Parking Lot Renovations Improve Access and Support Growth

There is no doubt that Saint John the Evangelist is growing. Our Parish registrations continue to increase and the requests for services, activities, and programs are year-round. One part of our campus has not changed to meet these needs: our parking lots. That is changing this summer, and we are looking forward to these improvements. We will be restructuring the front parking lot starting in about a month from now. The improvement of straight, full spots actually increases the total spots available in the front of the church by 40 spots, and includes more handicapped accessible locations. Additionally, our new exterior lighting system will be implemented in our front lot, transforming the dark, shadowy parking into a bright and safe place for your vehicle.

We have also completed a new agreement with Naples Park Elementary School, in which we will be expanding the service road between the school and our church, making a safe, two-way passage. There will be a pedestrian walkway directly between the school parking lot and our own, and completely separate from the roadway. This will provide a safe way to get between the parking areas without fear of being struck. We will be encouraging people to park in the school's parking spots rather than along the roadway, so they can take advantage of this protected walkway.

All of these improvements will assist with the growth of our Parish Family and help make your experience on our campus more delightful and enjoyable. However, it may require us to utilize the school entrance during the weeks of construction. We will post specific details on traffic pattern changes here in the bulletin, on our website, in our email communications, and even posting signs on the roads to make it as easy as possible to get on and off campus. Thank you for your patience as we make this major changes to improve our joint space.

As we Build Our Future, Serve Our Past, we still need all the gifts, prayers, and support of our Parish Family to reach our Pinnacle Goals. If you have any questions, please contact Joe Lichwalla, the Campaign Coordinator at 239.495.2001 or email: campaign@sjecc.com.

#ToLove – Reaching out to the “Others”: CAO and Alpha

Sometimes it is easy for us as Catholics to retreat inward, to focus on our own community, church, and lives. The words “Those people” can sometimes be used to talk about people outside our faith, and since those words should never be used to describe anyone, regardless of race, creed, religion or nationality, it is important for us as Catholics to remain vigilant to include and welcome all those who grace our lives with their presence. One of the first things Pope Francis said when he began his papacy enforced this rule of inclusion:

The Lord created us in His image and likeness, and we are the image of the Lord, and He does good and all of us have this commandment at heart: do good and do not do evil. All of us. ‘But, Father, this is not Catholic! He cannot do good.’ Yes, he can. He must. Not can: must! Because he has this commandment within him. Instead, this ‘closing off’ that imagines that those outside, everyone, cannot do good is a wall that leads to war and also to what some people throughout history have conceived of: killing in the name of God. That we can kill in the name of God. And that, simply, is blasphemy. To say that you can kill in the name of God is blasphemy

Instead, the Lord has created us in His image and likeness, and has given us this commandment in the depths of our heart: do good and do not do evil.

The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us, with the Blood of Christ: all of us, not just Catholics. Everyone! ‘Father, the atheists?’ Even the atheists. Everyone! And this Blood makes us children of God of the first class!

We are created children in the likeness of God and the Blood of Christ has redeemed us all! And we all have a duty to do good. And this commandment for everyone to do good, I think, is a beautiful path towards peace. If we, each doing our own part, if we do good to others, if we meet there, doing good, and we go slowly, gently, little by little, we will make that culture of encounter: we need that so much. We must meet one another doing good. ‘But I don’t believe, Father, I am an atheist!’ But do good: we will meet one another there. – Pope Francis 5/22/2013 http://en.radiovaticana.va/storico/2013/05/22/pope_at_mass_culture_of_encounter_is_the_foundation_of_peace/en1-694445

How do we live this edict here at Saint John the Evangelist, in our own little corner of the world?

First, we ensure any opportunity we have for service is open to the larger community.

Last year, we had over 500 individuals support our CRS Helping Hands Food Packing event. This year, we want to double our efforts to 40,000 meals, and that will only happen with the help of local participants that feel the same call we do to do good.

