Respect for Life – October 3 & 4

This weekend, we celebrate the life that God has given to all humanity. He knew us even in our mother's womb. We keep in our memory and prayers the 60 million unborn babies who have lost their lives to abortion since 1973, and the millions of mothers, fathers, and families affected by this "choice." Please pray for an end to abortion.

Respect for life includes much more than standing against abortion. It involves support for the aging and loving care for those with disabilities. We are called to respect God's sovereignty over life, by opposing euthanasia, physician assisted suicide and capital punishment. We must honor the dignity of the human person in medical research by resisting human cloning, embryonic stem-cell research and genetic manipulation. We are compelled to respect God's authority over life by opposing contraception and in vitro fertilization. Please join us in praying a Rosary for Life in the Church following the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, October 4.

Thankfully, our community has ministries that help women and families. The mission of Community Pregnancy Clinics is to save babies from abortion while providing care, compassion, and choices to women. Sunlight Home is a residential maternity home that serves pregnant women and teens. Providence House aims to strengthen family life and dignity for mothers and their children.

There are also ministries like Project Rachel that help mothers, fathers and families to seek peace, healing, and the mercy of God. For information about this vital ministry, please call 239.719.7210, or email Fonda.rachel@gmail.com to talk with someone who cares and can help.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

St. Paul urges the Philippians not to be anxious. He tells them, “There is no need to worry.” This may seem an unreal piece of advice. There is no way to avoid all worry. Good and sincere people are naturally worried about many things. It is part of the burden they carry precisely because they are people who care, who care about loved ones, and many other things.

But Paul is not talking about normal concerns. He is talking about anxiety. Nothing is more debilitating or fruitless than anxiety. Of itself, it does nothing to solve our problems. Rather, the opposite is the case. By dissipating our energy, anxiety weakens us and makes it more difficult for us to find a solution to our problems.

The root of anxiety is lack of trust – lack of trust in oneself, in others, and especially in God. Hence, the first piece of advice Paul gives the Philippians is to pray. They must learn to commit their cares to the Lord: “If there is anything you need, pray for it.” He is not suggesting that prayer should take the place of action. Nor is he implying that their prayers will always be answered. What, then, does prayer do? Prayer implies a willingness to do what we can, and then to leave things in the hands of God – to accept what happens then as His will, even though we may not understand it.

Then Paul tells his readers to think positively. People who are over-anxious tend to think very negatively. They imagine the worst scenario. This is disastrous. We must concentrate on the good, not on the bad. Many people devour the newspapers every day or watch news on TV all day long. It's hard to read the newspapers or watch TV these days without coming away depressed, so full are they of bad news. Instead of filling our minds with all kinds of trash, Paul says, “Fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honor, everything that can be thought virtuous and worthy of praise.” The power of positive thinking is well known.

However, it is not just a question of thinking nice thoughts. We must try to do these things. Thoughts alone will not suffice. We must pursue goodness in our actions. Paul says, “Keep doing the things you have learned from me.”

In Jesus' parable of the vineyard, a lot of ugly things happen. But evil does not have the last say. In the end, good triumphs. This shows us that there is only one way to overcome evil, and that is with good. Jesus didn't answer evil with more evil. He triumphed over evil with good.

If we do what we can, and put our trust in God, then Paul assures us that “the peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

Peace comes, not from having an easy and tranquil life. We can have peace even in the midst of struggle and turmoil provided we are on the side of right. Then the God of peace will be with us.

Parish Health and Safety

Keeping Each Other Safe and Healthy

Our lives have been inexorably altered by the COVID-19 Pandemic and our society's response to the concerns to save as many lives as possible. Saint John the Evangelist has been focused on providing the safest possible environment, along with living out Our Holy Father's message about the Pandemic: that we are all here to cherish each other as a community and live in solidarity. Our "New Normal" includes the pastoral vision and plan for how we as a church will be able to live out our Mission during and after the Pandemic Response.

While we continue to respond to the Pandemic, and the changing environment we are a part of, the Parish clergy and staff continue to be grateful for the flexibility and patience our Parish Family exhibits as we follow Federal, State, and Local guidelines, as well as the directives of the Diocese of Venice. Saint John's leadership takes all these various scientific experts into account when determining our policies and procedures. At this time, we will continue to keep our restrictions in place, with appropriate social distancing, mask wearing requirements, and substantial sanitizing processes.

Parish Health and Safety

Keeping Each Other Safe and Healthy

Our Parish Family is focused on your health and safety, and we take precautions that take time and funds in order to accomplish, but are considered essential. We wipe down the pews of the church between Masses. We use an extremely powerful (but EPA-approved safe for the environment) airborne spray to kill all biologics (bacteria and viral agents) in the air and on all surfaces every single night. Bathrooms are disinfected constantly during Masses. Our Faith Formation program, with its socially-distanced environment, also has sanitization occurring in between sessions, both adult and youth classes.

Pews disinfected between Masses

Sanitizing even our volunteer vests

Classrooms are sanitized between every class

Every pew is wiped down

Airborne sanitizing kills biologics in the air and on the surfaces

This tremendous effort is all for you and your family to feel safe and comfortable if you choose to come to Mass or classes in-person.

