gospel to shape your life?
6. Name the ways in which the institution of the Church reflects the gospel and shapes your life?
7. How are you being called to reach out to those who live outside your faith experience?

The mission of Jesus is redefined in this encounter. Jesus brings healing to the world of the non-Jew. This act opens the whole world to the economy of salvation. Jesus recognizes that faith can be relevant to others. The compassion that Jesus has for this troubled child and her mother moves him beyond the boundaries of an institutionalized faith and starts to tear down the walls of indifference and discrimination. Up to this moment, Jesus brought the message of the gospel exclusively to Israel, but now he realizes that faith could exist outside of Judaism. The people of Israel had always been known in the realm of faith and monotheism as the "chosen people" or "elect" of God. It was to Israel that God revealed himself and sent the patriarchs and prophets to establish covenants and relationship with Him. The Messiah was promised to the people of Israel (Jews). The Messiah would lead them out of bondage into freedom. Jesus the Christ, as Messiah, comes into the world and offers radical freedom — freedom from sin and world oppression by believing in his name. In today's gospel we learn that although his message is delivered to the House of Israel, Jesus' message could not be given in isolation to Israel any longer because the whole world had begun to cry out for Him.

The message of the gospel frees us from discrimination and encourages us to respect people from every walk of life. The event of the Canaanite woman reminds us that God cannot be put into a box and be contained. Indeed, God is at work in the world in many remarkable ways. Even though our Church contains within its history and tradition the fullness of truth, this in no way is meant to exclude others. Indeed, every Jew, Muslim, Hindu, Baptist, Methodist, Episcopalian, etc., is not excluded from the kingdom. Rather, all Christian denominations and other faith traditions possess something of the spirit of truth that demands a respect and dignity from all of us. As the prophet Isaiah said, "Observe what is right and do what is just...for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Lord, let us clearly see people of other faiths as a gift to be embraced. May we be united one day around one table, sharing the one bread and the one cup. Let us work together for the common good of humanity. May those who are estranged learn to let go of earthly pride to join hands in friendship. Encourage our Mother, the Church, to lead and show us the way so that discrimination and hatred will be no more. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

Pope Francis reflecting on the Gospel of the Canaanite Woman:

"This is a courageous woman, a Canaanite, who is a pagan asks Jesus to free her daughter from the devil. She is a desperate mother — and a mother, will do anything for her child's well-being. Jesus explains that he first came first of all for the sheep of the house of Israel and he does so with harsh words: 'Let the children be fed first. For it is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs'. This woman, who certainly had not gone to university responds, not with her intelligence, but with her mother's womb, with her love: 'Lord, even the dogs under the table eat the children's scraps!'" This woman was not ashamed and because of her faith Jesus preformed a miracle for her.

"She risked making a bad impression, but she insisted, and from paganism and idolatry found health for her daughter and she found the living God. This is the journey of a person of good will who seeks God and finds him. The Lord blesses her. How many people take this path and the Lord waits for them! But it is the same Holy Spirit that brings them forward to make this journey. Every day in the Church of God there are people who are making this journey, silently, to find the Lord, because they allow themselves to be carried forward by the Holy Spirit".

St. John Needs YOU...
As a Catechist!

Have you ever wanted to enliven the spirit of our youth with your knowledge and joy of our faith?

Have you aspired to strengthen the faith of others around you (and in doing so, may strengthen your own)?

Have you felt the Holy Spirit inside you, and wanted to share that joy and happiness?

If you have felt any yearning to engage your faith in a deeply engrossing and tangible way, becoming a Catechist may be just what you are looking for. The role of a Catechist is to teach the faith of the Catholic Church both by word and by example. At Saint John the Evangelist that translates to our Faith Formation program, where youth from pre-kindergarten through tenth grade are instructed and inspired to learn, love, and live our faith.

We are looking for joyous and engaging men and women who would love to teach the future of our Church what we believe and why we believe it. Please contact Margie Lynch at: margie@saintjohntheevangelist.com or 239.566.8740, if you are interested.

Saturday, August 23
at Gulf Coast Town Center

All women are invited to a breakfast sponsored by Magnificat, a ministry to Catholic women. The breakfast will be held Saturday, August 23, 9:30 a.m.– 12:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn Airport at Gulf Coast Town Center, Fort Myers. The speaker, Betty Galvano, became a Catholic at age 18 and it was the greatest day of her life. She was a microbiologist, model and writer. She is a Respect Life advocate, and a graduate of Edmund Rice School of Theology. She had a dramatic conversion and has a passion for sharing her Catholic Faith.
