Welcome New Staff Members at St. John's

Rachael Brouillette – Front Office Assistant

Hello, my name is Rachael Brouillette. I am from a small town in New Hampshire but have been in Florida for eight years. I graduated from Ave Maria in 2017 with a degree in Literature, and since then I have worked at a few country clubs and hotels here in Naples. At my home parish in NH, I was active in helping the Knights of Columbus as well as St. Vincent De Paul, so I look forward to being part of the St. John's family!

Jim Iacovino – Operations Manager

Dear Parish Family of St. John the Evangelist,
I am humbled and grateful to be joining the vibrant and spirit-filled community of St. John the Evangelist. Being raised in a Roman Catholic family in upstate New York, the church and my faith have been the foundation of my life for over 50 years. I am grateful that my father decided to attend St. Bonaventure University where he would eventually meet my wonderful mother and raise our family. Many of my father's friends were Franciscan priests, and having their presence in our lives during my early years planted seeds that continue to be fruitful in my life today.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Welcome New Staff Members at St. John's

A passion for hospitality and a call of service for others has always been at the core of both my personal and professional life. I attended Culinary School in New York and moved to Florida to begin a 30-year career as a Professional Chef. I was fortunate to be part of the opening team of the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Naples in 1985, where I would spend six formidable years and meet my life's most cherished blessing, my wife Janice. Deciding to call SWFL home for our future family, Janice and I were married in 1991, and we have been blessed with three grown children and two grandchildren.

1991 also provided an opportunity with Westinghouse Communities, where I would devote the next 25 years of my work life, most notably as Executive Chef at Pelican's Nest Golf Club, Bay Colony Golf Club, and The Colony Golf & Country Club. In 2013, I transitioned into upper level Club Management to motivate, develop, and manage multiple business units as well as lead hundreds of talented team members.

In my personal life, a call to serve came in 1998 as I joined Collier Harvest Foundation as a weekly volunteer. Collier Harvest is a non-profit organization that feeds the hungry throughout Lee and Collier Counties by providing food to over 45 local agencies. Devoting my time as a volunteer, board trustee, and Foundation president, Collier Harvest has been an avenue our family has been able to share together to live out God's call to love one and serve one another.

Our family has been part of the Catholic community of SWFL for the past 35 years and have been involved at St. Leo and St. William in a wide range of ministries. We transferred to St. John a little over a year ago and to say we feel at home is truly an understatement. We look forward to the journey ahead with the parish family of St.

John the Evangelist, and I thank the Lord Jesus Christ and Father Tom for this wonderful opportunity.

Warmly yours,

Jim Iacovino

Update on Father Len

Dear Family,

Thank you for the many calls, texts, emails, cards, prayers, and good wishes during my recovery. I'm especially grateful to the children in the Faith Formation classes for your homemade cards and your prayers. I truly experienced the great power that can only come from prayer.

Your thoughtfulness and prayers all helped me stay connected to our beautiful faith-filled community of St. John the Evangelist.

May God richly bless each of you in unexpected ways as you continue on your journey of faith.

Peace,
Fr. Len

Catholic Faith Appeal

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. Father Tom has set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

Updated Mass Guidelines

The general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and Holy Days has been lifted as of May 1, 2021, except for those:

1. Who are ill or confined to their location and those who care for them
2. Who have reason to believe they were recently exposed to Covid-19
3. With underlying health conditions or are in a high-risk category
4. Who have a reasonable fear or anxiety of becoming ill if they attend Mass

Face masks are still mandatory.

The guidelines from the Diocese state that distancing should be reduced to three feet between those who are not from the same household. Therefore, every pew will be open and parishioners should seat themselves in a staggered manner by row, maintaining three feet of distance.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

On the feast of the Ascension, we celebrate the glorification of Jesus. The humble Jesus who suffered and died now reigns in glory at the right hand of the Father. But what a strange path led Him to that glory. Frankly, at first the apostles found it incredible that anyone, much less a Messiah, could travel to glory by such a path.

It was their hope and dream that Jesus was the promised Messiah. But when He was put to death, their dream was reduced to rubble. A humiliated, crucified Messiah was unthinkable. They searched the Scriptures for answers but found none.

However, gradually their minds were opened, and they realized that there was another way of looking at the Scriptures. They came to see that all the prophets had foretold that the Messiah would suffer and die, and thus enter into glory. Yes, He would take a strange path to glory. And yet, was it that strange? How can anyone attain glory except through sacrifice and suffering?

