Prayer for a Pandemic

May we who are merely inconvenienced
Remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we who settle in for a quarantine at home
Remember those who have no home.

May we who have no risk factors
Remember those most vulnerable.

As fear grips our country,
let us choose love.

May we who have the luxury
of working from home
Remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.

During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other,
Let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors.

May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close
Remember those who have no options.

Amen.

~ By Cameron Bellm

May we who have to cancel our trips
Remember those who have no safe place to go.

May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market
Remember those who have no margin at all.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please contact our Parish Secretary, Deborah Marsh: deb@sjecc.com or (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In the village of Bethany, Jesus had three very special friends – the sisters, Martha and Mary, and their brother, Lazarus. When Lazarus got sick, it was only natural that the first one the two sisters should turn to for help was Jesus. They sent an urgent message to Him, couched in language calculated to appeal to His heart. It said simply, “Lord, the man you love is ill.” Their hope was that He would drop everything and come and cure Him.

But surprisingly Jesus did not drop everything and rush to the bedside of His dying friend. Instead, He stayed on where He was for two whole days. We don’t know why. His delay in coming must have been heartbreaking for the sisters. Right in front of their eyes, their brother’s life was ebbing away. And the one they believed could do something about it wasn’t there.

Well, Lazarus died. The Gospel shows the desolation his death caused to Martha and Mary. Of the two, Mary seems to have been the worst affected. She wouldn’t even leave the house. While they had sympathetic people around them, the one they most wanted to be with them was not there. Jesus, their friend and the friend of Lazarus, was absent. And when He finally came, they suggested that he could have prevented this death “Lord, if you had been here, our brother would not have died.”

The desolation experienced by Martha and Mary is one many of us have experienced. And when something bad happens to us or to a loved one, we can’t help thinking that if God really cared about us, if he really loved us, then he wouldn’t have allowed this thing to happen. We feel abandoned by God. We feel He has left us alone.

So what can we do? We must try to imitate Martha. The story presents her as a model of faith. In her hour of grief, she ran to the Lord and poured out her sorrow to him. And when he challenged her to believe, she made a wonderful profession of faith: “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into the world.”

What we have to do then is to turn to God. We have to go on praying, to go on believing in God. Neither a good life, nor a close relationship with God, will necessarily save a person from a tragic death. In the face of our pain, all we can do is commend ourselves to God and abandon ourselves to His care.

When we suffer, it seems as though God is absent. But when we pray, we come to realize that God is not absent, but is present in our suffering. God is with us as our hope in adversity and our strength in weakness.

The story shows Jesus as a faithful friend. It shows that even in death we are not beyond the reach of his help. He didn’t leave Martha and Mary to grieve alone. He came to them at the height of their grief, shared their sorrow, and gave them hope by announcing eternal life to those who believe in Him.

He does not leave us alone either. He surrounds us with the love and support of the community. And He challenges us to have faith in Him: “I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will never die [eternally].” To believe doesn’t mean that we know all the answers.

Jesus understands the anguish caused by death. He experienced it himself. He overcame death, not by avoiding it, but by undergoing it and overcoming it. Thus He has become a pathfinder and a beacon of hope for us.

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST
CATHOLIC CHURCH

March 24, 2020

Dear Parish Family,

It is a time of great challenge for our Parish Family, our Community, and the world. The Public Health concerns due to the COVID-19 virus outbreak have had far-reaching impacts and may very well be with us for an extended period of time. First and foremost, I, as well as our clergy and staff, deeply care about your health and the well-being and that of your family and loved ones. If there is anything we can do to assist you in comforting or supporting you in any way, please reach out to our offices at (239) 566-8740 or info@sjecc.com so we can serve you in this time of need.

We hope our implementation of our streaming Masses and other online faith enriching resources has helped keep you connected to our Parish Family. While it can be difficult with all the worries that come with our stressed and uncertain lives, Saint John the Evangelist should be a source of consolation and love. We continue our Mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community through this period, and we hope you can continue to keep our Parish's needs in your thoughts as well. I know it is an incredibly daunting time, especially financially, for many of our Parish Family members, and we understand the priorities you are placing on your money. We are grateful for any inclusion Saint John may have in your consideration. Some have decided to consolidate their weekly giving to a monthly contribution. Others have moved to online giving via our website: (<https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/>). If you feel called to give, you can mail your gifts with the included self-addressed envelope provided with this letter.