Wearing Masks to Save Others

The requirement to wear masks while in our facilities, including while in the Church, is based on the guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, as well as the directive from the Diocese. You wear your mask to protect all the other people around you, especially when you are in an enclosed space. Some proper ways to wear your mask are:

Parish Health and Safety

Keeping Each Other Safe and Healthy

DO choose masks that

-  Have two or more layers of washable, breathable fabric
-  Completely cover your nose and mouth
-  Fit snugly against the sides of your face and don't have gaps

Some ways to not wear your mask properly (and therefore not protect or cherish the lives around you):

Do NOT wear a mask

-  Around your neck
-  On your forehead
-  Under your nose
-  Only on your nose
-  On your chin
-  Dangling from one ear
-  On your arm

Thank you again for all your assistance in keeping our Parish Family healthy and safe by wearing your mask and continuing to be flexible as we continue our response to the Pandemic.

The Knights of Columbus are Advocates of the Divine Mercy Message As It is Related Through the Writings in the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska

Pope Francis recently decreed that Saint Faustina Kowalska's feast day be added to the Roman Calendar as an optional memorial to be celebrated by all on October 5, the anniversary date of her death in 1938.

Her mission on earth was to act as Our Lord's "Secretary" by recording in a diary all Jesus' wishes regarding His Divine Mercy and this message:

"In the Old Covenant I sent prophets wielding thunderbolts to My people. Today I am sending you with my mercy to the people of the whole world."

Pope John Paul II declared the sanctity of Maria Faustina Kowalska on April 30, 2000. Pope Francis has taken this step in response to petitions from pastors, religious men and women, and associations of the faithful. She became the inspiration for a movement dedicated to proclaiming and imploring God's Divine Mercy throughout the world.

In addition to the Image of Divine Mercy located in the narthex of the church, another Image of Divine Mercy is available for veneration in our Adoration Chapel, formerly known as the Rome Room, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. This space requires a fob for admittance and, given social distancing restrictions, is limited to 10 people.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is streamed daily at 3:00 p.m. from the Saint Paul II National Shrine in Washington D.C. (The Shrine's website is ... JP2shrine.org)

The Saint John Paul II National Shrine is a major pastoral initiative of the Knights of Columbus.

Faith Formation

Thank You, Knights!

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for taking on the huge job of helping our Faith Formation carlines this year. In order that we may keep the number of people inside our classroom buildings to a minimum, we are utilizing carlines for Faith Formation. The Knights of Columbus have stepped up to help keep our environment and our kids as safe as possible this year. Thank you!

Catechists Kick-Off Faith Formation!

After much preparation and anticipation, our Catechists began the Faith Formation year, some with in-person class and some with virtual learning. We so are blessed to have the hard work and dedication of so many to help us serve the children of our parish. Last Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. Mass, to celebrate Catechetical Sunday, Fr. Arun Paul commissioned our Catechists and blessed their parents, as well. We are grateful for their service in ministry.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1 IS 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard: What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briars; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! For justice, but hark, the outcry!

Responsorial Psalm PS 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

R. (Is 5:7a) The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

A vine from Egypt you transplanted; you drove away the nations and planted it. It put forth its foliage to the Sea, its shoots as far as the River.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Why have you broken down its walls, so that every passer-by plucks its fruit, The boar from the forest lays it waste, and the beasts of the field feed upon it?

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Once again, O LORD of hosts, look down from heaven, and see; take care of this vine, and protect what your right hand has planted the son of man whom you yourself made strong.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Then we will no more withdraw from you; give us new life, and we will call upon your name. O LORD, God of hosts, restore us; if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Reading 2 PHIL 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Alleluia JN 15:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear fruit that will remain.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel MT 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

looking into my heart...

Chorus)
I'm coming back to the heart of worship, And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it, When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

Verse 2)
King of endless worth,
no one could express
How much you deserve;
Though I'm weak and poor,
all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Verse 3)
And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me;
Take me as I am, call me to the Feast—
say the word, I'm healed—

Verse 1)
My past embraced
My sin forgiven
I'm blameless in Your sight
My history rewritten

Chorus)
'Cause (And) You delight in showing mercy And mercy triumphs over judgment You delight in showing mercy
And mercy triumphs over judgment

Verse 2)
Oh love great love fear cannot be found in You And there will never be a day You're uncertain of the ones
You choose

Bridge)
So I will awake and spend my days Loving the one who has raised me up From death to life from wrong to right
You're making all things beautiful (new)

Verse 1)
Awake from your slumber
Arise from your sleep
A new day is dawning
For all those who weep
The people in darkness
Have seen a great light
The lord of our longing
Has conquered the night

Chorus)
Let us build the city of God
May our tears Be turned into dancing
For the lord Our light and our love Has turned the night into day

Verse 2)
We are sons of the morning,
We are children of day.
The one who has loved us
Has brightened our way.
The lord of all kindness
Has called us to be
A light for his people
To set their hearts free.
