

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

the EAGLE

ONE NATION UNDER GOD

Wishing all parishioners a blessed, safe, and happy Fourth of July

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Ministries and Prayer

Meet Our Ministries

Arimatheans. Arimatheans attend funeral Masses and memorial services to provide support and compassion. Please contact Ann Petrillo: 239.248.2189

Jamaica Outreach Program. JOP provides goods, food, medical-vision-dental services, education, and basic support to improve the lives of the poor in Jamaica. We welcome new volunteers. For more information, contact Jeanne Stamant Pittman: 239.248.3248 or info@jamaicaoutreach.org

Knights of Columbus. At St. John, Knights serve parish ministries, sponsor parish events and help with special projects. They support our clergy, fund parish equipment, assist in events for our youth and help the less fortunate. You can learn more about the parish K of C Council on our website <https://11281.knights.church> or contact us, at info@kofccouncil11281.org or leave a message at 239.228.3938, and we'll respond promptly. Fourth degree Knights can find information about our Assembly at <https://3308.patriotic.degree>.

Knitting & Crocheting. Meets year-round on Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m. in classrooms 3&4 in the Parish Activity Center. No experience necessary. Make baby and children's items, prayer shawls, nursing home and elderly blankets. Contact Sharon Camp: 239.438.7867 or sharon@naples.net

Ladies of Charity. Our motto is to serve rather than to be served in humility, simplicity, and charity. We strive to serve the poor, sick, and marginalized in our community. Membership is open to any Catholic woman. For more information, please contact Karen Kaspar at kcmk77@aol.com or 216.496.7414.

Sewing Ministry. Sewing Ministry meets to sew for needy children on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 3:30 in the Parish Activity Center, rooms 1 and 2. Donations, both monetary and of fabrics and supplies are welcome. If you like to sew we encourage you to come and see what we are all about. Please call either Barbara Arthur at 239.250.4162, email Bka1678@hotmail.com or Phyllis Crivelli 973.710.6347, email jandpcrivelli@gmail.com before coming to make sure we are meeting that day.

The Society of St. Vincent DePaul. We give glory to God by offering direct/in-home help to anyone in need within the boundaries of our parish. Our work spans fighting food insecurity, keeping families in their homes, and a wide variety of special projects and programs focused on helping our neighbors address difficult challenges. We meet the FIRST and THIRD Tuesdays of every month at 9:00 a.m. in the Rome Room. Contact Gerrit Schutte: gsstjohn@svdpneples.org

Safe Environment Training - As part of the Safe Environment Program, the Diocese of Venice requires that all employees and those volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults be fingerprinted and complete online training in Safe Environment prior to beginning employment or volunteering. For further information, please visit: <https://dioceseofvenice.org/offices/programs/safeenvironment/>. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. Further, if Diocesan personnel or volunteers are involved, also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at 941-416-6114.

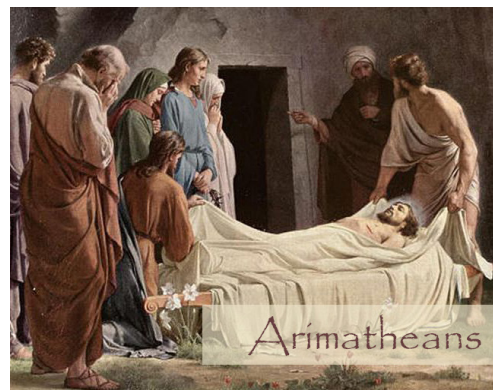

THE HOMEBOUND MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP!!!

The Homebound Ministry needs volunteers who would be willing to bring Holy Communion to people in their private homes and in some of the facilities that are covered by SJE during the summer months. Many of our EMEs are returning to their northern homes soon and we will need EMEs to visit the people they are currently serving. Anyone who is here during the summer and may be interested can pick up a volunteer packet in the Parish Office. You must be fully vaccinated. Please contact Lisa Godlasky at Lisa@sjecc.com if you have questions.

Ministry Members Needed

The Arimatheans of St. John the Evangelist Church need you! Arimatheans attend funeral Masses and memorial services to provide support and compassion. If you would like to join this group, please contact Ann Petrillo at 239.248.2189.

