Questions and Answers: Resuming Public Masses

This article was written originally in May 2020, to assist our Parish Family with returning to Mass after the initial closure to the public as our Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic. As cases continue to rise locally and nationally at this time, and we have our Seasonal Parish Family members returning, it seems appropriate to re-introduce some of the changes to our environment that keep everyone safe and healthy while celebrating our faith. ~ Jean-Paul Boucher, Business Manager

When Will Masses Be?

We have been blessed to be able to provide public Masses since Monday, May 18, 2020, on our normal schedule listed below. Additionally, we will continue to add Overflow Masses to our schedule based on attendance to ensure the proper social distancing for the safety and health of our Parish Family.

Daily Masses

- Monday – Friday: 8:30 a.m.
- Saturday: 8:00 a.m.

Weekend Masses

- Saturday: 3:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- Sunday: 7:00 a.m., 9:00 a.m., 9:15 a.m. Overflow Mass in the Ballroom, 11:00 a.m., 11:15 a.m. Overflow Mass in the Ballroom, 1:00 p.m., and 5:00 p.m.

Can I still watch Mass Online?

Yes! We will continue our same schedule of streaming all our Masses (Daily Mass at 8:30 a.m., Saturday at 3:00 p.m., and Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.) throughout this phase of the recovery. We respect all life, and as such we want to ensure we provide the opportunity for our Parish Family and Friends to continue to social distance in their homes and not put themselves or others at risk by attending Mass in person.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

A talent has first of all to be discovered and recognized. It has been said that our true birthplace is the place in which we awaken to our gifts and talents. Often it takes an outsider to recognize the talent.

Just as the sun helps to bring to birth the fragrant flowers that lie hidden in the soil of the fields, so there are people who find their fulfillment in helping to unfold the talents God has deposited in others. Perhaps these are the most talented people of all.

The Russian writer, Dostoevsky, was only twenty when he wrote his first book, entitled Poor Folk. The foremost critic of the day was a man by the name of Belinsky. When Belinsky read the manuscript of the young Dostoevsky, he said, "You have brought a terrible truth to our attention. You have a great gift. Take good care of this gift, and then you will become a great writer."

Dostoevsky was intoxicated by the words of the famous critic. Many years later, he wrote, "That was the happiest moment of my entire life."

Why was that moment so important for Dostoevsky? Because he was just awakening to his talent as a writer. He was still very unsure of himself, and therefore very vulnerable. Recognition by Belinsky confirmed him in his belief in his own talent. It did more. It launched him on his way. He spent the rest of his life expressing himself through his writings.

One of our greatest needs is the need to express ourselves. Unless we express ourselves, we cannot realize or fulfill ourselves. Expression is as necessary for us as leaf and blossom are for a tree. The poet and artist, Kahlil Gibran, put it like this: "There is a great loneliness in almost everyone – a great hunger to express oneself." And the painter Van Gogh said, "Between what I perceive and what I express there is a wall; I have spent my life trying to break down that wall."

To express oneself is the way to make oneself whole, and therefore holy. How many of us could say that we have developed our full potential as human beings? Of course, there are many ways in which people can express themselves. Nevertheless, a lot of talent goes unexpressed. When this happens, the possessor of the talent is the greatest loser. Some people drift through life, and die having realized only a fraction of their potential.

Expression is the opposite to repression. To repress is to bottle up, to stifle, to smother, to suppress. Repression inevitably gives rise to depression. To express is to articulate, to reveal, to bring out. Expression may involve pain, but it ultimately leads to joy. It is by living that we discover our talents, and it is by using them that they grow. Every talent has to be developed. Sometimes a lot of hard work, discipline, and patience are required if a talent is to bear its full fruit. We see this in the example of the first two servants in Jesus' story.

We see the opposite of it in the case of the third servant. It wasn't the harshness of his master that prevented him from using his talent – that was merely an excuse. Nor was it lack of opportunity. He himself was to blame. Life is God's gift to us. What we do with life is our gift to God.

Confirmation Gifts at the Divine Gift Boutique!

