St. John Renovation Updates

Church Roof Replacement Begins

One of the largest components of our Hurricane Irma Repairs across our campus is the replacement of our Church roof. This significant effort will transform the overall look of our church, for sure, as we move forward with the new roofing structures of the campus, with the standing seam metal roof replacing the barrel tile. This essential project will also allow us to get the final determination of the damage to the structural tongue-and-groove ceiling at the top of the Church. Please continue to pray for our Parish Family during this time, as well as for all the workers who are diligently laboring to make us whole again.

Let There Be Light

Florida Power and Light has approved our Pulte Family Life Center transformer and electrical systems! We have now powered up the entire building and have the air conditioning running to cool the building. This is essential so the flooring, painting, and all the finishes can finally be started. This is great progress for our Parish Family!

“It’s good not to do evil. But it’s evil not to do good!” – Pope Francis Calls Us All to the Action of Good

As you can probably tell from the pictures throughout this bulletin, the amount of projects and action on our campus is substantial. I want to take a moment to thank all of you who have provided your gratitude, your prayers, and your well-wishes for our staff here at St. John. We are all working as hard as humanly possible to repair, renew, and rejuvenate every facet of our Parish Family’s home and our programs. This is truly a massive undertaking (thanks, Irma, we thought we had three years to do all this), but it will enable us to enliven our spaces to showcase the positive love, joy, and action of the Catholic Church in a tangible way, not only for ourselves, but to the entire community. We do not mind the work now that will pay off in engaging souls in safe, enjoyable, and faith-enriching activities on our campus for years to come.

Our Holy Father has given us a clear path of action. We cannot be satisfied with simply standing aside while that evil in the world permeates into the fabric of our life. We cannot be content to simply not participate in those moments and pat ourselves on the back. We have to be the champions for good, for love.

Dear brothers and sisters and dear young Italians,

Good morning!

In today’s second reading, St. Paul urgently invites us: “And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption.” (Eph 4:30).

But I ask myself: how is the Holy Spirit saddened? We have all received it in Baptism and Confirmation, therefore, in order not to grieve the Holy Spirit, it is necessary to live in a manner consistent with the promises of Baptism, renewed in Confirmation. In a coherent way, not hypocrisy: do not forget this. The Christian can not be hypocritical: he must live in a coherent way. The promises of baptism have two aspects: renunciation of evil and adherence to good.

To renounce evil means to say “no” to temptations, to sin, to Satan. More concretely, it means to say “no” to a culture of death, which manifests itself in the flight from the real towards a false happiness that is expressed in lies, in fraud, in injustice, in the contempt of the other. To all this, “no.” The new life, which has been given to us in Baptism, and which has the Spirit as its source, rejects a behavior dominated by feelings of division and discord. This is why the Apostle Paul exhorts to remove from his heart “all bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice” (v. 31). This is what Paul says. These six elements or vices, which disturb the joy of the Holy Spirit, poison the heart and lead to imprecations against God and neighbor.

But it is not enough not to do evil to be a good Christian; it is necessary to adhere to the good and do good. Here then is that St. Paul continues: “[And] be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ” (v. 32). Many times it happens to hear some who say: “I do not hurt anyone.” And it is believed to be a saint. All right, but are you good? How many people do not do evil, but not even good, and their life flows into indifference, apathy, lukewarmness. This attitude is contrary to the Gospel, and it is also contrary to the character of you young people, who by nature are dynamic, passionate, and courageous. Remember this - if you remember, we can repeat it together: “It’s good not to do evil. But it’s evil not to do good!” This was what St. Albert Hurtado said.

Today I urge you to be protagonists in the good! Protagonists in the good. Do not feel right when you do not do evil; everyone is guilty of the good he could do and did not do. It is not enough not to hate, it is necessary to forgive; it is not enough not to have a grudge, we must pray for the enemies; it is not enough not to be a cause of division, we must bring peace where it does not exist; it is not enough not to speak badly about others, we must stop when we hear someone talking badly: stop the chatter: this is doing good. If we do not oppose evil, we feed it tacitly. It is necessary to intervene where evil spreads; because evil spreads where there are no daring Christians who oppose with good, “walking in love” (cf. 5: 2), according to the warning of St. Paul.

Dear young people, you have walked a lot these days! Therefore, you are trained, and I can tell you: walk in love, walk in love! And let us walk together towards the next Synod of Bishops. May the Virgin Mary support us with her maternal intercession, so that each of us, every day, with deeds, can say “no” to evil and “yes” to good.

