Return to Public Celebration of Mass at Saint John!

Saint John the Evangelist is blessed to be given the opportunity to return to public celebration of Mass beginning Monday, May 18, 2020! We will have Daily Masses and Weekend Masses for our Parish Family to begin to participate in our church again. It has been truly difficult for us all to not go to Mass during this time of the pandemic. Participation in Mass is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to His Church, and it is a privilege to provide Mass to our Parish Family.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please contact our Parish Secretary, Deborah Marsh: deb@sjecc.com or (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In today's Gospel passage, we have part of the farewell discourse of Jesus during the last supper. In these last hours with His apostles, He spoke about essentials. Many of the things He said were naturally directed towards the future – at how He wanted them to live when He was gone. One of the things He said to them was: If you love me, keep my commandments.

We are not talking about keeping a specific set of commandments but rather about following His way of life. What is involved here is Christian discipleship. We can't truly call ourselves disciples of Jesus if we don't listen to His words and make an effort to live by them. One wouldn't be much of a Christian if one didn't try to live as Jesus taught.

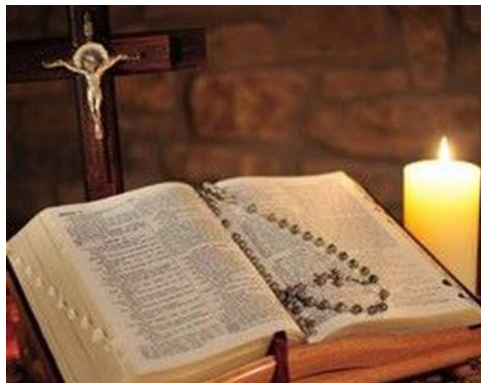

But we must be clear about one thing. We don't keep His commandments so that He will love us; we keep his commandments because He loves us. During that same supper, Jesus said, "Love one another as I have loved you." It was He who first loved the apostles, and loved them unconditionally.

The greatest need each one of us has is for real, unconditional love. Yet we find it hard to believe that this is how God loves us. We tend to believe that God will love us only if we are good. God loves us, not because we are good, but because He is good. Our very existence is a sign of God's love. God's unconditional love for us is the Good News. Our response is to try to return that love.

There are those who proclaim their love for Jesus in words, but who deny Him in their deeds or by their way of life. Real love is shown in deeds. People know us by our acts, more than by what we say with our lips.

It's not easy to live as a disciple of Jesus in the modern world. It never was an easy thing. But for that reason Jesus has given us the Holy Spirit. When we are weak, we must pray to the Spirit. The Spirit comforts us in times of sorrow, enlightens us in times of darkness, and makes us brave and strong in times of weakness.

The word Jesus used for the Spirit is the word Advocate, a legal term for one who supports a defendant at a trial. The Spirit will be the great defender of the disciples in time of trial. And the follower of Jesus can expect to suffer. But, as St. Peter says (Second Reading), it is better to suffer for doing the right thing than for doing the wrong thing. Knowing that our cause is right gives us great strength. Besides, we have the example of Christ who, though innocent, suffered and died for our sins.

The apostles knew that Jesus loved them. And we know that Jesus loves us, too. There is no mistaking love. You feel it in your heart. It is like a flame that warms your soul, energizes your spirit, and supplies passion to your life. Love is our connection to God and to each other. Love is the climate in which the Christian lives.

Love one another as I have loved you. That sums it all up.

Saint John Reopens for Mass

Return to Public Celebration of Mass at Saint John!

When we return to public worship we will need to respect the restrictions and guidelines that the health professionals have provided, as well as our state and Diocesan directives. Choices will need to be made on the part of each individual. The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday has been lifted until June 28, 2020, so please do not feel like you are “required” to attend in person. We will continue to stream our Daily and Weekend Masses for our Parish Family and all our Friends around the world.

We will be returning to our normal schedule of Masses beginning May 18, 2020, so please check our website for the specific days and times. If an Overflow Mass is needed, that Mass will be in our Ballroom, and it will begin 15 minutes after the Church Mass. Confessions will continue to be heard on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, now immediately after Daily Mass is concluded. Visitation in the church will continue on weekdays after the Daily Mass until 1:00 p.m.

