

the SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH
EAGLE

To Know, To Love, and To Serve God
in His Church and Our Community.

From the Corner of Faith and Good Works

Thank you, everyone, for such a celebratory recognition of my 25 years of ordained ministry. I would have let the whole thing pass quietly without the insistence of the parish staff, whom I respect so much and whose dedication to excellence exceeds my own. That said, we had a great time.

The sun came up, the skies cleared, and the temperature cooled for the beauty of the Holy Mass and the spirited reception. Thank you for the kind hospitality given to my parents and family, and for the generosity of your words spoken to me.

I believe we can all thank God for the people, the animals, and the works of creation that God has given us, to show us the heart of the Son and the life of the Spirit. May the undivided unity of the Trinity embrace you.

- Fr. Bob

#ToLove – Safety and Security for Our Parish Family: Respecting Each Other

It is incredibly sad to me that just a year ago, we were talking about a shooting in a Baptist Church in Texas, and now we are dealing with another gunman's rampage in a Synagogue in Pittsburgh. I do not think there is a single one of us that has not been impacted these past weeks and months with all the violence that has been thrust into our consciousness with the constant flow of hatred from all sides. It strikes me to my core that people coming together to worship God, in whatever form and tradition they may believe in, should not feel safe walking in the doors of their church, their synagogue, their temple, or their mosque. Quite honestly, my wife Donna can attest to the nights I stare up at the ceiling worrying about you, our Parish Family. But, I will never, ever, let the hatred or fear change our belief that we are all made in the image and likeness of God, that He loves us all, and all He asks of us is that we love Him and each other. We are an open and hospitable community. Father Bob even talked about always keeping our church doors unlocked. We are here to support and encourage ourselves and our community, and we will never surrender to the darkness of terror by succumbing to reactionary procedures. We have deployed Crowd Management certified individuals within our Ushers and Greeters. We have situational awareness workshops and Community Emergency Response Teams within our Parish Family. We all should feel safe and welcome at St. John at all times, no matter if we go to Daily Mass or if we are just arriving for the first time.

Cardinal DiNardo, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, had this to say last weekend:

This morning, violence, once again, struck one of our

by Jean-Paul Boucher
General Manager

communities, this time in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. It is apparent at least eight souls lost their lives in a shooting at Tree of Life Synagogue. To our brothers and sisters of the Jewish community, we stand with you. We condemn all acts of violence and hate, and yet again, call on our nation and public officials to confront the plague of gun violence. Violence as a response to political, racial, or religious differences must be confronted with all possible effort. God asks nothing less of us. He begs us back to our common humanity as His sons and daughters.

I commend to our Lord the victims, including first responders, and for the consolation of their families. May Almighty God be with them and bring them comfort at this tragic time.

With our culture of life and love, we must all take a hard look at how we behave and how we show respect to all around us. There are several ways we can showcase our regard to each other while keeping our safety and security in mind:

- Pre-Mass Prayerful Time: We have a joyous community here at St. John and many people come to church early to meet each other to talk about their week and enjoy each other's company. There are some members of our Parish Family, however, that are looking for a quiet and reflective moment of prayer, even while we are temporarily in our Ballroom for services. If you are speaking with your friends, please try and move the conversation outside or in our Life Center so we can respect those who are looking for time to pray.
- Parking and Walking: We are very blessed to have increased our front parking lot with over 40 new spots by reengineering the layout and adding the new lighting. We have also increased the parking in the partially paved locations due to the loss of the trees from the storm, along with the newly revamped back lot that has an easy pedestrian walkway to the Ballroom and Life Center. However, we are still finding people parking on the newly expanded roadway between the church and the school, as well as in the roadways and other locations marked as “No Parking.” These areas are specifically designated that way for our safety. If an emergency vehicle needs to get to our church Ballroom (and soon the Gym) in the middle of Mass due to a health situation, all these areas must be clear. We even built a specific pedestrian walkway between the school parking lot and the church so people can safely travel between the two locations, instead of walking on the driveway. Please utilize those parking spots if you cannot find a location on the church campus.

