Assisting Hurricane Laura Victims as a Parish Family

Remembering Irma's Impact Calls Us to Respond to Laura

Our Parish Family has witnessed the terror and damage of a major hurricane first-hand. Our strength, fortitude, and resilience from surviving through Hurricane Irma now allows us to live our our Mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God on a daily basis. It is the work of the Holy Spirit that calls us to support our brothers and sisters dealing with the impact of Hurricane Laura, as the national community supported us nearly three years ago. Please prayerfully consider a gift so that we can provide the direct assistance to Catholic Charities of Southwest Louisiana Diocese of Lake Charles with funds to purchase essential items for their Parishes and Communities.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Many of us still recoil at these images that mirror some of our own experiences from just three years ago:

Saint John the Evangelist will provide direct assistance to the community of Lake Charles through our connection with Catholic Charities of Southwest Louisiana as well as through the National Council of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. As a Parish Family, we hope we can all prayerfully consider a gift to support those that are experiencing the same heartache and pain that we did. We will be providing an online donation opportunity through Saint John that will go directly to those in need for food, emergency shelter, and other necessities: Saint John Hurricane Laura Support

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

The Gospel raises a very practical issue: how to act when someone close to you is treating you badly. Obviously these kind of problems occurred even in the first Christian community. Today's Gospel gives us a way of tackling a problem like this. First of all, however, let us take a look at the usual way the injured party goes about solving the problem.

We begin by keeping it to ourselves. It may be that we are ashamed or simply unable to talk about it to anyone. So we pretend that everything is normal. Meanwhile we brood over the injury. This tends to magnify it. We become sullen and sour and depressed, and may cut the offender off as a kind of revenge.

Eventually, unable to keep it to ourselves, we begin to tell others about it – friends, neighbors, relatives. Sometimes total strangers are brought into it. We bring them in, not as advisers, but as people who will corroborate our reading of the situation and who will sympathize with us. The last person to hear about the hurt is often the person who is causing it.

Today's Gospel shows that there is another approach. We should confront the person who is causing the hurt. Indeed, we have a duty to do so. Failure to do so shows a lack of love for the person. Confrontation takes courage and involves risk. But sometimes a little honest talking may clear the air. The person may not be aware of the extent of the hurt he is causing. He may see the light at once, and you have won him over.

The confrontation should not be done in anger or annoyance. Nor should it be done out of a desire to get even. It must be done out of concern for him, too, not just out of a desire to appease one's own wounded pride. Also, before we do it, we should examine our own conscience to see if maybe we are not partly to blame.

The highest point we can attain in a confrontation is when we get the other person to see what he had done wrong and to condemn it himself. If he repents, forgiveness must be warm and without limits or conditions.

If he refuses to see the light, what then? We should seek advice. We should get one or two wise people and enlist their help to face him. The rabbis had a very wise saying: "Judge not alone, for none may judge alone but God."

If even then we fail, we should go to the community. Community need not necessarily mean the Church. It could mean family or some other group of concerned and responsible people. The whole aim of the exercise is not to score points against one's brother, but to help him to amend his ways, and to be reconciled with him. To seek reconciliation is, according to Christ, more important even than offering sacrifice to God. If at the end of the day, reconciliation proves to be impossible, then the verdict you (and the community) come to will be ratified by God. But reconciliation can happen, and it leads to great growth for both parties. Reconciliation is hard, but for that reason it should not be left untried. Needless to say, the Christian will pray about it. Prayer disposes one to follow Christ's approach.

Becoming Catholic

Have You (or Someone You Know) Ever Thought About Becoming Catholic?

During this time of pandemic upheaval in all our lives, we each need Jesus' presence more than ever to help us endure our trials and have the grace to move forward on our earthly journey. Perhaps this is the time Jesus is calling you to follow Him and start that journey in the Catholic way of life.

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is a process designed to prepare adults to come into full initiation of the Catholic Church, and be a part of Jesus' loving community of Saint John and the Universal Catholic Church.

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church is a welcoming community of faith, and is here to support you as you share your story with us to come to believe in the person of Jesus Christ. We invite you to ask your questions about this process, and to explore the beauty of sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition to develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The RCIA Journey is for:

- Never Baptized
- Baptized in Another Christian Tradition
- Baptized Catholic as an infant but not raised as a Catholic or Received Additional Sacraments

For our Parish Family:

Encourage and invite your family members, friends, co-workers, or others to "knock on the door" of Saint John to welcome them to explore and embrace the Catholic faith.

Prayer for Protection during Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

Dispensation for Sunday Mass

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

August 26, 2020

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During the month of September, as Holy Mother Church devotionally commemorates Our Lady of Sorrows, allow me to express my ongoing concern for the wellbeing of the Faithful of the Diocese of Venice. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, may you and your family be uplifted in hope as together we face the challenges of the Covid-19 Pandemic.