CFA 2022

Dear Parish Family,

Our CFA goal this year is $603,000. We ask that you prayerfully consider contributing. Your gift to the 2022 Catholic Faith Appeal will continue to make a difference in supporting the charitable and pastoral initiatives in the Diocese of Venice.

To give, please take a contribution envelope from the CFA table in the Narthex. You can also give directly on the Diocese of Venice website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/ or scan the QR code.

Please Welcome Our Summer Seminarian, Michael Courville

Michael was born into a Catholic family in Sarasota, Florida in 1999, and is one of five children. He went with his family to Epiphany Cathedral in Venice from a very young age all the way through high school. At the Cathedral, Michael sang in the children's choir, was an altar server, and attended Epiphany's school from kindergarten through 8th grade. It was at Epiphany Cathedral School where Michael developed an interest in math, science, music, acting, sports, and learning about his Catholic faith.

Michael attended Venice High School, where he was involved with many clubs and organizations including the engineering program and the amateur radio club. Michael and a few friends helped found a Catholic service club on the public high school campus called the Divine Hearts Club. Every month the Divine Hearts Club would undertake a service project based on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy including assisting the military, the impoverished, and unwed mothers. Michael was also involved with the local Ultimate Fitness Club where a group of men would gather for faith, fellowship, fitness, and food. Michael ran cross-country and pole-vaulted for the track-and-field team for 4 years. Michael also had a job at Publix for 4 years. He did all this while taking college-level courses and maintaining high honors.

Michael graduated from Venice in 2017 and journeyed to the University of Louisiana in Lafayette (UL) where he pursued a degree in electrical engineering. In Louisiana Michael lived with his grandparents and learned about his Cajun French heritage including how to cook, garden, sing, and dance. Michael was very involved with the Ragin Cajun Catholics and the engineering organization IEEE. Michael continued to altar serve and sang in a schola at Mass. Michael joined the Legion of Mary and got involved with a local religious community called the Community of Jesus Christ Crucified. With this community, Michael was blessed to take college-level theology classes. While at UL, Michael took on a job tutoring student-athletes because he had the desire to be a teacher one day. Later at UL, Michael was granted two engineering internships, one over the summer and the other during the school year where he worked on projects for the defense industry. In 2021 Michael completed his degree at UL in electrical engineering with minors in computer science and mathematics.

At the beginning of his senior year of college, Michael felt a strong call to the priesthood and after graduation entered seminary at St. Vincent de Paul in Boynton Beach with the Diocese of Venice. This past year Michael learned philosophy, Spanish, catechism, prayer, and about the Bible. Michael's pastoral assignment was to serve the poor by tutoring children in impoverished neighborhoods, assisting the Missionaries of Charity, and accompanying members in the St. Vincent de Paul Society in their door-to-door visits. Michael cantors and sings in the schola at the seminary. Michael has grown much in faith and fraternity with his brother seminarians developing a great love for the Liturgy of the Hours, the Holy Rosary, and the Eucharist.

Michael is now in his second year of seminary and is on assignment here at St. John the Evangelist for the summer. Michael has helped with altar serving and lecturing at Mass, was a photographer at Vacation Bible School, assists at parish events, accompanies the priests on sick calls, and brings the Eucharist to shut-ins. Michael loves the friendly and active community of St. John's and says he is very blessed to be here. Please keep him in your prayers as he continues his discernment for the priesthood.

CFA Supports

Responding to the Lord's command to go and make disciples of all nations, the Diocese of Venice is committed to providing the necessary resources for seminarians.

A seminarian's calling is nourished through a rigorous intellectual formation in a faithful and loving obedience to the Magisterium and the sacred truths entrusted to the Church. The seminary provides an environment that forms men to be committed disciples of Christ.

Seminarians live in community. This means they pray together, work together, take their meals together, and study together. While the seminary is a place where individual men go to discern what the Lord is asking of them, ultimately, as priests, they will belong to a presbyterate. The seeds of this brotherhood and fraternity are sown during their time in seminary formation.

As soon as the seminary closes its doors for the summer, a different type of learning begins with either pastoral work or a Parish assignment.

While in a Parish setting, a seminarian serves and learns from priests. He assists the Pastor with the many responsibilities of ministering to the needs of Parishioners and the community as a whole: distributing Communion during Mass, participating in Bible study, youth activities, leading a group to help feed those in need, and much more.