From a worldly point of view, the hour of Jesus' death was an hour of failure. Worse, it was an hour of shame and humiliation. But by raising Him from the dead, God turned it into an hour of triumph for Jesus, and an hour of grace for us. His death, far from being the end of the dream, was precisely the way in which it was realized. And so the apostles began to understand the message of Jesus' death and resurrection – glory attained through suffering. First the pain, then the joy.

Jesus has ascended to the right hand of the Father. The foremost place of honor in the Kingdom now belongs to Jesus, and rightly so. That position was His by right of His divine son-ship; but He renounced that right, and won it by right of His loving service. It wasn't the suffering as such that earned him that glory. It was the life He led, a life of service and self-sacrifice even to death, a death from which He emerged victorious by His resurrection. He didn't seek his own glory, but the glory of His Father. The path that led Jesus to glory was no easy one. But then if it was, it wouldn't be of much help to us.

After seeing Jesus ascend into heaven, the apostles returned to Jerusalem with joy. Why the joy? Because they were now convinced that their beloved Jesus was alive. So their hearts burned with joy. All this shows the goodness of God, who makes our deepest dreams come true in the most surprising of ways. He makes all things work for the good of those who place their trust in him. He brings good out of evil, life out of death, and glory out of pain and suffering.

There are times in life when we may find ourselves going down a sad and lonely road. We must remember that we are not alone. The risen Lord journeys with us. And He knows all about human suffering. He is so close to us that our stories merge with His. It is only His story – glory achieved through suffering and death – that helps us make sense of our own story. The resurrection and ascension of Jesus opens all our stories to the prospect, not just of a good ending, but of a glorious ending.

This feast is as much about us as about Jesus. His ascension shows us the goal of our earthly journey. It is a goal and a destiny which defies even our imagination. It gives an eternal dimension to our lives.

We live in the hope that the words of Jesus will come true for us: "Where I am, you too shall be." Meanwhile we have a task to do: to preach the Good News and to be His witnesses in the world.

May Crowning of Mary

Our 2021 First Communicants dressed up in their First Communion attire again to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. With their light blue sashes, they processed up to the beautiful statue and lay roses at her feet. After Fr. Tom gave the blessing, Kimberly Trujillo crowned Our Lady with a crown of roses. It was a beautiful day and a wonderful chance for our parishioners to see the children dressed up in their First Communion best! This year the May Crowning Procession took place in our Parish Ballroom where we hold our overflow masses. Our Blessed mother and the Christ child were also crowned this month in our Church in a few other locations around campus.

The May Crowning of Mary has been a tradition here for many years at St. John. The children in Faith Formation learn about The Blessed Mother as part of the curriculum. They also learn to pray the rosary. During this month of May, we make extra time to pray the rosary and to give thanks for the blessing of the Mother of God that Jesus entrusted to us. We honor Our Lady and bring our prayers to her that she may bring them to her Son for us and help us to become more like Him. Mother Mary brings us closer to her Son, Jesus. As we enjoy the beauty of the special crowns placed on Mary and Jesus this month, may our devotion to them grow stronger and our love for them deepen more. We especially thank our sacristans, musicians, parents, and catechists for their great love and dedication to make this day possible. It was truly a team effort and all for the glory of God! Please continue to pray for our priests, our Faith Formation ministry, and the families of all those who received First Holy Communion.

We reflect on this Sunday's Gospel Reading from Mark 16:15-20, the Ascension of the Lord.

Pray: Help us to find ways to stay close to you, Jesus, so we can grow in faith and love. Thank you for giving us your Mother, Our Lady, to watch over us and protect us. As we celebrate Our Blessed Mother in this month of May, we pray:

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Think: In what ways can we “proclaim the gospel” without using any words?

Act: Talk to a friend about why you love Jesus. Invite a friend to come to church with you.

As the strong right arm of the Church, the Knights of Columbus serve God, our priests, our parishes, and our communities. Being a Knight is an experience of a lifetime.

Brothers join together to help one another become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, better citizens, and better men. The work of the Knights combines community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church.

At St. John, members serve as volunteers in parish ministries, help with special projects, and sponsor parish events including the Lenten fish bakes, dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled, and Christmas time collections of gifts and toy. Behind the scenes, they support our priests and seminarians, fund parish equipment, assist in activities and events for youth and young adults, and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

Knights come from all walks of life and seek to be a greater part their world. You can commit as much or as little time as you want, but you will belong to one of the largest Catholic communities in the world.

