WORSHIP AID EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Join us for a special All Souls Day Mass of remembrance, as we pray for the repose of the faithful departed.

Tuesday, November 2, 2021 6:00 p.m.

From Saturday, October 30th through the end of November, the Book of Remembrance will be displayed in front of the ambo. All parishioners are invited to write the names of deceased loved ones to be included in daily prayer.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Failure to love is the great failure in a Christian. Often, alas, it is not even seen as a sin. Sin is recognized when it means doing harm to a neighbor, but not when it means failing to love or withholding love.

A story is told about a man who sold an old “hanger” of a car to an unsuspecting stranger and who later went to Confession. Afterwards he met one of his old pals in the local pub. When one of his pals heard he had been to Confession, he said, “I hope you told the priest how you cheated that man over the car.”

“I did no such thing,” he replied. “I tell the priest my sins. But he has no right to know my business.”

The great danger facing church-going people is that they don’t see the connection between what they do in church on a Sunday and what they do in relation to their neighbor on a weekday.

People may examine their conscience but leave whole fields untouched: the conscientious carrying out of one’s duty, honesty in business matters, justice, respect and co-operation among those who live under the same roof ... and so on. For such people religion is divorced from life. It is a private matter between them and God. According to the Bible, a religion like that is a distortion. Worse, it is an abomination.

It’s very easy to separate the two great commandments. In a sense there is only one commandment – the commandment of love. It is like a coin, one entity with two sides. It is impossible to have one without the other. It’s not that we hate our neighbors. No, we don’t hate them. It’s just that we refuse to take them into our heart. If the truth were told, we are indifferent to them.

We all have a great capacity to love, but sadly we use it all too seldom. The actor, Christopher Reeve, was famous for his portrayal of Superman in the movies. However, as a result of a fall from a horse, he ended up in a wheelchair, paralyzed from the neck down. He said he got 100,000 letters of sympathy and support from people. This led him to ask: Why does it take a tragedy before we show our appreciation for one another?”

We leave it too late and then are full of regrets. We wait until it is too late to tell or show others that we love them. We leave it too late to mend a quarrel, too late to enjoy health, or the gift of our children or our parents.

Jesus said to the Scribe, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” Knowing which were the two most important commandments was the first step. Putting them into practice was the second step. We are not far from the Kingdom – just a step away. In order to take that step, we need God to touch our hearts.

Catholic Faith Appeal

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

Special Veterans Day Remembrance Mass Thursday, November 11, 2021 @ 8:30 a.m.

Veterans Day is a time for us to pay our respects to those who have served. It pays tribute to all American veterans—living or dead—but especially gives thanks to living veterans who served their country honorably during war or peacetime.

It is observed each year on November 11th, the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I. This not only preserves the historical significance of the date but helps focus attention on the important purpose of Veterans Day: a celebration to honor America's veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

The special liturgy at the morning Mass will include a Prelude with welcome, presentation of the colors by the Collier County Sheriff's Color Guard, the Pledge of Allegiance, and Our National Anthem.

During the Concluding Rites, a wreath will be laid in our Veterans Memorial, and it will conclude with the bugle call, Taps.

Join us in prayer to thank people for risking their lives to defend America, reflect on the importance of peace, and draw attention to the challenges facing many veterans.

For one day, let us stand united in respect for you, our veterans.

Community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church are the good works of the Knights of Columbus; all are based on our four core principles:

Charity – Charity is at the heart of our work and our faith — and it always has been. Knights recognize that our mission, and our faith in God, compels us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need.

Unity – Knights all know that together we can accomplish far more than any of us could individually. So, we work together to make life better in our parish and community.

Fraternity – Blessed Michael J. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus, in large part to aid the widows and children left behind when the family breadwinner died – often prematurely. The Order’s top-rated insurance program continues to do this today.

Patriotism – We are proud of our devotion to God and country and believe in standing up for both. Whether it’s in public or private, the Knights remind the world that Catholics support their nations and are amongst the greatest citizens.

The more active members we have, the more we can accomplish.