If you do feel called to attend Mass in person, please be aware of the the following policies and procedures for Saint John the Evangelist:

- If you have any illness of any kind, or are exhibiting any symptoms, please stay home.
- If you are “at risk,” including over the age of 65, have an underlying health condition, or are taking care of a loved one that is at risk, please consider staying home.
- By entering our church, you are acknowledging the potential risk for you to be in a public location. You will be praying at your own risk and accept that you will not be able to hold Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church, the Diocese of Venice, or any party within those organizations accountable for any illness or injury that may befall you.
- Access to and from the church will only be allowed through the main Front Doors. Do not use the side doors, even to exit, except in an emergency.
- Please park in the Front Lot if possible. Allow for those who are handicapped to use the closest spots.
- You must bring your own Personal Protective Equipment to church. You must minimally wear a mask at all times while inside the building.
- We encourage you to bring your own gloves and hand sanitizer to church. Our hand sanitizer stations are available in the Narthex.
- You will be greeted by our Ushers. You must respect any and all directions provided by the Usher.
- Any questions you may have about the church, the processes, or any other topic should be directed to the Front Office of the Church and the Business Manager or Pastor, not the Ushers. They will refer you to the Front Office.
- 25% of Capacity of Parishioners will be allowed within the church at any one time. If there are more Parishioners than appropriate in the church, other individuals will be asked to wait in line with the 6-foot social distancing on the decal locations or an Overflow Mass will be provided in the Ballroom.
- Specific pews and locations within the church will be marked for appropriate social distancing. Please respect the personal space of other faithful visitors. Do not attempt to walk, sit, stand, or kneel in any other location than what has been identified.

Prayerfully Returning to the Parish

What to Expect When Returning to Mass

When we return to public worship we will need to respect the restrictions and guidelines that the health professionals have provided. Christ suffers with those who cannot come to Mass during the pandemic. However, as Jesus taught us, suffering can lead to redemption. You read on pages 1 and 4 the basic guidelines set out by Saint John the Evangelist in welcoming parishioners back to Mass. It may not all be the same, but it's a positive start.

Holy Water

Upon entering the Church, we have been used to approaching the baptismal font or holy water stoup, dipping our fingers into the water and blessing ourselves as a remembrance of our Baptism. Health safety restrictions will not allow us to use the Sacramental of Holy Water in this way. We encourage you to continue the gesture of making the sign of the Cross when entering the church remembering that we are baptized in Christ Jesus in the name of the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shorter Homilies

The homily offered as part of Mass may be shorter than usual, but its purpose, to share the meaning of the Sacred Scripture, will be given no matter the length. This will allow more time between dismissing one Mass and preparing to welcome those to the next Mass.

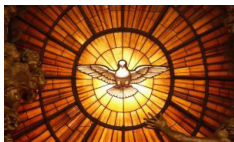

Holy Exchange

The procession with the gifts is a powerful expression of the participation of all present in the Eucharist and in the social mission of the Church. It is an expression of the humble and contrite heart, the emptying of self that is necessary for making the true offering, which the Lord Jesus gave his people to make with him. During this period there will be no collection by way of passing a basket and no procession with the gifts. Offerings may be made electronically or through the mail.

Spiritual Fasting

We must be mindful of those who will be absent during this time of limited capacity to gather, social distancing and high-risk health conditions. Our solidarity with those who cannot be physically present is essential during this time. Those who are unable to come to worship and experience the Sacrament offer their experience as a type of fast. Times when we are separated from Christ's Sacraments can be opportunities for unnumbered graces.

Sign of Peace

The exchange of Peace before the reception of Holy Communion expresses the Gospel truth that communion with God in Christ is enjoyed in communion with our brothers and sisters in Christ. When the deacon or priest invites us to offer each other a Sign of Peace it will be appropriate to offer a reverent bow and or verbal greeting "the Peace of Christ be with you."

Bread of Heaven

During this time of pandemic it is most reasonable and prudent for the safety of all that Holy Communion be distributed to the congregation in the form of the Sacred Host. We receive Christ the Lord himself, His Body and Blood, sacrificed on Calvary for the forgiveness of our sins and raised from the dead and ascended to the right hand of the Father.

When we receive the Sacred Host, we will receive on the hand. The Bishops have instructed us when receiving the Eucharist on the hand, the communicant approaches the minister with one hand resting on the palm of the other. After responding, “Amen,” the communicant steps to the side and reverently places the Eucharist in his or her mouth. Let us remember and take to heart the words of St Cyril of Jerusalem—they should make a throne of their hands, laying the right upon the left to form a throne for the King, forming at the same time a Cross.

Prayerfully Returning to the Parish

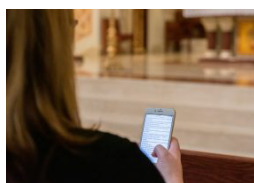

What to Expect When Returning to Mass

Receiving Communion on the Hand

Out of care for those who offer us Communion, it is important to know that Holy Communion on the tongue creates several health hazards during this time of pandemic, therefore it is recommended that communicants receive the Sacred Host on the hand. We do this out of a sense of care and concern for both ministers and communicants.

