My Own Church: Accessing Your Saint John Information

We are very blessed at Saint John to have constant improvements that will continue to enhance the faith journey of our Parish Family. One of the latest improvements is the implementation of our My Own Church System. My Own Church is a web-based application that provides a personal portal into your family's church records, including giving, Faith Formation, and much more. You can change your address, Register for Faith Formation classes, and view your history of Stewardship right in the application.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Mother Teresa told how she once came across a Hindu family that hadn't eaten for days. She took a small quantity of rice and gave it to the family. What happened next surprised her. Without a moment's hesitation the mother of the family divided up the rice into two. Then she took one half of it to the family next door. Seeing this, Mother Teresa said to her, "How much will you have left over? Aren't there enough of yourselves?" "But they haven't eaten for days either," the woman replied. Generosity such as that makes us humble.

The miracle of the loaves and fishes could be called a miracle of generosity. First of all there is the marvelous generosity of the boy who, with his gift of five loaves and two fish, made the miracle possible. It was a small thing in itself, but for the little boy it was a big thing because it was all he had. It's easy to give something that we won't really miss. But when the gift is as desperately needed by the giver as by the receiver, that is true giving. That is a sacrifice.

Then there was the marvelous generosity of Jesus. To appreciate this we need to consider the circumstances of the miracle. It's easy to reach out to others when it doesn't cause us much inconvenience. Not so easy when it is sprung on us at an awkward moment. Here a real sacrifice is involved. We have to set aside our plans, and forget about ourselves. So it was with Jesus. He had just learned that his cousin, John, had been murdered. He needed peace and quiet. That is why He and the apostles crossed to the far side of the lake. But when He stepped out of the boat, He found a crowd of people waiting for him. He might have gotten angry and sent them away. Instead, He had compassion on them and gave Himself completely to them.

Then there was the sheer generosity of His response to the hunger of the people. Not only did He feed them, but He saw to it that each got as much as He wanted, and even so, there were twelve full baskets left over.

You can see then why this could be called a miracle of generosity. Generosity is not always about giving things. More often it is about giving of ourselves, of our time, our gifts. Giving things can be easy, but giving of oneself is never easy. Before giving Himself as food and drink in the Eucharist, Jesus gave of Himself to people in so many other ways.

The story of the feeding of the multitude was treasured by the early Christians. The miracle recalled the Old Testament story of manna in the desert. For them, Jesus was the new Moses who feeds his people in the desert. Then they saw in this feeding an anticipation of the Eucharist. It was at the table of the Eucharist that Jesus nourished them.

And it is here that Jesus nourishes us now. Only at God's table can we get the nourishment our hearts are longing for. In the Eucharist, we are nourished with the Word of God and the Bread of Life. And having invited us to partake of the banquet of life on earth, God has invited us to partake of the banquet of eternal life in heaven.

As the people went back to their homes at the end of that day, they knew they had experienced the goodness and love of God – that love Paul talks about, a love from which nothing can separate us.

In the Eucharist, we taste the love of God. The proof that we have experienced that love will be our willingness to love others. We may be able to give only in small ways and in small amounts. However, from the little boy in the Gospel, we see that a small amount can become a big amount when placed in the hands of the Lord.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
We glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Faith Formation 2020-2021 Plans to Open In-Person and Virtually

Plans are underway for our Faith Formation Program to open this fall near the last week in September. As part of our developing plan, we will offer class in person with social distancing and require masks to be worn. We will also have additional guidelines to create the safest environment possible. We are working to develop an online platform for children who are not yet ready to return to Faith Formation in person due to the circumstances surrounding the current pandemic. Thank you in advance for your patience as we put our teams together to minister to your families. Below are a few answers to questions that we hope may be helpful to you. We are looking forward to welcoming you all in the fall!

FAQs about the upcoming Faith Formation Year

1. When will you be offering in-person Faith Formation K-8?

Sessions will be available on Wednesdays from 4:30-5:30 p.m. or 6:00-7:00 p.m. Sunday sessions will be offered from 8:30-9:30 a.m. or 10:00-11:00 a.m. Sessions will likely run from the end of September through the end of May.

2. When do we register for Faith Formation?

The Faith Formation office plans to launch online registration in early August through the end of August. Families will be able to select their class sessions and make payments online. Classes will be limited to 9-12 students, depending on the size of the classroom. There will also be additional diocesan forms to complete online once your child is registered. Families that were enrolled in Faith Formation for the 2019-2020 school year will be receiving an email soon with registration information. Families not enrolled in Faith Formation last year can check out our website at www.sjecc.com, where we will have that information soon.

3. Why are the sessions only an hour this year instead of an hour and a half?

With the need to social distance and have smaller class sizes, we are offering additional sessions on Wednesdays and Sundays. Each session will allow for 30 minutes in between so that we can properly clean. Several of our catechists are willing to teach double sessions, so this schedule will be helpful to them as well. To make up for lost time, we plan to offer additional sessions in May.

