The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Cana was in the vicinity of Nazareth where Jesus had grown up. His mother was invited to a wedding, and Jesus and His disciples were also there. John's Gospel uses this simple, family event to open our minds to some profound insights. The supply of wine ran short at the reception and Jesus' mother intervened; was seemingly rebuffed; and yet she told the attendants to do whatever Jesus told them to do. We thought we were just looking in on a reception, but John reveals mysteries to us that continue to envelop our lives today.

Our lectionary combines this gospel event with a passage from Isaiah filled with marriage allusions, depicting God's desires for his people. The marriage covenant had, throughout the long history of Israel, been a favorite way to describe God's special love and delight in his people. God shall rejoice in you is both an assurance for us today, and a challenge. Can we hear such words as truly addressed to us? We are the people God called to be his own, to be followers of Jesus and to know that, in the words of the headwaiter in today's Gospel, we share the best wine that has been saved until now. In our long liturgical history, wine has always been a symbol to us of the lifeblood of Jesus poured out for us. This is the love that envelops us!

The Gospel concludes by telling us that the disciples began to believe in him. This was just the beginning of their faith journey. As they stayed and traveled with Jesus they would come to deeper insights.

We, likewise, are on a journey of faith. We gather today because we believe and rejoice in the Risen Lord Jesus speaking to us and encouraging us to follow Him. Jesus continues to call us beyond all human understanding, into a deeper sharing in His Paschal Mystery. We strive to remember that God always delights in us and wants us to be with Him. Paul reminds us in Corinthians today that we all have unique gifts to offer for the encouragement and strengthening of our brothers and sisters on this same journey. We never travel alone!

The image of family and friends gathered at a wedding feast shows us that we are all in this together. We have gifts to share, for God's Spirit has been poured out on us. Today we are invited to share the joy of a great wedding banquet and reception; Jesus is there with His disciples, and He wants us to be there with them to participate to the fullest.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Readings for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch.

Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

R. (3) Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name!

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Worship the LORD in holy attire. Tremble before him, all the earth; Say among the nations: The LORD is king. He governs the peoples with equity.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Reading II 1 Cor 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Alleluia Cf. 2 Thes 2:14

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Luke: The Gospel of Mercy Presented by Deacon John Sebastian

Deacon John Sebastian presents a new adult education series, "The Gospel of Luke--the Gospel of Mercy," beginning Tuesday, January 18, at 11:30 a.m. in the Pulte Center. This church year is Year C in the three-year liturgical cycle, and our Sunday liturgies feature the gospel according to St. Luke. St. Luke's sources for his Gospel were primarily the Blessed Virgin Mary and the apostles, especially Saints Peter and Paul, with whom Luke traveled extensively.

Luke's gospel is often called the gospel of mercy because his gospel features unique insights of mercy which are not found in any other gospel. A few of these are: The Good Samaritan, The Prodigal Son, and Jesus' forgiveness of persecutors as He hung on the cross. Luke's gospel features the importance of women to Jesus' ministry. It is also Luke's gospel that has most of the infancy narrative: the Annunciation, the Visitation, John the Baptist, the birth of Jesus, and the angels' announcement to the shepherds, the Presentation, and the boy Jesus in the great temple. Accompanying your study of the Gospel of Luke will be a weekly world-class video presentation from Rome and Assisi hosted by prolific author Dr. Paul Thigpen and life applications from Fr. Jeffrey Kirby. The $40 fee is the cost of a magnificent book with collection-quality reproductions of some of the greatest religious art in the world as well as reference material and commentary with suggested discussion questions for each chapter in the gospel.

To register for this class, please email the Adult Faith Formation ministry at aff@sjecc.com. Feel free to bring a snack and/or beverage when you come to class! The classes begin Tuesday, January 18, at 11:30 a.m. and will last approximately 1.25 hours. See you then!

Discovering the Fullness of Reality: How Partial Truths Obscure the Union of Faith and Science Presented by David J. Keys, PhD

Many of our Youth and Young Adults are leaving the Faith! Why? Many believe that Catholicism is incompatible with what they are learning about Faith versus Science in the media or in school. You are invited to hear a lecture titled Discovering the Fullness of Reality by Dr. David Keys. Dr. Keys will share how Faith and Science do not contradict one another, but rather complement each other. Together, the Truths of Faith and Science provide the FULLNESS OF REALITY, and answers the WHO, WHAT, WHY, and HOW of our very existence.

