the EAGLE

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our 2021 CFA goal. Because of your generosity and support, we had our BEST YEAR EVER! Not only did we reach our goal, we exceeded it! This means that any contributions above our goal will come back to our parish unassessed to support our many ministries. We also had greater household participation than in past years (~20%).

2021 Goal: $572,000
2021 Total Contributions: $710,123
Percent of Goal: $124.14%
Amount Coming Back to the Parish: $138,123

From our Clergy and Staff, THANK YOU! We are blessed to have such a wonderful Parish Family!

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Today in medicine there is so much specialization that the body tends to be broken up into parts. Some doctors specialize in the heart, others in the brain, others in the eye, others in the ear, and so on. Specialization is good, but it can have a downside. Specialists may be concerned only with organs, not with human beings. They may know scarcely anything about the person whose eye or heart or hip they are treating.

The human body forms a unity even though it is composed of many members. Those members are very different from one another and have very different functions. Some undoubtedly are more important than others. Yet to be complete the body needs all of them, and the members need each other.

So it is with the Church. We, though many, form one body in Christ (Second Reading). By means of our baptism we have become members of the Body of Christ, the Church. Some might wish to go it alone, independent of the community. But there can be no such thing as an isolated Christian. Those who deliberately cut themselves off wound the community. We are part of one another and must not try to go it alone.

Community makes demands on us. For this reason, the temptation to go it alone, to seek salvation independent of others, is strong. But this cannot be. We need each other, just as the parts of the body need each other. And the Church needs all of us. We need to have a sense of belonging to one another and to Christ. We have to get involved even when we would rather just look after ourselves.

Belonging to a community has obvious benefits. Take reeds for an example. Individually they are weak and easily broken. But tie a bundle of them together, and they are virtually unbreakable. So it is with people. Great strength results from togetherness. People take courage from knowing each other, encouraging each other, and from standing together. Great things can be done when people work together.

The emphasis on community comes from Jesus Himself, only He used a different image to describe it. He used the image of a vine and its branches: "I am the vine, you are the branches." It is a simple but profound illustration of unity and interdependence.

It's obvious that the branches need the vine. But the vine also needs the branches, because it is the branches that produce the fruit.

This is how Jesus wanted it to be between Him and His disciples. This is the way He wants it to be between Him and us. He is the vine, we are the branches. Or to use Paul's language: "Jesus is the head of the body, we are the limbs of the body." Without a sense of belonging together, of caring for one another and being responsible for one another, one is not really a Christian.

The fruit which Jesus desires from us is primarily that of unity among ourselves. By this all will know that we belong to him – by the bond that exists between us and the care we show for one another.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Readings for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it — for he was standing higher up than any of the people —; and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, “Amen, amen!” Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: “Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep”— for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 15

R. (cf John 6:63c) Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.
The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.
The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The command of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eye.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.
The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; The ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.
Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Reading II 1 Cor 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, “Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body,” it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, “Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body,” it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I do not need you.” Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this. But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.

Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work mighty deeds?

Gospel
Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Verse 1): We worship the God who was. We worship the God who is. We worship the God who evermore will be. He opened the prison doors. He parted the raging sea. My God He holds the victory yeah.

Chorus 1): There's joy in the house of the Lord. There's joy in the house of the Lord today. And we won't be quiet. We shout out Your praise. There's joy in the house of the Lord. Our God is surely in this place. And we won't be quiet. We shout out Your praise.

Interlude): Oh oh oh. We shout out Your praise.

Verse 2): We sing to the God who heals. We sing to the God who saves. We sing to the God who always makes a way. 'Cause He hung up on that cross. Then He rose up from that grave. My God's still rolling stones away.

55 Children Prepare for First Reconciliation ~ Special Pretzels in Production

55 children in Faith Formation continue to prepare to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Our Faithful catechists have been working hard to help the children not only learn about this beautiful sacrament of healing, but also to make sure that they feel confident and at ease. At their First Reconciliation Rehearsal last week, Fr. Tom and Fr. Mark stopped by to give words of encouragement to the children and families. Our music director, Ed Persin, practiced songs with them for the upcoming ceremony as well.

As part of their preparation, the children are learning an age-appropriate Act of Contrition prayer, as well as reviewing The Sign of the Cross, The Hail Mary, and The Our Father.

On the night of First Reconciliation this week, each child will receive a special pretzel marking this special evening, prepared by their catechists. Thank you for keeping these children and their families in your prayers.

Act of Contrition

Oh my God,

I am sorry for my sins.

In choosing to sin and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you and your church.

I firmly intend with the help of your son,
To make up for my sins and live as I should.

The pretzel is a symbol of reconciliation. It is shaped like a heart, which stands for God's love for us. The arms of the pretzel look like a hug, which is often what we receive when we reconcile in our relationships. It is halfway dipped in chocolate. The un-dipped half stands for life before reconciliation – bland and dry. The sweet half stands for the sweetness of our life when we ask forgiveness of others and forgive, too.

Discovering the Fullness of Reality: How Partial Truths Obscure the Union of Faith and Science Presented by David J. Keys, PhD

Many of our Youth and Young Adults are leaving the Faith! Why? Many believe that Catholicism is incompatible with what they are learning about Faith versus Science in the media or in school. You are invited to hear a lecture titled Discovering the Fullness of Reality by Dr. David Keys. Dr. Keys will share how Faith and Science do not contradict one another, but rather complement each other. Together, the Truths of Faith and Science provide the FULLNESS OF REALITY, and answers the WHO, WHAT, WHY, and HOW of our very existence.

Date/Time: Monday, January 24, 2022 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Or Tuesday, January 25, 2022 6:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Location: Nazareth Rm, Pulte Family Center

Please send an email to aff@sjecc.com to register.

Valentine Dinner Dance

Thursday, February 10th from 6-9 p.m.
Ballroom at St. John the Evangelist Church

The Dinner:

Four course dinner, choice of chicken piccata or pork tenderloin entrée.
Full cash bar.

The Music:

Billy Dean and Dawn

Billy Dean and Dawn are one of the most versatile musical groups today. They perform high energy nightclub dance music, as well as laid back jazz standards, and then turn around and mesmerize crowds with their Broadway and classical repertoire.

Billy Dean plays keyboard and sax, sings, and does the arranging, while Dawn Birch, a former district Metropolitan Opera winner, is the vocalist.

Audiences find Dawn's ability to blend her classical training (graduate studies in voice at the Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music) and popular style impressive, to say the least. With her three-octave range, she makes it possible to emulate artists like Sarah Brightman, Linda Eder, and Karen Carpenter to Mariah Carey and Cher.

Although Billy is the more reserved half of the duo, his talent is certainly not. His piano playing, keyboard arrangements, saxophone solos and vocal ability provide the perfect combination of artistry. On Thursday, February 10th at 6:00 p.m., the tall — both are over 6 feet — handsome duo will bring their toe-tapping act to the Ballroom of St. John the Evangelist Church.

The cost is only $65 per person; jackets are requested.

Buy your tickets early, there will be no sales at the door.

Select your seats and make your entree selection online at sjecc.com, click on "Ways to Give," then click on "Giving Opportunities."

Tickets will also be available after each of the masses this weekend, January 22 & 23.
