

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

WORSHIP AID EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Help Wanted

As we continue to expand our services and Ministry efforts here at Saint John during this challenging time, we have several critical needs to ensure our Parish Family and the Community is taken care of effectively:

AV Ministry: Have you ever wanted to run a TV station or direct a movie? Our Parish Family provides one of the highest quality streaming Mass functions in the area, if not the country (we have been told). Streaming our Masses takes a mixture of skills both in technology and the arts. It is very easy to learn and we have opportunities every day for someone to assist in providing our joyous message out to the world via our virtual Masses and Services. If you are interested, please contact JP Boucher: jp@sjecc.com

Ushers and Greeters: We want to welcome all back joyfully to our church for our Masses. As we expand the amount of Masses to ensure the health and safety of all who come to participate, we need special individuals who can lovingly and appropriately ensure the policies and procedures for Mass attendance are upheld as well as provide situational awareness to the environment. People may not be able to see the smile behind the mask, but the warmth glows from our Ushers and Greeters as they assist our Parish Family and Friends find socially distanced seating and answer any questions they might have. Please contact Bill Fuller at wfuller1@comcast.net

Housekeeping: As we expand the amount of activities on our campus, the effort to keep the facilities safe for all involved increases exponentially. We currently have 2 paid, part-time positions open for enhancing our cleaning, disinfecting, and sanitization processes. If you are looking for work, especially for weekends and off-hours options, please view our job description and apply via the Diocese of Venice Employment Site.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Jesus said, "You must love your neighbor as yourself." Only when we accept ourselves as fundamentally good, and begin to love ourselves, will we be able to start loving other people as the Lord commanded.

Those who are filled with self-loathing and self-hatred are not going to be able to love others. They will project these feelings onto others. They will blame and castigate others for what they do not like in themselves.

An old man was sitting on a bench at the edge of town when a stranger approached. "What are the people in this town like?" the stranger asked. "What were they like in your last town?" replied the old man.

"They were kind, generous, and would do anything for you if you were in trouble." "Well, I think you will find them much the same in this town."

Some time later a second stranger approached the old man and asked the same question: "What are the people in this town like?"

And the old man replied: "What were they like in the town you have come from?"

"It was a terrible place," came the answer. "To tell you the truth, I was glad to get out of it. The people there were mean, unkind, and nobody would lift a finger to help you if you were in trouble."

"I'm afraid," said the old man, "you'll find them much the same in this town." The main point of this story is: We see other people not as they are but as we are. If we see people in a bad light, it is a sign that we are ill at ease with ourselves. A man who is not at peace with himself spreads a contagion of conflict around him.

Unless we love ourselves, we cannot love others properly. So to begin with, we must love ourselves. But if we love ourselves in the wrong way, then we become incapable of loving anyone else. Few love themselves in such a way as to be able to love others properly.

There is an idea that love of self is wrong, even sinful. There is, of course, a form of self-love which is wrong. We call it selfishness or egoism. But there is a form of self-love which is healthy and good, and without which we cannot really love others.

You can't fly without wings. You can't grow without roots. We can't offer warmth to others if our own fireplace is cold and empty. We can only love with the amount of love that is in us. Whether we are conscious of it or not, we do love others precisely as we love ourselves.

It's very important, then, to have a healthy love and respect for ourselves. This is where love starts, but of course it is not meant to end there. All true love of self overflows in the form of love of others and of God.

It's easy to love certain people because they are lovable. But not so easy to love others, who are clearly and obviously flawed. But that is the real test of love. Where there is no love, sow love, and you will reap love. Where there is no love, put love, and you will find love.

Encounter on the Mountain

Join us for a very special

Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, November 5, 2020, at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

The theme of the night is "Thy Will Be Done." We will also have confessions throughout the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord and allow Him to speak to your heart. Rest in His loving presence.

Honoring Our Founding Pastor, Father Glackin

Please join us in person or online here for our celebration of Father Tom Glackin, the Founding Pastor of Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church and Saint Agnes, on Thursday, October 29, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. here at Saint John (or on our streaming page). We will be honoring Father Glackin on his birthday as well as dedicating our "Homeless Jesus" statue, showcasing his dedication to serving the poor and most in need, both here in Naples and around the world.

A member of our Parish Family has recently created a Fund in the name of Father Glackin to support youth in Naples and their financial needs in order to attend Saint John Neumann High School. If you feel the Spirit calling your soul to assist with this cause, please click here to donate.

