The Knights of Columbus Hold Their Annual Independence Celebration

On June 30th, the Knights of Columbus held their annual Independence Celebration, which honors the brave Men and Women of our Armed Forces (past and present) who protect our liberty. We thank you for your service.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Ministries and Prayer

Meet Our Ministries

Arimatheans. Arimatheans attend funeral Masses and memorial services to provide support and compassion. Please contact Ann Petrillo: 239.248.2189

Jamaica Outreach Program. JOP provides goods, food, medical-vision-dental services, education, and basic support to improve the lives of the poor in Jamaica. We welcome new volunteers. For more information, contact Jeanne Stamant Pittman: 239.248.3248 or info@jamaicaoutreach.org

Knights of Columbus. At St. John, Knights serve parish ministries, sponsor parish events and help with special projects. They support our clergy, fund parish equipment, assist in events for our youth and help the less fortunate. You can learn more about the parish K of C Council on our website <https://11281.knights.church> or contact us, at info@kofccouncil11281.org or leave a message at 239.228.3938, and we'll respond promptly. Fourth degree Knights can find information about our Assembly at <https://3308.patriotic.degree>.

Knitting & Crocheting. Meets year-round on Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m. in classrooms 3&4 in the Parish Activity Center. No experience necessary. Make baby and children's items, prayer shawls, nursing home and elderly blankets. Contact Sharon Camp: 239.438.7867 or sharon@naples.net

Ladies of Charity. Our motto is to serve rather than to be served in humility, simplicity, and charity. We strive to serve the poor, sick, and marginalized in our community. Membership is open to any Catholic woman. For more information, please contact Karen Kaspar at kcmk77@aol.com or 216.496.7414.

Sewing Ministry. Sewing Ministry meets to sew for needy children on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 3:30 in the Parish Activity Center, rooms 1 and 2. Donations, both monetary and of fabrics and supplies are welcome. If you like to sew we encourage you to come and see what we are all about. Please call either Barbara Arthur at 239.250.4162, email Bka1678@hotmail.com or Phyllis Crivelli 973.710.6347, email jandpcrivelli@gmail.com before coming to make sure we are meeting that day.

The Society of St. Vincent DePaul. We give glory to God by offering direct/in-home help to anyone in need within the boundaries of our parish. Our work spans fighting food insecurity, keeping families in their homes, and a wide variety of special projects and programs focused on helping our neighbors address difficult challenges. We meet the FIRST and THIRD Tuesdays of every month at 9:00 a.m. in the Rome Room. Contact Fred Michaels: fmam@epix.net.

Safe Environment Training - As part of the Safe Environment Program, the Diocese of Venice requires that all employees and those volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults be fingerprinted and complete online training in Safe Environment prior to beginning employment or volunteering. For further information, please visit: <https://dioceseofvenice.org/offices/programs/safeenvironment/>. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. Further, if Diocesan personnel or volunteers are involved, also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at 941-416-6114.

Dear Parish Family,

Our CFA goal this year is $603,000. We ask that you prayerfully consider contributing. Your gift to the 2022 Catholic Faith Appeal will continue to make a difference in supporting the charitable and pastoral initiatives in the Diocese of Venice.

To give, please take a contribution envelope from the CFA table in the Narthex. You can also give directly on the Diocese of Venice website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/ or scan the QR code.

Goal: $603,000

Pledged: $577,118 - 95.71%

Families participating: 15.15%

Meet Javier Lugo, Team Director at University of Miami: Fellowship of Catholic University Students

After graduating from the University of Southern California in 2018 with a degree in Industrial Engineering, Javier joined FOCUS and has served at three different campuses. He currently leads a team of missionaries at the University of Miami and enjoys leading Bible studies, introducing students to the life-changing message of the gospel, and equipping them on how to evangelize.

Javier will speak after the 5pm Mass on Saturday, July 16th and the 11am and 5pm Masses on Sunday, July 17th. He will share a bit of his testimony and invite those who are interested to potentially join his monthly mission team of prayer and financial support.

If you wish to know more about the mission, please email Javier at javier.lugo@focus.org or call him at (310) 529-8870. Thank you in advance and God bless!

EVANGELIZATION

The Office of Evangelization seeks to support the Parishes of the Diocese of Venice and all the Faithful in the task of making disciples of Jesus.