Online registration for this summer’s event, to be held at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 10, in our

Ballroom, can be found at: <http://helpinghands.crs.org/events/sjecc2017/>

We also need to assist those around us who do not have a deep and lasting connection to their faith. Not everyone is as blessed as we are to be part of such a loving, active, and engaged faith community. They can be our neighbors, our co-workers, our friends from the clubhouse or schoolhouse. It is our responsibility to help them in their life journey. It takes all of us to go out and talk to these people. Some people use the term “evangelize”. I do not like that term at all. It has a connotation that we are trying to bend others to our beliefs. No. We are “accompanying” our friends on their path. We are not imparting our own viewpoints or talking at them. We are listening. We are supporting. We are journeying with them and being there to listen and encourage. Our faith will be seen in those actions, and they will naturally gravitate to it and want it for themselves.

Parish Mission & Life

This summer, we are releasing two tools for you in your journey of accompaniment with your friends: Alpha and Catholic Adult Organization (CAO). Alpha is a seminar that deals with the big questions of life: “Why am I here?” “What is my purpose?” It is an incredibly approachable program that builds an understanding of faith that empowers people in their lives, along with an open forum for safe discussion and, of course, delicious food and drinks to create a social atmosphere. We will have two information sessions this coming Wednesday, and then it will be every Wednesday evening over the summer. It is focused for people with little or no faith enrichment in their lives, so if you know someone who could use a fun and empowering program that will help them reach out for faith, please bring them.

CAO is kicking into full steam this summer. From Zumba for wellness to our adult music and art classes, we want to provide opportunities for our Parish Family and their friends to enrich their lives here on our campus. The biggest event we have is our premier CAO event: Saturday Night Fever! The biggest Bee Gee cover band in the world will be playing St. John one night only on August 19. The doors will open around 6:00 p.m., with the band going on at 7:00 p.m. We will turn our Ballroom into a Disco Club from the 70s including a VIP Lounge in Rome. This amazing night of music and dancing will be the hottest ticket in SW Florida this summer, so tell your friends and get ready for the ticket sales coming soon!

Thank you all for living out our Holy Father’s message to include and welcome everyone in the community as part of our Parish Family!

Trappist Preserves on Sale Following Weekend Masses This Weekend and June 10 and 11

Renowned Trappist Preserves will be available for purchase this weekend and next weekend following all the Masses, in front of the church.

Made by the Roman Catholic priests and brothers of St. Joseph’s Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts, the Preserves, Jams, Jellies, Marmalades and Conserves are prized for their exceptional richness and taste. All thirty flavors will be available. Delicious Trappist Creamed Honeys in eight natural flavors from the Trappists of Holy Cross Abbey in Berryville, Virginia will also be available. Don’t miss these authentic monk made delicacies!

The proceeds will benefit our Parish Youth Group as well as support the cloistered monks’ life of prayer and manual labor- prescribed by St. Benedict in the sixth century and followed ever since.

*Congratulations to all

The Word & Life

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

Today we focus on the Third Person of the Trinity — the Holy Spirit. In the Book of Genesis, we hear that the Spirit hovered over the waters of the deep at the beginning of creation, ushering in order and displacing chaos. This same Spirit descended upon the disciples bringing courage in the midst of fear. The chaos that surrounded the arrest and crucifixion of Jesus was pushed into the recesses of the Apostles' memory as they received new confidence and strength from the Advocate. The Holy Spirit gives birth to the Church and ignites the early Christians with an energy that becomes explosive in giving witness to Jesus' message. The Spirit's presence so transformed the band of followers huddled in fear in the upper room, that they were confident enough to go out and boldly proclaim the risen Christ!

