Respect Life: Pope's Message on a Culture of Respect for Migrants and Refugees

There are many facets of the Respect Life movement, proving that Catholics cherish every moment of every life, from conception to natural death. One component that our Holy Father is asking us to take special care for is the plight of migrants and refugees, some of which live only a few miles down the road from St. John. From the second collections for the Jamaica Outreach Program and Catholic Relief Services, to the direct contribution of clothing and goods for the people of Immokalee, to the giving of time to local soup kitchens, St. John is truly living the mission of our faith, which Pope Francis calls the "globalization of charity".

The Church without frontiers, Mother to all, spreads throughout the world a culture of acceptance and solidarity, in which no one is seen as useless, out of place or disposable. When living out this motherhood effectively, the Christian community nourishes, guides and indicates the way, accompanying all with patience, and drawing close to them through prayer and works of mercy.

Today this takes on a particular significance. In fact, in an age of such vast movements of migration, large numbers of people are leaving their homelands, with a suitcase full of fears and desires, to undertake a hopeful and dangerous trip in search of more humane living conditions. Often, however, such migration gives rise to suspicion and hostility, even in ecclesial communities, prior to any knowledge of the migrants' lives or their stories of persecution and destitution. In such cases, suspicion and prejudice conflict with the biblical commandment of welcoming with respect and solidarity the stranger in need.

On the other hand, we sense in our conscience the call to touch human misery, and to put into practice the commandment of love that Jesus left us when he identified himself with the stranger, with the one who suffers, with all the innocent victims of violence and exploitation. Because of the weakness of our nature, however, 'we are tempted to be that kind of Christian who keeps the Lord's wounds at arm's length'.— Pope Francis (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-francis-message-for-world-day-of-migrants-and>)

The Casa Maria Soup Kitchen seats about 90 people and often fills up with the neediest people, many out of work or homeless.

October, the Month of the Holy Rosary

It is that time when we are reminded of the importance of uniting our prayers with the Mother of God and conforming ourselves to Christ as revealed in the mysteries of His life. We grow in our appreciation of Christ through meditating on these mysteries. We do, however, need to be careful that our prayer does not become wordy and mechanical. Pope Paul VI said “Without contemplation, the Rosary is a body without a soul.”

therosary3.com is a scriptural Rosary. Whether you are already in the habit of praying the Rosary and want to renew the spirit of your prayer, or whether you are new to the Rosary and want to learn how to quieten your mind and heart, therosary3.com will help you enter more deeply into the Mysteries of Christ. Come then, come to a quiet place within ... visit therosary3.com.

Life Matters

Welcome to Respect Life Sunday! Today we are reminded that “Each of us is a Masterpiece of God’s Creation”, which is this year’s Respect Life theme from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Check out their website (<http://www.usccb.org>) for awesome information on living wills, an adoption story, healing a marriage after an abortion and many other pro-life topics. The Respect Life Committee is manning tables following all of the Masses this weekend. We will have lots of free stuff, as well as literature, music, bumper stickers and a limited number of 2015 pro-life calendars.

Directions and signs for the Life Chain on Route 41 this afternoon from 2:00 - 3:30 p.m. will also be available at our tables.

Don’t forget to experience the white crosses in the front of the St. John campus. Each cross represents one million children who have lost their lives to abortion in our country since abortion was legalized in 1973.

The annual Respect Life Conference is coming up later this month, hosted this year by the Diocese of St. Petersburg. There is a wide array of discussions scheduled, as well as pastoral outreach and a concurring youth leadership conference. The registration deadline is this week, October 9. Please visit <http://life.dosp.org> for online registration and more information.

Upcoming Events:

- October 25 ~ Novena for Life mass; month 7
- October 27 ~ St. John’s Parish day at Planned Parenthood; 8:30 a.m.-:00 p.m.