At St. John Knights serve parish ministries, help with special projects and sponsor parish events such as the Lenten Fish Bake, dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled and Christmas toy collection. Behind the scenes they support our clergy, fund parish equipment, assist in events for our youth and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

You can learn more about the Knights of Columbus, and our local Council at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church before and after each of the Masses October 30 & 31. Stop and talk with a Knight, look for their maroon shirts.

Requirements are few; rewards are many!

For more information about the Knights, send a message to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, or call (239) 228-3938 and leave a message. We'll respond promptly.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation Children are Busy Preparing for First Reconciliation

This past week in Faith Formation, many of our children preparing for First Reconciliation learned about the story of Pentecost, the birthday of our Church! They were reminded that Jesus gave us the church as a gift to pass on His message to everyone! He passes on that message to us at Mass every Sunday! The parents of these children had their parent session, and many visited their children's classrooms to learn more about how to help their children prepare for this very special sacrament of healing. As part of their preparation, children use the Blessed First Reconciliation curriculum published by Dynamic Catholic. Videos are available online for viewing at Blessed | Dynamic Catholic. Please continue to pray for our children preparing for their sacraments this year. Children who have received the sacrament of reconciliation, may enjoy watching these videos as well to encourage frequently receiving the sacrament.

"The Church passes on the sacraments so that you can continue to receive the grace you need to become the best-version-of-yourself, grow in virtue, and live a holy life." (Dynamic Catholic Blessed, 95).

WATCH THE LAST THINGS

This film presents the reality of death and what will follow for every person: first the particular Judgment before God, then Heaven or Hell as our destination for all eternity. The Catholic teaching on Purgatory is also explained, giving examples from the Scriptures and philosophy.

LEARN TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE FOUR SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO: THE GOOD SHEPHERD

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

LISTEN PURGATORY BY DR. SCOTT HAHN

Covering the Biblical evidence for the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist, and more, the remarkable set is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants makes to the Catholic Faith.

FOR YOUNG MEN AGE 18+

Are You Interested in Becoming Catholic?

When Jesus turned and saw them following he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbi," where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." ~ John 1:38-39

Perhaps this is the time for you to "come and see" what Jesus has to offer you in the Catholic way of life.

RCIA is a process designed to prepare adults to come into full initiation of the Catholic Church, and be an integral part of the loving community of Saint John the Evangelist and the universal Catholic Church.

The RCIA Journey is for those:

- Never Baptized
- Baptized in another Christian tradition
- Baptized Catholic as an infant, but not raised as a Catholic or received additional Sacraments

We invite you to ask your questions about the Catholic Faith and the RCIA; to explore the beauty of sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition to develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We invite you to inquire with no obligation.

To Our Parish Family: Encourage and invite your family members, friends, co-workers, or others to "come and see" and ask their questions about the Catholic faith.

For more information, please contact:

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Dt 6:2-6

Moses spoke to the people, saying: "Fear the LORD, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you, and thus have long life. Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them, that you may grow and prosper the more, in keeping with the promise of the LORD, the God of your fathers, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.

"Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength, O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives! And blessed be my rock! Extolled be God my savior. You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Reading II Heb 7:23-28

Brothers and sisters: The levitical priests were many because they were prevented by death from remaining in office, but Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them.

It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens. He has no need, as did the high priests, to offer sacrifice day after day, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did that once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints men subject to weakness to be high priests, but the word of the oath, which was taken after the law, appoints a son, who has been made perfect forever.

Alleluia Jn 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord; and my father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 12:28b-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Psalm Basics for Catholics
Seeing Salvation History in a New Way
By John Bergsma

Jesus prayed the Psalms.

And two thousand years later, we Christians still pray these poem-songs. At every mass and in the liturgy of the hours, the psalms are sung, chanted, and prayed. They touch every aspect of our human existence from worship to sadness to fear and to hope. Let's learn to pray the prayers Joseph and Mary taught their little son.

Join WoW every Thursday at 9:30 in the Alexandria Room, Claussen Center.

This five-screening package is offered for only $149 and takes 60-90 minutes to complete. To receive a $10 discount register by calling toll free 1-888-653-6450, text the word "circle" to 797979, or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/communitypartners.