You are in my personal prayers every single day. I miss seeing you at Mass and enjoying your company at our Parish events and activities. Please know we will come back to life as a Parish Family back on our campus and I am excited for that moment to welcome you back.

God Bless You and Keep You and All You Love Safe and Healthy!

Update on the Public Health Response at Saint John: Confession from Your Car and More

Father Tom and the clergy and staff of Saint John are praying for your health and safety during this public health challenge. Each day brings new difficulties and new opportunities for our faith engagement. We have some updates on several areas of our church's ability to serve our Parish Family to share:

Confessions From Your Car Begin at Saint John

You will be able to have the healing power of the Sacrament of Reconciliation here at Saint John again every Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday with Confessions from your car at the front of the church beginning at 9:00 a.m. More information can be found on our website: Confessions from Your Car Begin at Saint John.

Messages From Father Tom

If you were not able to see Father Tom's Homily this past weekend, we have been able to provide it online here so you can view it at your convenience. His discussion on how we will be seen as responding to the current public health challenge is incredibly powerful. Additionally, our Parish Family members will be receiving a letter from Father, with his prayers for us all and how much he misses seeing us here on campus.

Additional Faith Enrichment Activities This Week

March 25, 2020, at noon, Pope Francis has asked all Christians in the World to unite and pray together. We will be streaming this moment on our Streaming Mass Page. Please join us!

We will also begin several new on-demand opportunities for you to engage and enliven your faith:

- Virtual Stations of the Cross
- Divine Mercy Daily Chaplet (Coming Soon!)
- Praying the Rosary Together (Coming Soon!)

Additional Activities

We have gotten several questions about other events planned on campus:

- Palm Sunday Drive-Up Palms and Blessings will be provided in front of the church starting at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, April 5, and will go as long as there is a need.
- The Car Raffle Winning Ticket will be pulled at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 11. The drawing will be live streamed on our website.
- The Easter Vigil and Easter Masses will be live streamed.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

More At-Home Learning Options

Featured This Week: Formed.org

Because we want to encourage you to explore your Catholic faith at home during this challenging time for all of us, our diocese is pleased to partner with the Augustine Institute to give you a FREE 40-day subscription to FORMED – the online platform that provides Catholic movies, programs, audio books, and talks, all at your fingertips, on your Roku, Apple TV, web browser, or FORMED iOS and Android apps. FORMED is a great way to help you and your entire family understand, live, and share the Catholic faith. Just visit <https://formed.org/signup> and enter Faith at Home Venice for instant access to faith-fueling, inspiring, and informative stories, teaching, and more. Feel free to share this link and information with your friends and family!

This week, we would like to highlight the Brother Francis Catholic Faith Cartoons for Kids. After signing up, enter the site, and go to MOVIES, then KIDS, then Brother Francis. There are 11 episodes available with episodes ranging from the Rosary to the Saints to the Eucharist. Help your kids learn these concepts in an engaging way. Enjoy!

Prayers to Our Guardian Angel

In times like the ones we are facing today, it is comforting to know that we have guardian angels in heaven should be watching over us and that we can pray to them to intercede for us. Jesus spoke of Guardian Angels when He said once referring to children that, “their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father who is in heaven” (Matthew 18:10). About angels in the life of the church, the Catechism of the Catholic Church states that, “From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united in God.” [Catechism of the Catholic Church # 336]

Pope Francis reminds us that, “Our angel is not only with us; he also sees God the Father. He is in relationship with Him. He is the daily bridge, from the moment we arise to the moment we go to bed. He accompanies us and is a link between us and God the Father. The angel is the daily gateway to transcendence, to the encounter with the Father: that is, the angel helps me to go forward because he looks upon the Father, and he knows the way. Let us not forget these companions along the journey.”

“Pope Francis: Guardian Angels Protect Us From Three Dangers.” Aleteia, 2 Oct. 2018, aleteia.org/.

