Jamaica Outreach Program

2nd Collection December 11-12

The pandemic continues to devastate the Jamaican economy with massive unemployment. Hunger is still rampant throughout the island. As of this writing, schools are only partially open and online learning is limited. As of mid-November, only 16% of the Jamaican population was vaccinated. To contain the spread, there are mandatory lockdowns and curfews; but the health care system continues to be stressed. We are asking for your prayers and generosity to help with this crisis.

Please consider making a donation on the weekend of December 11-12.

Envelopes marked JOP or checks (memo JOP) can be dropped in the regular collection baskets at the church doors

- Cash (or checks payable to JOP) can be dropped in the JOP volunteer’s basket outside the church on Dec. 11 and 12
- Donate online at www.JamaicaOutreach.org/give
- Mail a check payable to Jamaica Outreach, PO Box 110581, Naples, FL, 34108

The poor served by this St. John's ministry are eternally grateful for your past and future support.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

It's obvious from today's Gospel that John the Baptist was a very practical man. Christianity is a very practical and social religion. It is not just a matter of God and me, but of God, me, and others.

There is a story about a cobbler by the name of Martin who lived and worked in a basement room. Its one window enabled him to see just the feet of the passers-by on the street above. But since there was hardly a pair of boots or shoes that had not passed through his hands, he was able to identify the passers-by by their shoes.

Life had been hard on him. His wife died, leaving him with a young son. However, the son had barely reached the age when he could be of help to his father when he fell ill and died. Martin was devastated. After burying his son, he gave way to despair. At the same time, he gave up the practice of his religion and took to the bottle.

One day an old friend dropped in. Martin poured out his soul to him. His friend advised him to read a little from the Gospels each day, promising him that if he did so, light and hope would come back into his life.

Martin took his friend's advice. At the end of each day, he would take down the Gospels from the shelf and read a little. At first he meant to read only on Sundays, but he found it so interesting that he soon read every day. Slowly things began to change. Hope crept back into his life.

One night as he sat reading he thought he heard someone calling him: "Martin, look out into the street tomorrow, for I will come to visit you." Since there was no one else in the room, he reckoned it must have been the Lord himself who had spoken to him.

When he sat down to his work the next day, he was very excited. As he worked, he kept a close eye on the window. He scrutinized every pair of shoes or boots that passed above him. He was looking for someone special. But all he saw were the usual people passing by.

In the early afternoon, he saw a pair of familiar boots. They belonged to an old soldier called Stephen. Going to the window, he looked up and saw the old man hitting his hands together for it was bitterly cold outside. Martin wished that he would move on, because he was afraid he might obstruct his view, and that he would not see the Lord when He passed.

But old Stephen just stood there by the railing. Finally it occurred to Martin that maybe Stephen had nothing to eat all day. So he tapped on the window and beckoned him to come in. He sat him by the fire and gave him tea and bread. Stephen was most grateful. He said he hadn't eaten for two days. As he left, Martin gave him his second overcoat as a shield against the biting cold. All the time Martin was entertaining Stephen, he had not forgotten the window. Every time a shadow fell on it he looked up, but nobody special passed.

Night fell. Martin finished his work and very reluctantly closed the window shutters. After supper he took down the Gospels and, as was his custom, opened the book at random. There his eyes fell on these words: "The people came to John and asked: 'What must we do?' And he said: 'If anyone has two coats he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.'"

Martin put down the book and reflected. He understood then that the Lord had indeed come to him that day in the person of Stephen, and that he had made Him welcome. And his heart was flooded with joy, a joy the likes of which he had never before experienced.

Martin had already received Christ into his life through a prayerful reading of the Gospels. So the second step followed naturally: to make room for Him in the person of a needy neighbor.

We are preparing for the Lord's coming at Christmas. And we have no doubt but that He will come and bring gifts to us. But He doesn't come to us only at Christmas. He comes to us always, and at the oddest times and places, and wearing different disguises. He comes in the person in need.

Advent urges us to prepare a way for the Lord. There is no better way to prepare than to be welcoming towards those in need. The way to find peace and happiness and goodness is to forget oneself and love others.

Parish Financial Information

St. John the Evangelist Financials

Catholic Faith Appeal

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

Thank you to all parishioners who have generously given to this year's Catholic Faith Appeal, allowing us to reach 100% of our initial goal of $572,000!

As a reminder, the Diocesan CFA structure allows for any excess in goal achievement up to 25% to be returned to the Parish free from consideration in the setting of future CFA goals. This is a wonderful way to contribute to the Parish with the confidence that all of your contributions are used by the Parish and there is no impact on future CFA Parish goals.

With this in mind, we are now setting a second goal of 25% over our assigned goal, or an additional $143,000. These funds would allow us to do many wonderful things in the Parish.

For those who have not yet given, we prayerfully ask that you consider giving to CFA to help us reach this new goal. Likewise, this is an option for those looking for an additional year-end giving opportunity.

