Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem saying, "Where is the He who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw His star when it rose and have come to worship Him." ~ Matthew 2:1-12

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

There is a legend that says there were not three but four Magi. The name of the fourth was Artaban. He too saw the star and decided to follow it, taking with him a sapphire, a ruby, and a pearl as gifts for the new King.

His three friends, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar were waiting for him at an agreed spot. However, on the way there he came upon a man lying wounded by the roadside. He brought the man to an inn and had him taken care of.

When he finally got to the agreed meeting place, he found that his friends had left. Needing a camel and supplies to get across the desert, he sold the sapphire to buy them. When he reached Bethlehem, once again he was too late. Joseph and Mary had taken the baby and fled into Egypt to escape Herod's killers.

In the house where he was staying, there was a year-old baby boy. The mother feared for the life of her child. One evening, soldiers came to the door. Artaban went out to meet them. With the ruby he bribed the captain not to enter, and the child was saved. The mother was overjoyed.

Artaban, however, was sad because now he had only the pearl left as a gift for the King. During the years that followed, he searched in many places for the King. But he always seemed to be late. Some thirty years later, he came to Jerusalem. He was now old and weary and dispirited. A number of crucifixions were taking place the very day he arrived. He was horrified to hear that Jesus was among those who were being executed. He hurried towards the hill of execution. Perhaps the pearl he had could save His life.

However, on his way to Calvary, he met a girl who was fleeing from a band of soldiers. The girl's father had incurred large debts, and she was being sold into slavery. Artaban took out his pearl, gave it to the soldiers, and the girl was allowed to go. But now he had to face his King empty-handed.

Just then the sky began to get dark. An earthquake shook the ground. Houses began to rock. Roof tiles began to fly. One of them hit Artaban on the head. Mortally wounded he struggled onwards. But he died before reaching the hill of execution. He never quite succeeded in catching up with his King.

Yet in a sense, Artaban always had his King. All those years he had carried him in his mind and heart. The King had inspired in him deeds of love and generosity and had illuminated all his journeying with meaning and hope.

Artaban had found God, because the person who is genuinely searching for God has already found him. Artaban is a model of faith. Those who believe in and love Jesus are changed; they act and live differently.

Solemnity of Mary

Readings for the Octave Day of Christmas Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God

Reading I Nm 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them: The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace! So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. (2a) May God bless us in his mercy.

May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us. So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation.

R. May God bless us in his mercy.

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide.

R. May God bless us in his mercy.

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you! May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R. May God bless us in his mercy.

Reading II Gal 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters: When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Alleluia Heb 1:1-2

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

When eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Mass Prayers

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Readings for the Epiphany of the Lord

Reading I Is 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13.

R. (cf. 11) Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.
O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.
Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.
The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.
For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

Reading II Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Alleluia Mt 2:2

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mt 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

KINGS OF ORIENT / John H. Hopkins, Jr.

We three kings of Orient are Bearing gifts we traverse afar. Field and fountain, moor and mountain Following yonder star. Oh, star of wonder, star of night. Star with royal beauty bright. Westward leading, still proceeding. Guide us to thy perfect light.

Born a king on Bethlehem's plain. Gold I bring to crown Him again. King forever, ceasing never. Over us all to reign. Oh, star of wonder, star of night. Star with royal beauty bright. Westward leading, still proceeding. Guide us to thy perfect light. We three kings, we three kings Myrrh is mine, it's bitter perfume. Breaths a life of gathering gloom. Sorrowing, sighing, bleeding dying Sealed in the stone-cold tomb. Oh, star of wonder, star of night. Star with royal beauty bright. Westward leading, still proceeding. Guide us to thy perfect light.

Verse 1) Over the skies of Bethlehem appeared a star; While angels sang to lowly shepherds, Three wise men seeking truth travelled from afar Hoping to find the Child from heaven, Falling on their knees they bowed Before the humble Prince of Peace [to chorus] Verse 2) The sun cannot compare to the glory of your love, There is no shadow in your presence. No mortal man would dare to stand before your throne, before the Holy One of heaven— It's only by your Blood, and it's only through your mercy, Lord, I come

Chorus

I bring an of - fer - ing of wor - ship to my King. No one on earth de - serves the prai - ses that I sing. Je - sus, may you re - ceive the hon - or that you're due. O Lord, I bring an of - fer - ing to you.