- Words and Actions: The St. John Parish Family has always prided itself on being a welcoming place. As such, we should always act and speak in a warm and engaging way to anyone who comes to campus. We may see them every week, or it may be the first time you have seen that person, but you never know what may be going on in their life and how they may need your connection and your friendship. A smile goes a long way to brighten up the spirit of the community just as opening the door for another person or helping someone who dropped a paper. As St. Ignatius of Loyola said: Love is shown more in deeds than in words.

We are all here to participate in the love and mercy of our Catholic Faith. Please bring that same joy outward from the church when you leave, spreading it and extinguishing the fire of hatred and fear that will never beat us. God Bless You!

While Alexa is away at college, we are blessed to have Michele continuing with the children. Michele incorporates short videos in her lesson to enhance the children's understanding of the weekly Gospel readings at Mass. For more information on our Gospel-based curriculum, please contact Natalie at natalie@sjecc.com. You can also visit www.pflaumweeklies.com for more information, Gospel readings, short videos, and much more!

Mrs. Elaine Buscemi's 4th Grade Class Incorporates Drama into the Classroom

Mrs. Buscemi has blessed us with her service to ministry for several years as well. Mrs. Buscemi likes to incorporate Drama into her classroom when discussing the weekly Gospel. The children enjoy acting out the story in a meaningful way, adding to their understanding of the Gospel message.

Rejoice! Advent Meditations with Mary

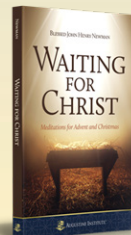

Joyfully anticipate the coming of the person of Jesus through an encounter with his Most Blessed Mother.

Walk beside Mary during the first Advent, and get to know her in a way you haven't before.

Each day, in a few short pages:

- Focus on a single word to draw out the details, the specifics of who Our Lady is.
- Learn more about Mary, the culture in which she was raised, and the world in which she lived.
- Pray a Psalm (just as Mary herself would have prayed) to help you enter into prayer.
- Read from Scripture to find the Word of God, bringing you closer to Mary, who carried the Word in her body.

A Contemporary Art Auction with a Twist

Developed in collaboration with the CAPA Cultural and Performing Arts Center and in community partnership with Artis—Naples, the third annual Saint Ann Latino Contemporary Art Auction (SALCAA) is so much more than a fundraiser. It's an elegant evening that celebrates Latino culture by way of contemporary art, music, and cuisine – all in the name of children.

SALCAA, which will be held at Artis—Naples on November 16, 2018, at 6:00 p.m., gives guests the opportunity to meet the prominent local and international Latino artists exhibiting at the event and to bid on their artwork during the silent auction, all while enjoying authentic Latino hors d'oeuvres and live entertainment.

“In just three short years, SALCAA has become something that is exceeding our wildest expectations. It is a thrill to watch as attendees enjoy a unique cultural experience, complete with the opportunity to own some stunning, contemporary artwork, all while raising much-needed funds for children in our community,” said Casandra Ruanova-Cordero, SALCAA chair.

It's not just auction attendees who get to have all of the fun. Saint Ann students are involved as well. For the past three years, world-renowned artist, Romero Britto, has donated one of his recognizable and spectacular prints for the auction. The teachers and students were so inspired, they decided to create their own Britto-esque works of art that were then displayed throughout the school.

Art collectors, students, and local children are benefiting from this new, visionary event. Just ask a parent of a scholarship recipient who asked to remain anonymous. “This is our daughter's third year at Saint Ann School, and she loves it. The family values, spiritual teachings, and academic knowledge are excellent. We would have never been able to give our daughter this opportunity ourselves. This scholarship has been a great blessing to our family.”

SALCAA tickets are just $250 per person and can be purchased by visiting www.SALCAA.org.
