

The Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time - November 6, 2022

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflection with Fr. Tom

In different ways, all three readings of today's Mass deal with the theme of eternal life.

An old and infirm man was living in a shack on the edge of the forest. One winter's morning he got up to find only one meal of porridge left, the fireplace empty, and snow on the ground. He felt like asking God to take him to heaven there and then. However, he managed to summon up a little spirit, and went into the forest to collect firewood.

He collected a large bundle of sticks. Then he put a rope around it and tied a knot. However, when he tried to lift the bundle onto his shoulders, he found that he couldn't even move it. With that a wave of depression swept over him. He looked up to heaven and said, "Lord, take me now. I've nothing left to live for."

In an instant a strapping young man appeared at his side. The stranger introduced himself as the Angel of Death and said, "You sent for me. Well, now that I'm here, what can I do for you?" Quick as a flash the old man replied, "Hey son, would you ever give me a hand with this bundle of sticks."

As we go on in life we become increasingly aware of how fleeting life is, and how precarious is our hold over it. In spite of ourselves we become familiar with the thought of death. But this need not be a negative or morbid thing. In fact, it can be a very positive thing. Thinking about death can result in a true love of life. When we are familiar with death, we accept each day as a gift. And when we accept life bit by bit like this, it becomes very precious.

By facing our mortality we are put in touch with that other life, eternal life, the seeds of which have been planted in our hearts and souls. Death is the passage to a new life, which (as Jesus says in the Gospel) utterly transcends the life we know now. This sounds beautiful, but that doesn't mean it's easy.

Our passage from this world is preceded by many other smaller passages. When we were born we made the passage from life in the womb to life outside the womb. When we went to school we made the passage from life in the family to life in the larger community. Those who have married have made the passage from a life with many options to a life committed to one person. Those who have retired have made a passage from a life of clearly defined work to a life without such work. Each of these passages results in a kind of death but also leads to new life. When we live these passages well, we are preparing ourselves for our final passage.

The thing that best helps us to confront the reality of death is our Christian faith. Faith enables us to face death with courage and hope, because we know we can overcome it in Christ. But the courage and faith of people such as the woman and her seven sons (First Reading) also serve as a powerful example to us who follow them in faith. The martyrs, by their witness to the Spirit, show that life is stronger than the forces of death.

"Proofs" based on the immortality of the soul are not very helpful. For the Christian, the real ground of immortality is fellowship with the risen Lord and with the living God. As Paul says, "God has given us his love and, through his grace, inexhaustible comfort and such sure hope" (Second Reading).

God has made promises to us in Christ which cannot fail, promises which death cannot annul. Our hope of resurrection lies in the power and love of God. Death is not the enemy who puts an end to everything but the friend who takes us by the hand and leads us into the Kingdom of eternal love.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Ukraine Prayer

Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.
We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.
We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.
Amen

Readings for the Thirty-second in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 153

Reading 1

Wis 11:22-12:2

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors."

At the point of death he said: "You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying."

After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing.

After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15

R. (15b) Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Hear, O LORD, a just suit;
attend to my outcry;
hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.

I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God;
incline your ear to me; hear my word.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Keep me as the apple of your eye, hide me in the shadow of your wings.

But I in justice shall behold your face;
on waking I shall be content in your presence.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Readings for the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 2

2 Thes 2:16-3:5

Brothers and sisters:

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified,
as it did among you,
and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people,
for not all have faith.
But the Lord is faithful;
he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.
We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do.
May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

Alleluia

Rv 1:5a, 6b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead;
to him be glory and power, forever and ever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Lk 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying,
"Teacher, Moses wrote for us,
If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother.
Now there were seven brothers;
the first married a woman but died childless.
Then the second and the third married her,
and likewise all the seven died childless.
Finally the woman also died.
Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be?
For all seven had been married to her."
Jesus said to them,
"The children of this age marry and remarry;
but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.
They can no longer die,
for they are like angels;
and they are the children of God
because they are the ones who will rise.
That the dead will rise
even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord, '
the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;
and he is not God of the dead, but of the living,
for to him all are alive."

Hurricane Ian Relief

Bishop Frank J. Dewane and the Diocese of Venice continue to respond to the aftermath of Hurricane Ian as nearly every Parish community has been impacted. If you need help or would like to volunteer, please contact www.catholiccharitiesdov.org. Please visit the Diocese of Venice website for additional information, including how to donate to relief efforts.

