WORSHIP

EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks; we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Pope Francis Message

Pope Francis Echoes “New Normal”

First Public Speech Reinforces Saint John Focus on Social Teaching and Cultural Shift

Not that we would be as presumptuous as to believe that our Holy Father would be reading our Worship Aid Edition of our Bulletin, but in his first public speech after the quarantine was lifted in Rome this past weekend, Pope Francis spoke out on how society should be inexorably altered by the COVID-19 Pandemic and our response to others. He thanked healthcare workers in some of the hardest hit areas of Italy on Saturday, June 20, and called on us all to commit to building the future of our society starting now. He asked us all to band together to create a culture based on closeness to each other and fraternal love, and not to fall back on the illusion of a society based on individualism:

the hospital! And this generates hope. She [turns to the President of the Region] spoke of hope. And this generates hope. You have been one of the pillars of the whole country. My esteem and my sincere thanks go to you here and to your colleagues from all over Italy, and I am well aware of interpreting everyone's feelings.

Now, it's time to treasure all this positive energy that has been invested. Do not forget! It is a wealth that, in part, of course, has gone "without reserve," in the drama of the emergency; but to a large extent it can and must bear fruit for the present and future of Lombard and Italian society. The pandemic has deeply affected people's lives and the history of communities. To honor the suffering of the sick and the many deceased, especially the elderly, whose life experience must not be forgotten, tomorrow must be built: it requires the commitment, strength, and dedication of everyone. It is a matter of starting again from the countless testimonies of generous and gratuitous love, which have left an indelible mark on the consciences and fabric of society, teaching how much there is need of closeness, care, sacrifice to nourish the fraternity and civil coexistence. And, looking to the future, I am reminded of that speech, in the lazar, by Fra Felice, in Manzoni [Promessi sposi, cap. 36 °]: how realistically he looks at tragedy, looks at death, but looks to the future and carries on.

In the whirlwind of an epidemic with shocking and unexpected effects, the reliable and generous presence of medical and paramedical staff has constituted the safe point of reference, first of all for the sick, but in a very special way for family members, which in this case they did not have the opportunity to visit their loved ones. And so they found in you, health workers, almost another family, capable of combining professional competence with those attentions that are concrete expressions of love. Patients often felt they had "angels" at their side, who helped them recover their health and, at the same time, consoled them, supported them, and sometimes accompanied them to the threshold of the final meeting with the Lord. These health workers, supported by the concern of the hospital chaplains, testified to God's closeness to those who suffer; they were silent artisans of the culture of closeness and tenderness. Culture of closeness and tenderness. And you have witnessed it, even in small things: in caresses, even with the mobile phone, to connect the elderly person who was about to die with his son, with his daughter to dismiss them, to see them for the last time; small gestures of love creativity. This has done us all good. Testimony of closeness and tenderness.

In this way, we will be able to get out of this crisis spiritually and morally stronger; and this depends on the conscience and responsibility of each of us. Not alone, however, but together and with the grace of God. As believers, it is up to us to testify that God does not abandon us, but gives meaning in Christ also to this reality and to our limit; that with his help the toughest tests can be faced. God created us for communion, for fraternity, and now more than ever the claim to focus everything on ourselves – it is illusory – to make individualism the guiding principle of society has proved to be illusory. But be careful because, as soon as the emergency is over, it is easy to slip, it is easy to fall back into this illusion. It's easy to quickly forget that we need others, someone to take care of us, to give us courage. Forgetting that we all need a Father who holds out his

Dear doctors and nurses, the world has been able to see how well you have done in a great test situation. Even if exhausted, you have continued to commit yourself with professionalism and self-sacrifice. How many doctors and paramedics, nurses, could not go home and sleep there, where they could because there were no beds, in hand. Praying to him, invoking him, is not an illusion; illusion is to think of doing without it! Prayer is the soul of hope.

In recent months, people have not been able to participate in the liturgical celebrations, but have not stopped feeling like a community. They prayed individually or in the family, also through the means of social communication, spiritually united and perceiving that the embrace of the Lord went beyond the limits of space. The pastoral zeal and creative concern of the priests helped people to continue the path of faith and not to remain alone in the face of pain and fear. This priestly creativity that has won some, few, "adolescent" expressions against the measures of authority, which has the obligation to protect the health of the people. Most of them were obedient and creative. I admired the apostolic spirit of many priests, who came with the telephone, knocking on doors, ringing houses: "Do you need anything? I do the shopping ...". A thousand things. Proximity, creativity, without shame. These priests who remained with their people in caring and daily sharing: they were a sign of the consoling presence of God. They were fathers, not teenagers. Unfortunately, not a few of them have died, as well as doctors and paramedical staff. And also among you there are some priests who have been sick, and thank God they are healed. In you I thank all the Italian clergy, who have shown courage and love to the people.