As we celebrate Pentecost Sunday we affirm our belief in the transforming power of the Holy Spirit who is with us today. Through the experiences of adversity and conflict we are called to invite the peace and calm of the Holy Spirit to take root in our lives. Many would suggest that we live in a world of chaos. Optimists would propose that the world is full of positive opportunities ready to be embraced. No matter how we view the world, the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and in the Church offers us a new way of looking at reality. The Spirit creates order in the midst of chaos and brings the seven gifts of

Reflection Questions

1. Why were the apostles afraid and locked away?
2. What gift does Jesus specifically offer to his disciples in this gospel account?
3. How does the coming of the Holy Spirit transform the lives of the disciples? (Acts 2:1-11).
4. Name each of the seven gifts of the Spirit and reflect on how each gift offers you transformation.
5. What does the Holy Spirit represent for you?
6. How do you listen to the Holy Spirit on a daily basis?
7. Where do you find evidence of the Holy Spirit in the Church and in the world?

wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

When conflict arises in our relationships we seek the wisdom of God and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with wisdom. In the midst of war and the news of young people losing their lives protecting our freedoms, we seek an understanding that will lead us to the goal of peace, and we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with understanding. When society lures us into the world of pluralism we seek the counsel of God and the truth that will set us free, and we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with counsel. When we incur insults by making a stand for what is right and give witness to the gospel, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with fortitude. When our lives are not black and white, and we face difficult decisions, we pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with your knowledge. In encountering your presence in worship and in the presence of others may we reverence You, and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with piety. Finally, as we contemplate the many wonders and gifts the world has to offer, may we reverence the Giver of the gifts, and pray: Come, Holy Spirit, gift us with the fear of the Lord. Amen!

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Voices of Faith

The Gift of Pentecost

In the upper room of fears
The disciples await the promised gift
The Advocate, God's holy gift
Thus God moves and breathes into them
And a new song is now heard
As the apostles go out proclaiming the Living Word

The Church is born on that day
As the visitors to Jerusalem are shown the Way
The Spirit moves men to speak
Others to stand, to listen and to seek
Faith is captured as disciples preach
Hearts are opened to blessed speech

The Holy Spirit breathes upon the Church
As She continues through time and space
Countless members embrace the Faith
For God breathes purpose in ever man
So he may grow in the saving plan
People are changed knowing the great I Am

And so today man stands in faith and trust
To discern God's will amidst life's rush
God breathes upon men and women alike
When life is witness to worry and strife
Our goal is certain and hope secure
On the Father's House for those who follow His Law

For wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude,
Knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord
Are the Seven gifts offered in the service of the Lord
With hearts open countless embrace the Spirit's gifts
Their lives are changed, their burdens lift
To embrace love's yoke and sacred gift

— "Peaceful Moments" by Fr. John J. Ludden

Prayer

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Faith Formation

2016-2017 School Year

Fourth Graders Collect 36 Pounds of Food for the Underserved

On the final day of Faith Formation, fourth graders collected 36 POUNDS of food for the underserved of our community. A mere 12 students supplied 36 pounds of food! Donations were delivered to Harry Chapin Food Bank to serve Collier residents in need.

Harry Chapin Food Bank distributes food donations to partner agencies via food pantries, soup kitchens, children's programs, AIDS projects, and homeless shelters that distribute food to low-income families, single parent families, abused women and children, senior programs, people living with AIDS, and natural disaster victims. Nearly 40,000 individuals in our Collier County community do not have consistent access to nutritious food. More than 60% of public school children in Collier County are eligible for or receive free or reduced-priced meals from their school because of their families' low income.

We are proud of our fourth graders for their exercise in compassionate leadership to work towards a solution to food insecurity in Collier County. Contact Harry Chapin to find out how you can get involved, 239.334-7007.

First Communicants Learn About Ways to Serve in Ministry

Our First Communicants got together to share a meal and learn about opportunities for them to engage even more at St. John! They had an opportunity to learn more about becoming a member of the choir. They also learned more about becoming an altar server, youth lector and about our camps offered at St. John this summer for the youth.