Numerous approaches are used to spread the Good News: hosting yearly Men's and Women's Conferences, promoting initiatives geared towards reaching and educating the Faithful, and sharing dynamic Faith Formation through Scripture seminars and training sessions.

The Hispanic Apostolate strives to engage the Hispanic population in Parish life through conferences and evangelization efforts which are sensitive to the language and cultures of the people served.

The Haitian Apostolate serves the spiritual needs of a growing Haitian American Catholic Community to ensure a smooth and gradual transition into the American Church.

These and similar Apostolates are designed to assist immigrants to belong to the larger community while at the same time providing an opportunity for their uniqueness to be preserved and shared.

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

"A man was going down the road from ..."

Jesus doesn't attach any religious or social labels to the man, though it's reasonable to assume he was a Jew. Was he a good man or a bad man? Was he an important man or an unimportant man? These questions are irrelevant. He was a human being. That's all that matters.

"He was set upon by bandits ..."

Heartless, violent men, who prey on the weak. Jesus lived in the real world. He knew that such people existed. We know about them, too.

"A priest and a Levite saw him lying there half dead ... but passed by."

The priest and the Levite were religious people. Yet they didn't even feel compassion for the wounded man. Religion without compassion is a contradiction. Without compassion one can't call oneself a true human being never mind a truly religious person.

"A Samaritan came along ..."

He saw the wounded man, felt compassion for him, and went at once to his aid. He didn't worry about the trouble it caused him. Nor was he put off by the fact that the man was a Jew – Jews and Samaritans were enemies at that time.

At the start of the story we know very little about the priest, the Levite, and the Samaritan. At the end of it we still don't know much about them. Yet we know all that matters. We know the kind of people they were. Their characters have been revealed to us.

The priest and Levite were self-centered people. When the crunch came, they put themselves first. The Samaritan, on the other hand, was an unselfish person. He put the other person first.

The priest and Levite were guilty of the sin of omission. Sins of omission may be our worst sins, yet we think that as long as we don't do harm to anyone, we're okay. But perhaps we have watched someone being hurt, and not intervened on his/her behalf? There are people who stay clean by distancing themselves from anyone in trouble.

The Samaritan was a person who cares. Carers are very special people. They are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. They don't care out of a sense of duty. They care because their heart will not allow them to do otherwise.

Each of us has the capacity to care. Small opportunities to care come our way every day. It's within our power to say a kind word, to offer a little sympathy, to give a little support. These are the little drops of "oil and wine" which can take some of the pain out of a wound.

The road from Jerusalem to Jericho represents the road of life. At the end of the story Jesus said to the lawyer, "Go and act like the Samaritan". Those words are spoken to us too. And since we are still on that road, we can still carry them out.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Prayer for Ukraine

O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. O Mother of God, who gave us your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need. O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right, and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and deliver us from distress, for You are merciful and compassionate and love mankind. To You we give glory: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

Readings for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Dt 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37

R. (cf. 33) Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I pray to you, O LORD, for the time of your favor, O God! In your great kindness answer me with your constant help. Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness: in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I am afflicted and in pain; let your saving help, O God, protect me. I will praise the name of God in song, and I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

"See, you lowly ones, and be glad; you who seek God, may your hearts revive! For the LORD hears the poor, and his own who are in bonds he spurns not."

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah. The descendants of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall inhabit it.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Reading II Col 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Alleluia Cf. Jn 6:63c, 68c

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Please note that our next Encounter will be on Friday, August 5, 2022, at 7:00 p.m. in the church, or watch online at sjecc.com

Our theme of the night is "He Restores My Soul." This Holy Hour will be filled with Praise and Worship music, silent prayer, and meditation. We will also have confessions available throughout the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend time with Lord for First Friday Adoration, and open your heart to allow Him to restore and transform your heart.

Communion Song Whatsoever You Do Willard Jabusch

Whatsoever you do to the least of my people, That you do unto me.

When I was hungry, you gave me to eat; When I was thirsty you gave me to drink. Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was weary, you helped me find rest; When I was anxious, you calmed all my fears. Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was homeless, you opened your door; When I was naked, you gave me your coat. Now enter into the home of my Father.

When in a prison, you came to my cell; When on a sickbed, you cared for my needs. Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was laughed at, you stood by my side; When I was happy, you shared in my joy. Now enter into the home of my Father.