#ToKnow #ToLove #ToServe

#ToKnow – Introducing our Bookkeeper: Julie Kwiatkowski

Please join me in welcoming the newest member of our St. John staff, Julie Kwiatkowski. Julie has been hired as our Bookkeeper, a role that (along with just about everything else) Scott had been performing for our parish. We are very lucky to have found Julie, given her CPA background and years of financial management experience. Julie is no stranger to St. John. She has supported the parish as a volunteer and even created the beautiful mosaic in our prayer garden. We are excited to begin this new chapter in our church's financial management.

#ToLove – Thanks to the Knights of Columbus and Boy Scouts Kicking off the Year of the Family in Style

With the Extraordinary Synod of the Bishops beginning this Sunday, focused on family as the domestic church, it is our parish's mission to assist in building these domestic churches, no matter what they look like and who is in them, as "a privileged place of encounter with the gift of love" (<http://www.news.va/en/news/communicating-the-family-a-privileged-place-of-enc>). As such, we are increasing the programs and events that are "family-friendly" and ensuring every generation of our parish family is included in the fun. We had two family events this past weekend that would not have been possible without the support of the Knights of Columbus and the Boy Scouts, who have both taken on the theme of "The Family Fully Alive" as the core message of the Catholic Church this year.

We are happy to announce that we will be providing more events and chances to families to get together, share experiences and grow their faith and love, all culminating in our Parish Trip to Philadelphia in September 2015, for the World Meeting of Families. For the month of October, our theme is "because the Lord is the God of our ancestors, we want to strengthen the relationships between our family's generations". Our Holy Father spoke about this topic just this week:

Today we accept the Gospel we have just heard as a Gospel of encounter: the encounter between young and old, an encounter full of joy, full of faith, and full of hope.

Mary is young, very young. Elizabeth is elderly, yet God's mercy was manifested in her and for six months now, with her husband Zechariah, she has been expecting a child.

Here too, Mary shows us the way: she set out to visit her elderly kinswoman, to stay with her, to help her, of course, but also and above all to learn from her – an elderly person – a wisdom of life.

Today's first reading echoes in various ways the Fourth Commandment: "Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you" (Ex 20:12). A people has no future without such an encounter between generations, without children being able to accept with gratitude the witness of life from the hands of their parents. And part of this gratitude for those who gave you life is also gratitude for our heavenly Father. — Pope Francis 9/28/2014 (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-francis-elderly-are-key-to-health-of-free-soc>)

More information is available on our website about the trip and all these fun activities for all ages.

GRIEF SUPPORT

Seven-Week Grief Support Sessions Begin October 14

When death takes a loved one, you are often left feeling forsaken, frustrated and fearful about the future. It helps to tell your story and share your feelings with those who understand what you are experiencing. You will meet those people at the St. John grief support seven-week series on Tuesdays starting October 14.

The seven-week sessions which focuses on a specific area each week will be on Tuesdays, October 14, October 21, October 28, November 4, November 11, November 18 and November 25.

The Support Group will meet from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. in rooms 3 and 4 in the Parish Life Center. Anyone who needs help with grieving is welcome. For more information, call Dee at 594.7193.

St. John Will Host Its First Theology on Tap October 7

St. John will be hosting our first Theology on Tap on October 7! The evening begins at 6:30 p.m. Babysitting will be provided and the event is open to all our "Young" Adults.

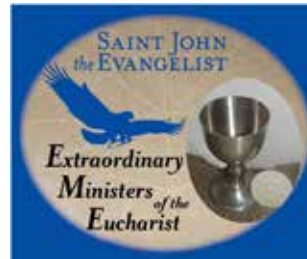

If you have any questions, please email Jen at jen@sjecc.com.

Dads Rule! Football with Dads and Grandpas and Their Children To Start Up in November

Dads Rule! Calling all dads and/or grandpas to join in Dads Rule Football School this Fall. It's simple. Dad's Rule is a new program at St. John in which dads and their children participate together with other fathers/grandfathers/fathers-in-law and their children in a game of football. Think of it as a backyard football game. We will start with basic fundamentals and work ourselves into touch or flag football games.

