The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers - even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Catholic Prayer For Ukraine

O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection.

O Mother of God, who gave us your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need.

O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right, and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual.

Hear our prayers, O Lord, and deliver us from distress, for You are merciful and compassionate and love mankind. To You we give glory: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

As we go on in life, we tend to set a higher value on the virtue of kindness – plain, ordinary, everyday kindness. When we look back on our lives, we remember with regret acts of unkindness. But we recall fondly times when we acted kindly. Kindness is essential to true justice. Jesus was especially kind to individuals whom He was called to judge. The classic example is the woman caught in adultery.

The story warns us against being too quick to take the high moral ground. Which of us is without sin? We must learn from the example of Jesus. He condemned the woman's sin, but refused to condemn her. It's not that sin didn't matter to Him. It did. But He distinguished between the sin and the sinner. He condemned the sin but pardoned the sinner.

And His over-riding motive in all this was compassion. It wasn't a question of being liberal (anything goes), but of being compassionate. The holier a person is the less he/she is inclined to judge others. In every human being, there is a dimension which escapes the powers of judgment of any other human being.

Jesus refused to condemn her, but He did say to her, "Go and sin no more." In other words, He didn't deny her sin. He got her to own it and take responsibility for it. It's much easier to deny it, to excuse it, or blame it on others. When one faces it and deals with it, there is no more blame, or regret, or remorse, or despair.

The compassion and forgiveness of Jesus give life. The woman went away free – free to change her behavior, and to regain her self-respect. Jesus reminds us that people are capable of changing if given the chance.

The mission of the Church is to be a place of forgiveness so those who fail (all in different ways and degrees) may experience the love and compassion of the One who refused to condemn. The Church ought to be a community of grace, a community free from legalism, a community which will not condemn but which will love, a community which is more concerned about mercy than justice.

One day a mother came to plead with Napoleon for her son's life. The young man had committed a serious offence. The law was clear. Justice demanded his death. The emperor was determined to ensure that justice would be done. But the mother insisted, "Your Excellency, I have come to ask for mercy not for justice."

"But he does not deserve mercy," Napoleon answered.

"Your Excellency," said the mother, "it would not be mercy if he deserved it."

"So be it," said Napoleon. "I will have mercy on him." And he set her son free.

Mercy, of its nature, is pure gift. It is something we all stand in need of, and hence it is something we must be ready to extend to others. The Lord said, 'Blessed are the merciful; they will obtain mercy.'

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Lent

Reading I Is 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. (3) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, we were like men dreaming. Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them." The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the torrents in the southern desert. Those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown, They shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Reading II Phil 3:8-14

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

Verse Before the Gospel Jl 2:12-13

Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful.

Gospel Jn 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

Above All

Above all powers above all kings. Above all nature and all created things. Above all wisdom and all the ways of man. You were here before the world began.

Above all kingdoms above all thrones. Above all wonders the world has ever known. Above all wealth and treasures of the earth. There's no way to measure what You're worth.

Crucified laid behind the stone. You lived to die rejected and alone. Like a rose trampled on the ground You took the fall and thought of me Above all.

Above all kingdoms above all thrones. Above all wonders the world has ever known. Above all wealth and treasures of the earth. There's no way to measure what You're worth.

Crucified laid behind the stone. You lived to die rejected and alone. Like a rose trampled on the ground You took the fall and thought of me Above all.

Like a rose trampled on the ground You took the fall and thought of me Above all.

Bethlehem Christian Families to visit St. John the Evangelist

On the weekend of April 9 & 10, Elaine Hanania from the Bethlehem Christian Families (a nonprofit organization through Land of Peace) will be at St. John the Evangelist to speak about the Christian situation in the Holy Land. She will sell Crucifixes, religious artwork, and rosaries- all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the Holy Land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help many organizations and Churches in the Middle East. Purchasing these goods will help them very much and give you the opportunity to have "something" authentic from the Holy Land. For more information, please visit landofpiece.org

Raising Kids in Challenging Times: Religion as a Protective Factor

Young people today experience more stress and anxiety and are at risk for more problem behaviors today than ever before. This has been compounded by the isolation, chronic stress, and uncertainty created by the Covid-19 pandemic. We can't put our kids in a bubble, but what if we could "inoculate" them? Psychologist and researcher, Dr. Mariette Danilo will discuss resilience and how we can help our children navigate and find joy in a challenging world.

The good news is that the research has identified Religion as a "protective factor" for kids.

Join us as we cut through the hype and discuss the real sources of self-esteem, motivation, joy, and optimism.

Wednesday, April 13th – 5:45-6:45 p.m. – Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center.
To register please send an email to aff@sjcc.com.

A researcher in the Institute for Health Behavior Research at the Cornell University Medical College-New York Hospital Center, she has lectured extensively on Health Psychology and Adolescent Risk Behavior. Her research has focused on the cognitive, emotional, and psychosocial variables involved in the prediction and prevention of risk taking and health compromising behaviors. Her work emphasizes the role of religion as a protective factor in adolescent development.

Mariette currently serves as Director of Education for the Saint John Vianney Center (SJVC) in Downingtown, PA, where she creates educational programs for seminarians, newly ordained priests, men and women religious, diocesan priests, and vicars for clergy. These programs include topics in addictive behaviors, stress and anger management, setting boundaries with forgiveness, and conflict transition.

Dr. Danilo also implements "Safe Dating" programs where teenagers learn to recognize abusive behaviors and set limits for others so that they are better prepared in the future to navigate the college environment.

Mariette enjoys speaking with educators and parents about the vital and dynamic relationship between psychology and religion.

MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

The Gospel of Jesus Christ serves as the model for the role of the Christian family in the modern world. As Catholics, the Gospel is to be received and lived in order to foster the work of the Church.

The Office of Family Life strives to promote and equip the Faithful to live out God's beautiful plan for marriage and family in all stages of life.

For couples wishing to get married, the preparation program Witness to Love is utilized at the Diocese of Venice.

520 couples utilized Witness to Love as preparation for marriage

This virtues-based model of marriage renewal and preparation integrates modern principles of psychology and the virtues to help couples facilitate and talk about their relationship. Married couples were offered a conference series, Together in Holiness, at two locations last October. This event was meant to inspire the husband and wife to grow together in holiness and empower parents to form their children in the Catholic Faith.

Free, virtual information sessions regarding Natural Family Planning are offered several times per year. Natural Family Planning is a safe, natural means to conform a couple's fertility in accordance with God's plan.

Healing from a divorce or a loss of a loved one is also offered through the Office of Family Life.

420 men and women joined Bishop Dewane for Mass honoring 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 years and more of marriage.
