CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Nighttime was the time for fishing. If anyone else had said to Peter, “Launch out into the deep and let down the net for a catch,” he would have said, “Are you mad? Do you want me to make a fool of myself in front of all these other fishermen? If we didn’t catch anything during the night, what chance have we of catching anything in broad daylight?”

But when Jesus said those words to Peter, Peter’s spontaneous response was, “Lord, we fished all night long and caught nothing. But if you say so, I will let down the net.”

For Peter, the word of Jesus was different from the word of anyone else. It carried an authority which no other word carried. Hence, if Jesus called for it, then no matter how hopeless the situation might seem, or how tired he was, or how foolish he might appear, he would try again.

Peter had absolute trust in Jesus. At His word he was prepared to attempt the impossible. We see this again later in the Gospel when he attempted to walk on water at the word of Jesus.

How many people are there whose word we would take seriously? Whose word we would trust absolutely? Whose word we would completely rely on? The answer is, “Very few.”

Fishing is a worthy calling. However, Jesus saw that Peter was capable of other things. He was the kind of man He wanted to have helping Him with His work. What qualities did Jesus see in Peter that made Him call him to share in His work? He had the first and most essential one – faith in Jesus. He also had humility.

The Gospel story is not so much a story about fishing but about trust. Jesus was saying to Peter: “How far are you prepared to trust me?” It was a turning point in the life of Peter. What started out in failure ended in a new beginning, starting out in a new direction.

Fishing was an important occupation. But Jesus was calling Peter and his companions to an even more important occupation. He was offering them not just a new work, but a cause to which to dedicate their lives.

They understood that he was calling them to the service of others: “I will make you fishers of people.” When the leaders of cults call people to follow them, they turn them into their personal slaves. Jesus called the apostles, not to the service of Himself, but to the service of others.

The Lord still calls people, and the need is just as great today. And there still are those who respond. Some people (like the apostles) are called to dedicate themselves totally and in a “professional” way to the following of Christ. But not all Christians are called to follow Christ in this way.

By our baptism, we, too, are called to follow Christ. But what does the following of Christ mean for the ordinary person? It means to be a Christian where you are and in your chosen profession. There are more ways than one of serving Christ and His Gospel. The call in the first instance is not to an apostolate but to discipleship.

Mass Prayers

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Readings for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 6:1-2a, 3-8

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above. They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke. Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar. He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

Responsorial Psalm Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

R. (1c) In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth; in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise; I will worship at your holy temple and give thanks to your name.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord. Because of your kindness and your truth; for you have made great above all things your name and your promise. When I called, you answered me; you built up strength within me.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord. All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to you, O LORD, when they hear the words of your mouth; and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD: "Great is the glory of the LORD."

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord. Your right hand saves me. The LORD will complete what he has done for me; your kindness, O LORD, endures forever; forsake not the work of your hands.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Reading II 1 Cor 15:1-11

I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand. Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, Christ appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Alleluia Mt 4:19

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come after me and I will make you fishers of men.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

Lord, When You Came by Cesareo Gabarain

Lord, when You came to the seashore You weren't seeking the wise or the wealthy, but only asking that I might follow.

Refrain: O Lord, in my eyes You were gazing, kindly smiling, my name You were saying. All I treasured, I have left on the sand there; close to You, I will find other seas.

Lord, You knew what my boat carried: neither money, nor weapons for fighting, but nets for fishing, my daily labor.

Refrain: O Lord, in my eyes You were gazing, kindly smiling, my name You were saying. All I treasured, I have left on the sand there; close to You, I will find other seas.

Join us for our monthly Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Friday, March 4, 2022, at our new time, 7:00 p.m. in the church or online at sjecc.com.

Our theme of the evening is "At the Cross." This special Lenten Holy Hour will be filled with praise and worship music and silent prayer. This is will be wonderful opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Confession during Lent, as confessions will be available through the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord during the Lenten season.