Opening: Our God

Water, You turned into wine
Opened the eyes of the blind
There's no one like You
None like You

Into the darkness, You shine
Out of the ashes we rise
There's no one like You
None like You

Our God is greater
Our God is stronger
God, You are higher than any other
Our God is healer
Awesome in power
Our God, our God

Offertory: Your Love is Extravagant

Your love is extravagant
Your friendship, is intimate I feel like moving to the rhythm of your grace
Your fragrance is intoxicating, in our secret place
Your love is extravagant

Spread wide in the arms of Christ, is the love that covers sin
No greater love have I ever known
You considered me your friend
Capture my heart again

Communion: At the Cross (Love Ran Red)

V1: There's a place where mercy reigns
And never dies
There's a place where streams of grace
Flow deep and wide
Where all the love I've ever found
Comes like a flood
Comes flowing down

At the cross, at the cross
I surrender my life
I'm in awe of You
I'm in awe of You
Where Your love ran red
And my sins washed white
I owe all to You
I owe all to You, Jesus

V2: There's a place where sin and shame
Are powerless
When my heart has peace with God
And forgiveness
Where all the love I've ever found
Comes like a flood
Comes flowing down

Bridge: Here my hope is found Here on holy ground
Here I bow down
Here I bow down
Here arms open wide
Here You save my life
Here I bow down
Here I bow

Closing: Holy God We Praise Thy Name

Holy God, we praise thy name.
God of all, we bow before thee.
All on earth your scepter claim;
all in heav'n above adore thee.
Infinite thy vast domain,
everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn, angel choirs above are raising.
Cherubim and seraphim,
in unceasing chorus praising,
fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Salute to WWII Veterans

John Mitchell and his twin brother Jim, enlisted in the United States Navy on May 2, 1945 after only three and a half years at East High School in Akron, Ohio. Their parents received the twins diplomas, as the 18 year old young men were serving their country during the graduation ceremony.

Looking forward to his 100th birthday next June, Boston native Martin Monahan is a joy to speak with and has an infectious smile to all who meet him. After graduation from Boston Latin High School in 1942, Monahan enlisted in the United States Navy as an aviation cadet.

Following eight weeks of Boot Camp at the Great Lakes Training Center, they were sent to San Diego Hospital Corpsman School. The twins learned nursing, pharmacy, first aid, drug use, wound and burn care. Upon completion of the three month course, they became certified Naval Corpsmen.

Both John and Jim were assigned to St. Albans Naval Hospital in Queens, New York City, where they cared for wounded GI's returning home from the war.

Following their honorable discharge in 1947, the twins went to the University of Akron for undergraduate degrees and then to Michigan Law School, graduating in June, 1942. They did everything together, even getting married at a double wedding ceremony in June, 1950 and going into law practice for one year before joining different corporates. Jim passed away in 1995.

John also has an older brother, Charles, a B-17 pilot who was shot down by enemy fire and rescued by the French underground. Charles celebrated his 100th birthday this past July 4th.

Thank you John, for all you did to make the USA a wonderful country. You are a true patriot and a member of the "Greatest Generation."

His two years of naval aviation pilot training took him from Boston to Connecticut, Oklahoma and Texas where he was commissioned as a naval aviator Ensign USNR and received his "Wings" to fly the famed TBM torpedo bomber and qualified as an aircraft carrier pilot.

Assigned was to the "Top Hat Squadron", the first dive bomber squadron in the USN. Anxious to join the fight in the Pacific, Japan surrendered before this member of the "Greatest Generation" could use his skills against the enemy.

Monahan received an honorable discharge in November 1945 and returned to Boston and graduated from Tufts University, where he earned a degree in mathematics and physics and went on to work for GE for 34 years in their jet engine department.

Martin and his wife Anne were married in 1945 and had two children, Martin and Mary Ellen. After 58 years of marriage, Anne passed away in 2003.

Martin resides in Aston Gardens senior living community and can often be seen riding his tricycle to Seed to Table farmers market store with an American flag on the basket.

Thank you for your service to our country Martin, you are a true patriot of the USA.

A Prayer for Veterans Day

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength.

May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.