Worship Aids

Worship aids are provided in many forms such as hymnals, printed song sheets with the Order of Mass, and projection of the worship aid on video screens. Some of these aids will not be available because of restrictions and will need to be accessed electronically. As “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people” (1 Pet. 2:9; cf. 2:4-5), we are led to full, conscious and active participation in the celebration of Mass.

Sing to the Lord Joyfully

Music is important to the celebration of Mass, particularly on Sundays. A cantor and accompanist will lead you in song. Choirs and members of instrumental ensembles will not be immediately available. We are always blessed with the privilege to join our voices in song to the praise, honor and glory of God.

Stewards of the Earth

We are called to care for God’s creation. While we are experiencing the pandemic, we have come to understand that caring for God’s creation also means preservation of our natural resources. To praise God in this way, Saint John the Evangelist will not be printing bulletins for distribution at Church and will continue to offer them on our website.

A Time to Gather

We are joyful to see those neighbors at Church whom we have not seen for some time. However, because of social distancing we ask that you wave from afar and leave the church property to share in fellowship. Likewise coffee or donut stations after Mass or resources to view will not be available.

Other Parish Ministries

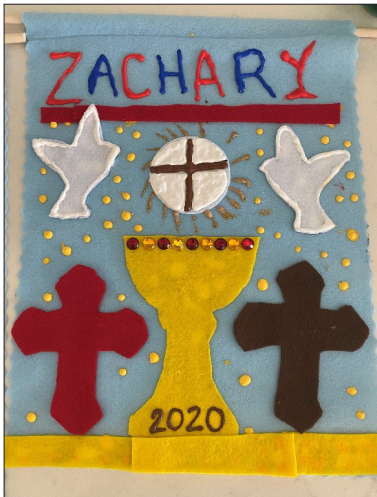

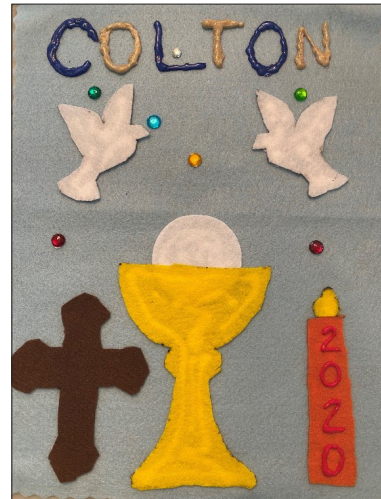

While we rejoice that our parish churches are reopening for prayer, other parish ministries are still placed on hold. Social activities, ministry group meetings, CAO/CYO events, classes on the church campus or outreach ministries, such as thrift shops, etc. will not be offered or open until further notice.

First Communicants Make Banners at Home with their Families

This week, children preparing for First Communion had the opportunity to work on their First Communion banners at home. So far, kids seem to be enjoying the at-home project as part of their preparation for the sacrament of First Holy Communion. The children also received their Blessing Cups, which Fr. Arun Paul blessed for them. The children were encouraged to place these items in a special prayer area in their home. On the day of their First Communion, they will bring the banner to church with them to put at the end of their pew. Thank you for continuing to pray for these children and their families.

Act of Spiritual Communion

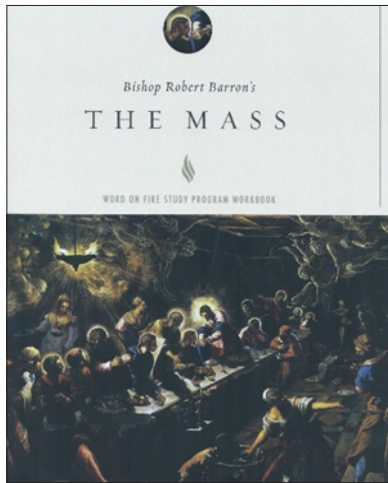

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot, at this moment, receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Adult Faith Formation

On This Sixth Sunday of Easter, Jesus Prepares His Disciples for His Return to the Father!

"In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me..." John 14:19

For you who are studying the Mass this Easter season, the lesson this week, like the Mass readings, speaks of preparation.

This week view Lesson Five, Preparing for Sacrifice.

