St. John the Evangelist celebrates its first Blue Mass

A special thank you to Bill Fuller, George & Laurie Pfothauer, Fr. Tom, Fr. Mark, Fr. Arun Paul, Edward Persin, Matthew Farmer, Lectors, Sacristans, EMs, our amazing Volunteers, and the Knights of Columbus for making our first Blue Mass and celebration a success. We also acknowledge the Patio Café for catering our wonderful post-Mass breakfast and donating their time to prepare the meal. We honor all first responders and military personnel. Thank you for your service and all you do to keep us safe and protected.

Thank you to Phillip Baier and Tom Middlemiss for capturing these moments in photos

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Letter from Bishop Dewane

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

May 13, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Through websites, social networks, television, radio and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media. This makes it possible for campaigns supporting marriage, family and catechesis to reach millions on radio and television. Half of the collected funds stay right here in the Diocese of Venice and the other half supports the collective communication work of the US Bishops.

The Catholic Communication Campaign also assists with scholarship programs which provide funds for training Catholic communicators. Here, in the Diocese of Venice alone, this campaign partially funds TV Masses for the homebound who are physically unable to attend the Holy Mass, as well as the radio show "Witnessing Faith with Bishop Dewane." Please prayerfully consider supporting this important work in the upcoming Collection which will be held in the Diocese of Venice on May 28 and 29, 2022.

This opportunity is taken to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayer that the Easter Season is filled with joy and exultation at the Resurrection of Our Lord.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In his book, Go Down to the Potter's House, Donagh O'Shea has a story about a king who had two artists in his court who were bitter rivals. One day the king said, "I want to decide once and for all which of you is the better artist. You must paint the same theme so that I can judge between you. And let the theme be peace."

The two artists agreed and a week later came back with their paintings. The first presented his painting. It showed a dreamy landscape with rolling hills and a lake with not a ripple on the surface. The whole scene spoke of contentment, peace, stillness. However, as the king looked at the picture, he could barely suppress a yawn. Then turning to the artist he said, "Your picture is pretty, but it puts me to sleep."

Then the second man presented his work. It showed a thundering waterfall. It was so realistic that one could almost hear the roar of the water as it crashed onto the rocks hundreds of feet below.

"But this is not a scene of peace as I ordered," said the king angrily. The artist made no reply but motioned him to continue looking. Then the king spotted a detail that had hitherto escaped him: among the rocks at the base of the waterfall a small shrub was growing with a bird's nest in its branches. On looking closely at it he noticed that there was a bird in the nest: a sparrow sitting on her eggs, her eyes half-closed. She was waiting for her chicks to be born, a perfect picture of peace.

On seeing this, the king was delighted. Turning to the man who had painted it, he said, "I like your picture very much. You have conveyed a very important thing about peace, namely, that it is possible to be at peace even in the midst of the hurly-burly of life."

Jesus spoke about peace during the Last Supper. He said to the apostles, "Peace I leave with you, my own peace I give you. A peace which the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. So do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

It was a strange time to talk about peace because everything was in turmoil around Him. How then was He able to talk about peace? Because peace is communion with God. And Jesus was in perfect communion with God. So He was able to talk about peace even as His enemies were closing in on Him and death was just around the corner.

Peace is not the same as tranquility. Tranquility is external. Peace is essentially internal. Peace is a state of inner calm and designates right relations with God and with others. An essential component of peace is righteousness.

Hence, there is no peace for the wicked.

Peace results when one trusts in God, and when the desire to please Him is the dominant thing in one's life. This is something which we can have even in the midst of turmoil, conflict, and unresolved problems.

Jesus offers His peace to us: "Peace I leave with you." The peace He offers us is not the peace of escape from reality. It is something so deep it is independent of outer circumstances. It is the peace which passes all understanding, the peace which this world cannot give, a peace no one can take away from us. Let us continue to pray for peace for the people in Ukraine. They deserve it.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Prayer for Ukraine

O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. O Mother of God, who gave us your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need. O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right, and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and deliver us from distress, for You are merciful and compassionate and love mankind. To You we give glory: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

Spiritually Adopt
an Unborn Child

PRAY

I will commit to pray this prayer
every day for 9 months from now until Christmas:

“ Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. ”

Readings for the Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reading I Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some who had come down from Judea were instructing the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the Mosaic practice, you cannot be saved." Because there arose no little dissension and debate by Paul and Barnabas with them, it was decided that Paul, Barnabas, and some of the others should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. The apostles and elders, in agreement with the whole church, decided to choose representatives and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. The ones chosen were Judas, who was called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers. This is the letter delivered by them: "The apostles and the elders, your brothers, to the brothers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia of Gentile origin: greetings. Since we have heard that some of our number who went out without any mandate from us have upset you with their teachings and disturbed your peace of mind, we have with one accord decided to choose representatives and to send them to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. So we are sending Judas and Silas who will also convey this same message by word of mouth: 'It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities, namely, to abstain from meat sacrificed to idols, from blood, from meats of strangled animals, and from unlawful marriage. If you keep free of these, you will be doing what is right. Farewell.'"

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R (4) O God, let all the nations praise you! or: R Alleluia.
May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us. So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation.

R O God, let all the nations praise you! or: R Alleluia.
May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide.

R O God, let all the nations praise you! or: R Alleluia.
May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you! May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R O God, let all the nations praise you! or: R Alleluia.

Reading II Rev 21:10-14, 22-23

The angel took me in spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. It gleamed with the splendor of God. Its radiance was like that of a precious stone, like jasper, clear as crystal. It had a massive, high wall, with twelve gates where twelve angels were stationed and on which names were inscribed, the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites. There were three gates facing east, three north, three south, and three west. The wall of the city had twelve courses of stones as its foundation, on which were inscribed the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. I saw no temple in the city for its temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb. The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gave it light, and its lamp was the Lamb.

Alleluia Jn 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe."

Memorial Day Mass

Special Memorial Day Mass

Join fellow parishioners and visitors on this national holiday to remember those who laid down their lives in service of their country and its citizens — to pay tribute to those members of our Armed Forces who answered the call and made the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom.

Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, May 30, 2022.

The day actually began as “Decoration Day,” following the Civil War, when mourners placed flowers on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers who fought in the Civil War. But during World War I the United States found itself embroiled in another major conflict, and the holiday evolved to commemorate American military personnel who died in all wars, including World War II, the Vietnam War, the Korean War, and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

You can also remember a veteran with a memorial brick in our Veteran’s Memorial. Contact Karen Beebe at karen@sjecc.com or 239.228.3903 for details.

St. John's Religious Gift Shop

Our Divine Gift Boutique offers unique religious and sacramental gifts, such as crucifixes, rosaries, statues, holy cards, Celtic gifts, and medals. We also stock the renowned Trappist preserves made by the Roman Catholic priests and brothers of St. Joseph’s Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. Additionally, we have beautiful hand-made gifts crafted by one of our very own sewing ministry members.

The Divine Gift Boutique is located just inside the church entrance, open Saturdays 2:30 p.m.-6:15 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. We are looking forward to serving you!