There are several ways in which to give to the CFA:

- A check made payable to Catholic Faith Appeal
- Credit or debit card (visit dioceseofvenice.org and click on Catholic Faith Appeal Donate Now)
- Gift of Securities – Federal tax laws allow a charitable deduction for the full market value of the appreciated securities on the date of your gift.
- IRA –

If you are making Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) a contribution will count toward the RMD and be free from income tax. Any Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) will be tax free. The funds must be paid directly from your account to the Catholic Faith Appeal – check with your tax advisor, financial advisor or IRA administrator for details.

If you are over the age of 70½, you may donate up to $100,000 per year from your Individual Retirement Account tax free to a charitable cause. Spouses may also participate to the same level if they have a separate IRA, giving married couples the opportunity to donate up to $200,000.

Christmas Toy Drive

LAST CHANCE to Make a Needy Child's Christmas Merry!

December 11 & 12, 2021

Bring your toy donation to the church THIS WEEKEND, the collection "bin" is in the Narthex.

Donations of new toys or other appropriate gifts are requested for boys and girls up to 17 years of age. Donations of items for older kids are especially welcome. Toys can be wrapped or unwrapped. If wrapped, mark the package with toy description, girl or boy, and age level.

The annual toy drive is conducted by the Knights of Columbus St John Council 11281.

This year, the North Collier Fire Rescue District Firefighters and Paramedics will again distribute your gifts through its Adopt a Family Program aka "Angela's Angels." This program is named in loving memory of Angela Coffey, a NCFR employee who pioneered the annual Adopt a Family program. Because of her passion for serving, the program continues to inspire others to do the same.

Angela's Angels coordinates with Collier County Public Schools and identifies children and families in need. The NCFR Firefighters then deliver the donated gifts and other essentials to those families!

This collection sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, distribution by the Angela's Angel program of the North Collier Fire Rescue District.

Celebrating the Third Sunday of Advent

The Third Sunday of Advent, is Gaudete Sunday, which means “rejoice.” The rose candle of the Advent Wreath is lit, in addition to two purple candles. Gaudete Sunday represents the halfway point until Christ’s birth at Christmas. (www.usccb.org). Children in Faith Formation made Advent Wreaths to display in their home throughout the Advent Season.

Celebrating the Saints: Our Lady of Guadalupe and Saint Juan Diego

Under this title, Our Lady is the patron of Mexico, the United States, and all of the Americas, as well as the protector of unborn children. In 1531, she appeared in a vision to the peasant Juan Diego on Tepeyac Hill near Mexico City and charged him with asking the bishop to build a church on that spot. But the bishop demanded a sign, so Our Lady had Juan gather flowers in his cloak in December to take to the bishop.

When Juan opened his cloak, the colorful image of Guadalupe was emblazoned on the cactuscloth. That icon is preserved in the most famous shrine in the Western Hemisphere, and Our Lady of Guadalupe continues to inspire poor and oppressed people worldwide. We celebrate the Feast Day of St. Juan Diego on December 9th and Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12th. (info: myusccb@usccb.org) Our Lady of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego, pray for us.

December 13th : Celebrating the Feast Day of St. Lucy ~ Patroness of the Blind

St. Lucy was born into a wealthy family and suffered greatly during the time of Christian persecution. Her father died when she was young. Her name, Lucia, means light and she was often known to wear a wreath of lit candles on her head so that her hands would be free to help those in need. A light to others throughout her life, St. Lucy was martyred for her Christian faith.

Her feast day is celebrated on December 13th to mark the beginning of the Christmas season in Sweden, Norway, and many Swedish-speaking regions of Finland. Candles light the way for Christmas and bring hope at a time that is full of darkness in that region. It is said to be a tradition still that on St. Lucy’s feast day, the oldest daughter in the family would dress up at St. Lucy in a white robe and red sash, as well as a wreath of lights on her head, serving coffee and baked goods to the family. Some churches in Sweden still have St. Lucy processions on her feast day. Saint Lucy, pray for us. (Visit www.catholic.org to read more about her beautiful and brave life.)

Thanks to Our Parishioners for Supporting the Trip to the National Catholic Youth Conference

Thanks to the financial generosity of you, the parishioners of St. John the Evangelist, our CYO Youth Group recently went on pilgrimage to the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) in Indianapolis, Indiana. We joined 11,000 other high school teens from dioceses across the United States.

Our group of 16 teens and 4 adults, along with Fr. Tom, spent 3 days and nights learning and praising God. In a stadium that has hosted the Super Bowl, we knelt in Adoration, received individual reconciliation, and participated in the holy sacrifice of the Mass with 20 bishops and hundreds of priests. We sang along with live praise and worship music, listened to testimonies from many youth and adults, and shouted in unison “Enciende el Fuego” (“Ablaze” with the Holy Spirit, which was the theme of the conference).

For many of us, this trip was our first visit to the mid-west. We experienced 20 degree weather, saw the beautiful autumn leaves falling, and attended Sunday Mass at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church (yes, really!) next door to the Indiana Convention Center.