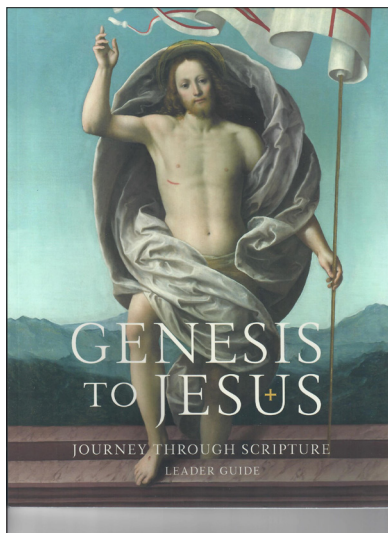

The liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts we bring to the altar. This is the hinge of the Mass. The Preface, Sanctus (Holy, holy), and the call to God to send the Spirit all prepare us for a physical and spiritual encounter with God at the Consecration.

This week:

Consider what gifts we offer at the Offeratory during the Mass and what those gifts represent.

Take a moment each day and write down three things you are grateful for that day. How does this simple recollecting affect your attitude during the week?

A Contemporary Approach to Bible Study During These Trying Times

The Diocese of Venice Department of Evangelization will host an online, interactive Bible Study on Facebook Live every Tuesday, May 12 - Jul 28, from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m.

It will use the program "Genesis to Jesus" from the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology, which is designed to help ordinary Catholics grow in their knowledge of Scripture while deepening their understanding of the riches of our faith.

Learn, discuss, and ask questions about Salvation History.

After watching the 25-30 minute video, there will be a live panel discussion during which you will be able to type in your questions and comments to engage in real-time from your own home. You do not need to have a Facebook account to watch the video, but you do need to have an account to comment and ask questions!

The program will begin promptly at 2:00 p.m. Just go to Diocese of Venice in Florida on Facebook to find the live stream! <https://www.facebook.com/DioceseofVenice/>

If you'd like more online programs, send me an email and suggest what subjects you would like St. John the Evangelist to offer.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com, or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Music and Arts Classes are going Virtual!

Keep challenging yourself or your child to continue learning and growing in your instrument or voice during this time!

CYO Music and Arts is offering private piano or guitar classes virtually until it is safe to resume in person activities on our campus. Our instructors have already begun teaching some of their students through virtual video conferencing and have found it to be an excellent alternative for our students to continue their music education at home. Students are able to use the extra time they have to practice and excel in their instruments. Please email jennine@sjecc.com if you are interested in virtual lessons for you or your child.

CYO Children's Theatre Update

Our CYO Children's Theatre is also continuing to move forward with a FREE online virtual Musical Theatre Summer Training. This is a wonderful time to memorize lines, practice some choreography, and learn music for the play. Our production of "Charleston", originally scheduled to be performed on May 8, 2020 and May 9, 2020 will be rescheduled for a later date when it is safe to resume activities on campus. Keep checking the Music and Arts page in the bulletin for updates!

Other Music and Arts Activities:

- Please tune in for our Virtual Concert: Faces of Saint Johns Past and Present airing on our website on June 18th at 7pm (sjecc.com)! Featuring Gary Prettyman, Jennine Burkwit, Paul Todd, Tom Oram, Ellie Roberts, Gabi Frei, Regina Fahey, Keith Cute, Regina Baier, and Jillian Iurano performing their favorites! See our flyer for more details!
- Virtual Open Mic Night on the CYO/CAO Music and Arts page coming this summer! Whether you would like to sing, play an instrument, read a poem, or tell some jokes, you are welcome to participate by submitting 3 minute videos (raw footage only please) to jennine@sjecc.com at any time and we will piece all entries together for a virtual open mic night!
- Children's Choir is sadly suspended for the rest of this school year. Please consider registering your child and being a part of this wonderful group which provides beautiful worship and service to our parish family! We had an amazing group this past year and we are looking forward to making more music together. In the meantime, please listen and worship with the Children's Choir playlist on our CYO Naples YouTube page filled with songs they have or will be learning!
- Please keep checking this page for updates on the rescheduling of all our in person activities!

CYO NAPLES YOUTUBE CHANNEL

Check out our CYO Naples YouTube channel! This channel is set up to keep all our CYO Music and Arts students as well CYO Sports participants engaged during this time.

Our instructors and staff are posting challenges and instruction for all our students (whether virtual or those waiting for on campus activities to resume) to continue to be active and further their development with their instrument or sport. Search for CYO Naples on YouTube or click on the link below:

Faces of Saint Johns: Virtual Concert

Join us online for a FREE Virtual Concert featuring our talented Saint John's musicians, past and present!

This concert will air on our website on June 18th at 7pm!
Simply head to our website and enjoy at www.sjecc.com!

