2020 RCIA Candidates Celebrate Their Induction to the Catholic Faith

It takes very devoted individuals to take on the responsibility of joining our faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, or RCIA, and especially during these trying times. These Catechumen and Candidates have journeyed for months accompanied by their sponsors, family, friends and parish staff to become Catholic.

The Pandemic, unfortunately, postponed their rite of initiation, which normally occurs at the Easter Vigil. After much deliberation and direction from the Bishop, Saint John was proud to provide a private service for our RCIA Candidates on July 18, 2020, at 6:30 p.m.

Let us all welcome them into our Parish Family!

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Saint John Financial Dashboard

The Saint John Parish Family and our local community continue to reside in an area heavily impacted by the COVID-19 Pandemic. As such, we need to protect all those we love and are close to us by conforming to the CDC Guidelines, Collier County Ordinances, and our Diocesan Directives. We are blessed to have implemented a significant capability to provide our Masses, Funerals, Weddings, Baptisms, and other Liturgical activities virtually, through our online streaming environment. In fact, we have recently been able to stream (and all our Masses are available to watch afterward, if you miss out) the First Communion and RCIA Initiation Masses, so those who would not normally make it to those celebrations could witness the love and joy felt in joining our faith. It has been commented that we have some of the best Parish-level online Masses in the area, and even nationally. You can always view our online Masses at: <https://saintjohntheevangelist.com/featured/sje-streaming-mass>.

We continue to improve our capability and look forward to the time that we can have our A/V Ministry assist with this now-essential permanent function. It has become clear that our extended Parish Family rely on our online Masses, whether they are homebound due to their risk of infection or for other reasons, or would like to continue to celebrate with us while they are up North. In fact, as you can see from our viewership since the suspension of public Masses, we continue to have a substantial weekly attendance online, with only a temporary dip when we opened the church up again for the first weekends of Masses:

We hope those of you who have used our online Masses have enjoyed the experience as best as can be hoped for when not here with us in person. If you have any suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact JP Boucher, the Business Manager, at jp@sjecc.com.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

God turns everything to our good. It's not possible to go through life without some painful things happening to us. Some we have no control over (e.g. pandemic). Some of these things we bring on ourselves (e.g. alcoholism). Others are things we suffer at the hands of others (e.g. betrayal). And others are things that happen through nobody's fault (e.g. an accident).

Wherever these things come from, they may bring us to a stage where we think that there is no redemption, that nothing can be salvaged, that everything has gone down the river and is irretrievably lost. As a result, we fall prey to feelings of hopelessness and self-pity. We begin to doubt ourselves, to doubt life, and even to doubt God.

Well, for anyone who ever felt like that, St. Paul has a message. He tells us (Second Reading) that God has a saving plan, a purpose, which everything serves. He can turn everything to the benefit of those who trust in Him. He can bring good out of our pain, even out of our sins. This is not to say that God wills bad things to happen to us. No. But when bad things do happen to us, God helps us, not only to pick up the pieces, but to reap a harvest from the wreckage.

There is a story about a king who owned a very valuable diamond. One day an accident happened and the diamond got deeply scratched. The king consulted experts to see if anything could be done to save the diamond. But they told him that even if they were to polish it, they would never be able to repair the wound it had suffered.

So the king locked the diamond in his vault where it lay hidden and useless for years. Then one day a very famous diamond cutter arrived in the capital. At the king's invitation he undertook to examine the diamond to see if anything could be done with it. After examining it carefully, he said, "Your Majesty, I will make the diamond look even more beautiful than it was before the accident." On hearing this the other diamond cutters laughed. But the king was delighted, and gave him permission to work on the diamond.

Bringing all his artistry to bear on it, he proceeded to engrave a beautiful rose on the diamond, using the deep scratch as the stem of the rose. When the king and the diamond cutters saw what he had done they were filled with admiration. It wasn't just a clever cover up. He took the diamond's fault and transformed it into something beautiful.

In the same way, God can help us transform our worst fault into a virtue, our worst misfortune into our greatest blessing. Our troubles are ultimately for our good and can be an atonement for our sins. However, in our pride or foolishness, or just in our sense of hurt, we may throw away the thing that can bring us closer to God and help us grow.

From painful experiences and difficult times, we learn that God is faithful to us and can bring good out of anything.

If we trust Him and have patience, we will see with our own eyes the truth of what Scripture says: "God makes all things work together for the good of those who love Him."

And if the difficult times should return, we will remember what we have learned, what God has already done for us, and we will not lose heart. God sees us more clearly and knows us better than anyone else. He sees our wounds and sorrows, the scars we carry in our hearts. He will be good to us in the end, both in this world and in the next.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
We glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living,
and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

○ What a Night! Finally.

These adults have been preparing to “become Catholic” since last fall. They would normally have been initiated at the Easter Vigil, but with the restrictions this year, it was delayed until a special evening Mass.

