Founder of Knights of Columbus to be Beatified This Year: Fr. Michael McGivney Will Be Remembered on Wednesday, August 12

Venerable Michael J. McGivney laid the groundwork for what is now the largest Catholic fraternal service organization in the world. He has inspired generations of Catholic men to roll up their sleeves and put their faith into action. Today his spirit continues to shape the extraordinary charitable work of Knights as they serve their parishes and those on the margins of society as he served widows and orphans in the 1880s.

Today, there are more than two million members of the Knights of Columbus in some 15,000 councils located in more than a dozen countries around the world. In 2019, these Knights together donated $187 million to charity and provided 77 million hours of volunteer work. Over the past decade, the Order has donated more than $1.6 billion to worthy causes.

Born August 12, 1852, in Waterbury, Connecticut, of Irish immigrant parents, he was the eldest of 13 children, six of whom died at an early age. After finishing elementary school, he joined his father in a brass mill for three years to help with the family's financial needs. A local priest was instrumental in enrolling him in a seminary when he was 16. However, his schooling was cut short in 1873 when his father died. This event introduced him to the effect the loss of a breadwinner can have on a family. After resuming his studies, he completed seminary and was ordained in Baltimore on December 22, 1877. His first assignment was to St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut.

While at St. Mary's, Fr. McGivney witnessed the anti-Catholic sentiment the Irish-American immigrant community was experiencing. He worked tirelessly to keep his flock close to the faith by finding practical solutions to their many problems

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Known for his devotion to the faith and embodiment of the characteristics of the “Good Samaritan,” the Archdiocese of Hartford opened a cause for his sainthood in 1997. The diocesan investigation was closed in 2000 and the case passed on to Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Vatican City.

In March 2003, St. Pope John Paul II lauded Father McGivney’s principles and vision of “seeking new ways of being a leaven of the Gospel in the world and a spiritual force for the renewal of the Church in holiness, unity and truth.”

On March 15, 2008, Pope Benedict XVI approved a decree citing McGivney’s foresight and zeal in establishing the Knights of Columbus as a remarkable and exemplary accomplishment, thereby declaring him a Venerable Servant of God.

Earlier this year, in an address to the Knights of Columbus Board of Directors, Pope Francis said the organization has been faithful “to the vision of your founder, Venerable Michael McGivney, who was inspired by the principles of Christian charity and fraternity to assist those most in need.”

On May 27, 2020, Pope Francis approved a miracle attributed to the intercession of Fr. McGivney which involved the healing of an unborn child’s life-threatening condition while in utero. The pope’s action means that Father McGivney can be declared “Blessed,” the step just prior to sainthood. An additional miracle attributed to Father McGivney’s intercession will be required for his canonization as a saint.

The beatification Mass for Fr. Michael McGivney is scheduled for October 31, 2020, in Connecticut, according to the Congregation for Saints’ Causes.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

For a period of time, there was a brand of clothing that many young people were wearing. It was called No Fear. The name conveyed an attitude that one could do anything fearlessly. In a world of danger and violence, this could be alarming. But in a world of faith and unity centered on Jesus Christ, it can and must be the motto for living.

One of the most unpleasant human emotions is fear. We fear losses, suffering, helplessness, and worst of all, the unknown. We see all these deepest fears coming together in the lives of the disciples in our Gospel story today. One can't imagine a more fearful situation in the darkness of night than to be in the midst of a storm in a little boat and to see an image of someone walking on the water coming toward you. The fear must have been tremendous.

Nonetheless, Peter gets out of the boat and attempts the impossible. As long as Peter focuses on Jesus, there is no fear. It is only when Peter gets distracted by the wind and waves that fear enters in and he begins to sink. Even then, the loving hand of Jesus is extended to him, and He pulls Peter to safety. This action not only reinforces Peter's relationship to Christ, but also his faith in Christ.

We need to be honest with ourselves about the fears of our lives. Some people share similar fears – losses, suffering, and helplessness. But there are many other types of fear – the effects of age, debilitating diseases, depression, doubts, being able to make a living, keeping our children safe, the future, and one of the biggest fears of all, death. So much of our fear is wrapped up in the unknown.

The fears of life, no matter what they are, can dissipate when we know God. We come to know His presence by knowing who He is, what He does and what He has planned for us. For Christians, this happens in a wonderful way through Jesus. Through Jesus, God reveals himself to us and forms a loving relationship with us. Through Jesus we know God and recognize his presence and power in our life. Those who don't know God try to find Him in great signs like wind, fire, and earthquakes, but He won't be there. Through Jesus, we come to know God like Elijah, recognizing Him in the tiny whispering sounds of life, the beauty of life, and the simple things of life. It is there that God reveals His love to us, knowledge about his Kingdom, and how to live our life and carry our crosses.

If we know God and recognize Him, then, like Peter, we can walk in faith on the troubled waters of life. In the midst of troubles, we can know peace because we do not live in fear. We do not fear suffering, loss, or helplessness. We do not fear the future. We do not even fear death, not because of our own power, but because when we know God, we know our future, we know our value, and we know what awaits us.

Maybe the phrase No Fear should be the logo for all Christian clothing. It is the perfect motto for Christian living. With our eyes fixed on Christ, we must have No Fear of whatever life throws at us. And if some fear sneaks in, we can trust that Jesus has an outstretched hand to catch us and tell us not to fear, for He is always with us.