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) provides an opportunity for seminarians to develop pastoral competency within a hospital setting. This experience serves as a basis for dealing with various life situations and crisis circumstances.

In the meantime, seminarians continue with their prayer life and grow in their vocation, like so many priests ordained before them.

SEMINARIANS

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Christianity is a very practical religion. Catherine de Hueck Doherty was an outstanding Christian. A Russian aristocrat by birth, she spent most of her life in America. She said, "At an early age I learned that the Gospel has to be lived."

As a young woman she worked as a cocktail waitress in a Manhattan bar. On one occasion she announced to a group of GIs and their girlfriends (whom she knew to be Catholics) that it was closing time (4 a.m.) and that she had to be off.

"Where are you going to, Katie?" they asked. "It's Sunday, and I'm going to Mass."

"That means you're a Catholic then?"

"Yes," she replied.

They couldn't get over the fact that she could be a practicing Catholic and work in a place like that. They all trooped off and went to Mass with her. A couple of weeks later a girl from the group returned. She said, "You've made me think. If you can live a good life while working in a place like this, then maybe I can too."

Another time Catherine was traveling in the subway in Montreal when she met a lonely old woman who said to her, "Would you mind talking to me for awhile?" They made two trips from end to end of the subway, talking all the time. They became good friends, and corresponded until the old lady died.

The harvest is indeed great for those who have eyes to see it and a heart to respond to it. It is in our hospitals, homes, schools, prisons, work places, neighborhoods. Every day is a harvest day.

Christ sent his disciples out to help him reap the harvest. We tend to leave it to the specialists – to priests, nuns, missionaries. The people Christ sent out weren't specialists. Yet they became His instruments. Few things help an individual more than to place responsibility on Him, and to let Him know that you trust Him.

The seventy-two began by being His disciples. Then He steered them to goals beyond themselves by making them His apostles. That's the way it should always be. The Lord asks us to share with others what we have received from Him. There are things which will remain undone if we don't do them. We lift ourselves up in proportion as we help to lift others up.

To be an apostle is to be one who is sent. One doesn't have to be some kind of genius or superhuman person to be able to do the work of Christ. There is a difference between an apostle and a genius. The difference has little to do with talent or intelligence; it has everything to do with purpose and commitment.

Just because people are called doesn't mean they become more intelligent or more imaginative than they would otherwise be. No, they still have to rely on their native gifts. But they now have more purpose, more dedication than they would otherwise have. That can make a huge difference.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Prayer for Ukraine

O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. O Mother of God, who gave us your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need. O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right, and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and deliver us from distress, for You are merciful and compassionate and love mankind. To You we give glory: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

Readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 66:10-14c

Thus says the LORD: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, all you who love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort, that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts! For thus says the LORD: Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort. When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass; the LORD's power shall be known to his servants.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

R. (1) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Shout joyfully to God, all the earth, sing praise to the glory of his name; proclaim his glorious praise. Say to God, "How tremendous are your deeds!"

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

"Let all on earth worship and sing praise to you, sing praise to your name!" Come and see the works of God, his tremendous deeds among the children of Adam.

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

He has changed the sea into dry land; through the river they passed on foot; therefore let us rejoice in him. He rules by his might forever.

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Hear now, all you who fear God, while I declare what he has done for me. Blessed be God who refused me not my prayer or his kindness!

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Reading II Gal 6:14-18

Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Alleluia Col 3:15a, 16a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts; let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town." The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Servant Song

Sr. Marie McGargill

Verse 1): What do you want of me, Lord? Where do you want me to serve you? Where can I sing your praises. I am your song.
Chorus): Jesus, Jesus, you are the Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 2): I hear you call my name, Lord, and I am moved within me. Your Spirit stirs my deepest self. Sing your songs in me.
Chorus): Jesus, Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 3): Above, below, and around me. Before, behind and all through me your Spirit burns deep within me. Fire my life with your love.

Chorus): Jesus, Jesus, be warmth of my heart. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 4): You are the light in my darkness. You are my strength when I'm weary. You give me sight when I'm blinded. Come see for me.