Verse 1) Bright Star of David, Radiance of God now become the Living Bread, the Body of the Lord! Come in adoration, receive with trembling hands the Sacrament most holy, the Banquet of the Lamb!

Verse 2) Drink of living waters flowing from the Lord, Taste the Cup of blessing, partake of Precious Blood! River of salvation, holy cleansing tide, Fountain of redemption flowing from the Savior's side!

Verse 3) Priest of highest honor, King and Sov'reign Lord, Unblemished Lamb of sacrifice, your very life outpoured! Royal Paschal victim, true begotten Son Offered as our ransom by the Holy One!

Verse 1) The first Noel the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay; in fields where they lay keeping their sheep, on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain) Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.

Verse 2) They looked up and saw a star shining in the east, beyond them far; and to the earth it gave great light, and so it continued both day and night. [Refrain]

Verse 3) And by the light of that same star three Wise Men came from country far; to seek for a king was their intent, and to follow the star wherever it went. [Refrain]

Verse 4) This star drew nigh to the northwest, o'er Bethlehem it took its rest; and there it did both stop and stay, right over the place where Jesus lay. [Refrain]

Verse 5) Then entered in those Wise Men three, full reverently upon the knee, and offered there, in his presence, their gold and myrrh and frankincense. [Refrain] Verse 1) I keep trying to find a life on my own apart from you. I am the king of excuses: I've got one for every selfish thing I do.

Verse 2) The disease of "self" runs through my blood. It's a cancer fatal to my soul. Every attempt on my behalf has failed to bring this sickness under control.

Tell me, what's go-ing on in - side of me? I des - pise my own be - hav - sav-ior. I want to be in the light, as you are in the light. I want to shine like the stars in the hea - vens. O Lord, be my light, and be my sal-va-tion, 'cause all I want is to be in the light. All I want is to be in the light.

Parish Financial Information

St. John the Evangelist Financials

Catholic Faith Appeal

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

Thank you to all parishioners who have generously given to this year's Catholic Faith Appeal, allowing us to reach 100% of our initial goal of $572,000!

As a reminder, the Diocesan CFA structure allows for any excess in goal achievement up to 25% to be returned to the Parish free from consideration in the setting of future CFA goals. This is a wonderful way to contribute to the Parish with the confidence that all of your contributions are used by the Parish and there is no impact on future CFA Parish goals.

With this in mind, we are now setting a second goal of 25% over our assigned goal, or an additional $143,000. These funds would allow us to do many wonderful things in the Parish.

For those who have not yet given, we prayerfully ask that you consider giving to CFA to help us reach this new goal. Likewise, this is an option for those looking for an additional year-end giving opportunity.

There are several ways in which to give to the CFA:

- A check made payable to Catholic Faith Appeal
- Credit or debit card (visit dioceseofvenice.org and click on Catholic Faith Appeal Donate Now)
- Gift of Securities – Federal tax laws allow a charitable deduction for the full market value of the appreciated securities on the date of your gift.
- IRA –

If you are making Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) a contribution will count toward the RMD and be free from income tax. Any Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) will be tax free. The funds must be paid directly from your account to the Catholic Faith Appeal – check with your tax advisor, financial advisor or IRA administrator for details.

If you are over the age of 70½, you may donate up to $100,000 per year from your Individual Retirement Account tax free to a charitable cause. Spouses may also participate to the same level if they have a separate IRA, giving married couples the opportunity to donate up to $200,000.

COUNTRY FEST

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 2022

6:00 TO 9:00 P.M. (GATES OPEN AT 5:30)

BOYS

There will be music, food, drinks and fun activities for all. The Back Country Boys will provide the music. This local trio is rising on the charts.

- Food trucks will provide a choice of vittles.
- Bone Hook Brewery will bring the beer.

And among the activities will be a “best dressed” country guy or gal contest.

This knee-slapping, boot-kicking event is sponsored by the St. John Council of the Knights of Columbus to support several local pro-life groups. The Pulte Family Life Center parking lot will feature an outdoor stage for the music; bring your own chairs if you would like to sit. And in the unlikely chance of inclement weather the Fest will move indoors.

Buy your tickets on-line now. Adults $20, Families $30, and those under 21 only $5.

Your ticket covers admission and music. The food and drink will be available for purchase. To purchase your ticket(s) go to sjecc.com and click on “Ways to Give.”

