Parish Family Will Miss Deacon Forrest and Mary

We are very sad to say goodbye to Deacon Forrest Wallace and his lovely wife Mary this weekend. Their family needs them up in Virginia, so they have decided to move up to the Mid-Atlantic permanently. The Wallace's have dedicated their lives to our faith and our church, and we will miss them terribly here at Saint John. God Bless them on their new journey!

Ask the GM: Upcoming Opportunities for the Parish Family

Some of the main questions I have been getting recently focus on what is happening on our campus. While I hope I have been able to keep our Parish Family up to date on the huge amount of construction and repair efforts, there are so many other things to talk about here at Saint John the Evangelist. Every day brings new progress and a renewal of programs and activities. Here are some highlights:

Faith Formation Begins!

Even in the midst of finalizing the Claussen Center hurricane repairs, we were able to begin our Faith Formation (some of us remember it being called CCD or Religious Education) programs for both youth and adults on time. From learning about the Mass with our Seminars on Wednesday and Sunday, to the hundreds of youth ranging from pre-K to 10th grade, we have filled our campus to meet our mission To Know our Catholic Faith through powerful programs. I want to thank all our catechists and leaders, who have dedicated their time to educating us about our faith.

You may notice a little bit of noise at the 9:00 a.m. Mass in the Ballroom due to these classes occurring in the Hallway and Classrooms of the Parish Activity Center. As Jack Kindsvater, our Adult Faith Formation Coordinator, so aptly stated, we are attempting to squeeze 10 pounds of potatoes into a 5 pound bag. I appreciate everyone's patience and flexibility during this short time before the Life Center opening so that we can have enlivening classes and the celebration of Mass at the same time. I would ask that parents and guardians dropping youth off at their classes also try to respect the sanctity of the Mass that is going on right on the other side of the doors, as well.

New Lighting and Landscaping

Many of you have seen the exterior improvements that we are making across the entire campus, including the new light poles across the entire parking areas. You will notice that we have installed yellow concrete poles around those poles to ensure they are not damaged by vehicles. We have also been required to landscape the parking areas as part of the repairs from the hurricane to replace the trees lost during the storm. Thank you all for your patience as we continue to work through these improvements.

Life Center Soft Opening Details

One of the most frequent questions I have been asked is, "When is the Life Center going to open?" Well, I have been coy about answering that question as there are many variables, from the construction timetable to the County inspections, so we cannot provide an exact date. However, I can tell you that it is coming very soon. As part of the unveiling, we will have a soft opening (before the ribbon cutting ceremony in January). This soft opening will allow our Parish Family and the community to experience the new building and all it has to offer for free access through to January. Events and programs, like our concert series, Faith and Wine, CYO sports and music programs, Zumba, Soul Core, and other activities will have a fee associated with them, as well as the food and drinks at our 5 Saints Café, but signing up for the use of the gym, bocce courts, playground, and general access will be free in 2018. We will have hospitality after all Masses at the Café, as well as breakfast for veterans, social luncheons, and happy hours. More information and details can be found on our CYO and CAO pages coming up, including a calendar of events. Registration forms can be found at on our website and will be available during our soft opening in November.

What about the Church?

Of course, we are all anxious to return to our church building for our Masses and celebrations. I do have to say that the damage and repairs within the church are extensive, so I do not want to give anyone a false sense of the schedule. It will take time to rebuild our church correctly, and we will not rush it and in doing so, miss critical details that engage our faith. That being said, the roof replacement has been going very well (the slightly lighter than normal rainy season has been in our favor), and once the roof is complete, we can begin the repair of our interior ceiling and Sanctuary. There will be more details on this coming soon, and our Liturgical Committee will be meeting in October to determine the best way to utilize the Life Center for additional Masses to support our Seasonal Parish Family influx.

We have a tremendous amount of activities going on here at Saint John, and I appreciate all of you for your continued involvement in our Parish Family. God Bless You!

Adult Faith Formation and RCIA

We Generally Agree on the Importance of Going to Mass, but Can We Clearly Articulate Why?

This fall, our adult faith formation program will focus on answering that question. Join other parishioners as Bishop Robert Barron's new six-session program, "The Mass," helps us connect the dots between history and mystery.

History – the centuries old source and summit of the Catholic Christian faith. Mystery – "...a concrete 'something' that when you bump into it, puts you in contact with a Divine Reality." (Abbot Jeremy Driscoll, OSB)

You'll be transformed through Barron's insights into this intimate, privileged encounter with Jesus. You'll participate in each Mass with a new understanding of this conversation with God.

You'll have an opportunity to quietly reflect on any stumbling blocks you may have with regards to the Mass. You'll be able to say, "I believe, without a shadow of a doubt, that this is the real presence of Jesus among us."

To make it easier to fit into your own schedule, you can choose from five convenient days and times; attend the same program every week or different times, different weeks to match your schedule. All are finished before Thanksgiving.