Knights of Columbus members have the opportunity to make a meaningful difference. Take a NEW look at the Knights; become active even if the time you have to give is limited.

This weekend, Knights will be at each of the Masses to extend a special invitation to all men of our parish to consider joining our parish Council of the Knights of Columbus.

For more information, and to get answers to your questions:

- Ask a Knight you know about becoming a Knight.
- Stop and talk with a Knight after each Mass this weekend.
- Send an email to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, and we will respond promptly.
- Go to the National "Supreme" website www.kofc.org to join online.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

R. (6) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. or: R. Alleluia.
All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of gladness, For the LORD, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. or: R. Alleluia.

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy; the LORD, amid trumpet blasts. Sing praise to God, sing praise; sing praise to our king, sing praise.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. or: R. Alleluia.

For king of all the earth is God; sing hymns of praise. God reigns over the nations, God sits upon his holy throne.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II Eph 1:17-23

Brothers and sisters: May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might, which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.

Eph 4:1-13 or 4:1-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters, I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore, it says: He ascended on high and took prisoners captive; he gave gifts to men. What does "he ascended" mean except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth? The one who descended is also the one who ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature to manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

Alleluia Mt 28:19a, 20b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Go and teach all nations, says the Lord; I am with you always, until the end of the world.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 16:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages. They will pick up serpents with their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Hymns for the Ascension of the Lord

HERE I AM, LORD

Dan Schutte

Verses

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my peo - ple cry.
2. I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my peo - ple's pain.
3. I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.

1. All who dwell in dark and sin My hand will save. I, who
2. I have wept for love of them. They turn a - way. I will
3. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Fin - est

1. made the stars of night, I will make their dark - ness bright.
2. break their hearts of stone, Give them hearts for love a - lone.
3. bread I will pro - vide Till their hearts be sat - is - fied.

1. Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?
2. I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?
3. I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you call - ing in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me.

I will hold your peo - ple in my heart.

Hail the Day that Sees Him Rise

Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE #A-

Verse 1)

Hail the day that sees him rise; Alleluia!
To this throne above the skies; Alleluia!
Christ, the Lamb for sinners giv'n, Alleluia!
Enters now the highest heaven! Alleluia!

Verse 2)

There for him high triumph waits! Alleluia!
Lift your heads, eternal gates! Alleluia!
He has conquered death and sing; Alleluia!
Take the King of glory in. Alleluia!

Verse 1)

Let no one caught in sin remain inside the lie of inward shame
But fix our eyes upon the cross and run to Him who showed great love
And bled for us—freely you've bled for us

Verse 2)

Beneath the weight of all our sin s,
You bowed to none but Heaven's will
No scheme of hell, no scoffer's crown ,
No burden great can hold you down
In strength you reign—forever let your Church proclaim

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling o - ver death by death, come awake, come awake, come and rise up from the grave,
Christ is risen from the dead, we are one with him a gain, come awake, come awake, come and rise up from the grave!

Bridge)

O, death, where is your sting? O, hell, where is your victory?
O, Church, come stand in the light—the glory of God has defeated the night! Singing, O, death, where is your sting?
O, hell, where is your victory? O, Church come stand in the light— Our God is not dead—he's alive! He's alive!!!

Bestselling author of Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist casts new light on the Virgin Mary, illuminating her role in the Old and New Testaments.

In Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary, Dr. Pitre takes readers step-by-step from the Garden of Eden to the Book of Revelation to reveal how deeply biblical Catholic beliefs about Mary really are. Dr. Pitre uses the Old Testament and Ancient Judaism to unlock how the Bible itself teaches that Mary is in fact the new Eve, the Mother of God, the Queen of Heaven and Earth, and the new Ark of the Covenant.

Celebrating 40 Years of Excellence in Catholic Education!

In 1981, St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School was hand-built by the loving hands of parishioners who wanted their children to have a faith-based education of excellence in a caring, family community. Honoring our past with continued commitment to quality academics, faith, tradition, service & community, we look toward the future with excitement. Demand for enrollment is high, and we need more classroom space to meet the needs of students & families. That is why we have initiated our Campus Expansion Program.

Help us continue the legacy...strong academics and a moral foundation for current & future generations of students. Visit www.SaintElizabethSeton.com/Giving or call 239-455-2262. Thank you for your support!
