Help Us Welcome Our New Director of Music

St. John the Evangelist is excited to welcome our new Director of Music, Mr. Edward Persin. Edward began his studies in organ and piano at the age of seven, and started his career in Catholic Liturgical Music at the age of ten in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, serving as Organist and Pianist at his local parish. He and his family relocated to Southeast Florida in 1989 where he served as Director of Music, Organist, and Pianist for parishes in the Diocese of Palm Beach as well as the Archdiocese of Miami. Edward comes to us from the Cathedral of St. Ignatius Loyola in Palm Beach Gardens. Prior to that, he served for 18 years at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Coral Springs, Florida. Mr. Persin is also a piano instructor where his students range in age from four years and up. This past year marks 38 years in Catholic Liturgical Music for Edward where he has enabled Catholics to reach a deeper sense of prayer, worship, and musical excellence. He is looking forward to meeting the parishioners of St. John the Evangelist and working with our wonderful staff and choir.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Bartimaeus was in a sad state. Blindness is a terrible affliction. He was sitting by the side of the road on the margins of life. He was forced to beg and so was totally dependent on the charity of others. His situation was hopeless.

And yet it seems that he had one kind of riches. He had faith in Jesus.

It may have been only the faith of the desperate, but faith is what matters. When he heard that Jesus was passing by, overcoming his pride and shame, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." He was not put off by the fact that Jesus didn't immediately grant his request, or by the fact that people tried to silence him. He went on crying out.

When he heard that Jesus was calling him, he jumped to his feet, threw aside his cloak, and made his way to Jesus. That cloak was the one thing of value that he had. It meant the world to him. It not only provided him with warmth, but also covered his wretchedness, thus giving him some measure of dignity and respectability. Yet he threw it aside and came to Jesus just as he was – in all his darkness, poverty, and wretchedness. And Jesus received him and gave him back his sight.

When we go to see a doctor we may be asked to take off some or all our clothes. It's not something we find easy. To strip is to become very vulnerable. But how can we have our ills diagnosed and treated, if we won't even let the doctor see them in the first place?

We too are blind in many ways. We too are poor before God. Jesus calls us to come to him. He wants to make us well. However, we find it hard to throw the "cloak" away, and come to Him just as we are. Pride makes us try to put on an outward show.

We may believe that we have to be perfect, otherwise He won't love us. To admit our sins and weaknesses would cause Him to reject us. But if we were perfect, if we were well, we wouldn't need Him at all.

We have to make a radical act of faith and trust in Jesus. We must give up pretending, covering up, hiding behind various screens and masks, and be content to appear before Him as we really are. We have nothing to fear but His kindness and healing. A patient does not feel accepted unless the worst in him/her is also accepted. So we will never feel accepted and loved by God unless we let Him see our worst side.

Many people sit at the roadside of life begging, not for money, but for love, for attention, for a feeling that they are important and that life has a meaning. Many of them are too embarrassed to ask for help. They are afraid of being silenced by the indifference of others.

Bartimaeus serves as a model for others. Many people were blind and without direction, but have found purpose, energy, and direction in their lives as a result of following Christ. An enthusiastic following of Christ results in a happy and fulfilled life, a life shared with others.

Lord, that we may see – see our needy brothers and sisters, that we may hear their silent cries, that we may not pass by. For we too were beggars, and you enriched us. We too were blind, and you enlightened us.

Catholic Faith Appeal

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

BECOME A

KNIGHT!

Community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church are the good works of the Knights of Columbus; all are based on our four core principles:

Charity – Charity is at the heart of our work and our faith — and it always has been. Knights recognize that our mission, and our faith in God, compels us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need.

Unity – Knights all know that together we can accomplish far more than any of us could individually. So, we work together to make life better in our parish and community.

Fraternity – Blessed Michael J. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus, in large part to aid the widows and children left behind when the family breadwinner died – often prematurely. The Order’s top-rated insurance program continues to do this today.

Patriotism – We are proud of our devotion to God and country and believe in standing up for both. Whether it’s in public or private, the Knights remind the world that Catholics support their nations and are amongst the greatest citizens.