One special way to welcome a new member of the Catholic Church is to give them a religious Confirmation gift from our very own Divine Gift Boutique to signify this holy time in their lives. The Divine Gift Boutique is proud to offer a broad range of gifts for both youth and adults who are celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation. We offer gifts available online for safe curbside pickup, and we are now open Mondays and Tuesdays from 8:30-1:30 p.m. for in-person shopping!

2020 "Bagless" Thanksgiving Food Drive

During this COVID-19 pandemic, we are not able to operate in the traditional manner for our Thanksgiving food drive. Saint John the Evangelist conference of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to suggest you make a monetary donation to our 2020 "BAGLESS" Thanksgiving food drive to enable us to replenish our food pantry. Our goal is to collect $10,000.00 in honor of our founding pastor, Fr. Thomas Glackin, who died last year.

Ways you can support this project:

1. Send a check made out to St. Vincent de Paul and write "2020 Thanksgiving Food Drive" in the memo line. Send check to St. John the Evangelist, 625 111th Ave. North, Naples, FL 34108.
2. Place the donation in the "Poor Box(es)" around the Church.
3. Go to St. John Evangelist website: <https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/St.VincentDePaul>

Thanksgiving in the Park 2020 Suspended Due to COVID-19 Pandemic Response

It is with a heavy heart that we announce that we will not be providing the thousands of Thanksgiving meals this coming holiday due to the COVID-19 Pandemic Response. We attempted to find a safe and healthy way to serve the community in Immokalee, but out of an abundance of caution for the volunteers and patrons of this service program, we will have to hold off this year. We will be back in the Park next year, God willing. Thank you for your understanding.

As a replacement to the constant generosity our Parish Family and the community have normally had during this time of year, we are asking that if you would like to assist in feeding those most in need here in Naples, you donate to the Saint Vincent DePaul Society, which includes Meals on Wheels Support and a Food Pantry. We will help stock their shelves this year to ensure anyone that needs food can find it.

Witness to Love

Witness to Love

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church Marriage Preparation Program – Witness to Love (WTL). Build a Relationship that will last forever.

Witness to Love is a virtues-based model of marriage renewal and preparation that integrates modern principles of psychology and the virtues to help couples facilitate and talk about their relationship, all built on the rock of True Love that comes from God. What makes Witness to Love unique is that the engaged couple chooses their own mentor couple. This is a couple they both admire and see as a source of faith engagement. This mentor couple gives them a connection and integration into our Parish Family as well as provide encouragement long after the wedding day is over. Through the sharing of the mentor couple's own marriage journey, the engaged couple inherits a "lifeline" of support in their commitment to Jesus and His Church.

If you and your spouse feel called to become a Mentor Couple or assist the Parish Family as our Marriage Preparatory Coordinator, please contact Fr. Arun Paul at the Parish Front Office; 239-566-8740 or email: frarunpaul@sjecc.com.

Celebrating the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary & Supporting Teenage Moms This Christmas!

For the third year, we are excited to once again support our youth in the community. The last two years, with your generosity, we have gifted close to 50 young moms and their babies.

December 8th is the Feast Day of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. This Feast Day celebrates Mary's conception within the womb of her mother, St Anne. This special day is celebrated nine months before the Birth of Mary within the Liturgical Calendar. To celebrate this day and in the preparation of Christmas, our Faith Formation Families are putting together an effort to support local pregnant teenage mothers through our schools as part of a program known as T.A.P.P. (Teen Age Parenting Program). With the support of this program, teenage moms can complete their high school education and receive childcare assistance, parenting classes, and counseling services in a loving and supportive environment. Please consider sharing your treasure with our local pregnant teenage moms by providing donations of disposable diapers, wipes, new blankets, and new clothes ranging from 3 months – 5T. Diapers Size 3 and up especially needed along with Pull-ups. Thank you! Collections may be dropped off to the Parish Office and Faith Formation Office through December 15th. Thank you for your support! For more information, please contact Natalie @ Natalie@sjecc.com.