New Opportunity for Volunteering: A/V Ministry Streams Mass for Thousands to Watch

We are so very blessed to be able to provide one of the most engaging and high-quality online Mass experiences in the area, and even in the country. We receive tremendous feedback on a weekly basis on our streaming Masses, from our Parish Family Members that are unable to come to Mass due to the inherent risk during this Pandemic, as well as for those that are out of the area, and even from wonderful virtual guests that have found us through our various Internet environments and media connections. Our viewership continues to be impressive, with around 8,000 views (impressions) a weekend:

This has continued to translate into wonderful gifts to our Parish Family, some of which are coming from around the county, through our Online Giving System. It has buoyed our Parish Environment during these extremely challenging times. We see our Virtual Masses as an essential service that we are providing to our Parish Family and Friends.

Streaming our Masses takes a mixture of skills both in technology and the arts. Framing shots that engage the virtual audience as well as being able to hear the difference in the voices of the Priest, Cantor, and Lector to make subtle changes are all visual and audio arts, perfectly suited to an A/V Ministry. As such, we would love to find members of our Parish Family that would be interested in learning these skills and our system in order to assist us in continuing this capability permanently. We will be streaming our Daily Masses and as many Weekend Masses as we can and in order to do so, we need Ministry members willing to commit to shooting the Masses. The tasks of this Ministry would entail managing the video cameras and sound system of the church during the Mass, providing an engaging experience for our virtual Parish Family Members who are watching remotely.

If you would like to assist us with broadcasting our Masses online, please reach out to JP Boucher, our Business Manager, at jp@sjecc.com, so he can set up a time to introduce you to the system.

BEING HUMAN IS TO DOUBT

Humans doubt. It's what we do. We doubt ourselves and we doubt others.

Before any of us say anything about Peter's doubting the words of Jesus that told him he could get out of his boat and walk on water, we need to get real with ourselves: How would I respond in the same situation? I remember when I was child taking swimming lessons. One day I simply tightened up my muscles and sank. The lifeguard pulled me up and asked what happened. I said I did not know. The truth is that I was sinking under the weight of my own doubt. I did not believe I could do what clearly, I was told I could. That was only in five feet of water in a pool! Now that I'm older, I can look back and laugh. But an adult, the swimming pool is life, and I would be lying if I said that there are no longer times I find myself sinking due to new doubts.

Much of our doubt comes about because of a lack of trust in God. We place our trust in material things, wealth, or imperfect people instead of the One who is worthy of our trust 100 percent of the time. Our stewardship is often hampered by our doubt that God will provide all that we need. If I give more, I may not have enough to survive! When we place all our trust in God, not only do we find that we have been given all we need – our doubt that cause us to sink in the pool of life fades away. We don't suddenly become perfect in our trust, and there will be times when we find ourselves with concerns again. However, it is in those moments we find that He is still there, speaking the words we need to hear: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

1 KGS 19:9A, 11-13A

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter. Then the LORD said to him, "Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by." A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake—but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake there was fire—but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound. When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm PS 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD — for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Reading 2

ROM 9:1-5

Brothers and sisters: I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie; my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites; theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; theirs the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Alleluia

PS 130:5

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for his word.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Verse 1)
You call me out upon the waters
The great unknown where feet may fail
And there I find you in the mystery
In oceans deep my faith will stand (to Chorus)

Verse 2)
Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide
Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me
You've never failed and you won't start now

And I will call up-on your__Name and keep my eyes a-bove the__waves. When o - ceans rise, my soul will rest in your em - brace, for I am yours and you are__mine.

Bridge)
Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters, wherever you would call me
Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger in the Presence of my Savior (repeat, then Chorus)

Verse 1)
Grander earth has quaked before
Moved by the sound of His voice
Seas that are shaken and stirred
Can be calmed and broken for my regard

Chorus)
Through it all through it all, My eyes are on You
Through it all through it all, It is well
Through it all through it all, My eyes are on You
And it is well with me

Verse 2)
Far be it from me to not believe
Even when my eyes can't see
And this mountain that's in front of me
Will be thrown into the midst of the sea

Bridge)
So let go my soul and trust in Him
The waves and wind still know His name

Ending)
It is well with my soul
It is well with my soul
It is well with my soul
It is well it is well with my soul

Closing Song      Did You Feel the Mountains Tremble      Martin Smith / Delirious?      CCLI Song No. 1097028. © 1994 Curious? Music UK. All rights Reserved. Used with permission under CCLI License No. 2008891.

Verse 1)
Did you feel the mountains tremble?
Did you hear the oceans roar when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2)
Did you feel the people tremble?
Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-Chorus)
And we can see that,
God, you're moving,
a mighty river through the nations;
and young and old will turn to Jesus.
Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
prepare the way of the risen Lord!
(Chorus)

Chorus)
Open up the doors
and let the music play
Let the streets resound with singing!
Songs that bring your hope,
songs that bring your peace,
Dancers who dance upon injustice!

Verse 3)
Do you feel the darkness tremble
when all the saints join in one song, and all the streams flow as one river
to wash away our brokenness?

Pre-Chorus 2)
And here we see that,
God, you're moving;
a time of jubilee is coming,
when young and old return to Jesus.
Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
prepare the way of the risen Lord!
(Chorus)