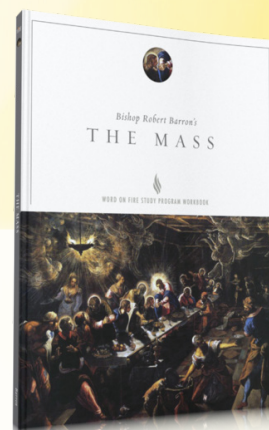

- Lunchtime; bring a brown bag lunch if you wish – Thursday 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
- Evening session, after dinner and after work – Thursday 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
- After the Sunday 5:00 p.m. Mass – 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

and especially convenient for parents of kids in faith formation, but open to all:

Jamaica Outreach Program

Second Collection (October 7) Will Benefit the Poor in Jamaica

The commitment by our parish to the poor in Jamaica began in 1997 and continues to this very day. Our support includes dental-medical-vision care services, housing, food, and education, which have made a tremendous difference in the lives of the poor there. As we enter the fall season, we need your help to continue our work.

One of our education grants was to supply ceiling fans to a primary school in Devon Pen (one of the rural parishes pastored by our good friend, Father Collin). Below is part of the thank-you letter and one of the photos we received last spring. To see the joyous video they sent, go to https://jamaicaoutreach.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/JOP_school_fans.mp4.

We thank you for your continued support and encouragement as we put into action the words of Jesus Christ... Whatever you do for the least of my people, that you do unto me.

Excerpt from letter to JOP from Devon Pen Primary School in St. Mary, Jamaica

All the students, teachers, parents, and myself say a very huge thank you for the fans which were recently installed in all the classrooms. These fans came at a time when they are most needed, as the classrooms become unbearably hot during the spring to summer months. The students are now less restless, and I am sure it is for the best as they are now able to concentrate on learning rather than battling the heat. During the installation process, students from each class begged that their classroom gets it first, but before they knew it, all the classrooms were done. Words are not enough to express our sincerest gratitude to you, so we are sending pictures and video, too.

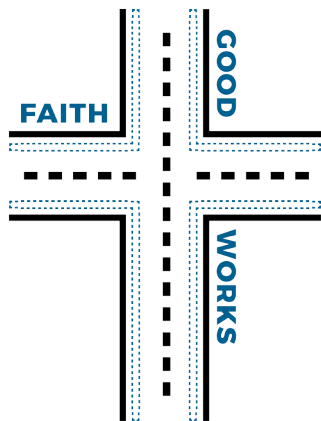

Kind Regards

-Jennifer Burrell, Principal, Devon Pen Primary and Infant School, St. Mary, Jamaica

Nex week's second collection will be dedicated to Jamaica Outreach Program. Making a difference in the lives of Jamaicans who live in poverty is the J.O.P. mantra; donations to today's collection will help us live up to that pledge in meaningful ways. As always, we thank you for what you do in His name.

Corner of Faith and Good Works

Parish life continues to bustle at St. John. We stand ready at the threshold for the completion of the Pulte Family Life Center, which will be the home to CYO and CAO. The Claussen Family Center has been fully renovated and houses our Faith Formation, which is fully engaged now for the new year. Great to see the young and young adults filling our classrooms again. You all were given well-made rosary beads – don't lose them or disregard them. Carry them with you; millions of people pray the rosary to assist themselves in absorbing the mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Don't forget.

Now, another remembrance today: The parish bids a reluctant but fond farewell to Deacon Forrest and Mary Wallace. Your witness has been a lampstand set out on a table; your service received by more than you are able to know. May the Family at Nazareth bless your move closer to your own family, and keep you in good health.

Feast of St. Francis

St. John the Evangelist will celebrate the Feast of St. Francis with a blessing of pets at noon on October 4, in the Prayer Garden.

The feast commemorates the life of St. Francis, who was born in the 12th century and is the Catholic Church's patron saint of animals and the environment. It is a popular day for pets to be "blessed."

St. Francis, who founded the Catholic Church's Franciscan order, lived in Italy during the late 12th and 13th centuries. He is remembered for his generosity to the poor and his willingness to minister to the lepers. He is remembered for his love for animals and nature. St. Francis died at Portiuncula, Italy, on October 4, 1226.

Rosary Rallies

America Needs Fatima is hosting three Rosary Rallies within the Diocese of Venice at noon, Saturday, October 13. One will take place at Georgia's Flower Shop, 21186 Olean Blvd., Port Charlotte, chosen as it is adjacent to a local abortion doctor. The second is at the corner of College Parkway and Winkler Road in Fort Myers. This location is at a shopping plaza which holds a Planned Parenthood abortion facility. The final location is at the intersection of U.S. 41 and Pine Ridge Road in Naples. This location was chosen for its high volume of weekend traffic. The date for the rallies coincides with the 101st anniversary of the final Our Lady of Fatima apparition. All are welcome.