All children are welcome, but the dads and/or grandpas must be present. Dads Rule football school will take place this November and December on selected Sundays from 3:30-5:00 p.m. for 6 weeks at Naples Park Elementary. Look for Dad's Rule Chess and Baseball Schools coming later this winter. C'mon dads, let's build up our families one activity at a time!

For more info or questions contact Edward Koon at 287.9580 or universalappraisers@yahoo.com.

God's Call to Serve as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist at St. John

More Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist are needed for the 7:00 a.m., 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Sunday Masses.

Do you hear God's Call to Serve as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist (EME) at Saint John the Evangelist? If not, perhaps discern the obstacles you feel prevent you from becoming an EME. The following may be on your mind:

- I feel unworthy to serve the Holy Eucharist. Some people feel unworthy of this ministry; thinking that as an Extraordinary Minister they should not be allowed to touch the Body of Christ, to handle the sacred chalice, or to place these elements in the hands of the faithful. These feelings are normal. After all, who is worthy of this great mystery? Every one of us, before we receive Holy Communion, says, "Lord, I am not worthy"...but Christ invites us anyway. Christ makes us worthy by coming to us. No one distributes Holy Communion without having first received it. In the mysterious presence of the risen Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit, an Extraordinary Minister is called by God to handle what no one otherwise dares to touch.*
- I have children who serve as Altar Servers and I need to support them by sitting close by. Picture your whole family participating in service to our God at Mass. Become a role model for your children. What a cherished occasion when all are serving God together!
- I feel uncomfortable standing in front of people. The Holy Spirit works in mysterious ways. Without giving it a second thought, processing onto the Sanctuary is a very spiritual experience. "We have lifted our hearts to the Lord."
- I cannot commit my time on a regular schedule due to my other responsibilities. We have developed a new methodology whereby you can be trained as an EME, receive the Rite of Commissioning and serve when and at a Mass convenient for you. For example, if you know of your children's Altar Servers schedule, you could email that Mass's Captain that you are available to serve. Or you can check-in at the EME sign-in desk (in Sacristy) when you arrive for Mass to learn if your service is needed. Or be placed on a Mass schedule based on those occasions when it works for you.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 ~ TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 24, 2014

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Today vast numbers of people still do not know Jesus Christ.” Pope Francis begins his message for this year’s celebration of World Mission Sunday with these words. But he quickly offers each one of us the way to make a joyful, life-giving difference in this regard. “World Mission Sunday is a privileged moment when the faithful of various continents engage in prayer and concrete gestures of solidarity in support of the young Churches in mission lands.”

On the weekend of October 18-19, as our diocesan family celebrates this “privileged moment,” let us join our brothers and sisters around the world who will gather at the Lord’s Table to celebrate, with great joy, our common vocation as missionaries. Our prayers and concrete gestures of solidarity will help build Local Churches, like the Church in Mongolia, the world’s youngest Catholic Church and others across the globe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God’s love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Your financial contribution on World Mission Sunday, offered in the collection taken for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will support the 1,150 young mission dioceses and communities who await the “Good News” of Jesus as their saving hope.

Pope Francis encourages us to take part in the Church’s mission to all the nations, as we live our lives grounded in love for Jesus and in concern for the needs of the most disadvantaged. May World Mission Sunday offer each one of us an opportunity to accomplish both, as we share the joy of the Gospel and help the poor by our fervent prayer and through generous hearts!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Frank J. Dewane