Chorus): Jesus, Jesus, you are my light. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 5): I am your song and servant, Singing your praises like Mary. Surrendered to your spirit Let it be done to me!

Chorus): Jesus, Jesus, let it be done to me! Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 1): O beautiful for spacious skies For amber waves of grain. For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain. America, America God shed His grace on thee And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

Verse 2): O beautiful for pilgrim feet Whose stern impassioned stress. A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness. America, America God mend thine ev'ry flaw. Confirm thy soul in self control Thy liberty in law.

Verse 3): O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife. Who more than self their country loved And mercy more than life. America, America may God thy gold refine. Till all success be nobleness And ev'ry gain divine.

Verse 4): O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years. Thine alabaster cities gleam Undimmed by human tears. America, America God shed His grace on thee. And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

We respect all human life, from conception to natural death

Communications Department

Diocese of Venice Statement regarding the recent Supreme Court Decision, Dobbs vs. Jackson

Venice, FL, June 24, 2022 -- In God's eyes, all human life is sacred, from conception to natural death; this is the teaching of the Catholic Church. The Church is pleased to hear of the Supreme Court decision in Dobbs v. Jackson. This ruling now undoes the grave injustice of 1973, when Roe v. Wade decided that an entire class of human beings, the preborn, were outside the protection of the law. Now the states will once again have the opportunity to protect the lives of preborn children and in doing so, also protect millions of women from the tragic consequences of abortion. Of course, legal protection must be accompanied by more care for mothers and their children. The Catholic Church, and the Diocese of Venice, stand ready to help mothers in need. Pregnant women are not alone.

Pope Francis has called upon all Parishes to be "islands of mercy in a sea of indifference." Parishes in the Diocese of Venice have redoubled their efforts to accompany women and couples who are facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies, offering them loving and compassionate care.

Specifically, Walking with Moms in Need is a new program. The Diocese of Venice helps parishioners connect with local mothers facing difficult or challenging pregnancies. The program helps parishioners to identify local resources so that pregnant and parenting women receive the material, spiritual, and emotional support they need. Within the Diocese of Venice, there are Pregnancy Help Centers in 22 locations, and nine residential maternity and after-birth homes.

For decades, the Diocese of Venice has supported mothers in need and continues to do so. Our Mother's House of Catholic Charities in Venice is one of the programs in the Diocese that supports single mothers and their children, providing not just housing and material needs, but valuable counseling and education.

Additionally, the Diocese offers confidential, compassionate support after abortion to both women and men through its Project Rachel Ministry.

Let us all continue to pray for the end to abortion, and the end to taking the lives of an entire category of human beings, the preborn.

PREGNANT? YOU ARE NOT ALONE

DID YOU KNOW

there is a local pregnancy help center where you can receive accurate information about your options, receive a free pregnancy test and see your child via an ultrasound without charge?

Resources for financial and emotional help are available. You will find that the people at these places can help you find the support you need to make the right choice. If you need housing, a maternity home or a home for moms and babies after birth may be a good option for you so you can pursue your education and career.

A local church may be able to help you with additional assistance and spiritual guidance personalized specifically to your needs.

Into the Breach: Living our Catholic Faith

What: Join us for a monthly gathering with other faithful Catholics to explore the challenges faced by men and women of faith in our world today.

When: Sunday, July 10 from 10:05–10:45 a.m. (then the second Sunday of each month).
Join us after the 9:00 a.m. Mass or before the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

Where: Pulte Center, Nazareth Room

For the Men

What does it mean to be a Catholic man?

How do I best live as a man in today's world?

How can I share with, and learn from, other Catholic men?

The Into the Breach program will help you to answer these questions. God calls us to action: to strengthen our lives, our faith, our families and our communities.

What to expect:

- A 10-minute, thought-provoking video which introduces the topic of the day.
- Small group conversations with other men of our parish. A chance to meet Catholic men.
- Refreshments and hospitality.

For the Women

Women, why should the men have all the fun?! So...

How can I live a virtuous life as a Catholic woman?

What to expect:

- A six session video series by Edward Sri entitled "The Art of Living."
- 10-15-minute videos to introduce each of the topics.
- Small group discussion and sharing with other women.
- A chance to meet, and learn with, other Catholic women.
- Refreshments and hospitality.
