A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Times of change (e.g. change of one's career, change of one's way of life) are times of risk and uncertainty. At such times, people become very vulnerable. What they need most is someone to give them support and encouragement.

When the American writer Maya Angelou was growing up, she didn't see her mother very much. She was brought up in great part by her grandmother, a wonderful and saintly woman. She tells how when she was twenty years old, she took a trip to San Francisco to visit her mother. It was a particularly important yet vulnerable moment in Maya's life: she was struggling to make her way in life and groping her way towards becoming a writer.

She had quite a good meeting with her mother. When it was time to leave, her mother walked her down the hill to the waiting bus. As they parted, her mother said, "You know, I think you are the greatest woman I have ever met."

Years later Maya could still recall that moment vividly. She said, waiting for the bus, "I sat there thinking: Just suppose she's right. Suppose I really am somebody. It was one of those moments when the sky rolled back. At times like that, it's almost as if the whole earth holds its breath." Maya went on to become a highly successful and respected writer and poet.

Prior to His baptism, Jesus had lived for thirty years at Nazareth. It had been an uneventful life (as far as we can tell). Nevertheless, during those years He had begun to hear another call – a call away from Nazareth, a call to the service of his brothers and sisters in the wider community. So finally He left Nazareth.

When He appeared before John to be baptized, He had reached a crossroads in His life. He had left behind Him the comparatively quiet life of Nazareth, and was about to embark on His public mission. No doubt He came to that moment after a lot of prayer and reflection. Nevertheless, it couldn't have been easy for Him. He must have experienced some uncertainty and anxiety. He needed affirmation.

During his baptism Jesus received that affirmation. He heard the wonderful words: "You are my beloved son; with you I am well pleased." These words also set the seal of divine approval on the mission he was about to begin, the mission to bring sinners back to God.

The heavenly Father's words of affirmation put wind in His sails. Not only did He receive approval from on high for His mission, but He also received power from on high for it. This is signified by "the descent of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit was not just given for that moment; the Spirit remained with Him throughout His public ministry.

This feast, in which we recall the baptism of Jesus, reminds us of our own baptism, and renews its grace within us. From a spiritual point of view, baptism is the greatest thing that can happen to us. What happened at the baptism of Jesus happens at our baptism, too. God calls us by name. He says to each of us, "You are my beloved son," or "You are my beloved daughter." And the Spirit descends on us, because we too are given a mission: to participate in the work of Jesus.

We are not called to save the world or to solve all its problems. Nevertheless, each of us has our own unique call, in our families, in our work, in our world.

 Act: Look up the dates of your family members' baptisms. (People often record sacrament dates in a family bible). Put the dates on your 2021 calendar, and plan to celebrate each one.

Covid 19 Panel Discussion

The Impact of COVID-19 on the Catholic Community at Saint John the Evangelist – A Panel Discussion

For nine months, almost every aspect of our parish has been impacted by the coronavirus disease 2019. Masses have gone from a packed church to restricted attendance with social distancing, but technology has enabled streaming so many more parishioners can attend remotely. For many weeks, sacraments were deferred, and still there are strict limits for participation.

Although most of our expenses continue unchanged, contributions are down. Most forms of outreach have likewise been negatively impacted by restrictions on face-to-face encounters. Operations are conducted under mandates from our Bishop and Florida officials, and the ground rules are regularly changing.

We are fortunate that Father Tom Zalewski and his team of department leaders have provided a steady hand as we navigate these turbulent times.

On Tuesday, January 26, at 6:00 p.m., a panel discussion addressing both what has happened and what is planned will be live streamed from St John. On the panel, Father Tom will be joined by our Business Manager, JP Boucher; Natalie Campbell, our Director of Faith Formation; Maureen Reed, head of the Eucharistic Ministers; and Carl Monticelli, president of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Ministry Spotlight

Amid the Pandemic, the Knights of Columbus at St. John Brought Christmas Gifts to the Less Fortunate

Thanks to the generosity of St. John parishioners, the toy collection bin overflowed, many times. One thousand eight hundred toys, balls, dolls, games, bicycles, scooters, and more were collected and then distributed to needy children by the Angela's Angels program of the North Collier Fire Rescue District. An additional $1100 in cash was donated and gifted.

Although the annual Christmas party for around 30 STARability adults with special needs was not possible due to the pandemic, Catholic Charities and their volunteers creatively organized a smaller gathering for 12 guests. Joe Hemrick was there to support the festivities and distribute Christmas gift cards from the Knights to each guest.

The "Patriotic" 4th Degree Knights of St. John's A.J. Corr Assembly Again Participated in the National "Wreaths Across America" Campaign

At the Veteran's section of Lake Trafford Cemetery in Immokalee, over 130 wreaths were laid on the graves of those who had served our country by Sir Knights from St. John together with volunteers from VFW Post 7721 and the American Legion. Assembly Faithful Navigator Bill Fuller said the invocation. A twenty-one gun salute and the playing of Taps concluded a beautiful ceremony and tribute to our Veterans.

You are invited to learn more about the Knights at St. John. Send your questions or comments to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, visit kocouncil11281.org, or call (239) 228-3938 and leave a message. We'll respond promptly.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

Is 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street. A bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth; the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 29:1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10

R. (11b) The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Give to the LORD, you sons of God, give to the LORD glory and praise, Give to the LORD the glory due his name; adore the LORD in holy attire.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.
The voice of the LORD is over the waters, the LORD, over vast waters. The voice of the LORD is mighty; the voice of the LORD is majestic.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.
The God of glory thunders, and in his temple all say, "Glory!" The LORD is enthroned above the flood; the LORD is enthroned as king forever.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Reading 2

Acts 10:34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

Alleluia

Cf. Jn 1:29

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

John saw Jesus approaching him, and said: Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

Communion Song Comfort, Comfort O My People Geneva Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE #A-718037. All rights reserved.

Verse 1)
Comfort, comfort, O my people,
Speak of peace, now says our God;
Comfort those who sit in darkness,
Mourning 'neath their sorrows' load.
Speak unto Jerusalem
Of the peace that waits for them;
Tell of all the sins I cover,
And that warfare now is over.

Verse 2)
Hark, the voice of one who's crying
In the desert far and near,
Bidding all to full repentance
Since the kingdom is now here.
O that warning cry obey!
Now prepare for God a way;
Let the valleys rise to meet him
And the hills bow down to greet him.

Verse 3)
O make straight
what long was crooked,
Make the rougher places plain;
Let your hearts be true and humble,
As befits his holy reign.
For the glory of the Lord
Now o'er earth is shed abroad;
And all flesh shall see the token
That his word is never broken.

Closing Song Let the River Flow Darrell Evans CCLI Song No. 1686824 © 1995 Mercy / Vineyard Publishing (Admin. by Music Services) Darrell Patton Evans. All rights Reserved. CCLI License No. 200889

Verse)
Let the poor man say, "I am rich in him."
Let the lost man say, "I am found in him."
Oh, let the river flow!
Let the blind man say, "I can see again."
Let the dead man say, "I am born again."
Oh, let the river flow! Oh, let the river flow—

Chorus)
Let the river flow, let the river flow
Holy Spirit, come, move in power
Let the river flow (let the river flow)
Let the river flow (let the river flow)
Let the river flow (let the river flow)
Let the river flow!
Let the river flow!