Dear brothers and sisters, I renew to each of you and to all those who represent my heartfelt appreciation for what you have done in this difficult and complex situation. May the Virgin Mary, venerated in your lands in numerous shrines and churches, accompany you and always support you with his maternal protection. And don't forget that with your work, all of you, doctors, paramedics, volunteers, priests, religious, lay people, who have done this, have started a miracle. Have faith and, as that tailor said, a missed theologian: "I never found that God began a miracle without finishing it well."

[Manzoni, Promessi sposi, chap. 24 °]. May this miracle that you have begun end well! For my part, I continue to pray for you and your communities, and with affection I impart a special Apostolic Blessing to you. And you, please, don't forget to pray for me, I need it. Thank you.

- Pope Francis 6/20/20 http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/it/speeches/2020/june/documents/papa-francesco_20200620_operatorisanitari-lombardia.html

So, how are we going to follow Pope Francis' call to develop a more loving, just, and caring society here at Saint John? Here are a few ways you can help us in living out our "New Normal":

- Support our Essential Workers with Continued Gratitude and Prayers: Saint John has partnered with the Blue Zones Project Southwest Florida for our Bellagram Program. Our church bells ring at 2:20 p.m. each day in celebration of the dedicated essential workers of our community. Please pray with us for their health and safety. If you have a specific worker you would like named in those prayers, please email bellagram@sjecc.com with their first name and occupation, so we can add them to our website.
- Participate in our Prayer Chain for Equality: If you are not at-risk, please join us in person this Sunday, June 28, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., for our Prayer Chain for Equality, as a witness to the reality of racism in our society and the dignity of every person. The Chain will start at the corner of 41 and Pine Ridge. Please wear a mask and maintain appropriate social distancing. If you cannot attend in person, please pray the rosary with us at home during this time.
- Join Our Mass Streaming A/V Ministry: Our online Masses have been considered exemplary, with individuals, families, and even whole convents joining with us daily to celebrate Mass together. This capability was always envisioned when we renewed our church building, especially for funerals and other Liturgical events where including people remotely was a need. Our Mass streaming function has become a permanent fixture for our Parish Family. We will continue to broadcast our Masses daily even when we have fully recovered from the COVID-19 Pandemic Response as we are serving those who cannot come to Mass due to being homebound, or have moved North for the season. In order to continue this service, a new Ministry is being formed, the A/V Ministry. If you would like to assist us with this function, and learn how to work our cameras and sound system, please contact JP Boucher for the next training session.

- Become a Catechist: With the desire to keep everyone safe and healthy, there will be a significant shift of activities and events on our campus for the near future.

Priority must be given to core and essential programs of the Parish Family, and Faith Formation (CCD or Sunday School) is a core area we will be focusing on. Imagine trying to fit over 500 children on our campus two times a week? That is what we did prior to this Pandemic. That will have to change. With more days and times, spreading the youth out for appropriate social distancing, there is no doubt that we will need more adults to assist us. Please contact Natalie Campbell, our Director of Religious Education, at natalie@sjecc.com to find out more on how you can become a catechist and pass our faith on to the next generations.

Thank you all for your continuing dedication and devotion to our Parish Family of Saint John the Evangelist!

God created us for communion, for fraternity. Now more than ever the pretense of focusing everything on ourselves, making individualism society's guiding principle, has proven illusory. We have to be careful! When the emergency is over we can easily fall back into this illusion.

Praying the Mass

As we are in the midst of summer, many children in Faith Formation are viewing Mass at home or are in Mass without the use of the regular missal. As many children are still learning the prayers in the Mass, here are a few prayers, along with the prayers on page 1, to support their participation in Mass.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

2 KGS 4:8-11, 14-16A

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.

Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

Responsorial Psalm PS 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19

R. (2a) For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. The promises of the LORD I will sing forever, through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness. For you have said, "My kindness is established forever;" in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. Blessed the people who know the joyful shout; in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk. At your name they rejoice all the day, and through your justice they are exalted.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. You are the splendor of their strength, and by your favor our horn is exalted. For to the LORD belongs our shield, and the Holy One of Israel, our king.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Reading 2

ROM 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:
Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia

1 PT 2:9

R. Alleluia, alleluia. You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:
"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Verse 1)

Light of the world, you stepped down into darkness
Opened my eyes, let me see
Beauty that made this heart adore you,
Hope of a life spent with you: [to chorus]

Verse 2)

King of all days, oh so highly exalted
Glorious in heaven above
Humbly you came to the earth you created
All for love's sake became poor [to chorus]

So here I am to worship, here I am to bow down, here I am to say that you're my ___ God.
— And you're al-to-ge-ther love-ly, al-to-ge-ther wor-thy, al-to-ge-ther won-der-ful to ___ me. ___

Bridge)

And I'll never know how much it cost to see my sins upon that cross. (repeat 2x more)

Verse 1)

Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful.

Chorus)

Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.

Verse 2)

See his Body, his Blood:
Know that he has overcome ev'ry trial we will face.
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful

Bridge)

Dying you destroyed our death,
Rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus come in glory (repeat line)
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.