Thank You, St. John Parishioners, for Supporting Teen Parents!

Thank you so much to our St. John Parishioners for your overwhelming generosity to the teenage parents in the T.A.P.P. (Teenager As Parents Program) at Golden Gate High School. On Tuesday, December 14th, we loaded up the St. John Bus and made a HUGE delivery! Each teen parent received a large basket full of diapers, wipes, blankets, clothes, toys, and books, tailored to their specific child. They also received an abundance of extra diapers! What a wonderful way for our parish community to support the youth in our community. Thank you!

T.A.P.P. Opened in January 1993 to provide individualized education and support services for pregnant teenagers or teenage parents to graduate from high school. The students may re-enter the regular school program at any time.

Thank you to Ovidio and Jesus, our Facilities team, for taking time out of their schedules to help with transportation and delivery!

Dear members of St Johns Church,
Thank you so much for thinking of our program again this year. When I first heard that our students were getting baskets, I never dreamed of how extravagant they would be. Each one of our girls were so grateful.

Resa Pearson Presents, "The Spirituality of Aging"

Tuesday, January 11th

Drawing on insights from Catholic thinkers, Henri Nouwen, Teilhard de Chardin, Ed Hayes, Pope Francis, and Emilie Griffin, Resa will present a talk on The Spirituality of Aging to give participants new ways to think about the negative aspects of aging as well as new ways to appreciate and manifest the spiritual gifts that come with aging. She will explore how to do both in a way that moves her participants closer to Christ.

Resa Quinn Pearson, CEO of a technology sales consulting company, earned an M.A. in Spirituality from Santa Clara University. Resa maintains a website called spiritabounds.com where she curates Christian spirituality content.

To register, please email your request to AFF@sjecc.com. The talk will take place in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Center on Tuesday, January 11th from 11:30-1:30 p.m.

Luke: The Gospel of Mercy Presented by Deacon John Sebastian

Deacon John Sebastian presents a new adult education series, "The Gospel of Luke--the Gospel of Mercy," beginning Tuesday, January 18, at 11:30 a.m. in the Pulte Center. This church year is Year C in the three-year liturgical cycle, and our Sunday liturgies feature the gospel according to St. Luke. St. Luke's sources for his Gospel were primarily the Blessed Virgin Mary and the apostles, especially Saints Peter and Paul, with whom Luke traveled extensively.

Luke's gospel is often called the gospel of mercy because his gospel features unique insights of mercy which are not found in any other gospel. A few of these are: The Good Samaritan, The Prodigal Son, and Jesus' forgiveness of persecutors as He hung on the cross. Luke's gospel features the importance of women to Jesus' ministry. It is also Luke's gospel that has most of the infancy narrative: the Annunciation, the Visitation, John the Baptist, the birth of Jesus, and the angels' announcement to the shepherds, the Presentation, and the boy Jesus in the great temple.

Accompanying your study of the Gospel of Luke will be a weekly world-class video presentation from Rome and Assisi hosted by prolific author Dr. Paul Thigpen and life applications from Fr. Jeffrey Kirby. The $40 fee is the cost of a magnificent book with collection-quality reproductions of some of the greatest religious art in the world, as well as reference material and commentary with suggested discussion questions for each chapter in the gospel.

To register for this class, please email the Adult Faith Formation ministry at aff@sjecc.com. Feel free to bring a snack and/or beverage when you come to class! The classes begin Tuesday, January 18, at 11:30 a.m. and will last approximately 1.25 hours. See you then!

Christmas Message

2021 Christmas Message from Bishop Frank J. Dewane

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Merry Christmas!

More than 2,000 years ago, the angel brought a message to the shepherds watching over their flocks. "Do not be afraid, for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord" (Luke 2:10-11).

These words of the Angel are all the more necessary to be heard in context of the Pandemic, when so many of our brothers and sisters live in fear, feel alone and isolated and truly are in need of prayer, our prayers.

Today we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. Indeed, our world may look very different today, yet the message so many years ago on that holy night, remains the same. God loved us so much that He sent the wondrous gift of His Son, born in a humble manger, to live among us and to bring joy, peace, and the hope of salvation to the world.

Let us accept this great gift by magnifying and being the light of Christ to others through our thoughts, words and actions.

May the joy of Our Lord be with you, your family and your neighbors this Christmas Season. Have a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!