Catholic Faith Appeal 2022

CFA Letter from Bishop Dewane

Dear Friend,

Share with the Lord's People who are in need" (Romans 12:13). These words from Jesus recorded by the Apostle Paul are a guide for us today just as they were in their time of pronouncement. The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) provides an invitation to respond to this call by giving of our resources to help others. In addition, the CFA serves as an opportunity to share in the good works taking place every day throughout the Diocese of Venice. Your gift demonstrates a commitment to Catholic education, faith formation, the life of the unborn, and so much more. Further, the CFA supports our brothers and sisters who may be elderly, homeless, in frail health, or just down and out. On March 19, 2021, Pope Francis inaugurated the Year of the Family, which will conclude on June 26, 2022. In the following pages, you will come to know how the CFA strengthens struggling families, educates children, prepares those who choose a vocation to the priesthood or religious life, cares for the elderly, and shares the Faith in the life of the family. Won't you "Share with the Lord's People who are in need"? Thank you for your support of the 2022 Catholic Faith Appeal. Please know that your generosity is greatly appreciated. May the Lord reward you for your goodness.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

St. John the Evangelist CFA 2022 Goal

Dear Parish Family,

In 2021, you contributed $711,389 toward our Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) goal of $572,000! We can't thank you enough for your generosity and support. And, because we surpassed our goal, $138,000 will come back to the parish to further support our programs and ministries.

Now, once again, we have been called to work together toward our 2022 goal. The needs in our communities are pressing, and your support will directly help those in Southwest Florida. St. John the Evangelist has been assigned a new goal of $603,000.

Programs supported by CFA include:

o Catholic Charities: As a leading provider of social services, Catholic Charities supports over 40,000 people with programs like direct assistance to pay their utility bills, emergency intake programs for those that have become homeless, ending human trafficking in our backyard, citizenship assistance, and veteran housing.

o Catholic Schools: It costs a tremendous amount to provide a high-quality education, and the CFA supports the Catholic Schools in the area to ensure members of our community can have access to this faith-based education system through high school

o Vocations: From the Seminarian programs that instruct our future priests and deacons to providing support for the 35 different women's religious orders and 26 different communities of brothers and priests within the Diocese, the CFA ensures we provide for the education and well-being for those who have dedicated their lives in service to us and our faith.

Throughout the CFA campaign, we will highlight both personal stories about CFA as well as the programs and communities it supports. We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA.

To donate, please visit: <https://dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa>. If you need assistance, please contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, at: colleen@sjecc.com.

Blood Drive

Give the Gift of Life at the Knights of Columbus Semi-Annual Blood Drive

Donate on Monday, February 21, 2022

It's convenient; the NCH Community Blood Mobile will be at St. John the Evangelist parish, on Monday, February 21st. Appointments are available between 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Choose your time and call or e-mail Bernie McLoughlin, (203) 213-1580 or bernardmc1248@aol.com, to make your reservation.

Please sign up today – your blood donation is critically needed.

The process of donating blood is safe and easy. Your donation will help ensure that adequate levels of blood products are available in area hospitals and ready for local patients, friends or family members who suddenly need them. Your donation will make a profound difference to someone whose life depends on it.

NCH Community Blood Center is urging healthy eligible people to donate blood now. Even if you have never donated blood before, now is a great time to start. You are never too old to donate, and you can donate every 56 days. But if you have any questions regarding eligibility, especially medical or travel questions, contact Elizabeth Lara at (239) 624-6509 or elizabeth.lara@nchmd.org.

Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus St. John Council. For more information about the Knights go to our website <https://11281.knights.church>, or send a message to info@kocouncil11281.org, or call and leave a message at (239) 228-3938.

Faith Formation

FREE Parent Resources for Supporting Families in Faith

The children expressed their happiness and joy after reconciliation and the grace of the sacrament. On this special evening, parents were also given the opportunity to receive the sacrament and share in the joy of their children. Thank you to the parents, catechists, clergy, and musical talent that made this evening so holy and full of grace.

FORMED.org – Catholic Streaming

With this resource, parents and families can watch or listen to Catholic Movies, Seminars, Bibles Studies, books, talks, and so much more. This resource is available as an app on your electronic devices as well as ROKU. As Families in Faith supporting children toward the Sacrament of Confirmation, enjoy this excellent lecture on the sacrament of Confirmation with Dr. Brant Pitre.

“We often misunderstand the actual nature of the sacrament of Confirmation and how it directly affects our lives. In this talk, Dr. Pitre invites us to understand better the tremendous graces and calling received through this Sacrament. He points to various passages in Scripture that provide a historical foundation and, through bold witness, challenge us to surrender our lives willingly to Christ. Dr. Pitre is a professor of Sacred Scripture at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, LA.” ~FORMED.org.

We are blessed to be able to provide this resource for our Parish Family to continue their faith journey. Registering for FORMED is easier than ever:

1. Go to formed.org/signup
2. Select your St. John the Evangelist by entering our name or our zip code (34108)
3. Register with your name and email address
4. Check that email account for a link to begin using FORMED

The Political Administration in Judea at the Time of Jesus Christ

Presented by Rev. Piotr M. Paciorek, Ph.D.