NCYC is now an annual event championed by the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry. Attending was inspirational, informative, and invigorating to our relationship with Jesus Christ! SJE’s CYO Youth Group is already planning to attend NCYC in 2022. Thank you for all your prayers and for the financial support you provided to make this experience possible.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Zep 3:14-18a

Shout for joy, O daughter Zion! Sing joyfully, O Israel! Be glad and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The LORD has removed the judgment against you he has turned away your enemies; the King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst, you have no further misfortune to fear. On that day, it shall be said to Jerusalem: Fear not, O Zion, be not discouraged! The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a mighty savior; he will rejoice over you with gladness, and renew you in his love, he will sing joyfully because of you, as one sings at festivals.

Responsorial Psalm Is 12:2-3, 4, 5-6.

R. (6) Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

God indeed is my savior; I am confident and unafraid. My strength and my courage is the LORD, and he has been my savior. With joy you will draw water at the fountain of salvation.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Give thanks to the LORD, acclaim his name; among the nations make known his deeds, proclaim how exalted is his name.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Sing praise to the LORD for his glorious achievement; let this be known throughout all the earth. Shout with exultation, O city of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel!

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Reading II Phil 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters: Rejoice in the Lord always.

I shall say it again: rejoice! Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia Is 61:1 (cited in Lk 4:18)

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 3:10-18

The crowds asked John the Baptist, "What should we do?" He said to them in reply, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" He answered them, "Stop collecting more than what is prescribed." Soldiers also asked him, "And what is it that we should do?" He told them, "Do not practice extortion, do not falsely accuse anyone, and be satisfied with your wages."

Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." Exhorting them in many other ways, he preached good news to the people.

I WANT TO WALK AS A CHILD OF THE LIGHT

HOUSTON

Verses

1. I want to walk as a child of the light; I want to
2. I want to see the bright-ness of God; I want to
3. I'm look-ing for the com-ing of Christ; I want to

1. fol-low Je-sus. God set the stars to give
2. look at Je-sus. Clear Sun of righ-teous-ness,
3. be with Je-sus. When we have run with

1. light to the world; the star of my life is Je-sus.
2. shine on my path, and show me the way to the Fa-ther.
3. pa-tience the race, we shall know the joy of Je-sus.

Refrain

In him there is no dark-ness at all; the night and the day are both a-like. The Lamb is the light of the cit-y of God: Shine in my heart, Lord Je-sus.

The Divine Gift Boutique – Merry Christmas!

Celebrate the Season with the Divine Gift Boutique. We are pleased to offer angels, nativities, ornaments, home décor, stocking stuffers, and much more! We also offer unique religious and sacramental gifts, such as crucifixes, rosaries, statues, holy cards, Celtic gifts, and medals. We stock the renowned Trappist preserves made by the Roman Catholic priests and brothers of St. Joseph's Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. Additionally, we are proud to provide beautiful handmade Christmas gifts, crafted by parishioners and one of our sewing ministry members. Located just inside the church entrance, the Divine Gift Boutique is open Saturdays 2:30-6:15 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. We are looking forward to serving you!

Verse 1) Higher than the mountains that I face. Stronger than the power of the grave. Constant in the trial and the change. One thing remains, one thing remains (chorus) Verse 2) On and on and on and on it goes. It overwhelms and satisfies my soul. And I never ever have to be afraid. One thing remains, one thing remains (chorus)

Your love ne - ver fails, it ne - ver gives up, ne - ver runs out on me. Repeat 3x Bridge) In death in life I'm confident and covered by the power of your great love. My debt is paid, there's nothing that can separate my heart from your great love.

Refrain) Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord. Oh, taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

Verse 1) I will bless the Lord at all times. Praise shall always be on my lips; my soul shall glory in the Lord; for God has been so good to me. (Refrain) Verse 2) Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise God's name. I called the Lord, who answered me; from all my troubles I was set free. (Refrain) Verse 3) Worship the Lord, all you people. You'll want for nothing if you ask. Taste and see that the Lord is good; in God we need put all our trust. (Refrain)

Eucharistic Ministers Needed

Are you being called to serve the Eucharist at the weekend liturgies? Please prayerfully consider serving in this way. The 1:00 p.m. Sunday Mass needs additional ministers, as do some of the other Masses.

- Are you able to walk without assistance and climb the altar steps?
- Fully vaccinated?
- Able to arrive 20 minutes before the beginning of Mass?

If you have questions or would like further information, please feel free to email Maureen Reed at maureen@sjecc.com. Volunteer application packets are available in the Parish Office.

The Ladies of Charity SWF 2021 Christmas Sneaker Drive

Benefits Needy Children in our Community

It's that time of year! Time to share, once again, in the joy of giving. Help us reach this year's goal of 700 new pairs of sneakers!

Here's how you may help...

- Look for the ornament tags hanging on the decorated trees in the Narthex and Pulte Center.
- These gift tag ornaments contain a child's name, grade or age, gender, and shoe size.
- Take one or more ornament tags and generously donate NEW sneakers
- Wrap your package and be sure to attach the ornament tag to the outside of your wrapped gift box.
- Place your wrapped sneakers—with the ornament tag attached—into a decorated box next to a Christmas Tree by DECEMBER 12.

Thank you, in advance, for your generosity!