Date/Time: Tuesday, January 18, 2022 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Or Wednesday, January 19, 2022 6:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Location: Nazareth Rm, Pulte Family Center

Please send an email to aff@sjecc.com to register.

March for Life

Ave Maria March For Life

Saturday, January 22, 2022 ~ 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Organized and Sponsored By:

Ave Maria Catholic Church Respect Life Ministry

Ave Maria University (AMU)

Community Pregnancy Clinics, Inc. (CPCI)

Featuring Pro-Life Speaker: Pam Stenzel

Special Guest: Bishop Frank Dewane, Diocese of Venice

Each year, for forty-nine years, pro-life Americans have steadfastly remained strong in their conviction and commitment to stand up for the protection of the unborn. Their efforts will not waver nor cease. It is our firm conviction as Catholics that, "Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life." (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270). This conviction has been a part of the Church's constant witness since the Apostolic age and has inspired millions to defend human life at every stage.

On January 22nd, members of the Ave Maria Catholic Church Respect Life Ministry, along with Ave Maria University (AMU) and Community Pregnancy Clinics, Inc. (CPCI), will be organizing a March For Life in recognition of the right to life of every human being from conception to natural death. All faiths are welcome to join us for this first time event in Ave Maria. We encourage both young and old, singles and families, ministry groups, etc., to join us. The march begins from the AMU football field.

For more information on registering small or large groups, gathering area, route, speakers, questions, etc, contact Sharon Levesque at: amprespectlifeministry@gmail.com.

Safe Environment Training

As part of the Safe Environment Program, the Diocese of Venice requires that all employees and those volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults be fingerprinted and complete online training in Safe Environment prior to beginning employment or volunteering. Please visit <https://dioceseofvenice.org/offices/programs/safeenvironment/>.

Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. Further, if Diocesan personnel or volunteers are involved, also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at 941-416-6114.

If you are a volunteer or in a ministry at St. John the Evangelist, please contact Operations Manager, Colleen Donnelly, to check your compliance status. colleen@sjecc.com

Divine Gift Boutique

Our Divine Gift Boutique offers unique religious and sacramental gifts, such as crucifixes, rosaries, statues, holy cards, Celtic gifts, and medals. We also stock the renowned Trappist preserves made by the Roman Catholic priests and brothers of St. Joseph's Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. Additionally, we have beautiful hand-made gifts crafted by one of our very own sewing ministry members.

The Divine Gift Boutique is located just inside the church entrance, open Saturdays 2:30 p.m.-6:15 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. We are looking forward to serving you!

Valentine Dinner Dance

Thursday, February 10th from 6-9 p.m.
Ballroom at St. John the Evangelist Church

The Dinner:

Four course dinner, choice of chicken piccata or pork tenderloin entrée.
Full cash bar.

The Music:

Billy Dean and Dawn

Billy Dean and Dawn are one of the most versatile musical groups today. They perform high energy nightclub dance music, as well as laid back jazz standards, and then turn around and mesmerize crowds with their Broadway and classical repertoire.

Billy Dean plays keyboard and sax, sings, and does the arranging, while Dawn Birch, a former district Metropolitan Opera winner, is the vocalist.

Audiences find Dawn's ability to blend her classical training (graduate studies in voice at the Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music) and popular style impressive, to say the least. With her three-octave range, she makes it possible to emulate artists like Sarah Brightman, Linda Eder, and Karen Carpenter to Mariah Carey and Cher.

Although Billy is the more reserved half of the duo, his talent is certainly not. His piano playing, keyboard arrangements, saxophone solos and vocal ability provide the perfect combination of artistry. On Thursday, February 10th at 6:00 p.m., the tall — both are over 6 feet — handsome duo will bring their toe-tapping act to the Ballroom of St. John the Evangelist Church.

The cost is only $65 per person; jackets are requested.

Buy your tickets early, there will be no sales at the door.

Select your seats and make your entree selection in person at the Parish Office or online at sjecc.com, click on "Ways to Give," then click on "Giving Opportunities."

Tickets will also be available after each of the masses the next two weekends, January 15 & 16 and January 22 & 23.

For more information contact Michael Mick at mmick@deangelisdiamond.com.