The more active members we have, the more we can accomplish.

At St. John Knights serve parish ministries, help with special projects and sponsor parish events such as the Lenten Fish Bake, dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled and Christmas toy collection. Behind the scenes they support our clergy, fund parish equipment, assist in events for our youth and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

You can learn more about the Knights of Columbus, and our local Council at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church before and after each of the Masses October 30 & 31. Stop and talk with a Knight, look for their maroon shirts.

Requirements are few; rewards are many!

For more information about the Knights, send a message to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, or call (239) 228-3938 and leave a message. We’ll respond promptly.

Faith Formation Youth Celebrate Our Lady of the Holy Rosary!

Children from our 2nd, 3rd, and 6th grade Faith Formation classes prayed the Holy Rosary this week in honor of our Blessed Mother and the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. We are so blessed to have a beautiful outdoor statue of Our Lady on our campus, just past the playground and back by the lake near the Pulte Family Life Center. Our Lady of Fatima

Next Tuesday, October 26, Catholic Author/Speaker and Physicist Dr. David Keys Will Present:

The Incredible Account of Our Lady of Fatima

His presentation will be at 11:30 a.m. in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center

In 1917 in the midst of World War I, Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal. Many consider the appearance of Our Lady in Fatima to be the greatest of all the Marian apparitions. Dr. Keys will take you through the circumstances at the time, the people involved, the messages of Fatima, and the miraculous event itself. This is an apparition which, while given to three children at a particular place and time, is highly significant for the world and for our times.

Reservations are appreciated;
Send a message to aff@sjecc.com to register.

David J. Keys, Ph.D. Biography

Dr. David Keys has a Ph.D. in Physics from Washington University in St. Louis, MO (1984) and a Masters in Theology from Franciscan University in Steubenville, OH (2013). For 38 years he worked in the field of Medical Physics, being involved in the physics of radiation treatment of cancer patients and in the physics of diagnostic imaging of patients. During that time, he was named a Fellow by the American College of Radiology, by the American Association of Physicists in Medicine, and by the American College of Medical Physics. In addition to his professional life, Dr. Keys raised seven children (six boys and a girl), coaching over 800 of his children's games, while living the Parish life. However, in order to more deeply understand his Catholic Faith, he entered into a Masters Theology program at Franciscan University of Steubenville in 2002. It took a while, but he persevered, and in 2013, he received his Master's degree in Theology. Subsequently, he left Medical Physics and has become a Catholic speaker/author.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday, organized by the Society for the Propagation for the Faith, will be celebrated the weekend of October 23 and 24, 2021. This annual Eucharistic celebration joins Catholics worldwide into one community of Faith, inviting us to recommit ourselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and sacrifice.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme, "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He encourages us, as Christians, not to keep the Lord to ourselves but to be men and women who, by their testimony of life, help to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel.

Throughout the world, Churches and parishioners with low economic means need your prayers and assistance. In Africa, thousands of young men are preparing for the priesthood, and in Asia, millions of children receive an education from Religious Sisters. In Latin America, Catechists travel to remote areas to bring the Good News of God's great love to families, and in the Pacific, religious leaders bring the Lord's mercy and peace to those in need.

The World Mission Sunday Collection in the Diocese of Venice in Florida will take place on the weekend of October 23 and 24, 2021. Along with your prayers, won't you please support the Missions in the most generous way you are able? Thank you for your kind response and prayers!

I take this opportunity to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Jer 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD: Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: the LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng. They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble. For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. (3) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, we were like men dreaming. Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them." The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the torrents in the southern desert. Those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown, They shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Reading II Heb 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Alleluia Cf. 2 Tm 1:10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Psalm Basics for Catholics
Seeing Salvation History in a New Way
By John Bergsma

Jesus prayed the Psalms.

And two thousand years later, we Christians still pray these poem-songs. At every mass and in the liturgy of the hours, the psalms are sung, chanted, and prayed. They touch every aspect of our human existence from worship to sadness to fear and to hope. Let's learn to pray the prayers Joseph and Mary taught their little son.