Don't Fall For It: Spear Phishing Emails

Be Careful of Responding to Odd Email Messages

There are some despicable people that are attempting to take advantage of the financial and health concerns of our good Parish Family members by making it seem like Father Tom, or some of our other clergy or staff, are sending email requests to connect. Then, if you respond, they ask for you to go out and purchase gift cards and provide them the details of the cards. This is a hoax called Spear Phishing.

Please do not fall for it. Saint John Staff and Clergy will never ask for money/gift cards from you over email. Always check to see if the email is coming from an "@sjecc.com" email address (sometimes email addresses are hidden behind the name of the person, but you can always click on the "From" area to see the email address).

Please delete these emails and do not reply. Even just responding allows these individuals to use your email for spam and malware messages.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

PRV 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unending prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

R. (cf. 1a) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are you who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways! For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork; blessed shall you be, and favored.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home; Your children like olive plants around your table.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD. The LORD bless you from Zion: may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Reading 2

1 THES 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Alleluia

JN 15:4A, 5B

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me bears much fruit.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

Verse – Men first, women echo)
You are holy. You are mighty. You are worthy. Worthy of praise. I will follow. I will listen. I will love you. All of my days

Chorus – Women)
You are Lord of lords,
you are King of kings
You are mighty God,
Lord of ev'rything
You're Emmanuel,
you're the Great I Am
You're the Prince of Peace,
who is the Lamb
You're the living God,
you're my saving grace
You will reign forever,
you are Ancient of Days
You are Alpha, Omega,
Beginning, and End
You're my Savior, Messiah,
Redeemer, and Friend
You're my Prince of Peace
And I will live my life for you

Chorus – Men)
I will sing to and worship
The King who is worthy
And I will love and adore Him
And I will bow down before Him
And I will sing to and worship
The King who is worthy
And I will love and adore Him
And I will bow down before Him
You're my Prince of Peace
And I will live my life for you

Verse 1)
Will you let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I may have the grace to Let you be my servant, too.

Verse 2)
We are pilgrims on a journey,
We are trav'lers on the road;
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

Verse 3)
I will hold the Christ-light for you
In the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

Verse 4)
I will weep when you are weeping;
When you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
'Til we've seen this journey through.

Verse 5)
When we sing to God in heaven
We shall find such harmony,
Born of all we've known together
Of Christ's love and agony.

Verse 1) How beautiful the hands that served the Wine and the Bread, and the children of earth. How beautiful the feet that walked the long dusty roads and the hill to the cross.

Chorus) How beautiful, how beautiful, how beautiful is the body of Christ.

Verse 2) How beautiful the Heart that bled That took all my sins, and bore them instead. How beautiful the tender eyes That choose to forgive and never despise (Chorus).

Verse 3) How beautiful the radiant Bride Who waits for her Groom with his light in her eyes. How beautiful when humble hearts give The fruit of pure lives so that others may live (Chorus).

Verse 4) How beautiful the feet that bring The sound of good news and the love of the King. How beautiful the hands that serve The Wine and the Bread, and the children of earth.

Closing Song

Did You Feel the Mountains Tremble? Martin Smith / Delirious?

CCLI Song No. 1097028.

© 1994 Curious? Music UK. All rights Reserved. Used with permission under CCLI License No. 2008891.

Verse 1) Did you feel the mountains tremble? Did you hear the oceans roar when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2) Did you feel the people tremble? Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-Chorus) And we can see that, God, you're moving, a mighty river through the nations; and young and old will turn to Jesus. Fling wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus) Chorus) Open up the doors and let the music play. Let the streets resound with singing! Songs that bring your hope, songs that bring your peace, Dancers who dance upon injustice!

Verse 3) Do you feel the darkness tremble when all the saints join in one song, and all the streams flow as one river to wash away our brokenness?

Pre-Chorus 2) And here we see that, God, you're moving; a time of jubilee is coming, when young and old return to Jesus. Fling wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

Mass Questions and Answers

Questions and Answers: Resuming Public Masses

Will there be Communion?