Register Now for the 2017-2018 Faith Formation Year

Registration Forms are available online at www.sjecc.com or may be picked up in our parish office. Our staff will be working hard to prepare for another great year! If you are interested in volunteering in our Faith Formation ministry, please contact Natalie at Natalie@sjecc.com.

A Gift Idea for June, the Month of Weddings and Fathers and the beginning of Summer:

*A Wedding Gift: for every couple planning to marry,
A Father's Day Gift: for your father or the father of your children, A Gift for Yourself*

The Joy of Love (Amoris Laetitia), is firmly grounded in the challenges of family experiences. In the Chapter titled "Love in Marriage", Pope Francis reaches out to those planning to marry arguing that love is not primarily a feeling, but rather a commitment of the will to do some pretty definite and challenging things: to be patient, to bear with one another, to put away envy and rivalry, ceaselessly to hope. But the tone is not nagging nor judgmental, but pastoral and inspirational.

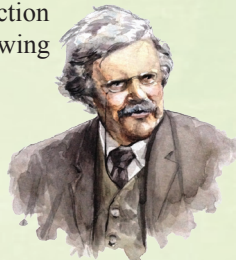

"God sets the father in the family so that by the gifts of his masculinity he can be 'close to his wife and share everything...and close to his children as they grow.... Children need to find a father waiting for them when they return home with their problems. They may try hard not to admit it...but they need it.'"

And you can find many thoughts that apply to many different needs. The Joy of Love is truly remarkable for its practical and concrete suggestions.

Pick up your gift copies at the Divine Boutique or in the Parish Office.

G.K. Chesterton Discussion Continues

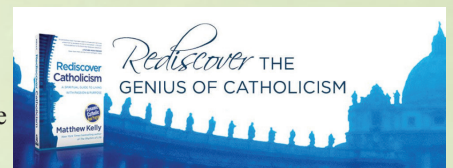

This week we continue our introduction to the great G.K. Chesterton by viewing and discussing another episode of the popular program, The Apostle of Common Sense, a television series on EWTN, in which Host Dale Ahlquist and actor Chuck Chalberg bring Chesterton's words to life. These programs help us discover and rediscover G.K. Chesterton, to be challenged by his ideas, to see the completeness of his thought, and to be treated to the joy and depth of his faith.

You are invited to come to as many sessions as you choose and as your schedule allows; just one, or once in a while. But do join us because, "Chesterton is like fine wine or smooth scotch, and it is usually happier to 'drink' in good company, than to 'drink' alone."

Rediscover Catholicism Begins June 14

We all need to rediscover Catholicism, not because it changes, but because we change. Who we are and the circumstances of our lives are constantly evolving and so a truth that we passed over a year ago may prove to be completely transformative today.

The six-session program begins next week on Wednesday evening, June 14, at 7:00 p.m. in the Seminar Room of the Claussen Family Center.

Before then, pick up the book, Rediscover Catholicism: A Spiritual Guide to Living with Passion & Purpose from the Parish Office or the Divine Gift Boutique. It costs only $3.00. Before attending the first session, read the Prologue, Introduction, and Chapter 1: Our Universal Hunger. (only 19 pages).

And reservations to jack@sjecc.com would be appreciated so we know how many to expect.

A Safe Environment

As Christian adults, we have a moral and legal responsibility and are entrusted by God with the spiritual, emotional and physical well-being of minors and vulnerable adults. As they participate in activities within or sponsored by our diocese, it is our commitment to provide an environment which is safe and nurturing.

All allegations of child sexual abuse by diocesan personnel, including clergy, should be reported to law enforcement, the Florida Department of Children and Families and to the Victim Assistance Coordinator. The Coordinator will notify the Chancellor who will refer the matter to the Review Board for investigation. The Victim Assistance Coordinator, as the liaison between the diocese and the alleged victim, will focus energies on coordinating pastoral care for victims/survivors and will follow up with victims to ensure that they will receive appropriate care.

To report an allegation call Victim Assistance Coordinator, Barbara DiCocco at 941.416-6114.