Guardian Angel Prayer

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day, be at my side,
To light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

Prayer to Your Guardian Angel When You Cannot Attend Mass

O HOLY ANGEL at my side, Go to church for me,
Kneel in my place, at Holy Mass, where I desire to be.
At Offertory, in my stead, take all I am and own,
And place it as a sacrifice upon the Altar Throne.
At Holy Consecration's bell, adore with Seraph's love.
My Jesus hidden in the Host, come down from Heaven above.
And when the Priest, communion takes, Oh, bring my Lord to me,
That His sweet Heart may rest on mine, and I his temple be.

We will not have Faith Formation class sessions until further notice. Please feel free to reach out to Natalie Campbell, Director of Religious Education, at natalie@sjecc.com with any questions or concerns. Faith Formation families will receive the most updated communication via email. God Bless!

During the Suspension of Public Masses in the Diocese of Venice, Weekly and Daily Masses Celebrated by Our Priests are Being Live Streamed!

The 3:00 p.m. vigil Mass on Saturday, the 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., and 5:00 p.m. Masses on Sunday, and the 8:00 a.m. daily Masses can be viewed at: <https://saintjohntheevangelist.com/featured/sje-streaming-mass>.

Many in the congregation find it helpful to follow the celebration in a missal, and during this challenging time when the faithful are unable to attend Mass in person, that is difficult.

So Magnificat, a leading publisher of monthly liturgical booklets, is now offering to provide complimentary access to read Magnificat on their iOS and Android apps to help people attend Mass and pray from home.

For complimentary access to the Magnificat iOS and Android Apps throughout May:

Register for free access in English, at www.magnificat.com/free.

For free access in Spanish, visit and register at www.magnificat.com/gratis.

Magnificat is a monthly publication that can be used to follow weekly and daily Mass. It also offers beautiful prayers for both morning and evening drawn from the treasures of the Liturgy of the Hours, the official texts of daily Mass, meditations written by spiritual giants of the Church and more contemporary authors, essays on the lives of the saints of today and yesterday, and articles giving valuable spiritual insight into masterpieces of sacred art. Magnificat is a spiritual guide to help you develop your prayer life, grow in your spiritual life, find a way to a more profound love for Christ, and participate in the holy Mass with greater fervor.

And from Magnificat is this suggested prayer of spiritual Communion:

Jesus, really present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar, since I cannot now receive thee under the sacramental veil, I beseech thee, with a heart full of love and longing, to come spiritually into my soul through the Immaculate Heart of thy most Holy Mother, and to abide with me, thou in me, and I in thee, in time and in eternity. Amen.

Parents note, MAGNIFICAT is also happy to make available complimentary access to MagnifiKid. Visit www.magnifikid.com/free to view and download each weekly booklet of their colorful Sunday missalette for children ages 6 through 12.

While so many children are missing formal religious instruction and are unable to attend Mass, MagnifiKid! can be their special guide, accompanying them through each week as they prepare to attend Mass or watch it at home.

Divine Mercy

The Feast of Divine Mercy – Sunday, April 19

“I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on this day shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.”

Jesus asked that the Feast of The Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena and provided the intention to pray for each day with the Chaplet of Mercy. The Novena will begin immediately after the Communion Service on Good Friday, at the Hour of Mercy – 3:00 p.m. It will then be said each day at 3:00 p.m. until the Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated on Sunday, April 19.

The intentions are:

- Day 1) All mankind, especially all sinners
- Day 2) The souls of priests and religious
- Day 3) All devout and faithful souls
- Day 4) Those who do not believe in God
- Day 5) The souls of those who have separated themselves from the Church
- Day 6) The meek and humble souls and the souls of little children
- Day 7) The souls who especially venerate and glorify My Mercy
- Day 8) The souls who are detained in purgatory
- Day 9) The souls that have become lukewarm

“... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy.”

So, how can we acknowledge and live God’s love for us, through our acts of mercy.

“You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere. I give you three ways of exercising mercy toward your neighbor: first – by deed, second – by word, third – by prayer. In these three degrees is contained the fullness of mercy, and it glorifies and pays reverence to My mercy.”

The quotes are Jesus’ words as recorded in the Diary of Saint Faustina