Our Parish Celebrates Our Faithful Departed Monday, November 2nd, at 6:00 p.m., All Souls Day Mass

All Souls Day, November 2nd, is a special day that the Church remembers the faithful departed. St. John's will have a special Mass at 6:00 p.m. to especially remember our Parish Family and friends who have passed away since All Souls Day of last year, 2019. As a sign that our Church keeps our beloved in prayer and is always with the Lord, we have a beautiful ceremony where one family member or representative will light a candle at the foot of the Altar. If you wish to have your loved ones' name to be read and a candle to be lit, please provide: 1) the name of the deceased (include the phonetic pronunciation), 2) who will be lighting the candle, and 3) your email address to info@sjecc.com by Monday, October 26th. This Mass will be livestreamed for all who are unable to attend in person.

FORMED for the Family – Adding FORMED to the Big Screen and Other Devices

For several weeks on the bulletin, we have been sharing with you how to add FORMED to your device and have access to a wealth of Catholic programming for you and your family. Once you have signed up for FORMED, you can add the app to other devices in your home or on the go.

FORMED is easily added to your smart phone and allows you to watch programs from almost anywhere. You can take it with you on long walks and watch throughout your day. FORMED remembers what you have been watching and allows you to resume play where you left off.

If you have a ROKU device with your TV, for example, you may ADD A CHANNEL – and search for FORMED. Once added, FORMED will give you a website to go to on your phone or computer where you will enter a code, and the devices will sync, and you can start watching.

Our parish has paid for this subscription for you for a full year that began in August. Please feel free to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

This Week's Pick

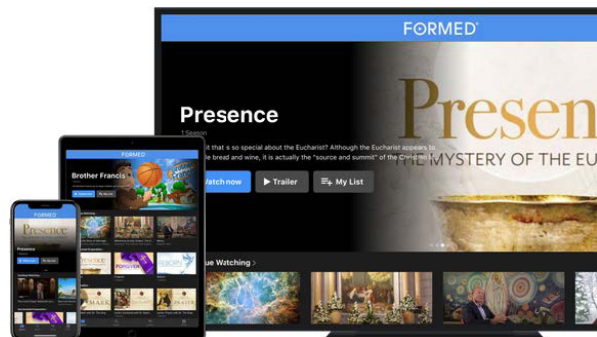

The Acts of the Apostles – Mini Series with Mark Hart

Mark Hart gives a refresher on the Acts of the Apostles, which shows us how to love as brothers and sisters of Christ, led by the Holy Spirit. In this very mini series, Mark shares inspiration and insight to draw us back into his favorite book of the Bible. It's perfect for those whose just want a 10-minute boost. There are four short episodes packed with great thoughts. Enjoy!

FORMED leverages the power of today's technology to help you grow in your faith. FORMED is easy to access. For parishioners who have not previously registered, simply:

- Visit <https://signup.formed.org/>
- Enter your parish zip (34108) and choose St. John the Evangelist (only choice)
- Enter your name and email address

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 16, 2020

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On March 19, 2020, as the Covid-19 was beginning its impact in Florida, I dedicated a year to St. Joseph, Protector for the Faithful of the Diocese of Venice. God appointed St. Joseph the Guardian of the Word Incarnate. Hope in the truth that our prayers to St. Joseph during these days will be graciously heard before the throne of God. Like many moments in her History, Holy Mother Church now faces difficult challenges. However, the hard work of many Priests and Faithful alike have allowed our Parishes to weather these trying times with courage and zeal; and for this I am grateful.

Be assured, I continue to listen to public health data and hear from Priests and Parishioners about the experiences of our Parishes. The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been extended until November 27, 2020, and depending on conditions, perhaps longer. At the same time, I wish to invite the Catholic Faithful who are able, to return to their Parish for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. How good it would be to see more join their fellow Parishioners who have already returned to Sunday Mass.

It is well known that there are immeasurable spiritual graces imparted when we participate in the Mass. Attending the Eucharist strengthens our Faith and Christian discipleship as the Holy Spirit empowers us to know, love, and serve God. The Blessed Sacrament is also a source of hope and unity for our Parishes, communities, country, and the world. Going forth from the Mass, be confident that you are true witnesses of Christ.

Certainly, Catholics who are ill or because of age or underlying health conditions are vulnerable, and those who care for them, should prudently remain home. Parishes will continue to livestream Masses for those who cannot attend in person. However, as we have experienced during these days, hunger for the Eucharist is only genuinely satisfied when together as the Body of Christ, we draw close to the Real Presence of Our Lord and Savior.