Watch and listen to the talent of our parish, as past and present music ministers, cantors, and music and arts instructors unite for the first time ever, performing music that brings them great joy and excitement to share with our parish family members and online community!

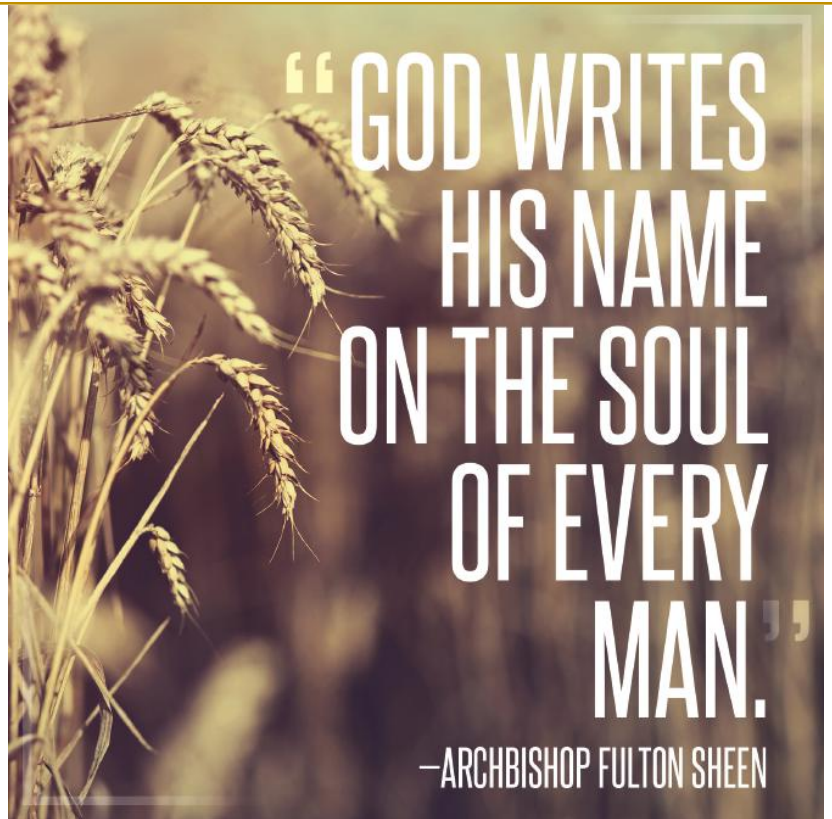

This is a beautiful way for our performers to share their gift of music during this difficult time in hopes that this will bring our parish family the comfort of some familiar faces. Our concert will feature Gary Prettyman, Jennine Burkwit, Tom Oram, Ellie Roberts, Paul Todd, Gabriella Frei, Regina Fahey, Sarah O'Brien, Keith Cute, Regina Baier, and Jillian Iurano.

At the end of the concert, please fill out the accompanying survey and let us know if you would like us to continue with a mini Virtual Concert Series.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you understand the true spiritual meaning of hope? Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness. It is found when we place our trust in Christ's promises and rely not on our own strength, but on the help of the Holy Spirit. Hope, when seen in this way, doesn't set its sights purely on the things of this world but on the promises of God to come. Hope always is linked with faith and love. Often our hope can become too self-focused and something that is only about me and things that matter to me. Christ's resurrection reminds us that it is not ultimately for this purpose. What is the reason for your hope? Our Easter season provides the opportunity for us to again assess whether it is the kingdom of heaven and life eternal or something else.

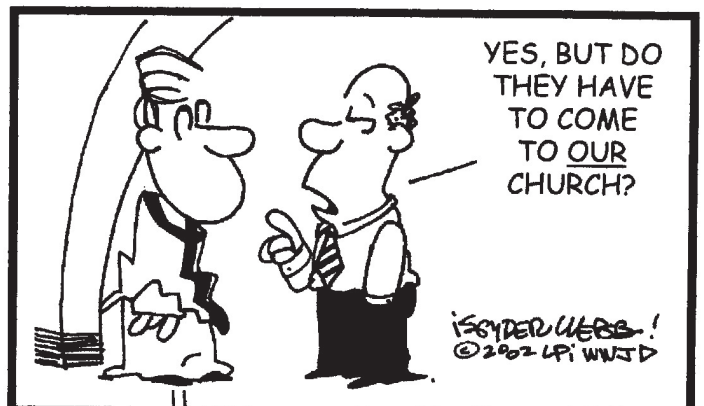

PLEASE CONSIDER ONLINE GIVING

Our parish is grateful for your continued support at this time. Thank you!