– Pope Francis 8/12/2018 (http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/it/angelus/2018/documents/papa-francesco_angelus_20180812.html)

It is our duty and responsibility to act for and in the name of good, of love. That can be as simple as ensuring a special needs individual with a cane receives Communion directly, even if they are not sitting in the handicapped row, or opening the door for someone going into a store. It can mean participating in a Respect Life activity denouncing the death penalty or unjust refugee regulations. It can mean serving the poorest members of our area by pulling turkey before Thanksgiving. It certainly means loving and caring for every living thing on earth equally and completely. That is what we are called to do as Catholics and that is how we will heal and build God’s Kingdom here on earth.

St. John Renovation Updates

Claussen Center Repairs and Renewal Begins

After a massive exterior digging project to set a completely new set of infrastructure for the Claussen Center air condition, we are now ready to install all the new air units to restore a comfortable environment throughout the building. This has given us the opportunity to repair the rest of the hurricane-damaged walls and flooring, as well as design and deploy our new Library, which was part of the Capital Campaign. Demolition of the interior will begin next week, so these changes will hopefully be completed soon.

Back Parking Lot Renovation

In order to deploy our brand-new air condition systems within the Claussen Center, a trench had to be dug between the pad associated with units to the building. This project allowed for us to redevelop and refine the back parking lot's layout and structure. Gone are the diamonds that would dig into tires. New landscaping and lighting will make the lot as clean and safe as our new front lot. Today, we have begun the repaving of the back lot, and it will be a wonderful location for our Parish Family to park for all kinds of activities, from Mass (with golf carts to assist in getting up to the Church building), to coffee and activities in the Life Center, to Faith Formation classes.

Baptism Hospitality Hosts Needed

Hospitality Hosts are needed for the Baptism Ministry. The Hospitality Host responsibility includes:

- Contact the family the week of the Baptism, finalizing preparations for the Baptism
- Meets with the families before the Mass and/or Baptism
- Assists the Sacristan to set up for the Baptism and assists the priest during the Baptism ceremony, as needed
- Takes a picture of family and celebrant to submit to the bulletin

If you are interested in joining this ministry, please contact Deborah at the SJE office (566-8740).

Need 5 students registered to offer the class. Register today at sjecc.com/cyo !

New Music Therapy Classes beginning September:

Kids Special Needs Music Therapy Group: Tuesdays at 5pm- Boost social and language skills in our music therapy group! Each session is based on boosting specific skills such as waiting, turn taking, and socialization. All groups are based on creating music, art, and dance. We believe we are better together so join a group today! Ages: preschool-5th grade.

Sprouting Melodies 1: Tuesdays at 11:00am- Even at the earliest stages of development, we know that infants are stimulated and comforted by music. Babies 4-12 months old participating in Sprouting Melodies 1 with their parent or caregiver will be joining in simple song structures that increase their awareness of themselves and others, nurture healthy bonds and develop trust with the world around them. With all that we know about brain development in infancy, it is really all that we can't see at this age that is so incredibly vital to healthy growth.

Sprouting Melodies 2: Tuesdays at 11:30am - The goal for this class is for babies and toddlers to explore the sounds, the touch, the feel, and yes, even the taste of everything around them! The active music making and music listening in Sprouting Melodies 2 is designed to support children 12-24 months old as they build trust and increase their understanding of the world around them. The engaging songs immerse the babies in the musical experiences and provide many new ways to learn about themselves. They also find that they can control many things as they learn to make music independently with a variety of instruments including drums, maracas and bells. Socially, these young children begin to anticipate and initiate the play as they explore being in music!

Verse 1)

You gave me a title, although I didn't know you.
You called my name, and blessed me with life.
Now I've squandered the fortunes of my childhood,
given in to a world of lies...
But I can't hide forever from what I know is true;
Jesus, I surrender my life to you— (to chorus)

Verse 2)

The mountains, they move at the sound of your holy name;
the lame will walk and the blind will see.
I know you want my heart, I know that I am nothing;
you are the source of ev'rything...
And I can't live forever, unless I live in you;
Jesus I surrender my life to you— (to chorus)

Chorus
'Cause YOU ARE THE LORD and there is no oth-er, You're my God and I'm not a - shamed,

I'll stand for you when the whole world fal-ters, I will bear your name And I won't be the same.

St. John's next "Pray for Life Monday" is Monday, August 27

Would you like to get involved in the pro-life cause? Our parish has committed to praying for an end to abortion outside Planned Parenthood on the 4th Monday of every month, from 8:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Planned Parenthood is located at 1425 Creech Road (on the corner of Goodlette-Frank and Creech Road). Please join fellow parishioners for this peaceful prayer time. Our next "prayer Monday" is Monday, August 27.

Why should you pray outside the abortion center?

- * When women arrive for abortions and see you praying, they know that you are praying specifically for them when they need it most. Women often change their mind and choose life when they see others praying for them.
- * It demonstrates your love for the pre-born baby and for the mother carrying the baby. You're showing that you love them both.
- * Your prayerful witness awakens the conscience of our Naples community.