The invitation to return in person for Sunday Mass is accompanied by the promise that safety protocols will continue. That is, masks are still required, and respect for distancing is needed, as well as cleanliness of hands and surfaces remain important. Many have worked diligently to allow us to venture out to restaurants, stores, and other public events, so, too, we can safely return to our Parish and do what is most essential to Catholics, attend Sunday Mass.

Jesus promised to be with us when we gather in His name. Therefore, let us cherish the Lord's Goodness and be fed with the Bread Come Down from Heaven. Please accept this "Pastoral Invitation" and prayerfully consider a return to Sunday Mass if you have not already done so. Your Priests look forward to welcoming you once again at the Table of the Lord.

Through St. Joseph's intercession, I pray that God will bless you and your family. Let us remain united in prayer, lifting up each other's needs to the Heavenly Father.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Verse)

Stir in me a love that's deep
A love that's wide
A love that's sweet
And help me Lord to never keep it to myself
And if my heart should dimly burn
And if my feet should fail to run
Call my name and I will come right back to You

Chorus)

I want to stay close to You
It's really that simple
I want to stay close to You
Just as simple as this song
I want to stay close to You
It's really that simple
I want to stay close to You
My whole life long

Chorus)

('Cause) there's no fear in love
There's no fear in love

Communion Song We Are One Body Dana Scallon

Chorus)

We are one body, one body in Christ;
and we do not stand alone.
We are one body, one body in Christ;
and he came that we might have life.

Verse 3)

I am the Way, the Truth, the Life,
I am the Final Sacrifice,
I am the Way, the Truth, the Life;
he who believes in me will have eternal life.
I am the Way, the Truth, the Life, I am
the Final Sacrifice,
I am the Way, the Truth, the Life;
he who believes in me will have
eternal life.
(to Verse 4)

Verse 1)

When you eat my body
and you drink my blood,
I will live in you
and you will live in my love.
When you eat my body
and you drink my blood,
I will live in you
and you will live in my love.

Verse 4)

I have come, your Savior, that you might have life,
through the tears and sorrow,
through the toils and strife.
Listen when I call you,
for I know your need,
come to me, your shepherd,
for my flock I feed.

Verse 6)

On the rock of Peter,
see my Church I build.
Come receive my spirit,
with my gifts be filled.
For you are my body,
you're my hands and feet.
Speak my word of life
to ev'ryone you meet.

Verse 2)

Can you hear them crying, can you feel their pain?
Will you feed my hungry,
will you help my lame?
See the unborn baby,
the forgotten one,
they are not forsaken,
they are not unloved.

Verse 5)

At the name of Jesus
ev'ry knee shall bend;
Jesus is the Lord
and he will come again.
At the name of Jesus
ev'ry knee shall bend;
Jesus is the Lord
and he will come again.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1 EX 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial Psalm PS 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength, O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock! Extolled be God my savior. You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

Reading 2 1 THES 1:5C-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Alleluia JN 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

Gospel MT 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Ministry Spotlight

Knights of Columbus

Saint John the Evangelist Council 11281

Since its founding by a handful of men in 1882, the Knights of Columbus has grown to a fraternity of 1.9 million men in 15,900 local Councils across the U. S. and in several other countries. The St. John Council, which includes over 200 brothers, celebrated its 25th anniversary last year.

The order's principles of charity, unity, and fraternity are at the core of Catholic life. Brothers join together to help one another become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, and better citizens. The work of the Knights combines community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church.

At St. John, members serve as volunteers in parish ministries, help with special projects, and sponsor parish events. They are most visible in annual parish events such as the Lenten fish bakes, Valentine and vocations dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled, and Christmas time collections of gifts and toys.

Brothers support our liturgies as greeters and ushers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, and at special times with the Color Corps. And behind the scenes, they support our priests and seminarians, fund multiple parish equipment and events, assist in activities and event for youth and young adults, and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

The Knights are looking for men who are looking to support their parish and give back to their community in any of a myriad of ways. As taught in our principle of unity, we can accomplish more together.

Take a NEW look at the Knights; become active even if the time you have to give is limited.

Next weekend, Knights will be at each of the Masses to extend a special invitation to all men of our parish to consider joining our parish Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Ask a Knight about becoming a Knight.

- Stop and talk with a Knight after each Mass next weekend or
- Send an email to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org to contact the council directly or
- Go to the National "Supreme" web site www.kofc.org for more info and to join online.

Requirements are few; rewards are many!