First Catholic College Fair Brings Academics and Spirituality to Our Parish

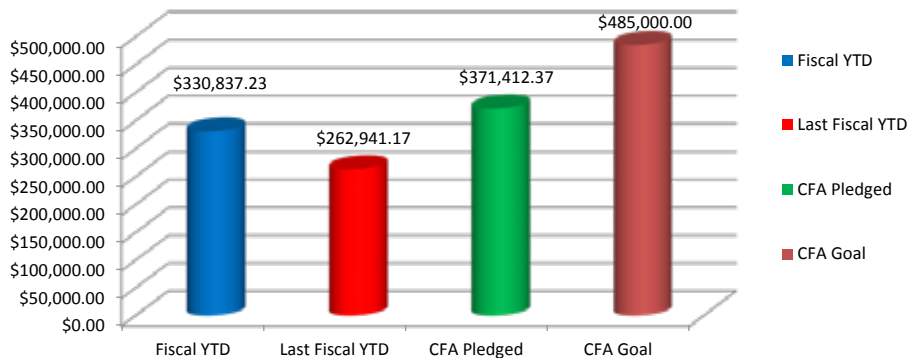

With over 20 Catholic universities and colleges from around the country in attendance, students from the local high schools were able to spend quality time getting to know how a Catholic education enriches both their intellect and their faithfulness. Well-known universities like Georgetown and Notre Dame as well as smaller schools like Loras College and Stonewood College provided alumni connections and great stories of their times. We were blessed to have admissions officers from Franciscan University, Ave Maria University, and Barry University were on hand to assist students with their applications. We hope to continue this tradition each year, connecting our local community with wonderful Catholic schools.

Verse 1) When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart

Pre-chorus) I'll bring you more than a song, for a song in itself is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...

Chorus) I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

King of endless worth, no one could express How much you deserve; Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me; Take me as I am, call me to the Feast—say the word, I'm healed—

The Word & Life

The Cornerstone of Life

We all know the importance of making a building structurally sound by using durable materials. If someone cuts back on the quality of the materials, it can compromise the integrity of the structure. Jesus is the cornerstone and the solid foundation for all Christians. If we remove him as the foundation of our lives, it compromises our lives causing our relationships and way of life to get out of balance.

In today's parable, Jesus talks about salvation history. He uses the image of a landowner sending servants into the vineyard at vintage time. Each time the servants are killed. He eventually sends his son thinking that his heir will be respected. The tenants also kill the son. Jesus is addressing the chief priests and the elders of the people. He is pointing out to them that God has sent many prophets throughout various times to convince people of His will for them. Unfortunately, their message was too challenging and the prophets suffered and were put to death. Jesus is also pointing out that he is the heir and is predicting his own demise at their hands. He goes on to say that he is the stone rejected, only to become the cornerstone and give the kingdom to a people that will be open and willing to produce its fruit.

Reflection Questions

1. In what ways is Jesus the corner stone of your life?
2. How does the gospel influence your day-to-day decisions?
3. What is most challenging in your life?
4. In which situations do you resist God the most?
5. How has the wisdom of Jesus changed your life?
6. What is most honorable in your life?
7. How does justice and truth bear fruit in the way in which you make decisions?

Jesus is the foundation of the Church and all of its traditions. The message of Jesus is the substance that offers a concrete manner of life. The message of the gospel is the cornerstone of our lives — creating a solid foundation so that we may enjoy the mansions of heaven. If we live the message of the gospel, we set our feet firmly on the path. Once we move away from the message of the gospel, things quickly get out of balance and our relationships suffer. Messengers of God have always suffered at the hands of those who decide to wander from the path. The prophets held humanity accountable to live justly before God. Their message was radical and transformative. People were urged to reform their lives before their God. Likewise, the heir of God's kingdom, Jesus, disturbed the complacency of the religion of his time, asking the people to reform their lives and join in the revolution of his love and compassion.

Today, we are asked to reform our lives and each day to contemplate the mysteries of our faith. By the virtue of our very baptism, we are called to be the prophetic voice of God in the modern world. We are challenged to speak out against injustices and to be made accountable for our fellow man. We may well suffer insults when we align ourselves with the message — a message that respects life in all of its stages. It is also a message that calls us to uphold the dignity of humanity by being caretakers of the poor, the needy, and the vulnerable.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Help us, O Lord, to be faithful stewards of your kingdom. Inspire us to embrace fully the gospel of life, making Christ the cornerstone of our lives. Let our eyes be wide open to the world and its needs. Fill us with the passion for your Word. When our pilgrimage on earth has ended, admit us into your blessed vineyard. Amen.