The Catechumen were baptized, the Candidates professed the Catholic faith, and all were Confirmed with the Holy Spirit and received Holy Communion. Let’s welcome the newest members of our Church.

“I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

“Yo te bautizo en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espiritu Santo.”

“The Lord receives you into the Catholic Church. His loving kindness has led you here, so that in the unity of the Holy Spirit you may have full communion with us in the faith that you have professed in the presence of his family.”

RCIA Candidates Receive the Sacrament of Initiation

The Sacrament of Confirmation

"Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit" "Sé sellado con el don del Espíritu Santo"

The Sacrament of Eucharist

"This is the body of Christ" "Este es el cuerpo de Cristo"

You or someone you know could be in this picture next Easter. The journey to becoming Catholic provides the opportunity to ask questions about the truth and beauty of our Catholic traditions. The RCIA journey is for those who were never baptized, who were baptized in another Christian tradition, and those who were baptized Catholic as infants but not raised as Catholic. Those whose first language is Spanish are also invited.

Faith Formation

More July First Communion Memories

We are happy to share more highlights from our First Communion summer celebrations this month. We look forward to many more memories as we prepare to celebrate additional First Holy Communions in the Fall.

We pray that everyone stays healthy and well!

Faith Formation Update for 2020-2021 School Year

We plan to open registration for Faith Formation in early August. Please stay tuned as we are working diligently to prepare. Thank you and God Bless you!

Parish Family Gratitude for Our Transitioning Staff

Thank You, Lan, our Sacristan

Many Catholics are not aware of the planning, logistics, and structure needed to successfully perform one of our most sacred moments, the Mass. The Roman Missal, the book of prayers and instructions for celebrating Mass, has over 1500 pages. From the color of the altar cloth to the readings to the positioning of vessels, every detail is planned out for every service. Some are very simple, others, like the beautiful Easter Vigil, take weeks of preparation. When we have between 10 to 2,000 people celebrating together, with various liturgical requirements and unique needs, our church requires a group of people dedicated to supporting the priests, the ministries, and the Parish Family within our church. Those individuals are called Sacristans. It is the responsibility of the Sacristans to prepare the church for Mass and ensure a joyous and positive experience for those serving the Mass (clergy, musicians, lectors, ushers, EMs, and altar servers), and our parishioners and visitors. From opening the church at 7:00 a.m. to closing it up at 6:00 p.m., and for every Baptism, Funeral, and service in between, the Sacristan prepares our church, stocks our liturgical materials, and handles all the details that allow our priests to focus on pastoral support and engagement with all of us. While they may appear invisible sometimes, the Sacristans are the glue of our liturgical environment.

We have been blessed to have Lan Tran as our Sacristan for the past five years. She had volunteered to assist the Sacristan for almost 10 years prior to her employment, so she has amassed over 15 years of service here at Saint John. Lan will continue to support our Parish Family as a volunteer Sacristan as she focuses more on her family, so this is not a goodbye at all. We hope to have Lan with us for at least another 15 years! If you are interested in assisting Lan with this critical responsibility, please contact the Business Manager, JP Boucher, at jp@sjecc.com.

Thanks to Jack for Developing the Best Adult Faith Formation Program!

We are so grateful to Jack Kindsvater for all his hard work and dedication that he poured into his role as Adult Faith Formation Coordinator and RCIA Leader these past five years at St. John. Jack was successful in establishing thriving adult programs and building a passionate team of adult leaders in ministry. Jack and his team provided a “first class” experience of Adult Faith Formation as well as wonderful hospitality! Jack also provided support to the parents of children in Faith Formation by offering parent education while children were in class sessions. As we initiated new members into the church this past weekend, under his fearless leadership, we are grateful for his endless efforts and great collaboration in Faith Formation. While our current condition in this time of pandemic has called for restructuring of our lead positions in Faith Formation, we are grateful for Jack’s service and look forward to his consultation and guidance as we move forward. Thank you, Jack!

Our Rock, Deb Marsh, Retiring as Parish Secretary

When it came to solving any issue or challenge our staff needed to overcome for our Parish Family, Deborah Marsh, our Parish Secretary, was the go-to person. From her wealth of knowledge about our church’s history to her ability to solve any problem thrown at her, Deb is always willing to help out. She dealt with our families at the best of times, like Baptisms, as well as the worst of times, like when she planned funerals for loved ones. Deb managed our essential Parish Records, ensuring they were up to date, as well as our volunteer program, including fingerprinting and background checks. Deb will be missed by our staff, but luckily, she is not going anywhere and will continue to be a valuable part of our Parish Family for years to come. Thank you, Deb!