Subtle signs of hope are emerging. For example, our Catholic Schools were able to open. The Clergy and Faithful of the Diocese have done commendable work in promoting safety. As a result, Church attendance is gradually improving. More of the Faithful, feeling the urgent need for the Holy Eucharist, have decided it is safe to return to worship in person. With your fellow citizens, you are adjusting to safety measures as you shop, return to restaurants, and resume much of your normal activities. Data about the Coronavirus, while not indicating the threat is over, appears to be slowly moving in a positive direction.

There is still a need to protect those most at risk, persons in convalescent homes or with serious health conditions as well as the elderly. For this reason, after consultation, the dispensation given to all the Faithful, from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass, will be extended in the Diocese of Venice until All Saints Day, November 1, 2020. Also, live streaming of the Mass will continue during this time.

The continuation of this extraordinary measure allows those who are sick to feel comfortable staying home as well as helps the vulnerable avoid the risk of larger gatherings. It is hoped that those who are healthy and involved in other activities while observing the necessary precautions will, despite the dispensation, return to their Parishes for Sunday Mass. Our Parishes are safely celebrating the Holy Eucharist with a congregation. If necessary, Parishes could adjust Mass schedules to allow for the observance of Covid-19 protocols and safely accommodate those who wish to attend Sunday Mass. As Catholics, our worship is not an individual exercise. Rather, it is the way of experiencing communion with God and unity with our brothers and sisters.

Please remember the importance of being united in prayer. Your prayers bring needed comfort to those affected by Covid-19 and inspire you to practice the virtues of Faith, Hope, and Love. Through prayer we manifest empathy and show solidarity with all who are engaged in a physical or spiritual battle with the Coronavirus.

Your understanding and cooperation in these matters has been greatly appreciated. Let us continue to remain safe, observe the protocols about face-coverings, carefully wash hands, and maintain safe distances. In addition, you are encouraged to extend a helping hand to your neighbors in need of hope or healing. No doubt, there are challenging times ahead. Still, we can face these days with faith and courage because Our Lord is with us, and Our Lady and the Saints intercede for us.

Be assured of my prayer for the wellbeing of the Faithful, as well as the prayers of our Priests. May God bless and protect you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

FORMED Pick of the Week – Mary of Nazareth

On September 8th, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To celebrate with the Church, our “Pick of the Week” on Formed.org is Mary of Nazareth.

Mary of Nazareth is an epic motion picture on the life of Mary, Mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Shot in high definition, it was filmed in Europe with outstanding cinematography, a strong cast, and a majestic music score. Actress Alissa Jung gives a beautiful, compelling, and inspiring portrayal of Mary.

The film vividly captures the essence of Mary's profound faith and trust in God amidst the great mysteries that she lived with as the Mother of the Messiah, as well as her compassionate humanity and concern for others, and the deep love that she and Jesus shared for one another. The movie underscores her special role in God's plan for our redemption, her unique relationship with Christ, and the tremendous suffering that she endured in union with his Passion and Death, as well as her serene joy at his Resurrection.

This movie is not rated, but was created with an adult audience in mind. It may contain violence indicative of the life and times of the saint or character portrayed. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.

FORMED leverages the power of today's technology to help you grow in your faith. FORMED is easy to access. For parishioners who have not previously registered, simply:

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

EZ 33:7-9

Thus says the LORD: You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel; when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me. If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die," and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself.

Responsorial Psalm PS 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9

R. (8) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; let us acclaim the rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us. For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the desert, Where your fathers tempted me; they tested me though they had seen my works."

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Reading 2

ROM 13:8-10

Brothers and sisters: Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Alleluia

2 COR 5:19

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Verse 1)
Water you turned into wine
opened the eyes of the blind;
There's no one like you,
none like you

Verse 2)
Into the darkness you shine,
out of the ashes we rise;
There's no one like you,
none like you (Chorus)

Bridge)
And if our God is for us,
then who could ever stop us?
And if our God is with us,
then what could stand against?
(repeat, then back to Chorus)

Chorus

Our God is great - er, our God is stron - ger; God, you are high - er than an - y-oth - er.

5 Our God is Heal - er, awe-some in pow - er, our ³ God, ___ our ³ God. ___

Verse 1)
Lord, I come, I confess;
bowing here, I find my rest
And without you, I fall apart:
you're the One that guides my heart
(to Chorus)

Verse 2)
Where sin runs deep,
your grace is more;
where grace is found is where you are
And where you are, Lord, I am free:
Holiness is Christ in me! (to Chorus)

One Bread, One Body

John Foley, S.J.

Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE #A-

One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man no more.
One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all.
One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one for all.
One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

They'll Know We Are Christians

Peter Scholtes

Reprinted with permission under

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord

And we pray that our unity will one day be restored
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love
Yeah they'll know we are Christians by our love

We will work with each other, we will work side by side
We will work with each other, we will work side by side

And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love
Yeah, they'll know we are Christians by our love.