February 17th, 2022 - The Jewish Religious Leadership

February 24th, 2022 - The Romans (63 B.C. – 476 A.D.)

12:30 PM – 1:15 p.m.

These presentations on the political administration in Judea at the time of Jesus Christ examine the political and religious history of Roman Palestine, as an Imperial Province. The purpose of the lectures is to help our understanding of the human life of Jesus Christ, His opponents, and His followers both Jews and pagans. We will examine the important Jewish leaders, the Roman government, the Jewish Sanhedrin, and the Jewish high priests.

Rev. Piotr M. Paciorek, Ph.D., professor, historian, theologian, and fluent in many languages. He has lectured at the University of Sorbonne, France; the University of Oxford, United Kingdom; and in Rome. All his lectures are published in the academic journals. He has taught at SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake MI; St. Vincent De Paul Regional Seminary, Boynton Beach FL; St. John Vianney College Seminary, Miami FL; at Ave Maria University; St. Thomas University - School of Theology and Ministry, Miami FL. He has led many tours to the Holy Land and Jordan, France (Lourdes), Italy, Eastern Europe, Portugal (Fatima) and Spain.

If you would like to attend, please send an email to aff@sjecc.com with your name and number of people in your group. Thank you! These presentations are scheduled to take place in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Center.

Franciscan at Home – Online Learning at Your Convenience

At Franciscan at Home, a wealth of courses are offered and open to all our parishioners. If you are interested, please visit www.franciscanathome.com. Under the “Partnering Dioceses” tab, choose Diocese of Venice. From there you will see the various learning track options. To register for a class online, choose the box that reads, “My parish is already registered, and I would like to set up my individual free account under that institution.” From here you will have access to a wide variety of Catholic online courses where all the materials are included in handout form, embedded within the video-based courses. Here you also have the opportunity to complete your Basic Catechist Certification, if you choose that learning track. Feel free to take advantage of this gift from our parish. Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Council 11281 Receives Top Award

Grand Knight Dominick Blasioli and District Deputy John Shelton

St. John Knights of Columbus Council 11281 has received the distinction of Star Council for 2020-2021, the international organization's top award for local councils.

The Star Council Award recognizes overall excellence in the areas of membership growth, sponsorship of faith-based programs and service-oriented activities, and promotion of fraternal insurance benefits.

"Despite the challenges that the Covid pandemic placed on us, forcing us to cancel many of our programs, we found other service events that made this a very rewarding year. One of the blessings that came from all the restrictions was our 'call to duty' efforts like Faith Formation traffic support, Collier Harvest, the Wheelchair program, Coats for Kids and three Blood Drives. Our goal throughout the year was to stay positive, be creative, and help wherever we could. We knew our typical donations would be smaller, so we increased personal services wherever we could. In truth, our actions felt more rewarding because we helped keep life 'somewhat manageable' with our presence and support. My sincere thanks to all our officers, our members, our wives, our Priests, and you, our fellow parishioners."

Dominick Blasioli, Grand Knight

Valentine Dinner Dance

Thursday, February 10th from 6-9 p.m.
Ballroom at St. John the Evangelist Church

This will be the last weekend that tickets are available at church between the Masses.

The Dinner:

Four course dinner, choice of chicken piccata or pork tenderloin entrée.
Full cash bar.

The Music:

Billy Dean and Dawn

Billy Dean and Dawn are one of the most versatile musical groups today. They perform high energy nightclub dance music, as well as laid back jazz standards, and then turn around and mesmerize crowds with their Broadway and classical repertoire.

Billy Dean plays keyboard and sax, sings, and does the arranging, while Dawn Birch, a former district Metropolitan Opera winner, is the vocalist.

Audiences find Dawn's ability to blend her classical training (graduate studies in voice at the Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music) and popular style impressive, to say the least. With her three-octave range, she makes it possible to emulate artists like Sarah Brightman, Linda Eder, and Karen Carpenter to Mariah Carey and Cher.

Although Billy is the more reserved half of the duo, his talent is certainly not. His piano playing, keyboard arrangements, saxophone solos and vocal ability provide the perfect combination of artistry. On Thursday, February 10th at 6:00 p.m., the tall — both are over 6 feet — handsome duo will bring their toe-tapping act to the Ballroom of St. John the Evangelist Church.

The cost is only $65 per person; jackets are requested.

Buy your tickets early, there will be no sales at the door.

Select your seats and make your entree selection online at sjecc.com, click on "Ways to Give," then click on "Giving Opportunities."