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

1 KGS 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this—not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right—I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

Responsorial Psalm PS 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130

R. (97a) Lord, I love your commands.

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words. The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Let your kindness comfort me according to your promise to your servants. Let your compassion come to me that I may live, for your law is my delight.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

For I love your command more than gold, however fine. For in all your precepts I go forward; every false way I hate.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Wonderful are your decrees; therefore I observe them. The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Reading 2

ROM 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

Alleluia

CF. MT 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 13:44-52 OR 13:44-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

or

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Prayer for Protection during Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

[Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

Mass Worship Aid

5:00 p.m. Mass Music Worship Aid – Sunday, July 26, 2020 The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Opening Song                      Here I Am to Worship                      Tim Hughes                      CCLI Song No. 3266032. © 2000 Thankyou Music (Admin. by EMI Christian Music Publishing) Tim Hughes. All rights Reserved. CCLI License #2008891.

Verse 1)
Light of the world,
you stepped down into darkness
Opened my eyes, let me see
Beauty that made this heart adore you,
Hope of a life spent with you: [to chorus]

Verse 2)
King of all days, oh so highly exalted
Glorious in heaven above
Humbly you came to the earth you created
All for love's sake became poor: [to chorus]

So here I am to worship, here I am to bow down, here I am to say that you're my ___ God.
— And you're al-to-ge-ther love-ly, al-to-ge-ther wor-thy, al-to-ge-ther won-der-ful to ___ me. ___

Bridge)
And I'll never know how much it cost to see my sins upon that cross. (repeat 2x more)

Preparation Song                      I Shall Not Want                      Audrey Assad | Bryan Brown                      CCLI Song # 7004369 © 2013

Verse 1)
From the love of my own comfort
From the fear of having nothing
From a life of worldly passions
Deliver me O God

Verse 2)
From the need to be understood
And from a need to be accepted
From the fear of being lonely
Deliver me O God
Deliver me O God

Chorus)
And I shall not want
No I shall not want
When I taste Your goodness
I shall not want
When I taste Your goodness
I shall not want

Verse 3)
From the fear of serving others
Oh and from the fear of death or trial
And from the fear of humility
Deliver me O God
Yes deliver me O God

Chorus 2)
And I shall not want
No I shall not want
When I taste Your goodness
I shall not want
No I shall not want
No I shall not want
When I taste Your goodness
I shall not want
When I taste Your goodness
I shall not want
I shall not want
Shall not want

Communion Song

Hungry

Kathryn Scott

CCLI Song No. 2650364 © 1999 Vineyard Songs (UK/Eire)

(Admin. by Vineyard Music UK). Kathryn Scott. All rights Reserved. Reprinted under CCLI License No. 2008891.

Verse 1)

Hungry I come to you for I know you satisfy
I am empty but I know your love does not run dry
And so I wait for you; so I wait for you (chorus:)

Verse 2)

Broken I run to you for your arms are open wide
I am weary, but I know your touch restores my life
And so I wait for you; so I wait for you (chorus:)

I'm fall - ing on my knees, of - fer - ing all of me.
Je - sus. You're all this heart is liv - ing for.

Closing Song

Lord, I Lift Your Name On High

Rick Founds

CCLI Song No. 117947. © 1990 Maranatha Praise,

Inc. All rights Reserved. CCLI License No. 2008891.

Lord, I lift Your name on high; Lord, I love to sing Your prais - es. I'm so glad You're in my life;
I'm so glad You came to save us.
I'm so glad You came to save us.
my debt to pay; From the cross to the grave,
from the grave to the sky; Lord, I lift Your name on high.

Adoration

Adoration Available Beginning Monday, June 27, 2020

In order to provide a safe and appropriate faith environment for our Parish Family, Saint John the Evangelist will be establishing a temporary Adoration Chapel within our Parish Activity Center Rome Room (immediately behind the Church building). We will have Adoration available Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. We have chosen Rome, as there is enough space for 10 people to socially distance while retaining the intimacy of a Chapel. With funerals and other services within our church building, using Rome will allow for a consistent availability for Adoration.

Access to Rome as our temporary Adoration Chapel will be provided via fobs, just like the Adoration Chapel at the church was prior to the closure. If you have not received your fob yet, please come to the Front Office during our business hours (Monday – Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.), and we will provide you with one.

We ask that you respect the following guidelines when using the temporary chapel:

- The maximum amount of people allowed in Rome is 10. If there are already 10 people in the room, please wait outside until an individual leaves before beginning to pray.
- Please wear a mask at all times while in the room.
- Please do not attempt to enter any other part of the facility. Access to Rome is for praying only.
- Please use your own hand sanitizer or the provided stand of sanitizer to ensure your safety.
- Please wipe down any surfaces you may touch or lean on (kneelers, etc.) with the provided wipes.
- Please do not let anyone in that does not have a fob. They must come to the Front Office to receive their fob before entering the Chapel.

We hope this additional opportunity for prayer and adoration will assist our Parish Family in connection with our Catholic Faith.