Voices of Faith

The Cornerstone

When the Spirit hovered over the waters of the deep
And order was the part of the Father's plan
The cornerstone was in the beginning for the creation of man
The cornerstone – the Word and the Word was with God
And the Word was God – His gift to man

And so it was that God's creation came to be
A world filled with life, light, and endless possibilities
In His image were woman and man
To be co-creators in this marvelous plan
And God saw it was good...the good of man

As time passed by and sin came to be
Disobedience entered the equation – a serpent and the tree
Beauty was thwarted and paradise lost
God's will cast aside with great cost
Man's left behind embarrassed by nakedness and toil

The great events of history unfold
The story of God's love for the world foretold
By prophets, prophetesses, and patriarchs alike
The rule of God – a way of life
Covenants established and promises made cut off by sin's blade

And so the Word became flesh and Jesus came God's dwells among us to come to our aid
His wisdom and love becomes the cornerstone of life
To put an end to sin and stop to strife
A way of life – a sure foundation be...this Son of Man destined to hang on a tree

The cornerstone builds on God's foundation and paradise is found
For those who encounter a love profound
Through Christ's hands God's healing and love abound
Those who seek wisdom and heaven's crown
The stone the builders rejected becomes the cornerstone for those heaven bound —“Peaceful Moments” – Fr. John J. Ludden

God's Tender Hand

By Janel Esker

Several summers ago I spent one day in Napa Valley, not nearly enough time for this wine lover. I toured a winery and was fascinated by the detailed attention the grapes received during the harvest. Each grape is individually handpicked at a temperature and time conducive to producing the most succulent wine. Such tender handiwork!

The vineyard stories that dominate today's readings reveal the owners' similar attentive care in establishing and tending their vines. Unfortunately, neither story ends with someone peacefully sipping a glass of Cabernet at sunset. Both reveal a betrayal of the tender care of the owner, who represents God the Father.

Grapes grow wild in the Isaiah reading. In the Gospel, the hired tenants murder the owner's servants and then—foreshadowing Jesus' death—the owner's son. Destruction is left in what was so tenderly built, pruned, and nurtured.

It isn't difficult to connect these stories with our lives. We know God has tenderly cared for, nurtured, and provided for us. We need only look at our many material gifts and incredible people he has blessed us with. God has never stopped "handpicking" us with incredible tenderness.

But we're often the wild grapes or the rebellious tenants. We reject God's love by being ungrateful for his numerous gifts, instead claiming we deserve more. We sin by our disrespect—even hatred—of others who are his beloved children. We abuse the gift of God's creation by ignoring environmental needs and pursuing our own needs.

Today's readings challenge us to remember the vineyard owner's caring hand and God's tender love. Recalling God's ongoing goodness can help us break our sinful patterns and respond gratefully to him.

Next Magnificat Breakfast Is Saturday, October 18 at Holiday Inn Airport - Gulf Coast Town Center

All women are invited to a breakfast sponsored by Magnificat, a ministry to Catholic women. The breakfast will be held Saturday, October 18, 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn Airport at Gulf Coast Town Center, Fort Myers. The speaker is Cathy Hayter. She had a powerful conversion during a Medjugorje pilgrimage and knew then, like St. Paul, that God was real. After two car accidents left her incapacitated she suffered in pain and asked God why. He inspired her to start a healing prayer ministry and offer her suffering as reparation for sexual abuse victims, having been a victim of childhood abuse herself. Currently, Cathy and her husband speak on Domestic Minor Sex Trafficking, and she is being trained to facilitate a Christ centered healing retreat for survivors of childhood/trauma abuse.

Please send a $20 check, payable to Magnificat Fort Myers, to Joanne Tarantino, 3315 Bermuda Isle Circle, Unit 128, Naples, FL 34109, 239.887.0060 or Shirley Ruehl, 11451 Pembroke Run, Estero, FL 33928, 239.949.7015. Requests must be postmarked by Friday, October 10.