Yes, communion will be distributed at each Mass, but it will only be the Body of Christ, and it should be taken in the hand only. If you must receive on the tongue, please wait until every other Communicant has received and go only to the priest in front of the altar to receive. This is for the safety of the whole Parish Family, our Eucharistic Ministers, and the Clergy.

What about Confession?

We will continue to provide opportunities for Reconciliation. Reconciliation will be provided in the Inner Sacristy. Penitent individuals may wait in the Narthex (Church Lobby) socially distanced and the priest will come out and receive the individual to bring them into the Sacristy.

- Monday: 9:00 a.m. (immediately after Daily Mass)
- Wednesday: 9:00 a.m. (immediately after Daily Mass)
- Saturday: 8:30 a.m. (immediately after Daily Mass)

Are Other Services Impacted? Funerals? Weddings? Baptisms?

Throughout the Pandemic, we have continued to provide families with weddings and funerals. Now, we will be able to expand these services to allow for the capacity of the church with proper social distancing in place, which will give more family members the opportunity to participate in person. We can still stream these services for family members who are at risk or are not able to attend in person.

Baptisms are now authorized by the Diocese as well, so we can have Baptisms in the church for families. The same capacity and social distancing guidelines will be in effect.

I have missed my church friends and family. Can we catch up before or after Mass?

Unfortunately, in order to assure the safety and health of all our Parish Family and Friends, we ask that you do not congregate or meet up before or after Mass on our campus.

When you arrive, please find your seat as you will be guided by our Ushers. Use the time before Mass for quiet prayer and reflection. Once Mass is concluded, please exit via the Front or Back Doors of the church and move immediately to your vehicle. We want to ensure we are cleaning and preparing between Masses, and any gathering could unintentionally cause infection to each other and/or to others around you.

What about everything else going on at Saint John?

Currently, all other events, activities, and programs are suspended until further notice. Our Life Center is open to members only, Monday-Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. There are additional restrictions and a waiver that must be signed prior to using the facility.

All Ministry activity is being evaluated on a case-by-case basis, in accordance with our social distancing, sanitization, and operational requirements. Most Ministries (other than Liturgical Ministries) have selected to remain virtual or suspended until 2021.

Can I use the Adoration Chapel?

Office to request it.

Adoration is now available in our Ballroom Monday-Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Access is available via your SJE key fob. If you do not yet have one, please come to the Front

What can I do to help?

First and foremost, if you are at-risk or unhealthy, please continue to attend Mass virtually via our streaming Mass. We respect your life and your health above all else, and want you to be happy and safe. If you do decide to come to church, we will not turn you away unless you do not have a mask, but we hope you will make the right choice for your own livelihood.

Our Liturgical Ministries will need able-bodied and capable volunteers to assist with the Mass. If you are interested in participating as a Lector, or Eucharistic Minister or Usher, please reach out to those Ministry leads via email. There are clear requirements for each Ministry, especially in this current crisis, that must be met in order to ensure your safety and the safety of our Parish Family.

Prayer is also critically needed. You may pray for our Parish Family and the world from home or during our Visitation hours during the week.

How will you ensure my (and my family's) safety?

We have been planning and working diligently to ensure our church is as safe as a public facility can be. However, it is still a risk to come to church during this recovery phase, and we recommend highly that you consider what is in the best interest of your personal health and stay home and watch our Mass online if you so decide.

- We disinfect and wipe down all common surfaces after every Mass.
- All Bathrooms are cleaned after every Mass
- We use a microbial and anti-viral airborne-based disinfectant in the entire church building every evening to ensure all surfaces are clean and purified.
- We provide hand sanitizer for all who enter.
- We require masks for all who come to Mass or for Visitation.
- Ushers will be ensuring all seating and social distancing guidelines are followed before, during and after Mass.
- All Liturgical Items will be cleaned and disinfected after every Mass.

DO choose masks that

Have two or more layers of washable, breathable fabric

Completely cover your nose and mouth

Fit snugly against the sides of your face and don't have gaps