A Learn About Walking with Purpose Virtual Event

Wednesday, July 27th, 2022

7:00pm

You are invited to this virtual Zoom event to learn more about how Walking with Purpose helps women to:

- Learn more about how to read Scripture and apply it to your day-to-day experiences.
- Invest in the hearts of other women and create community in your parish.
- Go deeper and connect Sunday Mass to the rest of the week.

Join us to learn how Walking with Purpose is transforming hearts and bringing women in parish communities closer to Christ. Hear personal testimony from local Walking with Purpose coordinators, Liliانا Ronderos and Ann Marchino at St. Joseph parish in Bradenton, FL about how WWP Bible studies are bringing women together around topics that matter.

For more information contact Jeannie Gillespie at jean.gillespie@walkingwithpurpose.com or 203-918-3025

Want to Help a Pregnant Mother in need?

Maybe she's being evicted or having her electricity turned off. Imagine being in her shoes, perhaps with other young children in the home. Think about what happens to food in a refrigerator without power for even a few hours. Your donation can assist pregnant women in need with rent, utilities or other necessities. Send your donation to Catholic Charities Pennies for Babies Fund, 1000 Pinebrook Road, Venice, FL 34285. No administrative fees are taken so your money goes directly to those in need who have been screened by case managers. Questions? Contact Jeanne Berdeaux at 941-374-1068 or Berdeaux@dioceseofvenice.org.

Men's Support after Abortion Program

Men, you are not alone. While 1 out of 4 women will have an abortion by age 45, men are involved too. According to a national survey, 71% of men said they had an adverse effect after abortion. If you are a man affected by an abortion decision, you are invited to participate in a confidential and free healing series for men. It will be led by Father Mark Harris, St John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Naples, and Nathan Misirian, Support After Abortion. To learn more about the program, when it will be scheduled or to register for the virtual sessions, call 941-412-5860 or project.rachel@dioceseofvenice.org.

PREGNANT? YOU ARE NOT ALONE

DID YOU KNOW

there is a local pregnancy help center where you can receive accurate information about your options, receive a free pregnancy test and see your child via an ultrasound without charge?

Resources for financial and emotional help are available. You will find that the people at these places can help you find the support you need to make the right choice. If you need housing, a maternity home or a home for moms and babies after birth may be a good option for you so you can pursue your education and career.

A local church may be able to help you with additional assistance and spiritual guidance personalized specifically to your needs.

Into the Breach: Living our Catholic Faith

What: Join us for a monthly gathering with other faithful Catholics to explore the challenges faced by men and women of faith in our world today.

When: Sunday, July 10 from 10:05–10:45 a.m. (then the second Sunday of each month).
Join us after the 9:00 a.m. Mass or before the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

Where: Pulte Center, Nazareth Room

For the Men

What does it mean to be a Catholic man?

How do I best live as a man in today's world?

How can I share with, and learn from, other Catholic men?

The Into the Breach program will help you to answer these questions. God calls us to action: to strengthen our lives, our faith, our families and our communities.

What to expect:

- A 10-minute, thought-provoking video which introduces the topic of the day.
- Small group conversations with other men of our parish. A chance to meet Catholic men.
- Refreshments and hospitality.

For the Women

Women, why should the men have all the fun?! So...

How can I live a virtuous life as a Catholic woman?

What to expect:

- A six session video series by Edward Sri entitled "The Art of Living."
- 10-15-minute videos to introduce each of the topics.
- Small group discussion and sharing with other women.
- A chance to meet, and learn with, other Catholic women.
- Refreshments and hospitality.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation Registration Open Now: 2022-2023 School Year

The Faith Formation offerings at St. John's are always evolving and growing. Together with our team of dedicated Catechists, we aim to have many opportunities to engage our families to grow in their faith and in the sacramental life of our Catholic Church. Our PreK-12th grade offerings begin in the Fall and continue through the Spring. Registration is now open with registration forms available to print at our website, Parish Office, or Narthex of the church. Registration for the upcoming year is open through August 15th to give us time to have adequate Catechists in place and materials ordered to support the program. Below is a summary of what we plan to offer in the Fall. For more information, feel free to contact Natalie Campbell at natalie@sjecc.com.

TRUTH TO INSPIRE: ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, otherwise known as the "Lily of the Mohawks," became our first Native American Saint after her canonization in 2012. During her life, young Kateri suffered much ridicule due to her counter-cultural decision to remain a virgin out of love for Christ. As we celebrate Kateri's feast day today, enjoy this short audio book that describes Kateri's journey to Our Lord within the context of her native tribe.