4. Will families seeking virtual Faith Formation need to register as well?

Yes. This will help us to identify the needs of our parish community.

5. What is the cost for Faith Formation?

Our registration fees will be the same as last year. For the first child, the fee is $65.00. Each additional child is $35.00. Children who are in the Sacrament Year 2 have an additional $35.00 fee. This applies to First Communion as well as Confirmation. Private Catholic School children receiving First Holy Communion who meet the requirements have a fee of $75.00.

6. What about High School Confirmation?

Our High School Confirmation sessions will be offered on Sundays, approximately twice a month from October through May. Sessions are tentatively scheduled for 11:30-12:30 p.m., 3:30-4:30 p.m., and 6:00-7:00 p.m. Spaces will be limited in each session. There will be online registration as well for this group. Youth entering their first and second year of Confirmation preparation will need to register for a session online and complete payment. Our Confirmation Candidates in their third year who were originally scheduled to receive Confirmation in May will not need to register online. Necessary paperwork will be emailed to families, and there will be no additional fee. A date for their Confirmation is still pending.

Thank you all for your patience and understanding! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of our families, and we look forward to continuing to serve you. Stay healthy and well! For additional information, please feel free to reach out to Natalie Campbell, Director of Religious Education at Natalie@sjecc.com or 239-566-8740 ext. 3909.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1 IS 55:1-3

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

Responsorial Psalm PS 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R. (cf. 16) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness. The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Reading 2 ROM 8:35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Alleluia MT 4:4B

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel MT 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." But they said to him, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." Then he said, "Bring them here to me," and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

THE POWER OF A SIMPLE ACTION

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, "I haven't been this happy in some time." Imagine the joy that relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

Blessed be your name in the land that is plentiful,
Where your streams of abundance flow, blessed be your name.
Blessed be your name, when I'm found in the desert place,
Though I walk through the wilderness, blessed be your name.
(chorus, below)

Verses 3 & 4)

Blessed be your name when the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be, blessed be your name
Blessed be your name on the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering, blessed be your name.
(to chorus, below)

Bridge)

You give and take away; you give and take away
My heart will choose to say, "Lord, blessed be your name!" (to chorus, below)

Ev - 'ry bless - ing    You pour out    I'll                      turn back to    praise.

When the dark - ness    clos - es    in,    Lord,                      still I will say,    "Bless - ed be the name    of    the    Lord,                      bless - ed be Your    name.                      Bless - ed be the name    of    the    Lord,                      bless - ed be Your    glo - ri - ous    name."

Verse 1) From the love of my own comfort, From the fear of having nothing, From a life of worldly passions, Deliver me O God Chorus) It's the power of Your presence that changes us. Your glory all around us and we're undone. You open up the heavens and fall afresh on us.

Verse 2) Let this be a house where You long to stay. Ever will You meet us face to face. Abandoned here before You we want nothing else Than just to be with You and You alone Bridge) Holy Spirit fill this heart again. Holy Spirit burn like fire within.

Ending) Fall afresh on us, Fall afresh on us, Fall afresh on us

Communion Song

We Are One Body

Dana Scallon

Chorus) We are one body, one body in Christ; and we do not stand alone. We are one body, one body in Christ; and he came that we might have life.

Verse 1) When you eat my body and you drink my blood, I will live in you and you will live in my love. When you eat my body and you drink my blood, I will live in you and you will live in my love. And so I wait for you; so I wait for you (chorus:)

Verse 2) Can you hear them crying, can you feel their pain? Will you feed my hungry, will you help my lame? See the unborn baby, the forgotten one, they are not forsaken, they are not unloved.

Verse 3) I am the Way, the Truth, the Life, I am the Final Sacrifice, I am the Way, the Truth, the Life; he who believes in me will have eternal life. I am the Way, the Truth, the Life, I am the Final Sacrifice, I am the Way, the Truth, the Life; he who believes in me will have eternal life. (to Verse 4) Verse 4) I have come, your Savior, that you might have life, through the tears and sorrow, through the toils and strife. Listen when I call you, for I know your need, come to me, your shepherd, for my flock I feed.

Verse 5) At the name of Jesus ev'ry knee shall bend; Jesus is the Lord and he will come again. At the name of Jesus ev'ry knee shall bend; Jesus is the Lord and he will come again.

Verse 6) On the rock of Peter, see my Church I build. Come receive my spirit, with my gifts be filled. For you are my body, you're my hands and feet. Speak my word of life to ev'ryone you meet.

Verse 1)

Everyone needs compassion,
Love that's never failing; let mercy fall on me.
Everyone needs forgiveness,
The kindness of a Savior, the hope of nations:

Verse 2)

So take me as you find me,
All my fears and failures; fill my life again.
I give my life to follow
Everything I believe in, now I surrender: (to Chorus)
